Ducks win, Carver routed in MSA hardwood tilts

Douglass High nailed down her second win in starts to take over undisputed possession of first place in the early stages of the Division 2 race in Maryland Scholastic Association basketball Tuesday afternoon.

The Ducks, hoping to repeat their 1962 divisional title, defeated Poly easily, 40-26.

Carver, on the other hand, was off to a disastrous start in Division 1, suffering a 58-35 drubbing by city champion City College.

Dunbar, winner of her seasonal debut over Patterson on Friday, was idle during the Tuesday activity. The Poets resume today (Friday), playing host to Southern.

* * *

A BIG THIRD period and a tightly-defensed fourth quarter enabled Douglass to dispose of Poly with relatively little concern.

Leading by only three points 16-13 at the intermission, the Ducks tallied 13 points in the third quarter, then held the opposition to a mere six points in the fourth while they were dumping 11 through the hoop.

* * *

ROBERT SWEPSON and Andre Billups were the big guns for the Ducks in their third-quarter surge, tallying nine of the 13 points between her second win in starts to take over undisputed possession of first place in the early stages of the Division 2 race in Maryland Scholastic Association basketball Tuesday afternoon.

Billups finished the game as high man with 13 points. Swepson and Henry White counted 11 apiece to be next among the Duck point-getters.

John Frank's 13 tallies were tops for the Engineers.

* * *

STALLED BY their own inept scoring, Carver's Cubs were never in the contest with the classy City five.

Coach Sodie White's youngsters endured a frustrating 13 minutes before they were able to manage their first field goal. Playing through the opening period with only free-throws to show for their efforts, the 1961 champions were behind, 15-1, at the first intermission.

Not until midway of the second quarter was the Jam-packed Carver gym able to muster a genuine cheer. That came about when Allan Coffia finally found the mark from the floor.

* * *

BY THIS TIME, City was coasting along in front with a 23-4 bulge on the scoreboard.

In the meantime, the smooth-working Collegians were showing much of the class which propelled them into the city championship last March.

George Roderick and Leroy Brown were operating with their usual effectiveness under both boards, and Quinton Pinckney was performing well as backcourt general and playmaker.

Roderick with 18, and Pinckney with 10, were top scorers.

Baltimore title fight called myth

Baltimore has not "lost" the Sonny Liston-Floyd Patterson title bout.

But neither will Baltimore "get" the proposed heavyweight rematch.

Despite the broad hints to the contrary, this city is not now, nor has it ever been, a serious contender for the right to stage the second Sonny-Floyd meeting.

And this includes the implications couched in threats made by champion Liston as late as Thursday.

* * *

PATTERSON has no intention of fighting Liston in Baltimore. From the very outset of the return-bout negotiations, Floyd has held out for one of two sites—Miami or Las Vegas, Nev.

He is determined to exercise his privilege of choice outlined in the conditions under which he signed for the first defense against Liston.

* * *

FLOYD and his attorney, Julius Nowmer, agree that Sonny has a legitimate squawk in his insistence that Championship Sports pay him the $207,000 still owed him from the Chicago fight.

But the Patterson camp contends that Sonny's dispute is with the promoters.

They argue that Floyd has been consistent in living up to his terms of the agreement, and that the choice-of-place clause was part of the person-to-person arrangements.

* * *

ACTUALLY, Liston committed himself to defend against Patterson at the latter's dictate when he took the September fight. He recommitted himself when he wrote Floyd and November, a month ago, that advisor Jack Nilon was empowered to act for him.

Nilon accepted the April 4 date in Miami Beach.

* * *

THE LATER recriminations appear to belong to a 2-part build-up plan:

(1) to shroud the return-bout publicity, which otherwise would have to recall the Chicago "stinker" in which Floyd was belted out in less than a round, and (2) to soften the blow in Baltimore where Nilon and his brother, Bob, hold Civic Center concession rights.

TIM BROWN

18 in NFL Pro Bowl

LOS ANGELES, Cal., — Addition of Timmy Brown of the Philadelphia Eagles, to the East lineup for the National Football League's annual Pro Bowl game Sunday, raises the number of players participating to 18.

Brown, fleet halfback of the Quaker eleven and one of the league's most dangerous specialists at returning kicks, replaces John David Crow of the St. Louis Cardinals, for the nationally-televised contest

Crow sustained an injury early this week and East coaches put in a hurry call to Tim, who was addressing a Big Brothers banquet when he got the message.

Brown thus joins ten original squad. These 11 tan athletes n a l choices for the East will oppose a West squad which includes seven colored stars.

* * *

ALONG with the newcomer, (Brown), fullbacks Jim Brown, Cleveland, and John Henry Johnson, Pittsburgh; halfbacks Jimmy Hill, St. Louis, Bobby Mitchell, Washington, and Don Perkins and Don Bishop, Dallas, will play with the East.

Also tackles Big Daddy Lipscomb, Pittsburgh, and Roosevelt Brown, New York; guard John Nisby, Washington, and defense ace Erich Barnes, New York.

