WHEN YOU FINISH READING YOUR AFRO PASS IT ALONG TO A FRIEND

Gadabouting in Baltimore

Clubs set for Fall; Pierians plan show

With Lula Jones Garrett

Club women were back in stride, this week, with the coming season, according to their plans, being something to look forward to.

Mrs. G. James Fleming, new president of the Pierians, gathered that group at her Southern Avenue home, Saturday afternoon, to discuss the already started plans for this year's art show.

This year's featured artist will be Gordon Parks, the famed photographer, who will exhibit his private collection along with photographs from the collection of the national magazine with which he is affiliated.

The show, which is jointly sponsored by Pierians and the Morgan State College Art Department, is scheduled for November 3, and will be in the Murphy Fine Arts Building. The attending reception will be formal. Later in the evening, the Pierians will have a closed cocktail party for the guest of honor and Mrs. Parks.

* * *

SATURDAY AFTERNOON was also the date for a business-fun session for the Baltimore chapter of Girl Friends.

They, as you probably know, are readying for their Christmas Cotillion, at which they will present 27 club-sponsored debutantes. This is the project designed to aid the New Provident Hospital building fund, to which the chapter contributed $2800 last year.

Anita Wheatley was hostess to the group at her elegant place on Lynchester Road...that is along with Mr. Wheatley, who handled expertly that early-end, back-of-the-bar session.

Irma Roy, newly-elected president, who has been working all summer with committees, had plans well under way.

After the business session the group took to the garden, where the cook-out was in progress. The group lingered long at the gally decorated tables, over the sumptious food...finally tearing themselves away to close the meeting under a business guise.

At that meeting were Gwendolyn Lewis, Agnes Paterson, Georgiana Chester, Gaynell Spaulding, Mae Williams, Olga Parker, Bernice Chatman, Mae Parrott, Catherine Wilson, Laura Jones, Eliza Robinson, Frances Vessels, Lula Patterson and Irma.

And despite that long and full afternoon they were up and at the YWCA, Sunday afternoon at three, to greet prospective debutantes, subdebs, parents and representatives of sponsoring clubs at a tea. Catherine Wilson chaired that affair. Irma, Olga and Gwendolyn participated in the program.

* * *

ALPHA ALPHA SIGMA Chapter, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority had their first meeting of the 1963-64 season with their new basileus, Emily J. Bryant, presiding.

The first part of the evening was devoted to program planning for the year. Soror Dorothy Riley reported on her plans for the presentation of the Manhattan Melodaires in the early spring.

Reports on the Boule held in Denver, Colorado were given by Sorors Catherine Royston, Carolyn Robinson and Catherine Hogan. Congratulations were in order for Soror Carolyn Robinson, who was elected to the National Board.

After the meeting, pictures were shown by those who attended the Boule and the rest of the evening was spent in an exchange of reports on various activities and vacation treks enjoyed during the summer vacation.

Those present at the meeting were:

Sorors Saro Banks, Emily Bryant, Gladys Brown, Pauline Butler, Eliza Diggs, Janice Evans, Hortense Franklin, Catherine Hogan, Dorothy Howard, Geraldine Jenkins.

Sorors Aray Laws, Julia Medley, Yvonne Morton, Dorothy Riley, Carolyn Robinson, Catherine Royston, Willie Mae Stanley, Ida Washington, Betty White.

Sorors Jacqueline Wheatley (who was welcomed back after a year of study at the University of Madrid) and Pauline Green, June graduate from Morgan State College.

* * *

KATHLEEN (KATHY) RHONA GRAVES celebrated her seventh birthday on Wednesday.

Her little friends gathered at her home, 120 Honeysuckle Ct., bringing pretty gifts and best wishes. There was music, games and refreshments for all.

Celebrating with her were:

Kenneth Burks, Regina Poole, Valerie Whitmore, Winifred Whitmore, Gail Russell, Jackueline Russell, Gregory Bonds, Michael Thompson, Linda Thompson, Ulysses Richmond, Diane Richmond.

Carrollton Shephard Jr., David Rodgers, Carroll Williamson, Janice Williamson, Francina Smith, Darnice Smith.

Supervising the games were Misses Joan, Jean and June Wright.

You'll also be seeing fashions at a luncheon at the Belvedere, on the 29th, when the Baltimore chapter of the Foundation for Music Therapy and Research for Mentally Retarded and Handicapped Children entertains.

