6th District News, Views

By Madeline W. Murphy

The death of Otho P. Pinkett brings many poignant memories to mind, for in Cherry Hill Otho P. Pinkett is sadly mourned.

He, in the early days, was truly the essence of what we old project dwellers would call the loving father, the great counsellor, the mighty voice that raised us from our lethargy, by encouraging us to form veteran's clubs, mother's clubs, tenant councils, recreation councils, volunteer service groups.

From his spirit came the birth of our churches in Cherry Hill, the Coordinating Council, the vote registration campaigns, the petitions for more schools, better streets, and lighting and police protection. To him, a building was there to be used, and man; of us remember being responsible for locking up after our meetings.

Everyone knew Otho Pinkett and he knew everyone. Everyone loved Otho Pinkett and he loved everyone.

When he moved to another project, a body of citizens — project dwellers and private community people petitioned the Housing Authority to keep him here. The authorities said this was the first time they had had a petition from people to keep a manager!

When it was a sure thing that he would leave, people baked cakes, made punch, pooled their meagre resources to give him a gift and farewell party. And what a party! The room was filled with tearful wellwishers.

After Mr. Pinkett left the community, he returned to speak to many gatherings.

He was a good, humane, loving man. As we said at the long, remembered farewell party: "It will be hard for anyone coming after him to fill his shoes."

WELL, I'VE done what I've been threatening to do for the last 10 years... I (my husband that is) plunked down the $25 to file for City Council in the Sixth District.

The phone has been buzzing with calls from well-wishers and volunteers and enough is never enough, for when the calls stop coming, I'll begin to get worried.

Mrs. Irene C. Taylor, 2810 Spelman Rd., has consented to be my campaign and business manager, and now begins the hard work of corralling the votes.

From latest information, your correspondent is the only woman running in the 6th district.

IF WE PUT the welfare of the people first and we pledge ourselves in our neighborhoods to get 10 or more people registered before February 4, and then get them to vote, even if we have to baby sit for them, and drive them, we can show our City Fathers that we want and need representation and that we will have it!

The Sixth District is comfield and Curtis Bay.

We only have January and February to do the job. Tuesday, March 5, is Primary Election.

Call me at EL 5-4810 or EL 5-6860. There is plenty of work to be done.

WE ARE HOPING that the Vote Machine Clinic held at the Housing Project from Jan. 2 to Jan. 4, helped those people who have been confused about how to vote.

This was a joint effort of the 6th District NAACP Vote Registration Campaign and the Cherry Hill Homes Project manager, Van Storey Branch, who with his management aide, Mrs. Fraser, transported the machine and helped to get the volunteers who demonstrated the use of the machine.

This too, is the spirit of Housing in Cherry Hill!

Machen, improved, released by State

SANFRANCISCO, Cal., — Authorities at the Napa State Hospital have released heavyweight boxer Eddie Machen for admittance to a private hospital in this city, it was disclosed on Wednesday.

Machen, according to the report by California medical authorities, has improved sufficiently to grant the request by his family to have him transferred.

Assertedly depressed over financial difficulties, Machen is said to have contemplated suicide on Dec. 19. He was taken to the Napa mental institution as an "acute schizophrenic" and "paranoid."

Ham fits well into economy meal plans

By VIRGINIA L. MCLUCKIE
food economist

There are many good buys in the stores, this week. Look them over as they will fit up to your meal plans.

It is the way you prepare and handle the usual foods that adds the special occasion atmosphere. Buffet meals have become popular for easy entertaining. The buffet may be as simple or as elaborate as you please. It can be served in the morning as breakfast; at noon as brunch or lunch, or if its after dark, call it supper.

For the inbetween times call it snack time or open house when the table can be set for friends dropping in all through the day. Remember a buffet is for four or more persons and it is fun at home for the holiday.

THE MARKET OFFERS a buys for some months. These that fits well into these foods friends. The choice of a fully cooked ham means only heating through and glazing which is simple and easy to do.

If you select a cook before eating type ham allow 20 to 30 minutes per pound for roasting or until a meat thermometer "registers 160 degrees Fahrenheit. Canned hams are considered fully cooked. The glaze should be put on ham during the last half hour of roasting.

ROASTED FRESH PORK is another popular meat for this time of the year. Pork is leaner than ever and the good flavor enhances the appetite appeal of a crusty brown crust. Pork loin roasts or a fresh shoulder are suggested cuts.

Beef, the most popular meat of all, will provide excellent tablefare for the New Year's dinner. If you really want to splurge a prime rib roast with oven brown potatoes will provide great elegance. Many of the less tender cuts that require moist heat cookery can be highly recommended as good buys.

There is a plentiful supply of dairy products and milk for use in meals. The cheese in so many attractive forms is unequaled for dips, spreads and appetizers.

Fruit Muffins

Whether served at breakfast or at least once.

"Fruited Muffins" will hit the spot on a cold day. No trouble to prepare with a packaged mix, they are a delightful blend of the flavors of fresh California dates, blueberries, lemon rind and lemon juice.

Pitting dates is a simple task. Snip along one side with kitchen scissors and flip out the pit. However, to save time, you may buy pitted fresh California dates. They are in produce sections of stores as well as on grocery shelves along with unpitted fresh dates.

FRUITED MUFFINS are made with ½ cup fresh California dates, 1 package (13½ oz.) wild blueberry muffin mix, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ teaspoon grated lemon rind, and ½ teaspoon salt.

Dice dates. Prepare muffin mix according to package directions, adding lemon juice. Spoon into greased muffin pans, filling ½ full. Bake in 400-degree (hot) oven 20 minutes or until golden brown. Remove muffins from pans imfediately and serve warm.

Makes 1 dozen muffins.

Date cookies

Holiday cook-baking won't be complete until you've

The family is bound to delete the supply fast but try to save some of these cookies for friends who drop in during the festive season.

SMALL PIECES of fresh California dates, bits of candied sweet chocolate and chopped candied ginger give these attractive treats unusually distinctive flavor. They would be ideal Christmas gifts for neighbors.

When using fresh California dates in preparing cookies, cakes, candies and stuffed delicacies, remember that they now come pitted in pound and half-pound packages and are found on grocery store shelves as well as in produce sections of stores.

GINGER DATE Crispies require 2 cups fresh California dates, 1/3 cup shortening, 1/3 cup butter or margarine, ½ cup brown sugar, packed; 2 eggs, 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon vanila, cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces and ¼ cup chopped candied ginger.

Cut dates into small pieces. Cream shortening and butter well; beat in brown sugar. Beat in eggs until light. Sift flour, salt and baking powder, together. Stir into butter mixture. Stir in vanila, date pieces, chocolate and ginger.

Makes about 4 dozen cookies.
