JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings and the testimony on December 12, 1994 before the Master for Domestic Relations, it is this 27th day of December, 1994, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ORDERED that the Plaintiff, Sydney R. Moreland be, and hereby is, granted an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, Jean Martin Moreland; and it is further

ORDERED, that the terms of the Agreement dated December 10, 1994, between the parties as to child custody, child support, alimony, property, etc., be and hereby are, incorporated, but not merged, into this Judgment of Absolute Divorce; and it is further

ORDERED, that the parties be, and hereby are granted joint custody of their minor children, namely, Megan, (DON 4/15/77), Khristen (DOB 3/19/78), Ramsay (DOB 9/19/79), Blaise (DOB 10/19/80) and Alexandra (DOB 8/15/83) in accordance with the terms of the aforesaid Agreement; and it is further

DETERMINED that, in light of the current split residential custody of the children, the presumptively correct child support obligation, under the Maryland Child Support Guidelines, of Jean Martin Moreland to Sydney R. Moreland would be Fifty Eight dollars ($58.00) per month; and it is further

DETERMINED THAT:

A. Pursuant to the parties Agreement dated December 10, 1994, that strict application of the Maryland Child Support Guidelines would be inappropriate;

B. Because the Court declines to award child support in this Judgment of Absolute Divorce, the deviation from the Maryland Child Support Guidelines is Fifty Eight Dollars ($58.00) per month; and,

C. These findings serve the best interest of the children, in that, for the ninety day period set forth in the aforesaid Agreement dated December 10, 1994, the Defendant will be able to conserve her financial resources in order to establish a residence wherein the children may reside or visit with her; and it is further

DETERMINED that the Court costs herein be assessed against the Plaintiff.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This matter having been set for a hearing on December 5, 1994 in regard to a Judgment of Absolute Divorce, the parties having come to an agreement and same being set forth on the record, it is this 30th day of January, 1995, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland, hereby

ORDERED that Agnes Cecelia Goddard is granted a Judgment of Absolute Divorce from Philip Jackson Goddard, and it is further

ORDERED that Agnes Cecelia Goddard is granted custody of the minor children to wit:

Melissa Dawn Goddard (Date of Birth: November 12, 1983),

Amanda Nicole Goddard (Date of Birth: June 16, 1985), and

Shannon Emily Goddard (Date of Birth: July 28, 1990), and it is further ORDERED that Philip Jackson Goddard shall be entitled to exercise liberal visitation with the minor children as follows:

1) Every other weekend from 6:00 p.m. Friday to 6:00 p.m. Sunday. The children are to be picked up and returned to their place of residence;

2) Mother's Day is to be spent with mother and Father's Day to be spent with father;

3) The Christmas holiday is to be divided so that one parent has the children from the time school lets out for Christmas vacation until noon on Christmas Day. The other parent shall pick up the children at noon on Christmas Day and shall have them for the remainder of the school vacation. Plaintiff shall have the children for the first part of the Christmas holiday in 1993. Thereafter, the parties will alternate the Christmas visitation schedule.

4) The parties shall have the children on alternate major holidays, other than Christmas as set forth above.

5) Philip Jackson Goddard shall be entitled to extended summertime visitation with the children for a total of five (5) weeks. In calculating the actual five (5) weeks of extended summertime visitation the Plaintiff's every other weekend shall be part of the five (5) weeks of extended summertime visitation; for example, the Plaintiff could pick up the minor children on a Friday when it is his every other weekend and return the minor children two (2) weeks from that Sunday - the Plaintiff would have the minor children for a total of seventeen (17) days but part of this extended summertime visitation would be his normal every other weekend - the Plaintiff would be entitled to an additional eighteen (18) days of extended summertime visitation with the minor children - this does not in any manner or form waive the Plaintiff's right to his every other weekend visitation or any other visitation rights of the Plaintiff during the summer.

a) In regard to this five (5) weeks of extended summertime visitation the Plaintiff shall give the Defendant written notice not later than March 15 of each year. The Defendant shall respond in writing to the Plaintiff not later than April 15 of each year as to any bona fide conflict in schedule. The Plaintiff shall provide the Defendant with a final notice which shall control (unless otherwise modified in writing by consent of the parties) as to the five (5) weeks extended summertime visitation.

