JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This Court having heard testimony, the terms of a Marital Property Settlement Agreement set forth on the record and the Master having made certain findings and recommendations consistent herewith, it is this 10th day of June, 1997 by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland hereby ORDERED that a Judgment of Absolute Divorce is granted to the Plaintiff, Sharon E. Hewitt, from the Defendant, William F. Hewitt, and it is further

ORDERED that the Marital Property Settlement Agreement of the parties set forth on the record on May 12, 1997 is incorporated but not merged herein, and it is further

ORDERED that the terms of that Marital Property Settlement Agreement are as follows:

1. The Marital Property Settlement Agreement is contingent upon the following:

(i) The settlement of the 6.133 acres in Callaway, Maryland on or before June 30, 1997 pursuant to a contract with Barbara Horn; and

(ii) The execution of a Release signed by Mary Lillian Hewitt and Francis E. Hewitt in favor of the Plaintiff, Sharon E. Hewitt. Same to be signed at the time that Sharon E. Hewitt executes a Deed which does transfer to William F. Hewitt any and all interest

Sharon E. Hewitt may have in the 6.133 acres in Callaway, St. Mary's County, Maryland. This Release is in regard to the three (3) outstanding Promissory Notes dated August 5, 1987 by and between Sharon E. Hewitt and William F. Hewitt with Mary Lillian Hewitt and Francis E. Hewitt;

2. William F. Hewitt does waive any and all claim that he may have in the Retirement/401(k) of Sharon E. Hewitt through her employment with Cedar Point Federal Credit Union;

3. Sharon E. Hewitt does waive any and all claim that she may have in the 6.133 acres and any proceeds derived from any sale in regard thereto. The property is described with more particularity in the Land Records of St. Mary's County, Maryland at Liber 368 Folio 352 and Liber 755 Folio 477. Sharon E. Hewitt shall promptly execute a Deed which does transfer and convey any and all interest she may have in said properties to William F. Hewitt for no additional monetary consideration and same being pursuant to the Marital Property Settlement Agreement. The execution of these Deeds shall be prior to the real estate settlement with Barbara Horn.

(i) It is the intent of the parties that Sharon E. Hewitt not have any Capital Gains tax liability as a result of the sale to Barbara Horn.

(ii) Sharon E. Hewitt agrees to execute any and all documents necessary to assist William F. Hewitt in reducing and/or eliminating any Capital Gains tax consequences from this sale including but not limited to executing a Like Kind Exchange Agreement.

(iii) At the time of the settlement with Barbara Horn the sum of Five Thousand Dollars and 00/100 ($5,000.00) shall be paid to Sharon E. Hewitt. This sum includes the payment of any and all medical bills due and owing from William F. Hewitt to Sharon E.

Hewitt in regard to the minor children as of May 12, 1997.

(iv) William F. Hewitt shall be solely responsible for any and all expenses in regard to the sale and settlement of the 6.133 acres including but not limited to principal, interest, late fees and taxes due in regard thereto. The credit card debt and the joint line of credit are not part of any expense in regard to this real estate settlement;

4. Neither party shall incur any debt in the name of the other including but not limited to neither party shall incur any debt in regard to any joint credit card and/or the joint line of credit with Ceder Point Federal Credit Union;

5. Each party does waive any claim in regard to contribution for attorneys fees, court costs and litigation expenses in this matter;

6. Each party does waive any claim for alimony past, present and future. Such is not subject to Court Modifications;

7. Personal property has been evenly divided between the parties saving therefrom the following items which the Defendant has in his possession custody or control:

Master Bedroom Furniture:

- dresser
- chest of drawers
- bed
- make-up stand,

Several boxes of miscellaneous items,

Children's Stereo Set, and

"Heather" doll.

The Plaintiff shall remove these items on or before May 31, 1997;

8. Each party does waive any claim to the motor vehicle of the other and agrees to execute any document/title to effectuate same; and

9. Sharon E. Hewitt shall provide to William F. Hewitt a true and accurate photo of her 1996 Tax Return (State and Federal) on or before May 15, 1997, and it is further

ORDERED that the Court Order in regard to the parties having joint legal and shared physical custody of the minor children shall remain in full force and effect without modification as to custody/access of each party to the minor children, and it is further ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall be restored to her maiden name: Sharon Elaine Pilkerton.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This matter having come before the Master for Domestic Relations on April 14, 1997, wherein the parties having reached an agreement resolving the contested issues and thereafter, the Court having heard testimony concerning the grounds for divorce and upon consideration of the testimony, evidence, and the agreement submitted by the parties it is there upon this 6th day of May, 1997, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, Linda K. Stuter, is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Timothy J. Stuter; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the parties' Separation and Property Settlement Agreement, signed the 22nd day of May, 1995, shall be incorporated, but not merged, into this Judgment of Absolute Divorce; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the parties' Consent Order submitted before the Master for Domestic Relations on the 14th day of April, 1997 shall be incorporated, but not merged, into this Judgment of Absolute Divorce; and it is further,

