Of all the Englishmen who drink gin... how many drink Gordon's?
Most of them. And it's been that way for years. To be blunt about it, Gordon's is England's biggest selling gin—as it is America's and the world's.
Why? Probably because we have always refused to tamper with a good thing. Gordon's still harks back to Alexander Gordon's original formula—conceived in London 193 years ago—so its distinctive dryness and flavour remain unchanged and unchallenged to this day. Ask for Gordon's by name at your favourite tavern and package store.

BALTIMORE AFTER DARK
On the TOWN
with the Pub Crawler

A couple moons back, we reprinted here rave notices garnered by three native road — Hrman, Carroll and Jerry Hill. You know hm sons while they were on the road — Herman, Carroll and Jerry Hill. You know hmm better as the Jolly Jax, who opened up at the Casino Tuesday.

They are swinging from the hilt!

This seven we are equally pleased to relay what is happening to a native daughter who has taken her tremendous talents beyond our borders to neighboring hilly.

She is Miss Ethel Ennis, mainstay at Red Fox.

This is what the critics had to say about her opening at the Three Chefs:

"THE GIRL, from Baltimore, who was the vocalist with Benny Goodman's band at the Brussels Fair and among jazz buffs with her first record some five years among jazz buffs with her first record some five years ago, has much of the heat of Peggy Lee and the verve of Ella Fitzgerald in her work.

"Her voice is solid and she employs it to maximum effect, heightening all of her numbers with warm and swingy phrasing and a commanding sense of rhythm. She can be as mellow with a lovely ballad as she is rambunctious with an upbeat tune.

"... in semi-retirement, Miss Ennis has been working only around her home city. With this engagement, she launches a new bid for national recognition. Certainly she deserves it!"

Them's some mighty purty words about a mighty purty-singing girl and what's more, they're true!

IN THE MIDST of this white-hot political campaign, it's sorta swinging to see so many nite people intensely interested in the political life of the city.

The past few darks have seen cocktail parties, get-acquainted gatherings and other fete-a-feles being thrown for the benefit of the candidates.

And that was a nice one given for Mrs. Verda F. Welcome and running mates, Clarence M. Mitchell and Murray Abramson at Red Fox Sunday.

Hosted by Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, it starred Miss Ennis and Jimmy Wells' Continentals, and emceed by Jacques Leeds (Ethel's husband man and assistant Attorney General), nearly 200 people lived it up while pledging to do all they know to send our favorite people to Annapolis.

Frank Menon, from the Cook school, takes over as both star and manager of Jay-Bee's over East Baltimore way, 2016 Harford Rd.

Lillian Curley, a peppourer, took down all the marbles in the NNLB's Party Nite Contest.

She won a $300 wardrobe and an all-expense trip to Atlantic City for the NNLB convention, Nov. 5, 6, and 7.

CHUCK RICHARDS has a nice arrangement at the Play-Pen atop the Linden Lounge. Men of taste find it rather cozy there. You should check Chuck for details.

Howard Dixon, who normally devotes his time to operating the Comedy, is now wrapped up in politics.

He's in there plugging for the Fourth District's favorite lady.

New Colony, Adams's Cocktail Lounge, Knotty Pine, Bamboo, Alpine Villa, North End, the Avenue, Jones Lounge, Dotson's, White Elephant Carnival Lounge, Maceo's, and Kleeco are ideal stopping off spots for the upcoming weekend, but remember:

GET OUT IN TIME TO VOTE ON ELECTION DAY!

Dr. King speaks at A.U. forum

Memphis leader to speak at Yale

MEMPHIS — (ANP) — Lt. George W. Lee has accepted an invitation to speak at Yale University in New Haven, Conn., Oct. 30.

Lee is the first colored person from this area to speak at Yale. He has long been an Old Guard Republican leader, an executive of Atlanta Life Insurance Co., and is well known as an author and speaker.

His subject will be "Secret Deals and Their Influence on Race Relations." His talk will be sponsored by the Christian Association at Yale.

Tan cagers stand out as Baltimore greets pros

A 38-point collaboration between veteran Hal Greer and rookie Chet Walker helped the Syracuse Nats to defeat the St. Louis Hawks, 126-108, as professional basketball made its debut here Wednesday night at the new Civic Center.

Greer chalked up 21 points for the winners and Walker, All-American from Bradley University, hit for 17.

THE VICTORY for the Nats preserved their first-place tie in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association. Along with the world champion Boston Celtics, Greer, Walker, et al. are showing a 4-1 record for the young season.

High-point individuals for the evening were St. Louis Bob Pettit with 29, and Syracuse's Jim Kerr with 24.

ST. LOUIS, though aided by ex-Tennessee State star John Barnhill's 20 tallies, trailed throughout.

Barnhill is in his first year in the NBA, after two seasons of play with the Cleveland Pipers of the American Basketball League.

Zelmo Beaty, highly-regarded 6-foot-9, 235-pound rookie from Prairie View was only moderately impressive. He hit two field goals but bagged only five of ten free throws a relatively poor percentage for the pros.

OVER 5,000 persons — 4,912 of whom paid — greeted the initial promotion of the 7-game slate.

The second game of the series is scheduled for Nov. 15, when Washington-born Elgin Baylor leads the Los Angeles Lakers here for a meeting with the Nats, who currently are second in the NBA Western Division standings—LACY.
