Ethiopia prepares for summit meeting

ADDIS ABABA — (ANP) Ethiopia's Acting Foreign Minister, Ato Ketema Yifru, just returned from heading his country's delegation in the 17th Session of the General Assembly, told newsmen that an all - African summit meeting will take place here next spring.

Addis Ababa has been preparing in a big way for this African Summit. Hotel accommodations, it is estimated, will have to be trebled to provide minimum space for over 30 heads of states and their delegations, observers, the pres and others.

BALTIMORE AFTER DARK on the TOWN with the Pub Crawler

Normally this space is devoted to spotlighting the highlights of entertainment for adults only.

But this week we detour to give a deserved nod of recognition to another group of important people — youth.

That's our introduction to the "Y Carnival of Stars" on tap at Douglass High School 8 p.m. on Nov. 15.

For tre third successive year the Y's Planning Committee, headed by Harold J. Jennifer Jr., has come up with the most sparkling array of talent — amateur and professional — ever assembled on a single stage.

• • •

USING PRIOR performances as a measurement, it goes without question that this year's production will be sensational.

The carnival, under the paternal guidance of Mr. Jennifer and youth-interested citizens, has been established as an annual highlight of the fall season.

Other committee members are Charles (Chuck) Richards, producer; Mrs. Nikki Randolph, director;

Also James E. Deakins, Joseph Lee, executive secretary, Druid Hill Y; Edgar F. Allen, William Perry, William A. Stanford, Dr. Louis E. Harmon, Wiley Daniels, Lew. is J. Brown, Ernest E. Barnes, Edward Z. Watson, James R. Hite, Kelson Fisher, Richard Cummings, Henry G. Parks Jr., Charles P. Howard Jr., Walter J. Freeman, Samuel Wilson, and John Henderson.

Look at some of the acts they have put together:

Dottie Mach, exotic interpretative dancer; Marjorie Schaeffer, exciting jazz singer; Joe Filadelfia, beautiful tenor voice; Al Brown and his Tune Toppers, the best local band around;

Also the Arena Players, that well known and well loved bunch of theatre-in-the-flesh troupers; the Cherry Hill Modern Dancers, Arnold Berns, Flamenco and Jazz dancer;

• • •

THE MORGAN State College Gymnasts, Bob McPherson's Judo Stars, the Kadets of America, Druid Hill Fitness Club, Phyllis Harris, contralto; Four Knights and a Lady, instrumental quintet from Morgan;

Tap Dancers from School No. 145; Benny Barksdale, Douglass Hi versatile saxophonist and vocalist;

The Cahill Royalettes, girl singers who organized as a result of the recreation program at the Cahill Center.

These and many, many more young entertainers who'll fascinate, delight and amuse you while running through their routines.

The important thing to remember here is the fact that this event not only guarantees topnotch entertainment, but represents a big moment in the live of entertainers — young and old — who have gone all out to please you, the patron.

We only ask one thing — give the pleasure of your appearance, they have earned it.

It'll give you great satisfaction knowing that you have offered a bit of encouragement too some of the brightest stars of tomorrow's entertainment world.

• • •

GUIDING THIS excursion into the world of delight will be some of the best known radio voices on the local scene, the aforementioned Chuck Richards, Eddie Morrison, Paul (Pat Daddy) Johnson, and Sparky Mullins.

You won't want to miss this one. We're not going to.

PRO GRID ROUNDUP:

John Henry Johnson, four Cowboys share spotlight

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — Fullback John Henry Johnson was the big story in the National Football League Sunday, as he led the Pittsburgh Steelers to a 39-31 victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

Johnson scored two touchdowns, set up another by rookie Joe Womack and paved the way for still another score — a 32-yard field goal by Lou Michaels.

• • •

JOHNSON'S TD's were both 2-yard thrusts at the Viking line. His part in the Womack 6-pointer was a 14-yard bolt up the middle to the Minnesota 3, from which point Joe took it over.

John Henry's other big contribution was a 23-yard run that made up most of two successive penalties and placed the ball squarely in front of the goal posts for Michaels' placement.

The Vikings got two touchdowns from end Charlie Ferguson. He caught a 19-yard pass from quarterback Fran Tarkenton for the first. Then the ex-Tennessee State star latched onto a 59-yard pitch for the last Minnesota TD.

• • •

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Aided by four touchdowns by their tan riders, Dallas played it like the movies here Sunday before the largest crowd in professional sports history.

The cowboys licked the Indians.

Helping to swell the victory margin to 38-10 were halfback Frank Clarke, the National Football League's leading scorer; fullbacks Amos March and J. W. Lockett and rookie halfback Amos Bullocks.

Clarke's grab of a 14-yard pass was anti-climactic in that it furthered the doom of the Redskins, who were hoping belted from first place in the Eastern Division of the NFL race.

• • •

JUST THE same, it marked the 12th touchdown of the season for Frank, one more than has been tallied by Washington's exciting Bobby Mitchell.

