Orangey Pumpkin Tarts in high favor as cold weather dessert

Pumpkin Pie is high on the list of favorite winter desserts.

Orangey Pumpkin Tarts have the familiar spicy, pumpkin flavor, and also a subtle touch of orange. Chopped nuts in the filling make these tarts extra-festive fare for holidays.

For added glamour, cut out pastry pumpkins, using a floured cutter or cut around a cardboard pattern with a sharp knife. Bake on a baking sheet, then place on the cooled tarts.

THE RECIPE for Orangey Pumpkin Tarts makes eight tarts, each an ideal individual dessert. Enriched flour in the pastry assures that this dessert will rank high in nutrition as well as flavor. Enriched flour contains added amounts of three important B-vitamins — thiamine, niacin and riboflavin — and the mineral iron.

Pies and other pastries always play an important role in entertaining. If unexpected guests arrive, select attractive, delicious desserts from your baker's or grocer's shelves.

The wide variety is sure to include your family and guests' favorites.

Make Orangey Pumpkin Tarts with 2 cups sifted enriched flour*, 1 teaspoon salt, 2/3 cup shortening, 5 to 7 tablespoons cold water, and Orangey Pumpkin Filling.

Sift together flour and salt. Cut or rub in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle with water, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and press dough together. Roll out to 1/8-inch thickness.

Cut 8 circles from pastry and fit into tart pans. Cut pumpkin shapes with floured cutter from remaining pastry. Pour Orangey Pumpkin Filling into unbaked pastry shells.

BAKE IN very hot oven (450 degrees Fahrenheit) 15 minutes.

Reduce temperature to moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) and continue baking 25 to 30 minutes or until silver knife inserted in center comes out clean. Place pumpkin shapes on baking sheet and bake in very hot oven (450 degrees Fahrenheit) 12 to 15 minutes or until lightly browned.

Arrange pumpkins on top of cooled, baked tarts. *If self-rising flour is used, omit salt.

ORANGEY PUMPKIN Filling requires 1 cup cooked pumpkin, 2/3 cup light brown sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, ¾ teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon ginger, 1/8 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 3/4 cup chopped nuts, 2 eggs, beaten, 2 tablespoons orange juice, ½ teaspoon grated orange rind, and 1 cup hot milk.

Mix together pumpkin, brown sugar, salt, cinnamon, ginger, nutmeg and nuts. Blend together eggs, orange juice and orange rind. Add milk gradually to egg mixture, stirring constantly. Add liquid to pumpkin mixture, stirring until well blended. Pour into unbaked pastry shells.

Makes 8 tarts.

minster theatres, restaurants and other places of business. The athletes themselves — All-Pro chock Lenny Moore, Jim Parker and others — verify these charges.

Walter Carter, CORE chairman, has urged the Baltimore club to take remedial steps as it deems necessary to assure the colored players the same treatment as that granted their white teammates. Carter addressed a letter of protest to the Colts last summer, outlining the desirability of a better racial atmosphere at the team's training base.

THE CORE official was joined by Moore, the club's star halfback, in asserting that the Colts owe it to their players, their fans, and themselves to open the city of Westminster to all alike, or to move their training camp elsewhere.

Kellett was questioned about the matter at the press conference, called by the Colts Thursday for the purpose of introducing the team's new head coach, Don Shula.

The general manager declared that he and owner Carroll Rosenbloom have held several conferences with the Westminster mayor and businessmen of the city, but nothing concrete has been achieved as yet.

"I plan to go up there again next week," said Kellett, "with the view of spending two or three days if necessary to see what can be done.

"I assure you that every effort will be made to solve the problem, but until we have had further talks there is little I can say of a positive nature.

"AS YOU CAN understand we have many things to consider. If we leave Western Maryland College, where do we go. "It is extremely difficult to find a city where conditions are what we would have them. And even if we find such a location, it's always a question whether the local college will have us.

"We know for a fact that many colleges absolutely refuse to permit pro clubs to use their facilities. And these facilities are absolutely essential for carrying out our conditioning program.

"But I say again, we will devote all energy to the task of solving this problem, just as we did in clearing up the difficulties that confronted us the last few years in our pre-season games in the South."

Fresh apple Ham Loaf in brown sauce

Fresh apple flavor is simply great with the simplest of meats. Time - honored meat loaf or patties are transformed from plain to fancy fare when the fresh, snow - nipped flavor of Washington Winesap apples is cleverly added!

Broiled fresh Winesap rings crown homely meat patties with glamour. Fresh Winesap chunks lace apple flavor into hearty Ham Loaf. Try Washington Winesaps as natural - flavor partners with any meat.

