numbered years;

(i) New Year's Eve in odd-numbered years with the Defendant from 8:00 p.m. through New Year's Day at 8:00 p.m.; the Plaintiff having New Year's Eve in even-numbered years from 8:00 p.m. through New Year's Day at 8:00 p.m.;

(j) Thanksgiving to the Defendant from Thursday at 3:00 p.m. through Friday at 8:00 p.m. in even-numbered years and from Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. through Thursday at 3:00 p.m. in odd-numbered years; the Plaintiff having Thanksgiving from Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. through Thursday at 3:00 p.m. in even-numbered years and from Thursday at 3:00 p.m. through Friday at 8:00 p.m. in odd-numbered years;

(k) Easter/Spring Break with the Defendant in odd-numbered years; the Plaintiff having Easter/Spring Break in even-numbered years;

(l) the Christmas school break shall be divided equally each year. The Defendant will have visitation from Christmas Eve through Christmas Day at 5:00 p.m. in odd-numbered years; the Plaintiff having visitation from 5:00 p.m. on Christmas Day through 5:00 p.m. on December 26th in odd-numbered years. This schedule will be reversed in even-numbered years. With this basic guideline, the parties shall equally divide the balance of the Christmas school holiday;

(m) the holiday schedule has priority over weekend schedule;

(n) the Defendant will have eight (8) weeks during the children's summer school vacation, allowing the Plaintiff to have the first two (2) weeks of that summer vacation. If the children are involved in one summer camp only, that week would be attributed to the Plaintiff's time, even if it occurs during the Defendant's time; in the scenario, the children could still go to camp during the Defendant's summer vacation, but the Defendant has an extra week during the summer so that, despite the one (1) week of summer camp, the Defendant still has eight (8) weeks total. In the event that the children are involved in a second camp during the summer, that second week of camp time will come from the eight (8) weeks given to the Defendant and there will be no make-up week for her. The children will attend the camps only if one of the parents can be involved in supervision if it is permitted;

(o) the parties will share visitation transportation by meeting at Shoreline Seafood in Crofton, Maryland for pick-up and drop-off. They are to cooperate with the timing of the pick-up and the drop-off. In the event that the Plaintiff drives all the way to Harford County for pick-up and drop-off in any one week, then the Defendant shall do all transportation the following week by driving to and from St. Mary's County for pick-up and drop-off; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Plaintiff will keep the Defendant regularly and promptly informed of matters relating to the children's health, education, religion and welfare. The parties shall participate in decision making concerning the minor children's health, education, religion and welfare but, in the event of any disputes, the Plaintiff has the final say in the decision making process. The Defendant shall be the parent who does haircuts for the minor children; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Defendant will be informed of any medical problems or medical emergencies immediately when they occur. The Defendant will receive copies of any school reports, report cards, disciplinary actions, and the Plaintiff will send a letter to the

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Defendant shall pay child support to the Plaintiff in the amount of TWO HUNDRED AND SIXTY EIGHT DOLLARS AND SIXTY FIVE CENTS ($268.65) per month, effective January 1, 2000. Said child support payments shall continue each and every month until the first to occur of the following as to each said child: (a) each said child having married, or (b) each said child having died, or (c) each said child having become self-supporting, or (d) each said child having reached the age of eighteen (18) years, or (e) each said child having become otherwise legally unentitled to the Defendant's support; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that all said child support payments shall be made payable by way of a wage lien through the Maryland Child support Account, Post Office Box 17396, Baltimore, Maryland 21297-1396, all such payments are to include your social security number. This award of child support is made pursuant to the Maryland Child Support Guidelines and is consistent with the Child Support Guidelines worksheet filed in thee proceedings; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the obligor is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the support order is in effect; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that failure to comply with paragraph (2) of the subsection (Family Law Article, Sec. 10-120) will subject the obligor to a penalty not to exceed $250.00; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Defendant's child support obligation shall be abated for two (2) months during the summer of the years 2000, 2001, and 2002. This temporary abatement is a deviation from the Maryland Child Support Guidelines but is in the best interest of the minor children inasmuch as the Plaintiff enjoys substantially greater financial resources then does the Defendant, has more assets and a greater income, and further considering the Defendant is presently undergoing physical rehabilitation; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that each party is waiving any and all claim for alimony; and it is further,
