ORDER

After considering the testimony and arguments of counsel in the above cause, and for the reasons given in open court on 24 July 1987, it is this 31st day of July 1987, by the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, ORDERED as follows:

That Nancy Messick, the above named Plaintiff be, and she is hereby granted an ABSOLUTE DIVORCE from Eugene Messick III, the Defendant.

That Plaintiff is hereby awarded the care and custody of Joy Messick, the minor child of the parties, with visitation rights to Defendant as set forth in the Judgment of Limited Divorce dated 4 April 1985.

That Defendant shall pay directly to Plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the minor child, the sum of One Hundred Twenty Dollars ($120), semi-monthly, payable on the 15th and 30th of every month, except for the month of February when the payments shall be due on the 15th and 28th.

That Defendant shall pay directly to Plaintiff as rehabilitative alimony for a period of three (3) years from the date hereof, the sum of One Hundred Forty Dollars ($140), semi-monthly, payable on the 15th and 30th of every month, except the month of February when the payments shall be due on the 15th and 28th.

That Defendant shall carry and keep in force the current health insurance, or its equivalent, on the minor child and shall pay three-fourths (3/4) of all medical and dental expenses, including the cost of medicines and drugs prescribed by a physician or dentist for said minor child, which are not covered by insurance; Plaintiff shall pay the remaining one-fourth (1/4) of said medical and dental expenses not covered by insurance.

That Defendant shall pay all outstanding medical and dental bills incurred by Plaintiff prior to the date hereof, including the cost of medicines and drugs prescribed by a physician or dentist, which are not covered by insurance.

That Defendant shall pay all outstanding bills and debts incurred by the parties prior to their separation in connection with the following accounts: Montgomery Ward, Sears, Sunoco, Omni, and VISA.

That the property located on Town Point Road, Cambridge, Maryland, is designated as marital property having a value of $66,000. Each of the parties has an equal interest therein. The said property shall be sold with the net proceeds to be divided equally between Plaintiff and Defendant.

That the townhouse owned by Defendant in Elkton, Maryland, has a value of $45,000 and is subject to the lien of a $42,000 mortgage. That the $3,000 equity in the townhouse is designated as marital property with each of the parties having an equal interest therein.

NO. 13986 CHANCERY MESSICK -vs- MESSICK

That the Mercedes Benz is designated as marital property, having a value of $500. Each of the parties own an equal interest therein. The said automobile shall be sold with the net proceeds to be divided equally between the parties.

That the Radio Shack computer, printer, disc drives, tapes, books and programs are designated as marital property having a value of $1,500. Each of the parties own an equal interest therein. The computer equipment shall be sold with the net proceeds to be divided equally between the parties.

That the ham radio equipment, stereo equipment, tape deck, speakers, record albums and tapes acquired by the Defendant prior to the marriage are nonmarital property and are owned by the Defendant.

That the Coachman Travel Trailer is designated as marital property having a value of $1,900. Each of the parties own an interest therein. The travel trailer shall be sold and from the net proceeds of sale, the first $1,500 shall be paid to Plaintiff and the parties shall equally divide any amounts received above $1,500.

That the 1983 Honda Prelude automobile owned by Defendant is designated as marital property having a value of $8,400. The said automobile shall be sold with the net proceeds of sale to be divided equally between the parties.

That the U. S. Savings Bonds acquired during the marriage and owned by Defendant are designated as marital property having a value of approximately $375.00.

That the stock in the stock plan at Delmarva Power acquired during the marriage and owned by Defendant is designated as marital property having a value of $12,737.47.

That the Savings and Thrift Plan at Delmarva Power accumulated during the marriage and owned by Defendant is designated as marital property having a value of $2,783.80.

That the Defendant has accumulated certain pension rights to benefits incident to his employment with Delmarva Power having a present value of $106,633.70. That that portion of the benefits accumulated during the marriage of the parties, having a present value of $26,521.93, is designated as marital property.