MAY 06 1997

ST. MARY'S

ORDERED, that physical custody of Elizabeth P. Stuter, minor child of the parties, is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff, Linda K. Stuter, and that the parties shall have joint legal custody, and it is further;

ORDERED, that the Defendant, Timothy J. Stuter, shall have visitation with the minor child, Elizabeth P. Stuter, as follows: He shall have visitation for 60 days during the minor child's summer school break beginning not sooner than one (1) week after the summer break begins and ending not later than one (1) week before summer school break ends; the Defendant must provide at least one (1) week's notice to the Plaintiff prior visitation. The Defendant may exercise his 60 day visitation period in intervals during the summer period provided he gives the Plaintiff one week's notice of any break in the 60 day period. The Defendant shall have visitation the first weekend of every month beginning Friday at 7:00 p.m. and ending Sunday at 7:00 p.m. If the Monday following the weekend is a federal holiday, than visitation will conclude on Monday at 7:00 p.m. The first weekend of the month shall be defined as any weekend that contains the first day of the month or the first weekend after the first day of the month and it is further;

ORDERED, that the parties will divide the Christmas school break with the Defendant to have visitation during the even number years from 6:00 p.m. on the last day of school prior to the break through Christmas day with the Plaintiff to have the minor child from 12:00 p.m. on December 26 through New Years Day. That the Defendant's regularly scheduled weekend visitation shall begin the first weekend after

New Years Day. In odd years, the visitation period shall be reversed for each party. For Thanksgiving school break, for the odd number years, the Defendant will have visitation with the minor child from 6:00 p.m. on the Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving until 7:00 p.m. Sunday following Thanksgiving. In the even years, the Plaintiff will have the minor child throughout the Thanksgiving Holiday. For Easter school break, the Defendant shall have visitation with the minor child from 6:00 p.m. on the day that Easter school break begins until 7:00 p.m. on the last day of Spring break. The Plaintiff shall have the minor child during Mother's Day with the Defendant to have visitation with the minor child during Father's Day. The Defendant's visitation for Father's Day shall begin at 6:00 p.m. on the evening prior to Father's Day until 6:00 p.m. on Father's Day, and it is further;

ORDERED, that if the Defendant chooses to increase his visitation during the school year to every other weekend, such election will decrease his summer visitation by each additional day elected. If the Defendant chooses to decrease his visitation during the school year, such election will increase his summer visitation by each day waived. The Defendant shall bare all costs of transportation involving visitation with pick-up and delivery of the minor child at the Plaintiff's residence, and it is further;

ORDERED, that the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff the amount of $179.00 in child support in accordance with the Maryland Child Support Guidelines. The parties shall initially modify the Defendant's child support obligation according to the Maryland Child Support Guidelines on October 1, 1997. The parties will exchange their three (3) most recent pay stubs on, or before, September 20, 1997 prior to the modification date. If however, the Defendant does not retain employment until after October 1, 1997, the Defendant's child support obligation shall be modified on the 1st day of the month subsequent to receiving said employment. In addition, the parties expressly agree that they shall modify the Defendant's child support obligation according to the Maryland Child Support Guidelines every two years beginning October 1, 1999. The parties shall exchange the prior years' Federal and State income tax returns along with their three (3) most recent pay stubs on, or before, September 20, prior to the modification date, and it is further;

ORDERED, that beginning with the month that the Plaintiff receives her entitlements in the Defendant's pension plan, she shall expressly assume liability of the 1995 Subaru automobile loan, thereby amending paragraph six (6) of the parties' Separation and Property Settlement Agreement, signed May 22, 1995. The Plaintiff shall make every effort to have the Defendant's name removed from the title (within 15 days) and promissory note on said vehicle, subject to the lien holder's approval, and it is further;

ORDERED, that the Defendant and the Plaintiff shall notify each other and the Court within 20 days of any change of address or employment so long as this support order is in effect, and failure to comply with this paragraph will subject the parties to a penalty not to exceed $250.00, and it is further;

ORDERED, that this Order shall constitute an immediate and continuing withholding Order on all earnings of Defendant and obligor that are due on or after the date of this Order.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

