Agency will aid

The first Baltimore agency designed solely to provide job counseling and placement for workers over 60 will open its doors this year.

The over-60 Employment Counseling Service will be a non-profit agency providing its services free of charge to the older job applicant.

Organized by an independent group of men and women from the fields of social service, education, business, religion and civic affairs, the project was initiated by the Maryland State Conference on Social Welfare, whose study of the economic aspects of aging indicated the extreme need for such a service.

The officers of the executive committee, elected at a recent meeting, are Henry E. Corner, chairman of the Board of Governors; Rev. Don Frank Penn, vice-chairman; Miss Mary T. McCurley secretary; and Clarence J. Roberts, Treasurer.

The Over-60 Service hopes

The organizing address of the Over-60 Service is care of the Maryland State Conference on Social Welfare, 24 W. Franklin St., Baltimore 1, MD.

Gadabouting In Baltimore

From now on calendar blossoms with specialties

With Lula Jones Garrett

The news, this week, is chiefly in the making.

Lambda Kappa Mu sorors will celebrate their Founder's Day with a luncheon at Wilson's Restaurant, Saturday afternoon at 1 p.m., with Mrs. Irma G. Dixon, of the State Legislature, as speaker.

A couple of hours later, the Baltimore chapter of Girl Friends will be holding forth with Frances Vessells for their monthly session.

Next day (Sunday) Modes Royal Club will be having their fashion show in the Sheraton Belvedere Hotel, beginning at three in the afternoon.

The following Saturday (the 2nd.) Pi Beta Sigmas will host at the Steelworkers Hall, and earlier in the afternoon, (1 p.m.) The Eastwide Women's City-Wide Committee for Delinquency Prevention will meet at a luncheon to make plans for the annual Blue Ribbon Tea on March 3.

Dr. John T. Williams, president of Maryland State College will be the principal speaker at the tea, and the 50-voice Glee Club of Maryland State Teachers' College will provide the music.

The tea, you know, provides funds to send teen-age girls to the Methodist Church Camp at Camp Lothian, Maryland. Last year the group sent 35 girls to the camp.

The East Side committee elected officers, recently, inducting Mrs. Obiedell Alston as president; Mrs. Blanche Barnes as secretary; and Miss Hester Milligan as treasurer.

Mrs. Kelly Jackson will serve as chairman of the tea, this year. Her co-chairman is Mrs. Lillian Jones.

Phi Beta Sigmas' Founder's Day (to be participated in by Sigma Wives, also) will be in the Belvedere Hotel on the 27th.

Kappa Chapter of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority's History Week observation, a banquet honoring members of the Society of Living Makers of "History" will take place on the 10th at the Willard W. Allen Masonic Temple. Dr. Roland C. McConnell, professor of history at Morgan State College, will be speaker.

Americans for Democratic Action have scheduled the 15th annual Roosevelt Day Dinner in the Charles Room of the Sheraton-Belvedere Hotel on the 10th.

John P. Rocher, national ADA chairman, and professor of political science at Brandeis University, will be speaker. Oliver W. Singleton AFL-CIO regional director will preside. Howard H. Murphy is dinner chairman.

Alpha Phi Alpha will host their "Sweetheart Ball" on the 15th. This year, at the Civic Center.

CHARLOTTE P. FLANAGAN was the superb hostess at that dinner party given for her area team members and faculty members of School No. 226, Friday night.

The party was in her lovely Montebello Terrace home. Highlight of the evening was the shower for faculty member Marion Langley, new mother.

Illness kept Bertha Colbert away from the affair and Sarah Greenwood had to dash to Virginia to be with her parents who had just been in an automobile accident.

But those about to enjoy the luscious dinner and the fellowship which followed included Mae Cornish, Bertha Goodman, Gertrude Harwood, Grace Burkett, Jane Ahson, Catherine Maclin.

Also Fay Contee, Lillie Wilkes, Asalee Portee, Edythe Harris, Shirley Swafford, Norene Burroughs.

And Mary Gordon, Johndelle Crawford, Bessie Black, June Gee, Mozella Hemphill, Leroy Flanagan, Donald Hoes, Robert Palumbi and Clement Richmond.

NAOMI CAMPER is still president of the For-Win-Ash Garden Club.

She was re-elected at that suave dinner party given for the club by Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Hunt, Thursday. Also into office went Dr. Martin Rodney, vice president; Miss Nellie Buchanan, financial secretary; Mrs. Mae Campbell, treasurer; and Mrs. Madeline Harding, corresponding secretary.