Plaintiff is granted a future sum or sums of money equal to a fractional share of Defendant's retirement pension as, if, and when he receives it. The fractional share payable to Plaintiff out of each pension payment Defendant receives is: one-half of a fraction of which the number of years and months of marriage (9 years, 10.5 months) is the numerator and the total number of years of employment credit toward retirement is the denominator. If Defendant takes his pension as a lump sum, he must pay to Plaintiff the sum of $26,521.93 plus simple interest thereon at the rate of 10 percent per annum from the date hereof to the date of payment.

As a part of the monetary award, Plaintiff is awarded the sum of Nine Thousand Four Hundred Forty-Eight Dollars and Thirteen Cents ($9,448.13), which represents one-half of the total value of the Defendant's Savings and Thrift Plan, stock plan, U. S. Savings Bonds and equity in his townhouse.

That Lawrence G. Bohlen, attorney for the Plaintiff, and Hamilton P. Fox, attorney for the Defendant, are hereby appointed as Trustees for the sale of all property heretofore designated to be sold. That the Trustees' Bond for said sale was waived by agreement of the parties. That any and all sales as enumerated herein shall take place within ninety (90) days, and that any and all payments between the parties shall be made within a reasonable period of time thereafter.

That since Defendant has substantially more income than Plaintiff and the Plaintiff was justified in filing this action, the Defendant shall pay unto Lawrence G. Bohlen, attorney for the Plaintiff, the sum of $1,875, $1,000 of which shall be designated as a contribution toward counsel fees and $875 toward the payment of the actuary's fees.

That the support provision of this Order constitutes an immediate and continuing withholding order on all earnings due the Obligor on and after the date of this Order, subject to the conditions set forth in Md. Code Ann. Fam. Law Art., §§ 10-120, et seq.

That, if the Obligor accumulates support payment arrears amounting to more than 30 days of support, he shall be subject to earnings withholding.

That the Obligor shall notify the Court within 10 days of any change of address or employment so long as this support order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject him to a penalty not to exceed $250, and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

That the provisions relating to custody, visitation, and child support shall be and remain subject to the further order of this Court.

That Eugene Messick III shall pay the cost of this proceeding.

ORDER OF COURT

This cause having come on for hearing before the Court on July 22, 1987, on Plaintiff's Complaint to enforce visitation rights, the parties having appeared with counsel and the Court having heard stipulations of the parties, testimony of both parties and argument of counsel, it is this 3rd day of ~~July~~ September, 1987, by the Circuit Court of Dorchester County

ORDERED that the following visitation schedule shall be in effect as of July 22, 1987:

1. The Father, Jeffrey Foglesonger, Sr., shall be allowed to call the Fritts' home two (2) times per week for the purpose of talking to the Child, Jeffrey Foglesonger, Jr.. Said telephone calls shall be between the hours of 7:00 P.M. and 9:00 P.M. The duration of each such telephone conversation shall not exceed ten (10) minutes.

2. The Father is to give his home telephone number to the Mother, Connie Fritts. The Mother is not to divulge said number to others and to call only when necessary.

3. The Father is not to be around the Fritts' home when both Mr. Chester Fritts and Connie Fritts are not at their home together, and Father so consents. Mother consents not to be around Foglesonger home, except to pick up her son, unless specifically invited to the Foglesonger residence by an adult member of that residence.

4. The Father is to supply the Mother with a medical insurance card for the Child. Said insurance coverage shall be kept in effect until October 1, 1987.

5. The Mother is to notify the Father at least thirty (30) days prior to moving from the State of Maryland, and further, to re-establish and re-set the visitation rights of the Father.