FRESH APPLE'D HAM LOAF is made with two Washington apples, two cups tomato juice, three -fourths cup brown sugar, firmly packed, one lb. ground cured ham, one lb. ground fresh veal or pork, one cup rolled oats, one egg, and one-fourth tsp. pepper.

Peel and core apples; cut each apple into 12ths. Simmer apple wedges in one-cup tomato juice and brown sugar combined; basting until tender. Add remaining tomato juice to meats, oats, egg and pepper. Mix with fork until blended.

Lose that bulge - - - and eat, too!

Howdy Folks. It's good to be back in My Kitchen; after an enjoyable vacation. Really, there IS no place like Home.

Remember Peggy Smith (with the smiling eyes) at the AFRO Home Service Show? She is writing to you this week:

Now that the Holiday Season has ended, let's get out the tape measure and take a look in the mirror: What do you see? —that HOLIDAY BULGE! We haven't really gained enough weight to go on a diet, but how about some sensible eating for a while? Let's prepare a meal that the whole family will enjoy as well. If you've had your fill of Turkey, Dressing and Ham, why not try this delicious, economical, all-beef recipe—

ROAST MEAT LOAF
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup milk
¾ cup raw quick-cooking oats
1 tablespoon salt
1 teaspoon Accent
½ teaspoon dried savory leaves
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1 tablespoon fat
½ cup onion, coarsely chopped
2¼ pounds ground chuck

TO BEATEN eggs, stir in milk, oats, salt, accent, savory, pepper and parsley; set aside. In a skillet, saute onion in hot fat until tender for about 5 min. Add to egg mixture along with ground chuck; mix until well combined. Line a loaf-pan (9 x 5 x 3 inches) with waxed paper. Turn meat mixture into pan, packing down well; cover and refrigerate for at least 2 hours. Run spatula around edge of meat loaf to loosen.

Carefully turn out into shallow baking pan, keeping original shape as much as possible. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 90 min.

Meanwhile make GLAZE: Combine ½ cup chili sauce, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard and ½ teaspoon liquid smoke seasoning; mix well. Brush top and sides of loaf with glaze. Bake 45 min., brushing several times with glaze. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

SINCE WE'RE getting rid of that BULGE, we will omit our starches—such as potatoes, rice and macaroni; however, the rest of the family may have fleirs. Accent-the-positive with brightly colored vegetables. For okra-lovers, try this taste-tempting salad. You need not have vegetable with this dish.

NEW ORLEANS OKRA AND TOMATO SALAD
1 cup okra, sliced and cooked
1 teaspoon lemon juice
2 tomatoes, quartered
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon chili powder
¼ teaspoon white pepper
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
1 hard cooked egg
Salad greens

COMBINE OKRA and tomatoes in bowl with lemon juice, seasonings, and parsley. Serve on salad greens, garnished with hard cooked egg. Add a dash of low-calorie French Dressing. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

If okra is not a vegetable of your choice, here is another easy, unusual salad:

REV. THEODORE LEDBETTER

Reverend Theodore Ledbetter was born in Goliad, Texas, third in a line of Congregational ministers. He attended Morehouse College, Atlanta University and the Oberlin Graduate School of Theology. After graduating from Oberlin, he became Dean of Men and College Minister at Tillotson College in Austin, Texas.

Mr. Ledbetter was Superintendent of the Plymouth Social Settlement House and Minister of Plymouth Congregational Church in Louisville, Kentucky, and Minister of the historic Dixwell Avenue Church in New Haven. He has just been appointed to the Budget Committee of the Middle Atlantic Conference. He is also a member of the D.C. Central Democratic Committee and served as a delegate to the 1960 National Democratic Convention.

His 40-voice choir, directed by Miss Alma Blackmon and accompanied by Mr. Thomas H. Kerr, Jr., will supply the music.

Mr. Kerr, the organist, has given recitals at the National Museum of Art and Phillip's Art Gallery in Washington, D.C. He was soloist twice with the National Symphony Orchestra.

His original compositions have been performed by the Protestant Episcopal Cathedral in Washington, the Howard University Choir, and his composition "Arietta", has been performed by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir.

The service will last approximately one hour.

The News of the Churches

Prayer of Week

Our Heavenly Father, we who have been ill in hospitals and at home know the days are long and the nights are longer still.

We know of the times we feel that we should give up and not fight for recovery because it is easy to give up. It is easy to think our existence doesn't matter, that the odds are too great, that nobody cares, that even Thou hast deserted us.

Give to our loved one, who is sick, the desire to get well, the patience under her afflictions. Have her realize that Thou, Oh Lord, and all of us care deeply that she may become well again. Amen.