* * *

IN THE West lineup will be halfbacks Lenny Moore, Angeles, Abe Woodson, San Francisco, and tackles Roger Brown, Detroit, and Jim Parker, Baltimore.

Also with the Western Stars will be defensive halfbacks Dick Lane of the Detriot Lions, and Willie Wood of the Green Bay Packers.

Pirates upset Md. State, 78-75

PRINCESS ANNE, Md.—In a ding-dong battle all through the second half, Hampton Institute turned back a desperately fighting Maryland State team, 78-75, here Tuesday night before a standing-room-only crowd of rabid fans.

Apparently breezing at the half with a nine-point lead 44-35, Maryland State, when play resumed, lost the magic touch and could only watch the Virginians pull up on even terms and take the lead 57:56.

It was the beginning of the end.

Al Santio had backboard control but little else.

High man for the night was Charles Grant of Hampton with 28 points. Eddie Williams, Maryland State shooting star, was runner-up with 21 tallies.

HE CHANGED GAME.

Bill Russell, world champion Celtics, at Center Thursday

According to one of pro-basketball's most respected veterans, Jack Twyman of the Cincinnati Royals, Boston Celtics ace Bill Russell has changed the entire game of basketball.

The coldly efficient Russell and the world champion Celtics come to Baltimore's new Civic Center next Thursday night to meet the young and aspiring Chicago Zephyrs.

Says the capable and outspoken Twyman: "Big Bill has changed the entire strategy of this game.

"He has had more effect on offensive and defensive play than Wilt Chamberlain. I voted for him as the Most Valuable in the last two years, and I wouldn't be surprised if I wound up doing it again.

* * *

"HE (RUSSELL) would make most any team in the league a winner. He makes you revise your thinking and shooting by just being out there...starts the fast break, rebounds like nobody else and is a tremendous team player.

"I do believe that if Wilt Chamberlain played half the defense Bill does, you would have to vote for Wilt as the MVP, just because of his tremendous offensive talent. But until that day, I've got to go along with Boston Bill.

"Don't get me wrong on this," Jack cautions "the Celtics are not all Russell. They have some wonderful players beside Russell.

"Frank Ramsey, Bob Cousy, the Jones boys, Tommy Heinsohn and Satch Sanders are better than new hands at the game."

* * *

IT IS TRUE that the Celts have a good squad even without Russell, but it is well to remember that before Bill made the Boston scene, the club had won nothing. Since Russ joined the Hub five, the club has captured five of the last six playoffs. The only defeat was registered when Russell went out with a twisted ankle and St. Louis won it all...

"He's the best in the world," says his coach, Rod Auerbach, "not because of his tremendous ability, but because he is an unselfish ball player. We'll always have a chance as long as Bill is with us."

BILL RUSSELL

Md. State quits Hub indoor meet

PRINCESS ANNE, Md. — Maryland State College announced late Thursday that it has withdrawn its track team from the annual Knights of Columbus indoor meet, scheduled this week-end at Boston Gardens in Boston, Mass.

The action placed Maryland State on the sidelines along with Morgan State College, which pulled out of the games several weeks ago.

Withdrawal of their athletes from the K of C competition was in keeping with the schools' determination to back the National Collegiate Athletic Association in its continuing feud with the Amateur Athletic Union.

* * *

THE NCAA and the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference have asked member institutions to refuse participation in meets which do not have the sanction of the United States Track and Field Federation.

The federation is the college answer to the AAU, which for years has virtually controlled the promotion of track and field sports.

* * *

COACH CLIFF ANDERSON was opposed to pulling his Maryland State squad from the Boston Garden meet, but had no alternative when athletic director Vernon McCain voted to go along with the NCAA program.

Unlike Morgan, where athletic director Eddie Hurt is also the track coach, Maryland State can foster opposing views in the dispute. Anderson, as track coach, is under the supervision athletic director McCain.

* * *

HURT TOOK the step in favor of the NCAA, although it was painful to him. Eddie has entered his Golden Bears in the Hub games since 1947. He also has been a constant visitor with his boys to the New York Madison Square Garden meets (Milrose, New York A.C., Knights of Columbus, etc.), for many winters.

All these are AAU - sponsored meets.

Only the IC4-A games are NCAA supported.

Unless a quick arbitration of the controversy is effected by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the indoor track season for the local colleges, could be wrecked.

Fined $1,050 for assaults on officers

"But why did you bite the police officers, Mr. Mason?"

Judge Joseph L. Broccoline Jr., of the Western Municipal Court Wednesday was attempting to determine the reason if there was one behind, Robert Mason, 27, 1800 block Penrose Ave., in allegedly biting one police officer, attempting to bite another, and spitting in the face of a third officer.

Mason who was arrested Tuesday for disorderly conduct in a place of business in the 1100 block of N. Freemont Ave., said he was only protecting himself.

But unfortunately for Mason the judge did not agree and found him guilty of all four charges. Mason was fined $1,050.
