JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This matter having come before the Master for Domestic Relations Causes in regards to the Amended Complaint for Absolute Divorce, the Plaintiff being present with Counsel, the Defendant being pro se, an Agreement having been submitted to the Court and clarifications thereof made on the record, and testimony taken in support of the Amended Complaint for Absolute Divorce, and findings and recommendations having been made without any exceptions being filed thereto, it is this 19th day of

Nov, 2003, by the Circuit Court for Saint Mary's County, Maryland hereby

ORDERED that the Plaintiff, Michelle Diane Tymczyszyn, is granted an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, Theodore John Tymczyszyn; and it is further

ORDERED that the parties shall have joint legal custody of Aniela Kylene Tymczyszyn (date of birth: January 10, 2000) with primary residential custody of the minor child to the Plaintiff, Michelle Diane Tymczyszyn; and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall have reasonable visitation with the minor child as set forth herein:

03 NOV 19 PM 3:25

- A. The Defendant shall not have any overnight visitation with the minor child at this time saving therefrom any special event (e.g. a wedding and/or short vacation) provided that the Defendant provides at least a thirty (30) written notice to the Plaintiff in regard thereto;
- B. Aniela is currently three and one-half (3 ½) years of age. When Aniela attains the age of twelve (12) then Aniela will be considered to be of a "decision making age" and therefore Aniela shall be able to have input as to whether any visitation shall be overnight; and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall pay Seven Hundred Eighty Five Dollars ($785.00) per month in child support directly to the Plaintiff accounting from November 1, 2003 and continuing every month thereafter until such time as the child attains the age of eighteen (18), dies, marries, or is emancipated, however, if at the time of termination by reason of age, the child has not yet completed secondary school, support shall continue if the child is enrolled as a student, until the completion of high school or the occurrence of any other terminating event, but in any event no longer than arrival at the age of nineteen (19); and it is further

ORDERED that in addition to the $785.00 per month that the Defendant shall pay one-half (½) of any additional and/or extra expenses that arise for and/or on behalf of Aniela including but not limited to pictures, shoes, special occasion dresses, extra activities, horseback riding lessons, dog shows, 4-H girl scouts, and/or JOBS Daughters; and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall pay one-half (½) of the private school education expense concerning and/or on behalf of the minor child during the time that the minor child is in Pre-school, grade school, high school and/or college, and it is further

ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall maintain the life insurance on the minor child's life which is currently in effect with Gerber Grow Up. This is a whole life policy. The Plaintiff shall maintain and pay any and all insurance premiums in regards to this life insurance policy until the minor child attains the age of 18; and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant does hereby guarantee that he shall make and/or pay any and all health and/or medical insurance premiums that may come due and owing on behalf of and/or in regards to the Plaintiff, Michelle Diane Tymczyszyn, as long as same is available to the Plaintiff through the Defendant's employment. In the event that the Defendant at any time quits his current job with Applebee's then such would not be a legal excuse to terminate this obligation and therefore the Defendant shall continue to be required to pay and maintain any and all health and/or medical insurance premiums due and owing in regards to the Plaintiff; and it is further