Their artist will be Landero of New York City. Mrs. Laura Giles, Mrs. Clara Thomas, Mrs. Virginia Gunn and Mrs. Pearl Johnson are among co-chairmen.

* * *

POT-POURRI: That gayton-flight party that you saw at Friendship Airport, Wednesday was to see Rosalie Rebecca Turpin off to St. Louis, Mo., then to Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Mo., where she has accepted a post in that university's department of physical education.

Rosalie is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Waters Turpin of Morgan State College, and her parents had wanted her to spend the year in work on her master's degree. She, however, preferred the practical experience. She is well prepared in the field, for a number of years having acted as instructor in camps for girls, where her knowledge of swimming, archery, horse back riding and dancing have drawn praise from her superiors.

At the airport were her parents, her godmother, Mrs. Natalie C. Tilghman, and AKA sorors.

Two of the town's top business folks took time out to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. They were Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cooper. He is owner of the string of cleaning plants, and she of the Darcena Beauty Salon.

The Norman V. A. (Eris) Reeves of Garrison Blvd., welcomed a 9 pound 8 ounce baby boy at Provident Hospital, Friday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Reeves are phychiatric social workers in the city.

Add to new parents the Dallas (Marian) Barclifts, who are as pleased as punch with their daughter, Sheridan Eileen, who arrived on the third. A son, Dallas Jr., rounds out that family to a fine foursome. Mrs. Barclift is the youngest daughter of Augustus J. Holsey, that boastful father of a brood of girls. He has a total of twelve; seven added by remarriage and five of his own.

John and Gwendolon de Cecilio dashed over to Washington, Thursday, to meet the new ambassador from Ghana and his wife, His Excellency and Madam Miguel Augustus Reberio, at a reception given by the American Friends of Ghana.

Raleigh Alex Robinson, here from Gallup, New Mexico, is the guest of his sisters, Miss Helen Robinson and Mesdames Annabelle Moore, Dorothy Berry and Frances German; and brother, George Robinson. The kin, along with nieces and nephews, have kept him on a solid round of parties.

Mrs. Beatrice Young and Mrs. Mamie Rucker had as their recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris and grandson, Antonio Malina of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. John Frank Rucker, Mrs. Janie Buckson, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kennon, Mrs. Viola Lewis, Mrs. Jean Reffells, Walter Crump, Mrs. Elizabeth Bright, and Mr. Albert Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham, who were entertained at a cook-out and crab feast at the home of Mrs. Young, on East Lafayette Avenue.

Pauline Brooks, who had not planned that fashion show which has been a fall affair for town's women, got the big heave-ho from the gals last week. "Oh, no you don't drop that," they told her. So she is deep in arrangements for a champagne luncheon at Glenwood Coun-

(Continued on Page 11)

NEVER, NEVER, NEVER A MOTION PICTURE LIKE IT!

MONDO CANE MET COMING

MISS ELEANORA ELIZABETH ELLIOTT was married to Alvin Jerome McDaniel in the Providence Baptist Church, Baltimore, Saturday.

Dinner, dance follow McDaniel-Elliott rite

A double-ring ceremony in Providence Baptist Church, Saturday afternoon at five united Miss Eleanora Elizabeth Elliott and Alvin Jerome McDaniel.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Annie Elliott and the late George Elliott, and her husband the son of Mrs. Alverta Bowie of this city and Alvin McDaniel of Washington.

The Rev. Marcus G. Wood of Providence Church, performed the ceremony. Lueray Norris was organist and Mrs. Dorothy M. Thomas soloist.

* * *

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her god-brother, James D. Elliott, wore a gown of silk-lace peau with jeweled lace neckline and chapel train. The shoulder-length veil fell from an Alencon lace crown, and she carried a shower bouquet of calla lilies and baby's breath

Mrs. Louise Collins, matron of honor, wore shocking pink and carried a matching bouquet. Other attendants, in rainbow colors, and carrying matching bouquets were Mesdames Irma Bright and Ethel Elliott and Misses Nina and Myrtle Scott.

William Collins was best man for Mr. McDaniel, and ushers were Benjamin Tutt, Neal Bright, Theodore Bushrod and Edward Neal.

A RECEPTION, held in Wilson's Garden Room, was followed by a banquet with guests seated at tables flanking the bride's table and around the fountain from which champagne flowed.

