As a result of an Agreement heretofore made and executed by and between the said Plaintiff and the said Defendant, it is further ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED as follows:

1. The said Plaintiff shall have the custody of the children during the portion of the year during which the said children shall attend school, that is to say, from September to June, and the Defendant shall have the right during the said months to have the said children visit with him in his home for two weekends during each said month, to wit., the second and fourth weekends in each such month.
2. The said Defendant shall have the custody of the said children for one-half of the Summer Vacation from school, it being the privilege of the said Defendant to select the first one-half of the said Summer vacation, or the latter one-half of the said Summer vacation, at his option. Provided, however, that the said Defendant shall notify the said Plaintiff at least one month prior to the termination of the school year as to which period of the said Summer vacation he elects to take the children.

Should the said Defendant elect to take the said children during the first one-half of the Summer vacation, he shall return the said children to the said Plaintiff at her home, at his own expense, on the 20th day of July of such year; and should said Defendant elect to take the said children during the second one-half of the Summer vacation, he shall return the said children to the said wife on the first day of September of such year.

3. The said Defendant shall pay to the said Plaintiff as and for the support and maintenance of the said children the sum of Twenty($20.00) Dollars per week, during the time that the said children are in the custody of the said Plaintiff, and shall further pay to the said Plaintiff the sum of Ten ($10.00) Dollars per week during the time that the said children are in the custody of the said Defendant.
4. During the Christmas vacation for the year 1962, the said Plaintiff shall have the privilege of having the said children in her custody for the first one-half of the said vacation, and the said Defendant shall have the privilege of having the said children in her custody for the second one-half of the Christmas vacation. Thereafter, the children's Christmas vacation shall be alternated between the Plaintiff and Defendant, that is to say; the said Plaintiff shall have the custody of the said children during the Christmas vacation of 1963, and the said Defendant shall have the custody of the said children during the Christmas vacation of 1964, and thereafter this arrangement shall continue alternately as hereinabove set forth.
5. The Tahanksgiving and Easter vacations of the children shall be spent with the parent who shall have the children in his or her custody upon the weekend during which such vacation occurs.
6. Should the said Defendant elect in any given year to take the children during the first one-half of the Summer vacation hereinabove referred to, it shall be his obligation to see to it that the said children are permitted to attend Vacation Bible Class conducted by the Episcopal Church in the area in which the Defendant shall from time to time be residing.
7. The said Defendant, in addition to the support payments hereinabove provided for, shall maintain in force for the benefit of the said children, the presently existing hospital and medical care insurance policy.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendant pay the costs of these Proceedings.