And when the voting was over and the spring program discussed Elise (Mrs. H.) shepherded the group into her dining room (after martinis) for a sampling of her expert cookery, including barbecued chicken, tossed salad, a special dish of candied potatoes, hot roells, etc.

And about to show appreciation for the viands were Verna Gospell, Rosalie McGuire, Carrie Johnson, Inez Kent, Ada Veney, Madeline Harding, Mae Campbell, Allimay Kendrick Anne Payne, Nellie Buchanan and Mrs. Camper.

SIGMA WIVES held a session at Wilson's on Saturday, with the president, Mrs. Parlett Moore giving an over-all review of the year's work.

The meeting was attended by Dorothy Yorkman, Elaine Shaw, Billie Jordan, Alma Stubbs, Elizabeth Tilghman, Emma Dorsey, Marguerite Wilkins, Violetta Lee.

Hazel Phillips, and Violet Whyte, Edith Saunders, Juanita Hill Naomi Camper; Reva Lewie, Geneva Woods, Catherine Johnson, Cora Gibson, Ruth Reddick, Ossie Clay, Juanita Addison Betty Cox, Esther Wiles and Thelma Moore.

SOME TWENTY faculty members of School No. 145 enjoyed a belated holiday dinner at the Sheraton Inn, Friday evening.

The committee which arranged the party included Helen Jackson, Bernice Robinson, Daniel Dixon, William Parry and Paul Hinton . . . along with Principal Geroge E. Simms.

Dining together were Mesdames Lillian Simmonds, Ellen Stewart, Bodine Yorkman, Bernette Torrence, Madeline Campbell, Reba Brown, Leona Sullivan, Nellie Qartar.

Also Miriam Gwynn, Dorothy Johnston, Pauline Owens, Charlotte Swann, Adele Foreman and Mary McPherson;

George Simms, who is principal of the school; William Perry, Daniel Dixon and Paul Hinton.

A PTA banquet and a theatre party are among the spring activities planned by the committee.

MAMIE WIDGEON's charming party . . . a dinner and shower . . . was for Justina Chandler, who is to be Mrs. Leonard Lyles, and held in the Widgeons' Whittier Avenue home.

Guests piled gifts of lines lingerie, even a wig hat, under the beautiful lace umbrella . . . paused to admire the honoree's engagement ring (and could have added compliments for the chic blue ensemble she was wearing).

The hostess was lovely in strawberry wool . . . and also drew compliments for a fabulour menu she concocted of hot chicken salad in French pop-overs; molded salad, blue berry ring filled with fresh strawberries, etc. . . .

At the party were Victorine Adams, Justina Chadler, Dorothea Foster, Hester Greenway, Susie Moore, Alma Smith, Myrtle Tompson, Esther Harris, Ruth Paysour, Irene Harris and Mrs. Widgeon.

NEWLY-WEDS feted, this week, included Charles Johnson and the former Maude Lyles, who were guests at dinner of Mrs. Ann Davis, Saturday.

Other guests were:

Mrs. Helen G. Woodland, Mrs. Mary Holley, Clarence Shuler, Mrs. Anna M. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lavorne, and Mrs. Richard Broadway of Chestertown, Pa.

Mrs. Henrietta Locks, Mrs. Pearlemae Gold, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Morton and Mrs. Margret Dennis.

THE TWAINS' January meeting was with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ward . . . and a sort of carry-over from the end of last year's doings.

For instance, they donated $25 to the Provident Hospital Building Fund, and sent the annual donation to the Crownsville Hospital Tag Month sale.

Come February, the club will celebrate its 25th anniversary. Milton Branch heads the group.

POT-POURRI: That doll that arrived for the Arthur Harveys (she's the former Cynthia Camper) on Monday, has been named Michelle Ruth . . . and she tipped the scales at eight pounds, 10 ounces.

Bernice Buckner is up and Culloh Street and she is able to read and enjoy cards of cheer. She had a terrific bout with pneumonia.

Julia Theresa Perry and Hyder S. Cousar have chosen a December 26, 1963 date for their wedding in St. Peter Claver Catholic Church.

Louise Marie Hinton and Charles McHenry Jones perked up to Bel Air, Md., for their marriage on Saturday.

And Ada Lomax of Howard University was in town for the weekend. She visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Askew Gatewood of Goldfield Avenue.