Hostesses were Mesdames Marie Buster, Manson Brock, Elizabeth Newton, Dorothy M. Thomas and Mildred Baze.

Dancing followed, with the bride and bridegroom leading. At intermission, there were toasts and the formal cutting of the five-tiered wedding cake.

Music was by the Phil Harris orchestra.

* * *

BREAKFAST PARTIES followed at the Bowie's Reisterstown Road residence and the home of Mrs. Cornelia Baxter on Elsinor Avenue.

On the Sunday prior to the wedding a shower was given for the bride by Mrs. Elizabeth Brock.

For her daughter's wedding and wedding parties, Mrs. Elliott wore an afternoon frock of gold and green lame. The mother of the bridegroom was gowned in aqua chiffon with matching jeweled accessories and an orchid corsage.

* * *

GUESTS FROM three states and the District of Columbia attended the wedding festivities

Among them were:

Mrs. Myrtle Coleman of Miami, Fla., Airman and Mrs. Elmer W. German II, and daughter, Marilyn Rose, of Highlands, N.J.;

Mesdames Mary W. Bonas, Lillian Watson, Inell Roberson, Christine Watson, Mary Reddic, Geneva McClee, Helen Pressume; Miss Gloria Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Sullivan, Claude Watson and Carl Bryant of New York;

Messrs. and Mesdames Harold Duckett, James Irby, Bert Murray, Alvin Claggett; Mesdames Mary Redic, Geneva McClee, Helen Pressume, Polly Thompson and Bobbie White; and Fred Butler from Washington;

Mesdames James Sample, Henry Teal; Misses Irene Teal, Donna Sample and Ro-

Miss Andrewnette Nance marks 16th birthday with gay party

Miss Andrewnette Nance celebrated her sixteenth birthday at a party given by her parents, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nance, Tuesday.

The party was in the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Haskins of 4000 Grantley Road.

Miss Nancy is an 11th grade pupil at Edmondson High School, this term. She is active in the youth department of the Mt. Hope Baptist Church, of which her father is pastor.

* * *

GUESTS ATTENDING the party were:

Misses Angela Rice, Janice Bush, Regina Meekins, Delores Akers, Ernestine Akers, Ruby Meekins, Wanda Lewis, Genevieve Marcus, Ealyn Whitaker, Delores Webb, Linda Martin, Maxine Tuck;

Joseph White, Edward Redmond, Calvin Gregory Styles, Styles, Bruce Brown, Michael Newton, Albert LaForest, Robert Spence, Lantham Turner, Henious Smith, Leroy Durham, Franklin Kellum and Earl Kellum.

MISS ANDREWNETTE NANCE

We use the diaseptic process that assures diaper care clinically safe. Free from harmful bacteria.

CALL NOW—SA. 7-8593

IMMEDIATE SERVICE

Nu-Dry Baby Service

Not a laundry! We're specialists! Your baby is our only business!

A NEW CONCEPT IN SHOPPING COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE AT MONDAWMIN

Watch for Grand Opening of enclosed center ...Coming Soon!

Windsor

THE WORLD LEADERS IN WIGS...NOW BRING YOU 100% HUMAN HAIR FASHION WIGS

AS LOW AS $49.00

(Lighter Shades Higher)

We don't import wigs. We make them in our own factories. Finest quality and workmanship, far surpassing most imported wigs. We save you import duty costs and middleman profits. WINDSOR, the world leaders, offers an exquisite array of 17 colors from jet black to frosty platinum. No junky synthetics. Lovely 100% human hair. Nationally advertised, the WINDSOR label is your guarantee of quality.

Now you can swim or wash your own hair only moments away from date time, and look lovely all evening long . . . Thanks to WINDSOR'S Human Hair Fashion Wigs.

Now being featured at . . .

ESTHER HOUSE OF STYLES

3016 WEST NORTH AVENUE

PHONE 945-0755 FOR FREE HOME DEMONSTRATION

NO OBLIGATION

MISSES JERELENE HUGGINS, left center, and Barbara Mae Weaver were married to Charles W. Graham, left and James L. Huggins in a double ceremony in Mt. Hope Baptist Church, Baltimore, recently.

Sister, brother wed in double ceremony

On Saturday afternoon at five Misses Barbara Mae Weaver and Jerelene Cherry Huggins became brides in a double ceremony in Mt. Hope Baptist Church performed by the Rev. Andrew Nance.

