CIRCUIT COURT FOR ST. MARY'S CO. MD.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings filed herein, and the testimony and evidence presented on November 16, 1998, before this Honorable Court,

It is this 16th day of November 1998 by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ORDERED that the Plaintiff, CAROLYN M. GOULD, is granted an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, LESLIE L. GOULD; and it is further

ORDERED that parties will share joint legal custody of their minor child, namely, WESLEY JOSEPH GOULD, born March 26, 1991. The parties acknowledge that this requires each of them to regularly and promptly exchange information and documents concerning their child's health, education, and social status and activities. They acknowledge that joint legal custody requires a mutual discussion of issues pertaining to their minor child. The custodial parent, CAROLYN GOULD recognizes that this obligation to discuss issues with Mr. Gould is more than "going through the motions"; rather, both parties will attempt in good faith to both explain their positions and the reason for their position, but to also give the other parent the opportunity to do the same. On the other hand, LESLIE GOULD recognizes that the sharing of joint legal custody should not create the possibility for "stale mates" where final decisions can not be made due to differences that the parties may have concerning their minor son. Both parties recognize that the exactly equal sharing of decision making power could lead to future litigation and other disputes that would not be in the best interest of the minor child. Accordingly, both parties agree that CAROLYN GOULD will have the "final say" on issues relating to the health, education, and welfare of the minor child, recognizing, too, that significant disputes can always be addressed by way of further mediation and/or litigation if required. The parties have agreed to share joint legal custody with the Plaintiff, CAROLYN GOULD, having the final say on matters relating to the minor child.

ORDERED that the Defendant pay to the Plaintiff the sum of Three Hundred Fifty ($350.00) per month for the maintenance and support of the minor children of the parties. That the Husband shall in addition to the child support pay for one-half of the daycare expenses not exceeding Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) dollars per month for the months of June, July and August until the minor child reaches the age of 16. Said child support and daycare expenses to be paid on or before the 15th day of each month; and it is further

ORDERED that the Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated the 18th day of June, 1998 is incorporated, but not merged, into this Decree; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED by this Court that:

(1) If the Defendant accumulates support payment arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, the Defendant shall be subject to earnings withholdings.

(2) The Defendant is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the Support Order is in effect; and

(3) Failure to comply with paragraph (2) above will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty and 00/100 ($250.00) Dollars, and may result in the Defendant's not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholdings.