Eva Brown, of McCulloh St., went out of town. She visited Louise Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ward in New York, and spent some time with Lucille Hart, New York mortician.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Frisby were among the guests of Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein and Mrs. Goldstein, at the State House, Annapolis Monday. They attended Mr. Goldstein's induction into office and the reception which followed.

IOTA CHAPTER, Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority held its monthly meeting at the Madison Ave. YWCA.

Presiding was Iota baseleus Susie B. Myles. Soror. Arabella Ross informed the group of the gala success of Iota's recent party where honorees were the new formally organized LKM Hubs (husbands).

Soror Doris Adams presented the LKM Youth Group, The Little I's. They will be formally presented to the sorority at the Iota Founder's Day luncheon, Saturday.

Soror Imogene Douglas is chairman of the Founder's Day Luncheon.

The Founder's Day theme is "Enlightened Youth In A Dynamic Age." The Honorable Irma George Dixon will be the guest speaker.

Sorors attending the meeting were:

Susie B. Myles, Gladys Baird, Bettye Shelton, Alma Reddon, Esther Morris, Mary Owens, Myrtle P. Jones Imogene Douglas, Margret B. Yates, Lillian B. Johnson, Doris White, Fannie Ewell,.

Bertha Sembly, Arabella Ross, Doris Adams, Geraldine Smith, Doris Harvin, Pattie Holloway, Roslyn Catlin, Violet H. Whyte, Louise Turks, Veta Greig, Zerita Skates, Mary Silva, Dorothy Smith, Naomi Johnson and Valleria Brown.

Bridge tourney

The Maryland Bridge League has scheduled a Charity Bridge Game for 8 p.m. Wednesday Jan. 30, at the Emerson Hotel.

The National Multiple Sclerosis Society, its Maryland Chapter, and The Institute of Logopedics will benefit from funds raised by the affair.

Mrs. R. B. Rogasner, secretary of the league, announced that play is open to the public, and persons can register at the hotel on the evening of the game. An entry fee will be charged.

GLENWOOD!

GLENWOOD!!

GLENWOOD!!!

DEAR FELLOW VOTERS of the 6th DISTRICT, Baltimore, Md.:

I, Reba C. Taylor, have accepted with sincerity, dignity and pleasure the job as Campaign Manager for Mrs. Madeline W. Murphy who is a candidate for a member of the Baltimore City Council from the Sixth District.

Friends, fellow Democrats, let's face it. Mrs. Murphy is one of us. She is capable, intelligent and if you will read her platform, all fine factors mentioned there: More jobs for you in City Government; More pay for Domestic Workers, Trade Education for School Drop Outs; Welfare payments in line with the high cost of living, these planks are of the most vital interest to everyone within our district — South Baltimore, Mt. Winans, Fairfield, Curtis Bay and Cherry Hill.

Mrs. Murphy, who lives at 3217 Round Road, is right here where she may be easily contacted and is always ready to lend a listening ear to all problems and to resolve them in a satisfactory manner.

I am sincere when I say GO OUT AND VOTE FOR MADELINE W. MURPHY on MARCH 5, 1963. Go out with the knowledge that Mrs. Madeline W. Murphy will get you better jobs — a paramount need in the 6th District. Go out with the knowledge that she will do all she can possibly do to bring into being all the five planks in her platform. Please vote for Madeline W. Murphy, not for three. Get to know her; talk to her sometime.

We are often misunderstood by people who do not know us. I have found Mrs. Murphy to be kind, understanding and always ready to help with problems of all kinds. DON'T WE NEED SUCH A PERSON?

She has asked that you give her a chance to serve you as your representative. WON'T YOU GIVE HER A CHANCE?

The fact is, we have always voted before for candidates we didn't even know — We know Madeline W. Murphy and her qualifications. We know her and believe what she says she will do — SHE WILL DO. We don't know the other candidates; they come from another community.

MADELINE W. MURPHY is ours; we are very close to her and she to us.

MEET ME AT THE POLLS, MARCH 5th, for a victorious election, for our own MADELINE W. MURPHY. We need the support of the whole Sixth District.

I hope you have gotten the message.

Very truly your servant

REBA C. TAYLOR,

Geography of modern Africa to be offered at Morgan

A course entitled "The Geography of Modern Africa" will be offered in the Morgan State College Evening School in the spring term beginning Feb. 6.

The offering is one of 48 available in the spring term of College in the Evening, Henry W. Winslow Sr., director, has announced.

It is a credit course dealing with the climate and environment of Africa and the effects of these on the political, economic and social life of the continent.

