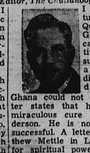
Miracles Did Not Stop With Bible Times

By WALTER C. ROBINSON, Editor, The Chattanooga Observer

Whenever I need a lift I find it refreshing to visit Doc Anderson — an inspired man with God-given gifts — known from Coast to Coast and Overseas as a famous Fortuneteller, Marriage Counselor and Psychic Wonder.

His wall is covered with proof of his miraculous accomplishments, dealing with every kind of problem. That is why people travel thousands of miles for his help, guidance and inspiration. They come with deep - rooted faith because of word of mouth advise from others.



It was interesting to hear of the grandmother who wanted a baby of her grandchildren after her daughter died — a most extremely difficult case, but she has them now. I saw a lady from Louisiana in great pain, hobbled under each arm into Doc's office. In tears she said she suffered from an evil spell. After a short time, she came out smiling, walking without help. It was wonderful. I was reminded of the lady from Virginia. A most remarkable change had come over her and when I asked her to what she owed her success, she called her eyes heavenward and simply said "God and Doc Anderson". His healing touch has restored eyesight, regrown hair, removed evil spells and made people walk.

While there, I met some elderly folks who claimed that Doc had conjured their nature back to youth.

I saw the picture of Alfred Quartey of Accra, Africa in his native robes. He suffered from a serious disease, which doctors in Ghana could not cure. A letter states that he owes his miraculous cure to Doc Anderson. He is now well and successful. A letter from Mathew Mettle in London asked for spiritual power and guidance in his Law examination. He passed successfully.

While there people were phoning Doc constantly for financial blessings because he has so many hits. He is also considered an expert in bringing husbands, wives and sweethearts together, saving many broken homes.

Doc Anderson's world-shaking predictions have been written about in leading newspapers and magazines, and also mentioned on "Meet The Press" program September 30th, 1956, but it would take a book to tell everything about this God-gifted man, who accomplishes miracles through the power of God. I have sent many people to Doc Anderson for his special work. Anyone seeking peace of mind and success I suggest writing DOC R. C. ANDERSON, 302 West Gordon Ave., Rossville, Georgia, or phoning Rossville, Ga., EM - 1-1201. He is truly one man in a million.
