JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This matter was scheduled before this Court on October 26, 2000. The parties appeared with counsel and recited an agreement to the Court which resolved the contested issues and then proceeded to submit testimony and evidence to corroborate the grounds for divorce. Upon consideration of the agreement and testimony submitted by the parties, it is thereupon this 22nd day of November, 2000, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED, that the Plaintiff, Christopher A. Welch, is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Susan Lynn Welch. It is further

ORDERED, that the parties shall have joint legal custody of their minor child, namely Christopher A. Welch, Jr., born March 9, 1994. The Plaintiff shall have residential custody of the minor child reserving reasonable and liberal rights of visitation as set forth in the Memorandum of Understanding Addressing Custody and Child Support dated October 10, 2000. This Agreement is hereby incorporated but not merged into the judgment of divorce. It is further

NOV 21 2000

ORDERED, that as set forth in the Memorandum of Understanding dated October 10, 2000:

(a) Residential and Regular Visitation Arrangements: Plaintiff and Defendant agree that their son, Christopher, shall live primarily with the Plaintiff. Christopher shall be with the Defendant every other weekend from Friday after school or day-care until 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Defendant agrees to be responsible for transportation of Christopher on Friday and Plaintiff agrees to be responsible for transportation of Christopher on Sunday.

In addition to the "regular schedule" described above, both parents encourage and support liberal and flexible arrangements for Christopher to be with the Defendant. They agree that two days notice is desirable.

(b) Holidays and Special Days: The schedule for holidays and special days, which shall supercede the regular schedule, shall be as follows:

Thanksgiving Day: from 9:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m., alternating yearly beginning with Defendant in 2000. If Christopher is scheduled to be with the Defendant on the weekend after Thanksgiving, then he shall also be with the Defendant on the Friday after Thanksgiving;

Christmas Eve: every year with Defendant from December 23, whenever Defendant is available to pick up Christopher, until 9:00 p.m. on December 24;

Christmas Day: every year with Plaintiff from 9:00 p.m. on December 24 until 9:00 a.m. on December 26;

Parents's Birthdays: to the extent that work and school schedules permit, from 8:00 a.m. until 8:00 a.m. the following morning, with Defendant on her birthday and with Plaintiff on his birthday;

Father's Day and Mother's Day: Sunday from 8:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m., with Defendant on Mother's Day and with Plaintiff on Father's Day.

(c) Vacations: Christopher shall spend two vacation periods each summer with the Defendant. Each vacation period shall be ten days, typically beginning on a Friday and ending on a Sunday. Vacation time would supercede the regular schedule.

(d) Grandparents: Defendant and Plaintiff wish to encourage a loving relationship between their son and his grandparents. They further agree that should Plaintiff predecease Defendant, Plaintiff's parents shall have visitation rights of one weekend per month, or should Defendant predecease Plaintiff, Defendant's parents shall have visitation rights of one weekend per month.

(e) Move Away: Although Plaintiff and Defendant each indicate that they intend to remain living in the same geographical area as they do now, in the event either of them chooses to move permanently such that the custody and visitation schedule described above is no longer practical, Defendant and Plaintiff agree to give the other parent a minimum of thirty (30) days written notice in advance of said move, to renegotiate the custody and visitation schedule, and if no agreement with respect thereto can be reached, to submit the dispute to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) Modification to the Custody and Visitation Schedule: Plaintiff and Defendant recognize that they may choose to revise the above-defined schedule to meet their needs and Christopher's needs. Other than occasional modifications, any long-term revisions shall be by mutual consent in writing. It is further

ORDERED, that this Court has determined that the Defendant would pay the Plaintiff the sum of $219.00 per month as child support in accordance with the Maryland Support Guidelines. The parties rounded the child support figure to $220.00 per month for which the Defendant would be required to pay the Plaintiff accounting from October 1, 1999. The Court found that this minor deviation would support the best interests of the minor child based upon the mutual promises and covenants contained in the agreements recited herein. The parties agree that the Defendant would accumulate a child support obligation of $4,580.00 accounting from October 1, 1999 until October 1, 2001 after a deduction of child support payments made by the Defendant in the amount of $700.00. The parties have agreed that the Defendant will waive her right, title and interest in the parties' Chevrolet pick-up truck and van which have a gross combined value of $9,175.00. The Plaintiff would be required to pay the Defendant the sum of $4,580.00 as her interest in the vehicles. As an equitable solution, the parties have agreed that the Plaintiff will not be required to pay the Defendant the aforementioned purchase money and the Defendant would be given a credit towards her ongoing child support of $4,580.00. Commencing October 1, 2001, the Defendant will be required to pay child support in the amount of $220.00 per month payable on the first day of each month by a wage lien through the Department of Social Services, Bureau of Support Enforcement. It is further

ORDERED, that the parties have agreed that the Plaintiff shall have use and possession of the family home known as 29703 Skyview Drive, Mechanicsville, Maryland until the sale and settlement of the residence. During the use and possession period, the Plaintiff will be required to pay the mortgage, utilities, insurance and general maintenance of the property. The parties have agreed that the property shall be listed with a real estate broker on or about June 1, 2001 with a provision in the listing agreement that settlement shall not occur before September 1, 2001. Upon sale, the proceeds shall be equally divided between the parties after the satisfaction of outstanding mortgages, sales commissions and costs. If the parties are required to install a new well prior to settlement and one party pays 100% of the cost, that party will be reimbursed 50% of the cost from the non-paying party's sales proceeds. It is further

ORDERED, that, by consent, the Defendant shall receive her marital share of the 401K deferred compensation plan maintained by the Plaintiff through his employment with Besche Oil Company, Inc. The marital share shall be 50% of the value of the account as of October 26, 2000 and this Court shall retain jurisdiction to enter the appropriate Qualified Domestic Relations Order which is acceptable for processing with the plan administrator in order to effectuate the transfer of the marital share to the Defendant. It is further ORDERED, that all other issues of personal property and debt have been resolved by the parties through their Memorandum of Understanding dated October 10, 2000. It is further

ORDERED, that the Defendant is required to notify this Court of any change of address or employment so long as this support order is in effect and failure to do so may subject her to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in her not receiving notice of earnings withholding proceedings.
