BALTIMORE AFTER DARK
On the TOWN
with the Pub Crawler

Occasionally we listen to gripes from various corners of the neon Jungle Club operators, patrons, or anyone who has a legitimate beef.

Although in varying degrees, also getting ready for the big push are New Colony, Dotson's, Jones, Alpine Villa, Knotty Pine, Carnival, East Side, Comedy Club, Linden Lounge Maceo's, and Adams. You know the Jolly Season is upon us!

This week it's an operator's turn. Although he's concentrating on personal experiences, it's dollars to dough - nuts his views are shared by other clubmen:

"Minors are giving me a fit," he said. "Frankly, I don't believe they intend to, but they do.

"I know it gives a minor a sense of conquest when he or she can forge false identification cards, lie about his age and get served. If it ended there, the whole thing would be harmless . . .

"But what happens when the man comes in . . . trouble and lots of it!"

THIS IS a step-by-step account of what happened to the owner when one of his waitresses served a minor who sneaked in:

"I was arrested, and so was the waitress and the minor. We were taken to the station where I had to post bail for myself and the waitress. Since we were grabbed around midnight, I had to go back to close up. I finished around 3 a.m.

"I went home to get a little sleep, but when you are scheduled to appear in court at 9 a.m. how much sleep can you get, especially when you are thinking about bondsman's and lawyer's fees?

"In court the judge finds you guilty because whether you intended to or not, you've served a minor and it's against the law.

"Depending on the circumstances the judge can be either tough or lenient, but you're guilty and you take your punishment. But you aren't finished.

"In no time flat you'll get an invitation to visit the Liquor Board! And they frown on you not honoring their invitations.

"If you don't have a good explanation you are given a suspension. But here is the rub.

"Do they suspend you on the slow nights, like Monday Tuesday or Wednesday? Never!

"If the suspension is for a few days, it usually falls on the weekends. If it's more than a few days, this becomes academic.

"But what happens when you try to use double caution and check thoroughly? You can get insulted and swear never to return.

"How can you WIN?"

IT'S A good question and we hope that minors who are prone to this sort of thing read this.

They have something to lose, too. They not only wind up with a jail record, but work hardships on parents and relatives who must scrape up precious dollars for fines and lawyer fees. And frankly it isn't worth.

Besides, be patient! If you stick around you're bound to get old enough. Otherwise, you don't have time to spend in night clubs anyway!

DATES TO REMEMBER Dec. 6, when the fabulous Duke Ellington graces the concert stage at Polytechnic Auditorium to star for the Fellowship House benefit.

It's going to be a good thing for a good cause, and you make sure you and all your friends are there.

Dec. 8 which rings in "An Evening with Sammy Davis," at the Stanton Theatre, 516 N. Howard St. —

The incomparable "Mr. Show Biz" and his troup, including Pat Henry and Sy Oliver and orchestra, will give two shows 8:30 and 11:30 p.m. It's gonna be a gasser!

Dec. 9 is the day of the "Show With a Heart." That's the AFRO's annual concert at Poly to raise desperately needed money for the Mrs. Santa Fund.

You must know by now that Mrs. Santa, through the goodness of your hearts, brings a ray of hope and bit of joy to hundreds of young hearts at Christmas time.

According to letters already received from destitute families, the need will be greater this year than at any time in the five - year history of the Mrs. Santa project.

As in the past the Crawler is counting on you who enjoy the good life to show the less have to face a bleak Yuletide because you have a heart!

If you think last year's concert was something and it was you ain't seen nothing yet!

This year the Senior Choir from Salem Methodist Church of New York is returning. What's more it is bringing the Junior Choir. And there will be a special guest star yet.

What a lovely way to spend a Sabbath afternoon while showing others you care because you have HEART!

WITH THE CLUBS Phyllis Rogers, the pert songbird subbing for Ethel Ennis at Red Fox, is doing one whale of a job. We should be hearing much about her when she returns from visiting hubby in Europe over the holiays.

As usual Walter Thomas, Kleeco's Tall Man, got the jump on St. Nick. You should see the pretty decorations!

Week in Records

CHICAGO (ANP) — A musical dish of classicals and jazz that constitutes music for listening is presented in this column for those record lovers who will no doubt follow through over the weekend with their Thanksgiving fireside sessions.

Assuming then that music will dominate the home scene during and following Thanksgiving holiday, this review is recommending three wrazings for your listening pleasure. Here is the Fare:

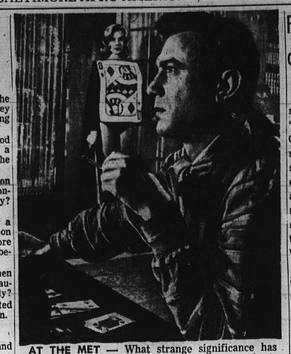
"BRUCKNER — Symphony No. 7: WAGNER — Siegfried Idyll:" — Angel Records (S-36038). Personnel: Philharmonia Orchestra, Oto Klemperer, conductor.

The Philharmonia orchestra under the baton of Klemperer plays delightfully if not superbly on this tracts, particularly on Buckner's symphony .

Battle Records waxe

NEW YORK — Battle Records has announced the signing of the Rev. Cleophus Robinson to the label's growing roster of top gospel talent.

The Rev. Mr. Robinson's first Battle album, "Grace Made A Change," was released this week.



AT THE MET — What strange significance has the Queen of Diamonds? In "The Manchurian Candidate," now at the Met Theatre, through United Artists release, Frank Sinatra and Laurence Harvey find its bizarre influence the key to th fantastic adventure in which they are both involved. Janet Leigh also stars in the exciting filmization of Richard Condon's controversial novel.

