Burroughs guilty of attempted bribery

Joseph Burroughs, 33-year old real estate man, was convicted Thursday of attempted bribery in Baltimore County Circuit Court at Towson.

Judge Albert Menchinel endered the guilty verdict after hearing final arguments from Gerard V. Caldwell, prosecutor, and Milton B. Allen, defense attorney. The final was continued pending the filing of a new trial motion.

Sentence ..was ..withheld

Also convicted were two other men identified as partners in the effort to bribe Baltimore County police for the purpose of setting up a lottery in the Catonsville area. They were:

John Ferguson, 42, 2800 block block Virginia Ave., and John W. Young, 32, unit block Fels Lane, Ellicott City.

They were accused of offering Cpl. Ormand Elliott and Ptl. Lester Bey $300 per month in return for permission to operate a lottery without interference from police.

Mr. Allen contended the plot was engineered by Officer Bey who was badly in need of money at the time to pay court-ordered alimony payments.