Lectures from African embassies, the Department of State, and the United States Information Agency will be presented throughout the course which will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

The course is designed primarily for business and professional people of the Baltimore Metropolitan community and should be profitable for all students of the social sciences.

AMONG THE lecturers invited to participate during the spring term are: Robert Kitchen, Office of the Administration, Agency for International Development, U.S. Department of State; Eugene Sawyer, Office of Private Cooperation, U.S. Information Agency; Joe Noone, Policy Application Officer for Africa, Voice of America.

Embassies invited to send lecturers this term are those of Libya, Morocco, Somalia, Madagascar and the Union of South Africa.

The entire seminar series will be broadcast by the Voice of America.

INSTRUCTOR for the course is Mrs. Evelyn C. Hightower, Unit Head at Calverton Junior High School.

Mrs. Hightower is a former teacher of geography and head of the social studies department at Cherry Hill Junior High School. For 15 years, she taught at Dunbar High here.

She is a graduate of Miner Teachers College in Washington, D.C., and the University of Wisconsin. She also has studied at Howard University and the American University. In 1960, she received a Fulbright Grant to study at the University of Brazil in Rio de Janiero.

She has served as chairman of the Geography Section of the Maryland State Teachers Association and as co-chairman of a committee that prepared the Course of Study in Geography for the senior high schools in Baltimore City.

She is a member of the National Association of Professional Geographers and of the National Council for Geographic Education.

For Women Only

By BETTY K.

I sat across from my minister perplexed and a bit confused.

You see, I had heard about Planned Parenthood and about how it helped to furnished information about birth control to married women who wanted to plan their children and not just have them by chance. It had sounded so wonderful to me.

My husband and I have three children and John — that's my husband just got switched to another shift which doesn't pay as much and we can just about make ends meet now. Another baby would really "fix" us!

That's the Reason that I was so happy when my next door neighbor had told me about Planned Parenthood. But my happiness was short-lived. I told my mother that I was going to make an appointment and the roof fell in.

She said that birth control was against my religion and that the church did not want its congregation to keep children from being born.

She carried on so that I decided that the best thing to do was to see you to get the truth about how the church.

The "you" in this case was the Rev. Marion Bascom, but it could have been any one of a number of clergymen who are members of the Clergymen's Advisory Board of Planned Parenthood, including the Revs. Frank Williams, Herbert Edwards, E. R. Payne, Calvin Jackson and Harrison Bryant;

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

AFRO Honor Roll plaques awarded at Fellowship House

WORKSHOP on health facilities and job opportunities in the field by the members of the Health Committee of the Baltimore Urban League, who are also members of the Women's Auxiliary to the Monumental City Medical Society, was held in the home of Mrs. Roland Smoot, recently. Committee members above are, left right: Mesdames Archie Robinson, William R. Birt, Oakley Saunders, Shirley Clinton, Roland Smoot; Dr. Frank Furstenburg, who is chairman of the League's Health Committee, and who conducted the workshop; and Mrs. John Chissell.

Eleven individuals and representatives of three organizations were honored on Tuesday evening at Fellowship House.

Occasion was the AFRO's 23rd annual ceremony to cite citizens who have given superior public service without thought of gain.

Those honored were named to the AFRO's 1962 Honor Roll for service they gave in the previous year.

All received handsome bronze plaques with their names inscribed.

The plaques, 8¼ by 10¼ have gold and green symbols on a black background.

Symbols are a pen for journalism, scales for equal rights, torch for light, a printing press and the lion for courage.

James D. Williams, AFRO assistant managing editor, presided at the ceremony, which was attended by honorees and members of their families.

He said: "May the words of these tributes be engraved on the hearts of all of us as we pause in the dizzying pace that is our lives to honor those who so richly deserve honor . . ."

John H. Murphy 3rd and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Phillips, AFRO president and vice president, presented the plaques. Mrs. Jean Williams pinned corsages on the female guests.

THOSE CITED included the Md. League of Women Voters. Mrs. E. R. Pierson, president, for Helping to stimulate public awareness on the importance of voting. In the absence of Mrs. Pierson, Mrs. William Spiegel, League membership chairman, said: "We are proud to have been selected for this honor. We shall endeavor to continue to serve the community in the future."

Also absent on account of illness, was the Rev. Frank Williams, president, Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance, cited for its equal job opportunity program.

THE REV. Sidney Daniels, Emmanuel Christian Community Church, accepted the award, stating:

"We realize the importance of the economic life. We have an abiding concern for the principles of democracy. We shall try to continue to merit this great honor you have given us."

