Pearlie's Prattle

By PEARLIE COX HARRISON

WASHINGTON — "Come to Brunch Sunday at Noon," said Nettie G. Daniote. I'd like you to dine with the bride and bridegroom."

"Twas church time, of course, so had to miss the Benediction, and also the thrill I get hanging around till the last member leaves the church.

Being honored were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Donaldson. Just the day before (Saturday, November 24, they had stood in Asbury Methodist Church and vowed to love and cherish "till death do us part.")

REV. JAMES D. FOY, pastor of the church, officiated. And Mark Fax, Asbury Organist and member of the Faculty of the School of Music of Howard University furnished the music.

The bride, Miss Shirley Douglas of New York, wore a long, bouffant, lace and organza gown. Her short, laced-edged veil was held in place by a crown from which hung lovely pearl tear-drops. And her bouquet was of roses and carnations.

Attending the bride was her sister, Dr. Florence Douglas McFarlene whose dress was pale green in hue and harmonized beautifully with the gold - toned dresses of the bridesmaids, Misses Geraline and Tressa Elvy, cousins of the bride from New York City.

The flower - girl was Sandra Fraser.

A reception followed at Omega House, 13th and Harvard St., N.W. A special feature thereof was the reading of a tribute to the couple wired by the bride's god-father, Walter Blair, too ill to come from New York for the wedding.

On hand from New York were Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Douglas, parents of the bride, also other relatives and friends.

Mrs. George Donaldson, mother of the bridegroom, was present from Nassau. The newly-weds, who met two years ago at school are juniors in the school of Medicine at Howard University.

The bride is a registered nurse; and the bridegroom a musician who furnished music for the Duke and Duchess of Windsor when the Royal couple lived in Nassau.

But back to the Brunch. Since 'twas Thanksgiving time, wedding time and near-Christmas time, Miss Davis had ample chances to make of her menu and table setting an extra - colorful display. And she did. Not only on account of the season but because the bride had lived in Miss Davis's home and the kindly Nettie has been much, much like a mother to her.

The bride's sister, Dr. McFarlene, also knows the charm of the Davis home, as do other young women, some of whom resided there till graduation time or until they married. Three young charmers live there today, Miss Wautenia Nash of Lynchburg, among them.

And how Miss Davis does struggle to make her home attractive! Modern pieces as well as antiques make upthe furnishings. And flowers, you wouldn't want to see lovelier ones. Cut flowers in the living - room; African violets sunning in the dining-room window; a dozen vines, some the flowering kind, keeping warm in the closed-in back porch; and roses growing in the long back yard.

WASHINGTON

JUST PEOPLE: Was absolutely mute with envy to see card from the Karl Gregorys (Budget Bureau whiz and 30-yearold Ph.D. from Detroit) who are in Jamaica(oh, to see those Blue Mountains from the airport) heading for Haiti (to have hot Haitian coffee sitting on the patio of the Villa Creole); Santo Domingo, Puerto Rico, Antigua, and St. Kitts. Jamaica will be a real homecoming for Karl as he grew up in Kingston before he entered school in Detroit...

Mrs. McCrary, mother of Ruth Dailey back in Detroit after her daughter's phenomenal recovery from surgery . . . kudos to Louise Moss, prexy of the Tall Girls who delivered the club's annual Thanksgiving basket promptly after that able Democrat woman of Southeast, and a Central Committee member, Willie Hardy gave her a needy family's name...Freedmen's was just as busy with Thanks baskets; their School Of Nursing donated theirs as usual...

* * *

MRS. LEON HARDY (nee Barbara King) of the Petworth Elementary School busy with her new infant; happy to hear about my childhood friend. Contrary to those stories about childhood romances, hers with Leon is true. He really did pull her braids at Morgan Elementary School. And how she did hate him for it!

THE WILLIAM FOWLERS who have two handsome sons Claude and John, were entertaining Bill's family from Ohio for Turkey Day... Ruth Micheaux and hubby headed for Virginia for their big Turkey day, and were back for the Washington Alumnae chapter's (Delta Sigma Theta) concert for Louise Parker at Cramton. Miss Parker will appear in D.C. again on Dec. 30 at the National Gallery. Don't miss this delightful Philadelphian.

JUGS (Just Us Girls) will have Christmas goodies for sale at Mrs. Claytor's at 4821 Blagden Ave., N.W. Sat., De c., Sat., Dec. 1. . . Natalie Hinderas, Pearl Williams Jones, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Smallwood Williams here from Philly for the Parker concert; the Williamses' physician for his Philly Practice . . . Far East Democrat Club (John Sultan, the architect is Prexy) distributed 15 baskets of food for Thanksgiving . . .

ANNA PITT spent Turkey Day holding hands at Providence Hospital where Percy will be for a few more days. She then went off to visit her pretty sister-in-law, Helene of Howard's School of Social Work and her famous brother, Sam Westerfield of the Treasury Department...Dr. Montague bb in Chicago on NMA business . . .

Delores La Fall (nee Pawley) will marry Clinton Dickerson in Rankin Chapel on Dec. 8 . . .Peggy Hamer Darden infanticipating...Harry Parsons, American Airlines salesman (a brother) now staying at the National Hotel...the Howard Jenkinses' and Elsie Williams among others who will head for Boston Dec. 7 weekend to see the Rt. Rev. John M. Birgess becomes another "first" in Mass. diocese.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Austin (Daco) happy over their Navy son being home for Thanksgiving...Sam Z. Westerfield Jr. had a great birthday party according to the late teen circles here in town...Mrs. Harold Lewis in California visiting her engineer son, daughter-in-law and grandbaby...Rufus Wells, formerly AFRO-AMERICAN in New York covering the Arden House Conference for USIA...Dennis Askey of same agency has new post with more money. Happy news for a capable fellow...

AN INTERESTING story is circulating around one of the federal agencies about the clerk who was able to get her raise, a pat on the back from her division chief for a job well done, but was not given her ramspeck because her immediate supervisor gave her two points for inefficiency. And the reason?—

Her supervisor thought she was interested in the same fellow that she's (the supervisor) interested in!

While the G-Girl is sad about the entire affair she can laugh, for the guy in the middle is happily married, and not interested in either one of them!

Said the forlorn G-Girl, "Now, when I go to Novena I pray for all sick, insecure, and jealous women!"

SHE'S ENGAGED

By Ida Murphy Smith

MISS MINNIE L. ROGERS

Mrs. Amine M. Gaymon of Pierson, Fla., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Minnie Lillian Rogers, to Jerome Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson.

Miss Rogers graduated from Howard High School, Wilmington, Del., class of 1958. She was a 1958 Debutanta sponsored by Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. She is a senior at Coppin State Teachers College.

She is also the cousin of Mr. and Mrs. John Fuller Jr. (Bernita) and has made her home with them since coming to Baltimore.

Mr. Wilson graduated from Douglass High School and Baltimore Junior College. He has done further study at McCoy College of Johns Hopkins University.

At present he is employed by the Martin Company in the area of missile controls and works in Okinawa.

The wedding is planned for Dec. 22 at Douglas Memorial Community Church, the Rev. Marion C. Bascom officiating.

1962 DEBUTANTE — Miss Rita June Hines was introduced recently at a debutante cotillion in Brooklyn, N.Y.