Miss Weaver was married to Miss Huggins' brother, James L. Huggins, while Miss Huggins became the wife of Charles W. Graham.

* * *

MISS HUGGINS was given in marriage by her father, Robert L. Huggins, and attended by her sister, Miss Gail Huggins, who wore a gown of lace and nylon, with satin shoes, a veil of illusion, and pearl jewelry. She carried a white satin prayer book topped with white roses and carnations.

The maid of honor wore Jade green taffeta with matching accessories and carried gold and white carnations. Bridesmaids, who included Misses Mary Banks and Angela Green, were gowned in gold frocks and carried gold and white carnations.

Deborah Thomas was flower girl. Her frock was white and her flowers white and yellow daisies. Kenneth Brooks was ring bearer.

Mr. Graham had as best man, Nathaniel Brunson. Usher was Arnold Sterling.

* * *

MISS WEAVER chose white satin for her wedding gown, with a veil of illusion. She carried white roses and carnations on a white satin prayer book.

Miss Elsie Moore was her maid of honor, and she, also wore Jade green and carried gold and white carnations.

The bridesmaids, Misses Barbara Graham, Delols Graham and Curlen Dugger, wore Jade green frocks and carried white carnations.

Flower girl, Betty Moore, was dressed in white, and carried white and yellow daises. Kenneth Brooks, Jr. was ring bearer.

Robert Huggins Jr. was best man for his brother. Ushers were Robert Collins, Jimmy Peters and Kenneth Brooks Sr.

* * *

A RECEPTION followed at the Elegante, Forest Park Avenue, where 350 guests were received by the two couples.

Gwen Williams wed to John Law

MARTINSVILLE, Va. — Miss Gwendolyn Yvonne Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams, Spencer St. and John Lawson Law Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Law, Jackson St. were united in holy matrimony at an improvised altar at the home of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Anderson Armstead Ave., Thursday evening.

A program of nuptial selections, "Oh Promise Me," "O Perfect Love," and "Evening Prayer," preceded the ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, wore a street length gown of white, fashioned with a fitted bodice with a scoop neckline, and matching mitts. Her only ornament was the groom's gift, a strand of pearls.

Mrs. Agnes Hairston Williams was the matron of honor. The maids were Mrs. Catherine Draper, Mrs. Linda Cooke, Miss Evelyn Law, and Miss Laura Martin.

Isadoe Draper, Virginia State College schoolmate of the bridegroom was best man.

The bride finished the Albert Harris High School, Martinsville. Mrs. Susie Bell Law, mother of the groom, wore a navy blue netted dress with white accessories.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Turner works shown at MGA

John Walker, director of the National Gallery of Art, announced that an exhibition of water colors by J. W. M. Turner (1775-1851) from the collection of the British Museum will open to the public on Sunday, Sept. 15, at 2 p.m. in the central gallery on the ground floor.

The exhibition comprises 80 works by England's greatest romantic painter, illustrating every phase of the artist's career. It will run through Oct. 13.

Miss Bristol bride of Millard Langley

A high point in the East Baltimore wedding season was reached redently at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church when a native son and daughter were married in an impressive Nuptial Mass.

The bride is a pert Dunbar High School business education teacher, the former Miss Carrie Mae Bristow, 1962 graduate of Morgan State College.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Bristow (Ella) of 1221 N. Dallas St., she was married to Millard (Mickey) Langley of 1012 N. Eden St.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John N. Lndsay, and the nephew of Miss Myrtle Langley, city schoolteacher for 43 years.

* * *

MR. LANGLEY was a former student at Morgan, an Air Force veteran, and employed at a local refectory firm.

Father Sappario officated at the one - hour mass witnessed by a capacity audience.

The newlyweds were a picture of regal spendor — she in a striking white bridal ensemble and he in morning attire.

Miss Maggie Bristow, a sister, was maid of honor and Mesdames Carolyn Harper, Betty Merritt, Misses Jacqueline Knight, Gwendolyn Richardson; Mesdames Charlotte Wortham, Marion Martin, and Marion Watson, bridesmaids.

* * *

FLOWER GIRL, and ring bearer were Michelle and Gregory Quick niece and nephew of the bride.