"I trust I will be of more service in the future," said Attorney William A. C. Hughes Jr., another honoree.

Mr. Hughes, is a dedicated lawyer who has given his life to the service of the community.

He was remembered as a volunteer NAACP lawyer active in all successful court action for equal rights in Md.

"It is a pleasure to serve the community and my race," he said.

HERBERT M. FRISBY, who conducted a one - man campaign for more than 40 years, to gain recognition of Maryland born Matt Henson, co - discoverer of the North Pole, revealed he has other plans.

After receiving his plaque, he announced he is engaged in a program to have Matt Henson's remains moved to the National Cemetery.

Alvin J. T. Zumbrun, director of the Md. Crime Investigating Committee, received the plaque with these words. "We shall try to deserve this honor in the coming years. I am truly grateful."

He was honored for his effort to create a crime - free community through the nonprofit organization he directs.

* * *

CITED FOR her homemaking mastery, Mrs. Josephine Monroe, mother of 14 children, 12 of whom are living, accepted the plaque, saying: "I will cherish it always. I thank you all very much."

About the rearing of children Mrs. Monroe said, "Children need praise. Children need good examples to follow. Children are not always perfect. They are children.

"Teach them to do the best they can, with faith, love and respect the rights of all and face each day with a smile."

Receiving the AFRO's highest award, the Honor Roll Plaque for his infinite concern for children, young people, the poor, the forsaken, the needy was Father Robert M. Powell.

Director of the Lafayette Square Community Center, Father Powell said, "This is a very cherished honor, but it shall serve also to remind me of the greater test ahead."

DR. SAUL PERDUE, principal of Carver Vocational High School, and Mrs. Lillian Parrott Murphy, principal at Douglass High School, were both praised for being "educators with awareness."

Recognizing the vital need for extra-curricular interest in the well-rounded educational program the two individuals are dedicated to the responsibility of preparing their students for the future.

Mrs. Murphy thanked the AFRO for the plaque but added that she did not feel deserving. For, as she explained, it was through the team work of both teachers and pupils that an advancement was possible.

Dr. Perdue said, "I'm still wondering how and why I got this. The real work is yet ahead, may God give us courage and strength to face it."

THE FELLOWSHIP House, often referred to as the "Laboratory in Human Relations," received the plaque for having been a moving force in making Baltimore a more democratic city.

Accepting the award were: Ruben F. Jones, chairman of the board of directors; Miss Ann Miller, president; and Miss Ruth Fegley, executive director.

Mr. Jones said, "If there is one person who deserves individual recognition for the success of the Fellowship House it is Mrs. Fegley. All her time and effort is here."

Dr. Edward N. Wilson, educator, churchman, civic worker and longtime registrar of Morgan State College was dubbed "Mr. Baltimore," for his civic activities.

"It is a pleasure for me to accept this special honor. But there are so many things I should have done and don't do. I accept this beautiful plaque as a reminder of this," said Dr. Wilson.

AUTHOR, educator and historian, Dr. Benjamin Quarles, received the Honor Roll Plaque for contributing significant data to the history of the colored American.

The head of the Morgan College History Department has written several books, two of his most outstanding books are: "The Negro and the American Revolution," and "Lincoln and the Negro.

Dr. Quarles has also written articles in many leading publications.

"This will always be an occasion to remember," he said. "But I would like to point out that a writer ownes a great deal of credit to a number of persons. I take this opportunity to thank also those people who have helped me."

DR. H. MACEO Williams, director of the Druid Hill Avenue Health Center for 23 years, was unable to attend the presentation because he was ill. Mrs. Eugenia Williams, his wife accepted the plaque for him.

Upon accepting it she said, "When I left the house I received two instructions. One was from my husband who told me to express his gratitude. The other was from our 4 - year - old grandson.

He instructed me to give the plaque to him, when I brought it home, so that he could give it to his grandfather, himself. This plaque will be hung on the wall, not only for us to cherish and admire, but also to inspire future generations."

Dr. Williams was awarded notion to the practice of medicine

the plaque for unstinting de-

THE RIGHT REV. Monseigneur David I. Dorsch, an outstanding spokesman for human rights in the community received the plaque for his noteworthy contributions.

"This is one of the nicest things that has ever happened to me. I am unworthy because I have only done what I ought to have done," said Father Dorsch, who is the head of the Associated Catholic Charities.