Marsh got across on a 14-yard pitch from quarterback Eddie LeBaron. He also broke away for a 70-yard run that touched off Don Meredith's TD pass to Lockett on the next play.

Bullocks' tally was a 4-yard plunge that came at the end of a 70-yard cattle drive by the Texans.

SAN FRANCISCO — The Baltimore Colts, licking their wounds after a tremendous, but losing effort, against the world champion Green Bay Packers, rebounded to topple the San Francisco 49ers here Sunday, 22-3.

Lenny Moore, playing his second full game of the season after an exhibition injury sidelined him for seven weeks, tallied the initial touchdown of the afternoon.

Until the all-pro Baltimore halfback went in with a 6-yard toss from John Unitas, there had been only two field goals — one by each side — and a safety to set up a baseball halftime score of 5-3.

LENNY WAS the lone tan scorer in the contest, but two Forty-Niner discards, fullback Joe Perry and halfback R. C. Owens, made life miserable for their ex-mates throughout the afternoon.

Perry contributed several key gains on third-down situations to help retain possession of the ball for the Colts, and R. C. performed in similar fashion, snatching Unitas passes for saves of the same nature.

The holding of Frisco's J. D. Smith in check was undermore defense has had much niable proof that the Baltimore's ability to do with what little success the team has enjoyed this year.

Smith, former A and T College line-crasher, was all over the field in Baltimore three weeks ago when the 49ers throttled the Colts.

• • •

NEW YORK — A 63-yard kickoff return by Rookie halfback Johnny Counts paved the way for the New York Giants to run out a 31-28 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals and take over first place in the Western Conference of the NFL, Sunday.

Counts, fleet freshman half back from Illinois, contributed the spectacular run to a surge that enabled the Giants to go in front of the pesky Cardinals — a team which twice beat New York here the past two seasons.

• • •

CLEVELAND, Ohio — Tan athletes accounted for three of the four touchdowns scored by the two teams here Sunday, as the Cleveland Browns and Philadelphia Eagles battled to a 14-14 tie.

Fullback Clarence Peaks and halfback Tim Brown tallied for Philly, and halfback Charley Scales got over for Cleveland.

Peaks scored on a 22-yard sweep to open the scoring and put the Eagles ahead, 7-0. The marker came shortly after Cleveland's Jim Brown had fumbled on his own 35.

The Eagle lead was erased early in the second quarter when Scales drove over for the Browns from 5 yards out.

Tim Brown added his TD—a 5-yarder — in the third period to regain the advantage for Philadelphia, but the Browns were saved when Frank Ryan raced in from 9 yards out on a quarterback keep in the final minutes.

SAN DIEGO, Cal. — Three conversions by Gene Mingo proved the margin of victory enjoyed by the Denver Broncos as they whipped the San Diego Chargers, 23-20, Sunday—SAM LACY.

Title-hungry Bear eleven aims to clinch on 2 wins

RALEIGH, N.C. — The title seeking Morgan State College Bears here to engage Shaw University, this weekend are set on treating the second division Bears just as we would treat any other team."

ELGIN BAYLOR

Elgin Baylor, Lakers slate Baltimore tilt

The Los Angeles Lakers, who missed by two points becoming the world basketball champions last year, are slated to play here next Thursday night in the new Civic Center.

Led by the fabulous Elgin Baylor, the Lakers take on the Syracuse Nats in a regularly scheduled National Basketball Association game. Two weeks ago, the Nats whipped the St. Louis Hawks, 126-108, on the Civic Center floor.

A product of a Washington (DC) high school, Spingarn, Elgin is a big favorite in this area. Aside from being a two-time college All-American, he has been named on the all-pro team the past two seasons.

• • •

EIGHT COLORED players will be seen in action in the tilt Thursday. With Baylor will be rookies Leroy Ellis and Gene Wiley, and former Syracuse and Cleveland Pipers star Dick Barnett.

The Nats will take the floor with veterans Hal Greer and Joe Roberts and rookies Chet Walker of Bradley, and Porter Meriwether of Tennessee State.

Admitting to a bad case of "title fever," coach Earl Banks said the team intends to ignore Shaw's poor season record and "play ball just as if Shaw had the best record in the conference."

• • •

"IF WE want to remain title contenders, we have to win the last two games — Shaw this Saturday, and Virginia State on Thanksgiving Day. In games of this type, season records just don't mean anything, and we intend to play with this in mind."

Record-wise, Shaw doesn't seem to promise the Bears real trouble. The North Carolina have not won a game this season.

• • •

BUT EVEN record - wise, Virginia State looks tough. State was the first team to upset Virginia Union. She did it Saturday before last, prior to Morgan's victory over the Panthers.

The Trojans have been the Bears' perennial Thanksgiving Day rival since 1935. In their early battles, the CIAA championship almost always hung on the outcome of the game.

If Morgan gets past Shaw successfully, this year's Bear - Trojan game, to be played Nov. 22 at Petersburg, will again decide the conference champion.