Ulysses Perry, Ronald Yoes, Robert Alston, William Adams, Thomas Green and Louis Harris Jr. were usherers.

A catered reception followed in the St. Francis Xavier Hall at 930 N. Eden St.

MRS. CARRIE MAE LANGLEY

...Gadabouting

(Continued from Page 10)

try Club, West Friendship on Sept. 29, at 2:30.

ELEGANT PARTY of the week . . . that on Friday night given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Barrington Road for James Atwater and his perfectly delightful French - speaking bride, Collette.

She is a native of the French West Indies. The Atwaters met while he was stationed there.

She is a native of the French West Indies. The Atwaters met while he was working for the French Government in Africa, following his going abroad to study French on a scholarship. They were in Baltimore en route to North Carolina, where he was taking her to meet his family. They will return to Washington to live.

Guests gathered mid-evening to meet the couple and to get acquainted over the wide variety of drinks and hors deouvres (from clams on half shells . . . on) and to linger on past midnight for dinner (from turkey and ham, etc. to a filet gumbo that was out of this world).

About were Dr. and Mrs. Frank Washington, Messrs. and Mesdames Nathan Harris, 3rd., James Walden, Robert Stephens, Ernest Ward, Floyd Rogers, Irvin G. Hawkins, Melvin Callaman; Misses Sarah Stroud and Mary Jones; and Samuel M. Parham.

* * *

THE BEAUTIFUL GARDEN of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Camper was the setting for the For-Win-Ash Garden Club's annual fall garden party, Saturday.

Highlighting the afternoon were fashions, from the latest in dress and millinery to the newest in wigs.

Odell Rea narrated for Mabel Burton, Pat Press and Melinee Yerrell, who showed the clothes and hats. And the wigs were worn by Cathyrn Parker, Reva Lewie, Charlotte Ann Robinson, Ann Camper and Cynthia Harney. Added to this, Patricia Greene, Jill Collins, Banda V. Lee and Marsha Jordan modeled debutante gowns.

That magnificent refreshment table, done in the club colors in an array of flowers and centered with a fountain, was the artistry of Myrtle Lee and Madeline Hardtaug.

Guests at the party were:

Mesdames Emma Bright, Theresa Waters, Mildred Bry ant, Delva Ingram, Martha Thompson, Cecilia Harris, Elsie Robinson, Maud Williams, Carrie Hanks, Ethel Wright;

Mesdames Emma Clark, Effie Scott, Elizabeth Marshall, Zerch C. Williams, Effie T. Payne, Rayn Greene, Charles Carter, Minnie Davis, Vernice Vanlincott, Mildred Banks, Dora Hutchinson;

Mesdames Verda Welcome, Sara Gwaltney, Louise Sheppard, Antoinette Spriggs, Lillian Ross, Mary B. Newton, Edna Lane, Ruth Foster, Gwenevieve Spencer;

Mesdames Rebecca Browne, Catherine Greene, Eugene Payne, Seleta Payne, Hein Polk, Mary Churth, Edith Goodwin, Iona Collins;

Miss Marion Jones and Margaret Gassaway; Lt. Col. C. A. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Talmadge Pinkney, Messrs and Mesdames L. A. Lewis, John Cromwell, Eugene Payne and Arthur Harvey;

Members of the club are:

Drs. and Mesdames Gilbert Banfield, Charles Campbell, Charles Davidson, Ivan Higgins, Raymond Hunt, Albert LaForest, Martin Rodney;

Leslie Bell, Douglas Camper, James Crowner, Herbert Frisby, William Gosnell, George Harding, Harold Kent, John McGuire, Frank Veney;

Mesdames Olga Chambers, Ruth Foster, Myrtle Lee, Lula Patterson, anne Payne and Misses Nellie Buchanan and Cathryn Parker.

(cnub) season was off with a bang, Sunday, as th epresident, Leone Felton entered the group with a business the newly - elected officers and then moved members to the lawn where they were joined by husbands and friends for a prolonged evening of fun.

Business included the reading of a letter of thanks from Dr. Martin Luther King, who whom the club sent $100 to aid in the Freedom March. Incidentally, they will have the Freedom Fight, along with provident Hospital as special projects, this year.

Along with Mrs. Felton, the officers who will guide the club this year are Alverteria Lee, vice president; Helen Hopkins, recording secretary; Zelma Parker, financial secretary; Susie Moore, treasurer; Geneva Brown, corresponding secretary; and Charlotte Johnson, business manager.