That the above captioned case having come before the examiner of St. Mary's County, Maryland, who took testimony and being duly submitted, it is thereupon, this 23rd day of July, 1997, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Plaintiff, Elizabeth Kathryn Klock, is hereby awarded an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, James M. Klock; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement of the parties dated September 16, 1996, be incorporated but not merged into this Judgment of Absolute Divorce; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, Elizabeth Kathryn Klock, is granted sole legal custody of the minor child, Patrick Ryan Klock, with James M. Klock having rights of visitation as specified in the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated September 16, 1996; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant, James M. Klock, pay unto the Plaintiff, Elizabeth Kathryn Klock, child support in the amount of Four Hundred Thirty-four Dollars and Fifty Cents ($434.50) per month, paid through the St. Mary's County Bureau of Support and Enforcement, on the first (1st) day of each month which is acknowledged to be a downward deviation from the Maryland Child Support Guidelines of Fifty-two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($52.50) per month, but found to be in the best interest of the child as the Defendant has assumed significant joint debts of the parties, including but not limited to the mortgage obligation and Mastercard, which allows the Plaintiff more free capital to better provide for the minor child on a daily basis; and it is further,

ORDERED, if Defendant accumulates support payments arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, Plaintiff shall be subject to earnings withholding; and it is further,

ORDERED, that Defendant is required to notify the court within ten (10) days of any

JUDGEMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings herein, after a hearing in this matter of May 28 and May 29, 1997, and by consent of the parties hereto, it is this 2nd day of July, 1997, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland, hereby,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, Brenda Jean Chrismond, be and hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Kennetn B. Chrismond; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant be ordered to pay unto the Plaintiff, non-modifiable alimony as follows:

A. June 1, 1997 through May 31, 1998 - $1,000.00 per month if the marital home is not sold, and $1,300.00 per month if the home is sold. Out of the alimony, Defendant will pay the Plaintiff's car loan in the amount of $120.45 per month (payoff date of July, 1999), personal loan in the amount of $138.55 per month (payoff date of December 1997), and portion of the Plaintiff's Mastercard for debt incurred for repair of the Plaintiff's car in the amount of $60.00 per month (payoff date of June 1999). Any remaining amount of alimony not used to pay these aforesaid debts will be paid directly to the Plaintiff. In addition to alimony during this period, the Defendant will pay all mortgage payments on the marital home and any association costs on the marital property, and payments for a loan under the name of Jean Owens in the amount of $58.00 per month;

B. June 1, 1998 through May 31, 1999 - $700.00 per month. Out of the alimony, Defendant will pay the Plaintiff's car loan, personal loan, and portion of the Plaintiff's Mastercard for debt incurred for repair of the Plaintiff's car, as aforesaid. Any remaining amount of alimony not used to pay these aforesaid debts will be paid directly to the Plaintiff. In addition to alimony during this period, the Defendant will pay all mortgage payments on the marital home and any association costs on the marital property.

C. June 1, 1999 - May 31, 2002 - $500.00 per month directly to Plaintiff; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the above-stated provisions, with respect to alimony and spousal support are not subject to any Court modification; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the marital home of the parties, located at 650 Grenada Lane, Lusby, Maryland, will immediately be placed on the market for sale, with a realtor, and that both parties will give full cooperation for the sale of said home and sign any and all documents necessary thereto; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall be entitled to remain in the marital home until it is sold, or until September 1, 1998, whichever occurs first; if the home is not sold by September 1, 1998, the Plaintiff shall vacate the home and the home shall be available to rent, with the following provisions:

A. Defendant will be responsible for payment of the mortgage.

B. Any rental collected will be applied to the mortgage. If the Defendant has to pay any shortage of the mortgage, he will be given a credit from the proceeds of the sale of the marital home as stated below; if there is any excess of rental fee, the excess shall be equally divided by the parties; and it is further,

ORDERED, upon the sale of the marital home, the Plaintiff will receive the first $6,000.00 of the proceeds of the sale, then the Defendant will receive reimbursement for the sum of all mortgage payments he made beginning June of 1998, then the parties will equally divide any remaining proceeds; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant be allowed to claim the marital home as a deduction for income tax purposes; and it is further,

ORDERED, that both parties waive any and all interest they may have in the other party's retirement; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the parties personal property shall be divided as follows:

A. The Defendant shall receive all camping gear, and all tools (after making a tool kit for the Plaintiff).

B. The furniture belonging to the children shall be located wherever the children reside.

C. The Plaintiff shall receive all other personal property in the marital home.

D. The parties shall retain, as their own, all other property in their possession; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the parties shall share the joint physical and legal custody of the minor child, Brian Keith Chrismond, and the minor child shall decide where he wishes to reside; and it is further,