6) The children's Thanksgiving Day visitation is to be alternated between the parties with Agnes Cecelia Goddard being entitled to Thanksgiving Day 1993;

7) The Plaintiff shall be entitled to visitation with the minor children at least one (1) evening per week. The parties have designated this evening as Wednesday from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. The Plaintiff is responsible for any homework that the minor children may have that evening. The Plaintiff's right to one (1) evening per week visitation shall not interfere with the Defendant's summer vacation, and it is further

ORDERED that Philip Jackson Goddard shall pay to the Defendant the sum of One Thousand Twenty Nine Dollars and 89/100 ($1,029.89) per month as child support; said sum to be paid through the Bureau of Support Enforcement, 180 Washington Street, Leonardtown, Maryland 20650; and it is further

ORDERED if the Plaintiff accumulates support payments arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, the Plaintiff shall be subject to earnings withholding, and it is further

ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the Support Order is in effect, and it is further

ORDERED that if the Plaintiff fails to comply with the above paragraph, it will subject the Plaintiff to a penalty not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and 00/100 ($250.00) and may result in the Plaintiff's not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding, and it is further

ORDERED that Philip Jackson Goddard shall keep the minor children medically insured at the same or substantially similar level to which they were insured as of April 26, 1992 so long as that medical insurance coverage is available through the Plaintiff's employment. The parties shall be responsible for one half (1/2) of all medical bills for the minor children which are not covered by medical insurance, and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant is granted use and possession of the family home and family use personal property therein for a period of three (3) years effective as of March 18, 1993, and it is further

ORDERED that the parties shall promptly list the family home for sale at the termination of the use and possession period, and each party shall use good faith efforts in regard to the sale thereof. Either party shall have the right to request this Court to appoint a trustee in the event that the other fails to use good faith efforts to sell same, and it is further

ORDERED that upon the sale of the family home and family use personal property the parties shall equally (50/50) divide the net proceeds therefrom. Net proceeds shall be defined as the gross sales price less any deduction for mortgage and reasonable selling expenses, and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall provide to the Plaintiff the following furniture on or before January 5, 1995:

- Master Bedroom Set (4 poster bedroom set)
- Kitchen Set (5 piece), and it is further

ORDERED that each of the parties shall attend and successfully participate in parenting classes at Walden Sierra, and it is further ORDERED that the parties shall equally (50/50) divide the mortgage deduction and property tax deduction in regard to the family home effective as of January 1, 1993 and continuing each and every year thereafter until the termination of the use and possession Order enunciated herein. Each party shall be entitled to claim one half (1/2) of the mortgage interest and property tax on their respective tax return(s), and it is further

ORDERED that the family home shall be defined as follows:

ORDERED that the parties agree that each shall be entitled to one-half (1/2) of their respective marital share of the other's retirement on an if, as and when basis. The Defendant's retirement shall be defined as her Individual Retirement Account (IRA) which had a balance of Seven Thousand Three Hundred Thirty Eight Dollars and 65/100 ($7,338.65) and her Profit Sharing Plan through her employment with Shah Associates, M.D., P.A. which had a balance of One Thousand Two Hundred Dollars and 00/100 ($1,200.00) as of April 26, 1992. The marital share in regard to the Plaintiff's Retirement Plan with PEPCO is limited to Ninety Three (93) months to wit: the numerator in regard to the Bangs formula is Ninety Three (93) months and the denominator shall be determined at the time that the Defendant retires from PEPCO, and it is further

ORDERED that this Court retains jurisdiction to execute any Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) or any other such Order to effectuate this Court Order, and it is further

ORDERED, that notwithstanding the fact that the Maryland Child Support Guidelines would require a child support payment in the amount of $439.56 per month, as indicated by the child support guidelines worksheet submitted by the parties in these proceedings, the Court shall nevertheless decline to order the Defendant to pay child support to the Plaintiff at this time, inasmuch as the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement executed by the parties after extended negotiations provides that the Defendant shall pay no child support, and the imposition of a child support obligation at this time would therefore effectively reduce the value to the Defendant of the Property Settlement Agreement negotiated by the parties; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the terms and provisions of the parties' Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated January 26, 1994, be incorporated but not merged herein; and, it is further

In the manner in which Plaintiff exercises his summer visitation,

Defendant shall have access with the child so she has the child for one-half of the total summer weekends; and it is further

ORDERED, that Plaintiff shall be responsible for all transportation involved in exercising his rights of visitation with the child and he shall be timely in both picking up and returning the child; provided however, on Plaintiff's weekend visitation, Defendant shall meet Plaintiff at the Hollywood Rescue Squad in Hollywood, Maryland on Sundays when Plaintiff returns the child; and it is further

The child support payments shall be made by way of wage lien from Plaintiff's salary through the Bureau of Support Enforcement. Until such time as the wage lien commences, Plaintiff shall pay directly to the Bureau of Support Enforcement the child support herein provided. Defendant waives any claim for arrearages in child support through April 30, 1995. On February 15 of each year, commencing 1996, the parties hereto shall exchange information reflecting all income earned by each of them from all sources for the prior tax year. Thereafter, by March 1 of each year, commencing 1996, the child support obligation of Plaintiff shall be recomputed under the then existing Child Support Guidelines. ORDERED, that the obligor is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the Support Order is in effect; and it is further

ORDERED, that the parties' Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated April 12, 1995 (Plaintiff's Exhibit #1) be and the same hereby is incorporated into this Judgment of Absolute Divorce insofar as the Court has jurisdiction, but not merged herein; and it is further