Free showings set of 'drop-out' film

WASHINGTON

The U. S. Labor Department's award - winning film, "When I'm Old Enough, Goodbye," dealing with school dropouts and already seen by an estimated audience of 20 million, is available for free bookings through most of the State Employment Services across the Nation, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz announced.

Out of 275 entries in the San Francisco International Film Festival, "When I'm Old Enough, Goodbye" placed second in the "Government Films for General Information" category.

Baltimore County News

By DORIS ADAMS

The setting was the Madison Avenue YWCA. Drawing the admiring glances were sorors of Iota Chapter, Lambda Kappa Mu Business and Professional Women's sorority as they entered.

New soror, Margaret Yates, vice-principal at Bragg Elementary Sparrows Point reported on the LKM regional conference held at Brooklyn's Hotel Granada.

Lutherville's Bertha Sembly, 6th grade teacher at Fleming Elementary, reported on the success of her committee's unique Stay-At-Home Tea.

Towson's Arabella Ross, Bragg teacher, clarified the social committee's plans for the Christmas social.

Theodosia Owens, Fleming vice principal sophisticatedly garbed and charming as ever, greeting sorrors.

And all sorors, happy to see efficient and dynamic basileus Susie B. Myles, presiding. (Susie recently was hospitalized but is now back on her Social Security job and attending sorority duties.) . . .

AFTER THE business meeting, the Thanksgiving Inspirational Services were held. Prayer was given by soror Mary Silva, a musical interlude by Sollers Point teacher, Elizabeth Day, and a solo by Mrs. Edythe Merritt.

The Rev. George E. Henry, pastor at Fountain Baptist Church gave the Thanksgiving message.

Sorors who arranged the lovely Thanksgiving Services were Alice Dodson, Bertha Goodman, Mary Silva and Margaret Yates.

Attending the meeting were Susie Myles, Gladys Baird, Bertha Sembly, Ethel Covington, Myrtle Jones, Vera Greig, Louise Anderson, Frankie Henchen, Margaret Yates, Fannie Ewell, Alma Reeder, Hattie Tilghman, Bettye Shelton, Naomi Johnson, Josephine Maxwell and Imogene Douglass

THE BA-CO-TE'S (Baltimore County Teachers) met recently at the beautiful Madison Ave. home of Bea Brown. Bea served a pre-Thanksgiving dinner accompanied by delightful dinner music on her wonderful hi-fi.

Garnering first prize at bridge a beautiful necklace was Bertha Sembly. Dorothy Smith won second prize and Arabella Ross, third.

Enjoying the meeting were Ba-Co-Te's Eva Brooks, Catonsville; Dorothy Smith Fleming; Theodosia Owens, Jeanette Spence, Bertha Sembly, Arabella Ross, Bea Brown and Bea Pitts.

THE CLUBS are really in the news! The Ladies of Today Club recently was entertained by co-hostesses Ethel Days and Doris Adams. The club is very proud of the success of its affair given not too long ago for the benefit of Provident Hospital.

Attending the meeting were LOT'S Mae Lee, Palestina Anderson, Beulah Westcott, Esther Morris, Lucretia Datcher, Meldora Datcher, Vivian Moody, Elizabeth Carter, Ethel Days, Sarah Redmond, Mildred Johnson, Mary Hurley, Sylvia Briscoe, Margret Singletary Doris Adams and Hattie Green.

Guest was Mrs. Hortense Brigh. These gals also made plans for their Christmas party.

While tonight those fabulous Cardians and their guests will be masquerading as gypsys at the Catonsville Armory and dancing to the music of Jimmy Sands.

Hostesses will be Bernice Hall, Beulah Wescott, Bernice White, Margret Peck, Vera Fry, Elizabeth Butler, Vera Taylor, Marian Banks, Louise Butler, Margret Evans, Rose Hawkins, Lollie Hockaday, Maxine Jackson Barbara Jenkins, Harriet Morton, Gloria Sims, Myrtle Smith, Ruth Jenkins, Mary Williams and Janie Wright.

Racing deadline for Pin Classic

Many of the top duckpin bowlers of the East are busy racing the deadline for the 1st annual AFRO Pin Classic, to be held at Baltimore's Forest Park Lanes next weekend.

The 3-day carnival commences on a handicap basis on Friday, with competition for both men and women keglers.

Cash and handsome AFRO trophies are on the line for winners in the AFRO Duckpin Classic. Nearly 200 entries were set for the start of competition Friday.

First place winners will divide $300, with $150 to champ in each division. AFRO trophies also go to the top contestants.

EYES ON CASH AND CUP — Three of Baltimore's most consistent duckpinners race clock in sharpening up for 1st AFRO Pin Classic. At top is Leonard Butler, a standout in three local leagues. At left, lefty Charles Mason shows form that averages out to 110 in league play. And at right, the artistic Jim Brown works to improve his already-fearsome 120 average.

IN THE NBA

Following herewith are colored players with uniform numbers, currently on the rosters of teams in the National Basketball Association:

CATTAIL TORCHES . . . Outdoor youngsters haven't forgotten how bright and how long a cattail soaked in kerosene will burn. Have you?

FASTEN THE foil to the stakes to cover the other three sides. Make a top of small straight sticks and cover it with foil.

Secure top to the four stakes. Foil surfaces reflect heat in creating high, even temperatures with a small, ember fire.