Other members are Susie Graham, Viola Randolph, and Natalie Phelps.

Their guests on Sunday were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Anderson and John DeCecilio; Hector Lindo, Joseph Felton, William Lee, Lindsey Hopkins, Raymond Parker, Mr. Randolph, Theodore Johnson (the latter are husbands of members.)

* * *

MR. AND MRS. Sterling Boardley were hosts at a cook-out on Monday, when they had as out-of-town guests Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Thompson of Newark, N.J., Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis and son, Monty, of Richmond, Va. and Ernest Adkins of Philadelphia.

Local guests were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Doctry, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Robinson, Mrs. Lina Hill, is Elese Johnson, Mrs. Hattie Owens, Miss Mary Waddell, Miss Dorothy Cooper and Bill Reddick.

AN INVITATION

TO ALL RESIDENTS OF THE METROPOLITAN AREA TO ATTEND CULTURAL EVENTS AT

MORGAN STATE COLLEGE

During the 1963-64 school year Morgan State College will present a wide variety of programs to which the general public is invited. Except for the Sunday concert series, there is usually no admission charge for these events. Our objectives are to share the rich cultural experiences afforded our students and to contribute to the cultural life of the community and thus make Baltimore a better city in which to live.

Shown: Carl Murphy Auditorium Fine Arts Center

THE FACULTY LECTURE SERIES

This series represents an attempt by the College to share its faculty with the community. Coffee and discussion following each lecture. In the McKeldin Student Union on the third Thursday of each month at 8:15 p.m.

September 26 (Fourth Thursday) ... New Patterns of Control in the American Economy Dr. Samuel L. Myers, Professor of Economics

October 10 Forces Redirecting the New Science Education Dr. Thomas P. Fraser, Professor of Science Education

November 14 The Adolescents of Iran Dr. Regina M. Goff, Professor of Education

December 12 The Negro in the Current American Theater Dr. Waters Turpin, Professor of English

January 16 Meeting the Food Demands of An Exploding World Population Dr. John W. King, Professor of Biology

February 13 The New Urban Community Dr. Homer E. Favor, Director, Urban Studies Institute

March 12 The Women of Nigeria Dr. Irene Diggs, Professor of Sociology

April 16 Space — An Interesting Experiment of Our Time Dr. Julius H. Taylor, Professor of Physics

May 14 New Viewpoints in Negro History Dr. Benjamin Quarles, Professor of History

THE MORGAN MUSIC HALL CONCERTS

A series of concerts presented in the Carl Murphy Fine Arts Center on Sundays at three o'clock.

November 17, Ruth and Naomi Segal, Duo-Pianists

January 12, Don Shirley Trio, Piano-Cello-Bass

February 16, Martina Arroyo, Metropolitan Opera Soprano

March 15, Lawrence Winters, New York City Opera Baritone

April 19, Turnau Opera Players—Rossini's "Barber of Seville."

Season subscription (five concerts) $8

Single admission $2

Purchasers of season books will be listed in the souvenir program as Supporting Friends — final date for listing, October 15. We gratefully acknowledge the patronage of more than thirty business firms in the Baltimore area.

For reservations, write or call

The Business Manager, Morgan State College

ART EXHIBIT SERIES

The Carl Murphy Fine Arts Center

September 23—October 25

The College Collection

November 3—November 27

Gordon Parks — Photographer (Mr. Park's new book The Learning Tree, will also be introduced) Co-sponsored by the Pierians.

December 4 — December 19

(Ibrahim) Salahi of the Sudan — Paintings

January 3 — January 31

Vis - Vis — Prints from the Metropolitan Museum of Art

February 5 — February 26

Ruth M. Bernstein — Paintings and Prints Also Works of Morgan State Art Majors

March 2 — March 25

Churches and Temples — Post-War Architecture

April 1 — April 15

Alfonso D. Muldro — Photography

April 20 — May 6

Works of Teachers of Art in Maryland Public Schools — In cooperation with the Maryland Art Association

May 10 — June 1

Director's Choice — A first showing of works of leading younger American students donated to the College through the American Federation of Arts. Also Works of Morgan State Art Majors

THE LISTENING HOUR

A series of stereophonic recordings each Monday at 10:00 a.m. beginning September 30. Studio 301 in the Carl Murphy Fine Arts Center.