6. The Father shall have visitation every other weekend, commencing July 24, 1987. On the designated weekend, and for so long as mother's work hours permit. Father shall pick child up at the home of the Mother between 5:00 P.M. and 5:15 P.M. on Friday night and return Child to home of the Mother by 8:00 P.M. on the following Sunday night. Mother to make every effort to have the Child ready by 5:00 P.M. When picking Child up or delivering Child back to the home of Child's Mother, the Father shall wait in his vehicle at the curb, and not come into the home or enter onto the property of the Mother. If the Father desires to bring the Child back to the home of the Mother prior to the designated time of 8:00 P.M. on Sunday night, he shall notify the Mother by 9:00 A.M. of the day he wants to return the Child early, stating the time he will return the Child. It is further expressly ORDERED, that while Father has Child on a "visitation", that Child is to be taken by Father to all activities that Child would otherwise be attending were Child residing during that time period with the Child's Mother. (Such activities to include, but not be limited to, all ball games for which he is a team member, all scouting functions, all birthday parties, and other related activities.) Father is not to attempt or otherwise discourage Child from participation in the aforesaid activities in any way. In the event that the Father cannot, or does not desire to take the Child to said activities, he may forego visitation for that weekend and have visitation on the next weekend following instead of the normal scheduled visitation weekend.

7. The Holiday visitation schedule shall be as follows:

A. Father's Day: If not on Father's weekend, Father may pick Child up at 9:00 A.M. and return him by 8:00 P.M. that evening.

B. Mother's Day: If on Father's weekend, Father to allow Mother to pick up Child from Father's residence at 9:00 A.M. Mother's Day morning, or if Father does not desire Mother to pick child up at 9:00 A.M. as aforesaid, then Father shall return child to home of Mother by 9:00 A.M. on Mothers' Day morning.

C. Thanksgiving: Alternate every other year; 1987 with Mother, 1988 with Father etc.

D. EASTER: Alternate every other year; 1988 with Father, 1989 with Mother etc.

E. Christmas: Christmas Day shall be divided into two segments. 1.) Christmas Eve at 8:00 P.M. until Christmas Day at 12:00 noon; 2.) Christmas Day at 12:00 noon until 8:00 P.M. Christmas Day night.

For year 1987, Father shall pick up Child at 12:00 noon on Christmas Day and return him by 8:00 P.M., if not on his weekend. If on his weekend, the normal weekend schedule would apply.

For year 1988, Father shall have Child from 8:00 P.M. Christmas Eve night until 12:00 noon on Christmas Day. Mother shall have Child from 12:00 noon of Christmas Day until 8:00 P.M. Christmas night if Christmas Day falls on a weekend scheduled for the Father.

8. Vacation Visitation of Father: Father shall be entitled to have Child visit with him during the actual time Father has his regular paid, normal vacation, from his place of employment for a period of time during the summer not to exceed three (3) weeks. Said vacation shall commence at 6:00 P.M. on Sunday (if not Father's previously scheduled weekend) and shall end on a Sunday at 8:00 P.M.. Father to give sixty (60) days prior notice to the Mother of the dates of his vacation schedule. If the vacation is to be taken in one consecutive three (3) week period, then Mother shall be entitled to a weekend visitation commencing at 6:00 P.M. on Friday of the second of the three (3) weeks and ending at 8:00 P.M. the following Sunday. Father shall verify his vacation schedule with his employer in writing. Should Father desire to take overnight trips with Child, Father shall provide to the Mother the names and places where they will be and the names, telephone numbers and locations of their confirmed accommodations while traveling. Mother also agrees to provide Father with the name, telephone numbers and locations of their confirmed reservations, should Mother take Child on an overnight vacation, and it is further

ORDERED that the Complainant, Jeffrey Foglesonger, continue to pay the Defendant, Connie Fritts, through the Department of Social Services, Dorchester County, Maryland, child support in the amount of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per week for the minor child of the parties until October 1, 1987, at which time the weekly amount shall increase to Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per week, and it is further

ORDERED that if the Complainant, Jeffrey Foglesonger, accumulates support payment arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, he shall be subject to earnings withholdings; and it is further

ORDERED that the Complainant, Jeffrey Foglesonger, is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as this Order is in effect, and failure to do so will subject him to a penalty not to exceed Two

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This case standing ready for hearing, the parties having appeared in open Court with appropriate counsel, and a stipulation regarding various issues having been prepared, signed and filed with the Court, the proceedings were by this Court heard and considered.

