children of the parties, Brian James Willis, born February 14, 1982, and Jennifer Lynn Willis, born February 11, 1985; and it is further,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED, that the Parties have heretofore agreed to the modifications following paragraphs in the aforesaid Separation and Property Settlement Agreement and Addendum to Separation and Property Settlement Agreement:

1. Paragraph Three: The Parties agree that all property has been divided between the Parties, and that everything that is titled in each of their own names or in their own possession stays with that party, except the retirement/pension as hereinafter provided; and that each party is responsible hereinafter for each and every debt they have in their own name.

2. Paragraph Six: The Wife obtains complete ownership of all furniture and household items located in the marital residence.

3. Paragraph Ten: Each party shall pay their own expenses, court costs and attorneys fees.

4. Paragraph Fourteen: Paragraph fourteen is amended to provide that the Husband shall pay $721.00 per month towards the mortgage on the marital home and that payment shall continue until the Wife sells the home, remarries, or six years from December 1, 1992, whichever event should first occur; however, if the Wife remarries, or has a housemate residing full time in the marital home, and provided that the Wife has not purchased the marital home from the Husband or moved therefrom, the Husband shall pay only one-half of $721.00 per month and he shall be entitled to claim one-half of the mortgage interest deduction for income tax purposes. If the Wife sells the home or if she purchases of the home from the Husband, Husband shall pay the sum of $721.00 in the form of rehabilitative alimony through December, 1997. Beginning January 1, 1998, the Husband shall pay the sum of $500 per month to the Wife until December 31, 1998, towards the mortgage on the marital home and beginning January 1, 1998 through February, 2003, Husband shall pay the sum of $350.00 per month toward the mortgage. Husband shall be entitled to the same interest deduction and a fifty percent (50%) reduction in the amount to be paid from January 1, 1998 through February 2003, should the Wife remarry or should she have a housemate as aforesaid. Notwithstanding the above, however, if the house should be sold or if the Wife shall purchase the Husband's interest, said payments shall not be reduced, and the Husband shall pay $500.00 per month from January 1, 1998 until December 31, 1998 and $300.00 per month from January 1, 1999 through February 28, 2003, and all such payments shall be in the form of a non-modifiable contractual rehabilitative alimony and shall continue and not terminate regardless of whether or not the wife remarries.

5. Paragraph Seventeen: The Parties agree that the Husband shall pay to the Wife the sum of $750.00 per month for continuing child support through September 1, 2003 with said child support not subject to a decrease, and if for any reason a decrease occurs, the difference between $350.00 and $750.00 shall be alimony, spousal support or monetary award. Said child support can be increased pursuant to the Maryland Child Support Guidelines, however said amount can never be decreased, and the parties hereby agree that it is in the best interest of the children if pursuant to the Child Support Guidelines, the Husband would be entitled to pay an amount less than said amount of child support, said reduction would not be in the interest of the minor children that there should be a deviation from the guideline, and that therefore said decrease should not occur.

6. Paragraph Nineteen: The parties agree that the Wife is entitled to a monetary award in the amount of $18,900.00, and the Husband shall pay this sum at the rate of $350.00 per month, for a period of fifty-four (54) consecutive months, beginning the first day of January, 1998, and continuing for each and every month through June, 2003. The parties further agree that this monetary award shall not terminate upon Wife's remarriage or death, and that Husband's obligation to pay said award shall be to the Wife's estate, should her death occur prior to the completion of all payments.

7. Paragraph Twenty: The Wife waives any other claim or rights to alimony except as stated otherwise herein.

8. Paragraph Twenty-One: The Parties agree that each shall bear the cost that comport with their respective incomes to pay for the cost of all the college education to each child who attends college for four years of college. It is agreed that if the Wife shall not be employed at said time, that an amount equal to $20,000.00 of income shall be contributed to her for purposes of this paragraph only. It is further agreed that the cost of college shall not exceed that sum which it would cost for such child to attend college as a non-state resident boarding student at the University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland. The Parties obligations hereunder shall continue with respect to each child as long as the child applies himself or herself to his or her studies, and retains a current and continuous academic standing as full time student, and maintains a minimum 2.0 grade point average, regardless of whether or not such child has attained majority.

9. Paragraph Twenty-Two: The Parties agree that the Husband shall claim the children as deductions on his tax returns, until such time as the Wife is fully employed. At the time the Wife is fully employed, the Parties shall each claim one child as an exemption of their respective income tax returns. At the time that there is only one minor child for which the Parties are entitled to claim a deduction, the Parties shall alternate years in which said child could be claimed by each party as a deduction.