ORDERED, that each party currently waives child support, and that this Court Order for custody and child support shall supersede any other Court Order, and this Court shall retain sole and exclusive jurisdiction over custody and child support; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant shall pay the Master's fee of $75.00 by May 29, 1997, at 4:30 PM.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This case standing ready for testimony and being duly submitted before the Master for Domestic Relations on June 23, 1997, and upon consideration of the agreement and testimony submitted by the parties, it is thereupon this 18th day of August 1997 by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED, that the Plaintiff, Laurie M. Metzger is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Danny S. Metzger; it is further ORDERED, that the terms of the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated November 2, 1995 is hereby incorporated, but not merged into this judgment; it is further,

ORDERED, that by the terms of the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated November 2, 1995, the Defendant shall have custody of the parties' minor children, namely, Phillip Allen Metzger, born October 15, 1982 and Elizabeth Ann Metzger, born August 18, 1989. The parties have reached a further agreement dated June 18, 1997 to establish additional terms, conditions and rules governing their parenting relationship. Said parenting agreement dated June 18, 1997 is hereby incorporated, but not merged into this Judgment; it is further;

ORDERED, that by the terms of the Parenting Agreement dated June 18, 1997, the parties have agreed to be flexible with each other concerning the visitation arrangements between the Plaintiff and the minor children. The visitation schedule as set forth in the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated November 2, 1995 will continue except for the following modifications:

A. The minor children will spend Monday through Friday and every other weekend with the Defendant. The children will spend every other alternating weekend with the Plaintiff. The weekend will begin on Friday evening at 5:00 p.m. and continue through Sunday evening at 5:00 p.m. as well as one (1) evening per week during the school year from 4:00 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. with the day to be determined by mutual agreement. The parties will remain flexible concerning the exact dates and times;

B. The parties agree to discuss the transportation arrangement that is fair and provide an equitable sharing of the transportation responsibilities for the children between the parties respective homes;

C. The Plaintiff may meet the children at the bus stop in the afternoon after getting off the bus and may have lunch with the minor daughter, Elizabeth, at school during the week;

D. If the Plaintiff is not working during the school holidays and the Defendant has to work, the children may spend the day with the Plaintiff;

E. That by Memorial Day each year, the parties shall discuss and agree on their respective vacation time with the minor children. If possible, the parties will give four (4) weeks notice of their intention to spend the summer vacation and agree to leave each other with an emergency phone number where they can be reached when they are out of town with or without the children;

F. The children will spend one (1) week in June, two (2) weeks in July, and one (1) week in August with the Plaintiff. The alternating weekend schedule will continue during that period. In addition, the children may spend days with the Plaintiff during the summer if she is not working and until the Defendant gets off from work;

G. The parties shall divide and alternate Christmas so that during odd years, the children will spend noon on Christmas Eve through noon on Christmas Day with the Plaintiff and Christmas Day from noon through noon the following day with the Defendant. The remainder of the Christmas holiday designated as the traditional school holiday will be split evenly with exact days being determined by the first of December annually. On the even numbered years; the schedule set forth above will be reversed;

H. All other Federal and school holidays will be alternated with the schedule determined immediately upon availability of the school calendar;

I. Easter will be split and alternated and will begin Thursday afternoon when the children finish school and get off the bus and then with the other party from Saturday evening through Monday. The parties will split the spring break from school evenly and the exact dates to be decided by March 1. The Plaintiff will have Easter morning in the even years and the Defendant shall have Easter morning in the odd years;

J. Thanksgiving will be split and alternated with the Plaintiff having the children in the even years during the first half and the Defendant having the children during the second half. During odd numbered years the schedule will be reversed;

K. The Defendant shall have the right to take the children out of state for up two (2) consecutive weeks for Christmas and even numbered years and for Thanksgiving in odd numbered years to visit his family. In return, he will provide the same amount of visitation to the Plaintiff as she would have had otherwise received during the times that the children are away;

L. Halloween will be alternated. The father will take the children trick-or-treating in even years and the mother in odd years from 4:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.;

M. Mother's Day and Father's Day be will spent with the respective parent from 9:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m.;

N. Parents' Birthdays will be spent with the respective parent for at least six (6) hours; and

O. Children's Birthdays will be split and the parents will address the specifics at that time; it is further,

ORDERED, that the child support obligation payable by the Plaintiff to the Defendant under the guidelines would be $277.00 dollars per month. The Plaintiff shall pay, by consent, the sum of $65.00 per week in accordance with the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated November 2, 1995 and the Child Support Guidelines submitted herein. The Defendant shall not seek an increase in child support for at least a period of twelve (12) months from the date of this Judgment; it is further,

Kas

ORDERED, that if the Plaintiff accumulates ~~four (4) arrears~~ support payments amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, she shall be subject to earnings withholding.

Kas

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff is required to notify the Court within (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as this support order is in effect and failure to do so may subject her to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in her not receiving notice of earnings withholdings proceedings.