It is thereupon this 4 day of December, 1987, by the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, ADJUDGED AND ORDERED that a Judgment of Absolute Divorce be, and hereby is, entered in favor of the Plaintiff DARLENE C. PATRICK, and against the Defendant CHARLES H. PATRICK, JR., and

IT IS ORDERED that Husband will pay child support to the Wife in the amount of $500.00 per month.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Husband will pay temporary alimony to the Wife in the amount of $300.00 per month, these payments to cease two years from the date of a final decree of divorce.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Wife shall retain full custody of the couple's minor children. Husband shall enjoy liberal visitation privileges regarding these children. Husband shall have his son on alternate weekends; Wife shall deliver him to Husband on Friday evening and Husband shall return him to the Wife's residence on Sunday evening. The parties shall alternate major holidays with their son, the Wife to have him with her on Mother's Day and the Husband to have him with him on Father's Day, notwithstanding. The Wife shall have their son with her on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, and the Husband shall enjoy his presence for 3 to 4 consecutive days after Christmas Day so that they may celebrate the holiday together. Husband shall also have his son with him for 2 consecutive weeks during the summer.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Husband and Wife shall make all major decisions regarding their son's upbringing on a joint basis.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Husband will provide for all medical insurance for their children under his policy with the Delmarva Health Plan, but Wife shall pay for the $5.00 copay provision of the Husband's health insurance policy regarding prescriptions.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall split all dental and eyecare costs evenly between them.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Husband shall sign over to the Wife any and all interest he holds in the 1984 Chevrolet Monte Carlo currently owned by the parties jointly. At such time the Wife agrees to assume sole responsibility for all ownership and operational expenses regarding this vehicle.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Husband will claim two minor children as dependents on his 1987 tax returns; he shall claim one child in both 1988 and 1989 and no children for the years beyond 1989.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Husband shall sign over to Wife all interest he has in the jointly-held building lot at the corner of Stoneboundary and Southside Drive in Cambridge, at which time she shall assume all responsibility for same.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Wife shall retain all household furnishings and other personal property jointly owned by the parties; Husband shall retain only those items which are his own personal property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Husband shall continue in effect the family policy of life insurance which covers all members of the family, and Husband agrees not to remove the children as the designated beneficiaries of this policy.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party shall pay his or her own counsel fees without any application to the other for any contribution, and that Husband shall pay the costs of these proceedings.

* * * * * * * * *

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

The matter having come before the Court, it is this 25th day of February, 1988, by the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, ORDERED:

1. That the Plaintiff, TAMELA BRUMWELL WHAPLES, be and hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the Defendant, RANDY NELSON WHAPLES; and

2. That the Plaintiff shall have custody of the minor child of the parties, GRAHAM NELSON WHAPLES; and

3. That the Defendant, RANDY NELSON WHAPLES shall have visitation with the minor child of the parties every other weekend from 6 P.M. Friday to 6 P.M. Sunday, commencing on Friday, October 2, 1987. The Plaintiff, TAMELA BRUMWELL WHAPLES, shall make one pick-up or delivery of the minor child from or to Cambridge out of every four trips from the Western Shore to the Eastern Shore and Eastern Shore to the Western Shore that the minor child needs to take to exercise visitation. That is to say that every other visitation the Plaintiff shall be responsible for transporting the child to or from visitiation, as the parties choose to arrange it. The Defendant shall have alternate holidays with the child's birthday, May 10, 1988, substituted for Easter. He shall have the child for Christmas 1987. As used herein the word "holidays" shall mean Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and the child's birthday. In Addition, the Defendant shall have visitation rights with the child every Father's Day.