10. Paragraph Twenty-Three: The Parties agree that the Husband shall pay any and all educational expenses of the Wife for six years beginning September 1, 1992, while the Wife furthers her education. Said costs to include, but not be limited to, tuition, fees, books, and all other expenses not covered by grants. Husband agrees that the Wife does not have to reimburse him the sum of any grant money she has received. The Husband further agrees to make a payment to the Wife in the sum of $3,000.00 as a monetary award for purposes of her educational costs within thirty days of the date of this Divorce.

11. Paragraph Twenty-Four: The Parties agree that the Husband shall continue to carry his present dental and health insurance, including orthodontic coverage, or the equivalent policy of health and dental and/or orthodontic insurance and/or orthodontic plan, for the minor children of the parties until such time as the children reach the age of eighteen. The parties further agree that the Husband shall continue to provide his present, or the equivalent policy of health and dental insurance, for the Wife until January

1, 1997, and she shall reimburse him the sum of $21.00 per month for payment of any premiums during that period of time.

12. Paragraph Twenty-Five: The Husbands BG&E Employment Savings Plan is valued in the amount of approximately $20,000.00, as of the date of the divorce. The Parties agree that the Wife shall receive Fifty-Percent (50%) of the Husband's amount in the Husband's BG&E Employment Savings Plan as of the date of divorce with interest to accrue up until the time of withdrawal, as, if and when the Husband receives or is eligible to withdraw from said Savings Plan. The Parties further agree that the wife shall receive Twenty-Five Percent (25%) of the Husband's BG&E Pension Plan as, if and when he receives or is eligible to receive said benefits. The parties further agree that the Wife shall receive Fifty Percent (50%) of the Husband's military retirement and reservist pay which includes all retirement income and reservist income as, if and when received by the Husband by virtue of his active and reservist employment in the United States Navy/Army National Guard. The Husband agrees to execute any and all documents necessary to effect the terms of this paragraph.

13. Paragraph Twenty-Six: The Parties agree that the Husband shall name the Wife as primary irrevocable beneficiary of his survivor benefit plan, and that the Husband shall pay whatever costs are necessary to maintain the survivor benefit plan. It is further agreed that the Husband's obligation hereunder shall be to the extent of the Wife's marital interest in said plan.

14. Paragraph Twenty-Seven: The Parties agree that the Husband shall continue to maintain and keep in full force and effect, at his expense, his current policy of life insurance through his employment with Baltimore Gas & Electric, and shall cause said policy to be so endorsed that the Wife shall be named therein as primary irrevocable beneficiary of the proceeds of said policy upon Husband's death. That the Husband shall provide the Wife with a copy of said policy. It is thereupon this 23rd day of December, 1997, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that the Plaintiff, EARL WEIGLE, JR., be and he is hereby awarded an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, KAREN WEIGLE; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that the parties are awarded the joint legal custody of their minor children, namely JEREMY WEIGLE,, born July 8, 1981, JOSHUA WEIGLE, born March 16, 1983, and STEPHANIE WEIGLE, born January 7, 1985; physical custody being awarded to the Defendant, KAREN WEIGLE, subject to the Plaintiff's reasonable rights of visitation; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that the Agreement between the parties dated July 24, 1997, filed in these proceedings is hereby approved and by reference made a part of and incorporated in this Decree to the extent of the jurisdiction of the court, but not merged herein, as if fully set forth herein and the parties shall abide by and perform in accordance with its terms; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that the Plaintiff, EARL WEIGLE, pay ongoing child support to the Defendant, KAREN WEIGLE; in the amount of Five Hundred Fifty Dollars ($550.00) per month. Notwithstanding this fact, the Plaintiff has voluntary paid to the Defendant in excess of Five Hundred Fifty Dollars ($550.00) per month since the day of the parties' separation and, in light of this fact, the best interest of the children have been and will continue to be protected by the Plaintiff even though court ordered child support remains at Five Hundred Fifty Dollars ($550.00) per month. IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that all child support payments will be paid directly to the Defendant, KAREN WEIGLE; and

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings filed herein and the written testimony being duly submitted, the proceedings ~~were by the Court~~ read and considered.