THE RELIGION IN LIFE LECTURE SERIES

A series of monthly lectures concerned with religion in modern life. The Morgan Christian Center. October 13 at 10:30 a.m. and October 14 at 11:00 a.m. Dr. Harry V. Richardson, President Interdenominational Theological School. Others to be announced.

THE STUDENT UNION PROGRAM

Among its many activities, the Student Union organization presents a number of lectures, concerts, discussions and exhibits, usually on Tuesday afternoons. In the McKeldin Student Union. Specific events to be announced.

CLASSIC MOTION PICTURE

A series of films selected on the basis of their cultural, historical and artistic merits. The Carl Murphy Auditorium, usually on the third Thursday of each month at 8 p.m.

October 17, The Ballet of Romeo and Juliet;

November 21 The Burden of Proof (Social Problems);

December 19, Life in the Arctic; January 9, Four Families (Anthropology); February 20, Face of Lincoln, Lincoln Speaks at Gettysburg and The Civil War; March 19, Hemingway (Literature); April 23, The Living Stone and The Rivers of Time (Art); May 7, Man and God and The Recovery of Oedipus (Humanities).

DEBATE TOURNAMENTS

The D. O. W. Holmes Debate Society will sponsor two tournaments on the national debate topic. Participants will include eastern seaboard colleges and universities. January 4 and March 21, in the McKeldin Student Union.

ART CLASS FOR CHILDREN

There are a limited number of openings in the art class for children held on Saturday mornings from 10 - 12 o'clock. For enrollment call Mr. James Lewis, Head, Department of Art.

THE ALUMNI READING GROUP

The reading group selects a series of books to be discussed at monthly meetings held in the Harper House Lounge on the third Sunday of each month.

Intended especially for alumni but open to others. For enrollment call Miss Clara B. Anthony or Mrs. Eleanor Q. Tignor, Department of English.

DIVISIONAL CONFERENCES

Each Division of the College sponsors an annual Faculty - Student Conference which includes lectures, seminars and discussions.

October 24, 25, Humanities Division. Speaker at public meeting: Ralph Ellison, author of The Invisible Man and other works. Theme: Folk Elements in American Art and Culture. December 6, 7, Natural Science Division. Speaker at public meeting: Dr. Jerome B. Wiesner, Special Assistant to President Kennedy in Science and Technology. Social Science Division Conference to be announced.

BOOK OF THE MONTH PROGRAM

All Morgan State students are encouraged to read a designated paper-back book each month. Lectures, discussions and films centered about these books are to be announced. October, The Invisible Man (Ellison); December, Matter, Mind and Man (Sinott); February, Too Late The Phalarope (Paton); March, Poverty and Deprivation in the United States; April, Diary of a Young Girl (Anne Frank).

THE MORGAN STATE COMMUNITY ORCHESTRA

The purpose ofthe orchestra is to afford symphonic musicians of every race and creed an opportunity to learn to play symphonic works. Dr. Vallotton Sebastian Hart, conductor. Rehearsals will begin October 3 and will continue each Thursday from 7 - 9 p.m. Studio 301, the Carl Murphy Fine Arts Center. Players of all symphonic instruments are invited to join. For further information call Dr. R. Hayes Strider, Head, Department of Music.

THE COLLEGE ASSEMBLY

The College Assembly features lectures, concerts, and student activities. There is usually space for a limited number of guests, Wednesdays at 10 a.m. in the Carl Murphy Auditorium. Specific events to be announced.

OTHER EVENTS — Dates to be Announced

— Two evening public lectures by outstanding speakers
— One public lecture by the Visiting Scholar-in-Residence
— A concert by the Community Orchestra
— Concerts and lectures sponsored by organizations
— Presentations by the following student groups: The Ira Aldridge Dramatic Society, The College Choir, The College Orchestra; The College Dance Group

Morgan State College welcomes to its campus all individuals and to its classes all qualified students without regard to race.

FALL TERM REGISTRATION

DAY AND EVENING CLASSES

SEPTEMBER 19, 20

To be placed on our mailing list to receive announcements of these and other campus events, send your name and address to

The Assistant to the President
MORGAN STATE COLLEGE
HILLEN ROAD AND COLD SPRING LANE, 212-12
CLIFTON 4-6870

This announcement is not printed at public expense.