4. That alimony is waived as to both parties; and

5. That the Defendant, RANDY NELSON WHAPLES shall continue paying $25.00 per week child support through the Domestic Relations Division of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, Equity Number 3107632. If the party who owes support (obligor) is in arrears more than 30 days, he or she shall be subject to earnings withholding. The obligor is required to notify this Court within ten days of any change of address or employment so long as this support order is in effect. Failure to notify the Court of a change of address or employment will subject the obligor to a penalty not to exceed $250.00, and may result in the obligor's not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding; and

6. That the Plaintiff shall be restored to her maiden name: TAMELA ELIZABETH BRUMWELL.

7. That the parties shall each pay one-half of any open Court costs.

IN THE

CIRCUIT COURT

FOR

DORCHESTER COUNTY

CASE NO.: C1713

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

THIS CAUSE standing ready for hearing and being duly submitted, the proceedings were by the Court read and considered.

It is thereupon, this 18th day of May, 1988 by the Circuit Court for Dorchester County,

ADJUDGED AND ORDERED, that the said ANN MARIE POLIDORE, the above-named Plaintiff be, and she is granted an ABSOLUTE DIVORCE from the Defendant, CHARLES JAMES JOSEPH POLIDORE.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Agreement between the parties dated April 7, 1988, relative to custody, child support, alimony, property rights, counsel fees, court costs, etc., be and the same is hereby approved and made a part of and incorporated in this Judgment, but not merged therein, having the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, ANN MARIE POLIDORE, be and she is hereby granted care and custody of THOMAS HENRY POLIDORE and STEVEN BRYAN POLIDORE, minor children of the parties, subject to reasonable visitation by the Defendant in accordance with the terms of and as more fully set forth in the said Agreement.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Defendant shall pay directly the sum of FORTY-TWO DOLLARS and .50/100 ($42.50) per week per child for the maintenance and support of each child, accounting from the date of the said Agreement, in accordance with the terms of and as more fully set forth in the said Agreement.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that if the Defendant accumulates support payments arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days, he shall be subject to earning withholdings; he is required to notify the Court within ten (10) day of any change of address or employment so long as he is obligated to pay child support in accordance with this Judgment of Divorce; and failure to do so shall subject him to a penalty not to exceed TWO HUNDRED FIFTY DOLLARS ($250.00), and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earning withholdings.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that Defendant shall pay to plaintiff temporary alimony of the sum of ONE HUNDRED FIFTY DOLLARS ($150.00) per week, accounting from the date of said Agreement, in accordance with the terms of and as more fully set forth in the said Agreement; subject to a reduction once Plaintiff obtains a reduction in the mortgage payments on the marital home through the Farmers Home Administration, said reduction to equal sixty percent (60%) of the total reduction in the mortgage payments so obtained; however, the temporary alimony shall never be less than EIGHTY-FIVE DOLLARS ($85.00) per week.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that this is a qualified domestic relations Order as defined in the Retirement Equity Act of 1984, as from time-to-time amended, and in accordance therewith, the civil pension known as Solo Cup Profit Sharing Plan, employer identification number: 09226-36-22-84172, plan number: 001, is the civil pension which is subject to this Order. The participant in the pension is the Defendant, CHARLES JAMES JOSEPH POLIDORE, who presently resides at Route 1, Box 288F, Federalsburg, Maryland 21632. The alternate payee is the Plaintiff, ANN MARIE POLIDORE, who presently resides at Route 1, Box 18, Rhodesdale, Maryland 21659. The Plaintiff/Alternate Payee's equitable interest in said pension is hereby declared to be fifty percent (50%) of the "marital share" of said pension benefit, the marital share being that fraction of the benefit whose numerator shall be the number of months of the parties marriage during which benefits were being accumulated, which number is 111, and whose denominator shall be the total number of months during which benefits were accumulated prior to the time when the payment of such benefits shall commence. The Plaintiff, ANN MARIE POLIDORE, shall receive fifty percent (50%) of the aforesaid marital share of any payments made from the pension to the participant, including any death benefits, if, as, and when such payments are made.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff be and she is hereby authorized to resume her maiden name of "ANN MARIE McCAULEY ". IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Defendant, CHARLES JAMES JOSEPH POLIDORE, pay one-half (1/2) of the open court costs of this proceeding, including any examiner's fee, pursuant to said Agreement.