It is thereupon, this 5th day of January, 1998, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED, and DECREED that the Plaintiff, JAY BRADLEY WOODS, be and he is hereby awarded an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, CRISTINA MAE WOODS; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED, and DECREED that the parties shall share the joint legal custody of their minor child, RACHEL LAUREN WOODS, born December 30, 1992, physical custody being with the Defendant, CRISTINA MAE WOODS; subject to the Plaintiff's rights of liberal and reasonable visitation; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED, and DECREED that the terms of the parties of the voluntary separation and property settlement agreement dated August 17, 1995 be incorporated into and made a part but not merged in this decree of Absolute Divorce; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED, and DECREED that the Defendant shall have use and possession of the parties jointly owned property so long as she occupies the residence. So long as the Defendant occupies the residence, she shall be solely responsible for the payment of the mortgage, principal, interest, taxes and insurance and she shall hold the Plaintiff harmless from any further liability thereon. During the Defendant's period of use and possession she may keep all rental income so long as she resides there in addition to the renter. In the event the Defendant vacates the residence, the Plaintiff will have the first option to exercise use and possession of the residence, in which event, he will pay the mortgage, principal, interest, taxes and insurance, and be able to keep all rental income. In the event that neither party occupies the marital residence, they will equally divide the rental income and will equally pay the mortgage, principal, interest, taxes and insurance. So long as the parties own the residence, the Plaintiff will take all of the tax credit for ownership of the home and payment of the mortgage, irrespective of who pays the mortgage in reality. If and when the marital residence is sold, the profits from said sale will be divided equally; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED, and DECREED that the parties agree to change paragraph 12 of the Separation Agreement as follows: So long as the Defendant resides in the continental United States, the parties will equally share the cost of the Plaintiff's visitation. If either party relocates away from the State of Maryland, the Plaintiff's visitation shall increase to include the three (3) months every summer. For that three (3) month period, of time, the Plaintiff's child support obligation shall be suspended. In the event the Defendant relocates outside of the continental United States, the Defendant shall be solely responsible for the expense of the Plaintiff's summer visitation. This deviation from the child support guidelines (by suspended child support for 3 months) is in the minor child's best interest inasmuch as the parties anticipate an increased expense of transportation associated with that visitation due to the parties residing in different states. This agreement is in the minor child's best interest inasmuch as it represents the parties mutual agreement and such a mutual agreement between the parties is ultimately in the minor child's best interest. Further more, the parties recognize that if this suspension of child support becomes no longer in the child's best interest, then either parties may petition this honorable court for further modification of child support; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that paragraph 14 of the Separation Agreement shall be changed as follows: Until such time as the former marital residence has been sold, the Plaintiff's child support will remain at Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) per month. At such time as the marital residence is sold, the Plaintiff's child support will be waived by the Defendant during the period of the Plaintiff's summer visitation. The provisions of this paragraph supersede and override the provisions of the previous paragraph of this order; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that paragraph 16 of the Separation Agreement shall be modified as follows: Instead of alternating the minor child as a dependent, the Plaintiff will be able to claim the minor child as a dependent for all State and Federal income tax deduction purposes. However, even though the Plaintiff claims the minor child as an exemption every year, the Defendant will be able to take the earned income tax credit every year on her State and Federal taxes; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that at such time as the Plaintiff is discharged from the United States Navy, he will give to the Defendant one-half (1/2) of the difference between the "married" and "single" per diem and automobile transportation payments that are made to the Plaintiff by the United States Navy. In the event that the Plaintiff has already received these monies from the United States Navy, then his obligation to deliver one-half (1/2) of the difference shall continue; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED, and DECREED that the Defendant is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the support order is in effect.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This case standing ready for testimony and being duly submitted it is thereupon this 5th day of January, 1998, by the Circuit Court for Saint Mary's County, Maryland,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED, and DECREED, that the Plaintiff, Ophelia G. Lewis, is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Owen M. Lewis, Jr.; it is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall have custody of the parties minor children, namely Owen M. Lewis, born December 3, 1980, Marcus Lewis, born December 7, 1984, and Marissa Lewis, born March 2, 1988. The Defendant shall have reasonable rights of visitation; it is further,

ORDERED, that pursuant to the Maryland Support Guidelines, the Defendant's child support obligation would be $547.00 per month. The parties appeared and testified and submitted that they have agreed to a deviation in child support because the Plaintiff resides in St. Mary's County and the Defendant resides in Prince George's County and said deviation would allow the Defendant to continue with his extensive visitation. Furthermore, the Plaintiff took into consideration that she earns considerably more income than the Defendant. Accordingly, the Defendant shall pay, by consent, the sum of $433.00 per month as child support payable directly to the Plaintiff on the first day of each month. It is further,

ORDERED, that if the Defendant accumulates support arrears amounting to more than 30 days of support, he may be subject to earnings withholdings proceedings. It is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant is required to notify the Clerk of Court of any change of address or employment so long as this Support Order is in effect and failure to do so may subject him to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in him not receiving notice of earnings withholdings proceedings.
