Foreigners sample U. S. Thanksgiving

with Lula Jones Garrett

"Twas a gay holiday at the home of Gwendolon and John de Cecilio when they gathered a group to dine at their heavily - laden festive board.

Groaning (joyfully, at the calories amassed with both pumpkin and potato pies ending the feast) were:

Benjajmin Piper and wife, Dr. LaGora; Mrs. Roselle Moulson, foreign student advisor at Howard University; Monsieur Ernest Masakala, minister of health for the Congolese government;

Also Monsieur Frederic Bongo, professor at Le Lycee and pre-medical stiliam; Delores Scott, Bruey Hamilton, Grace Scott, Guinevere Spencer, Edith Davidson, Bernice Jackson, Otyce Froe, Hilda Higgins and Ida Smith.

THE LAWYERS' WIVES were in a serious preholiday planning mood when they met recently in Shirley Hargrove's Ellamont Road home.

They were guests of Mrs. Hargrove, Catherine Greene and Gwendolyn Howard . . . with Mrs. Howard at home battling a case of influenza.

The group has on its calendar, a fun-culture-fund raising fare, including a Christmas concert, an art show and a benefit theatre party. The latter will finance their scholarship project.

Assisting President Anna Williams in completing the plans were Margaret Koger, Audrey Sexton, Zaldee Koger, Clarice Parrish, Bernice Buckner, Shirley Pinkett, Rosa Murray, Ruth Rosedom, Sarah Bundy, Florence Bailey, Ann McAlister and the hostesses.

SIGMAN GAMMA RHO sorors rounded out their Founder's Week with a busy week end.

On Friday night their Public Meeting was held at the YWCA with Sorror Betty Wilbert as the guest speaker. Mrs. Wilbert, a June graduate of the Winston Salem Teachers College and currently teaching in Harrisburg, Pa. delighted the audience with talk on her recent trip to South Central Africa with Operations Crossroads and her experiences in Nyasaland and Mirobi.

Sorors Emily Hucles Cralle, Ivora King Evans and Catherine McMechen Wilson were honored as founders of the local chapter, Alpha Alpha Sigma and presented with corsages.

Prior to the public meeting induction ceremonies were held for the Rhoer Club and the newly inducted girls were pinned.

A social hour followed with the guest enjoying refreshments from a tabled bedecked with beautiful flowers.

On Saturday Christy Anne Berryman and Catherine Harris were initiated into the Beta Tau Chapter of Morgan State College and honored at a luncheon held at Wilson's Restaurant. They were the recipients of many gifts.

Sorors participating were Carolyn M. Robinson, basileus; Julia Medley, Pauline Butler, Catherine Montgomery, Hortense Franklin, Dorothy Howard, Catherine Royston, Lillie Strothers, Catherine Hogan, Eliza Diggs, Alice Carroll, Dorothy Riley, Patelle Green, Senia Lynch, Elsie Sewell, Margaret Dorsey, Janice Evans, Vivian Stanfield, Evelyn McClurry and Betty Wilbert.

The sorors worshipped together at Union Baptist Church on Sunday.

CHI ETA PHI Sorority (Gamma Chapter) recently celebrated Founder's Day at The Elegante Room, Forest Park Ave.

The Nurses' Sorority was founded by Mrs. Aliene Carrington Ewell, on Oct. 16, 1932 in Washington, D.C.

The aim of the organization is "Service For Humanity." Prior to a luncheon rededication services were held. Following the ceremony, the sorors joined guests for luncheon in the large dining room.

Mrs. Edna O. Campbell, principal of school No. 130, gave an inspiring address centered around "The Nurse In The Space Age."

A token of appreciation was given by Soror Hazel Irene Baily, charter member of the chapter.

Mrs. Mabel V. Hawkins is basileus of Gamma chapter.
