Morgan ROTC cadets win 2nd honors in camp ratings

Morgan State College ROTC cadets ranked second in overall summer camp standings at Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, Pa.

Approximately 3,100 ROTC cadets, represents 64 colleges, participated in the training program.

Morgan's cadets captured another important honor.

They placed first in the "physical combat proficiency test" for which they received a trophy.

Student government president Curtis R. Smothers ranked seventh among the 3,100 cadets.

TWENTY - FIVE cadets completed the six week course. They participated in the largest ROTC summer camp ever held in the nation.

The ROTC summer camp training program consisted of a wide variety of subjects, including leadership, tactics, map reading, marksmanship, special warfare techniques and physical combat proficiency.

One of Morgan's training battalions was led by Col. James D. Fowler, professor of military science at Morgan.

"In spite of our outstanding performance," said Col. Fowler, "we shall continue to strive for perfection in the preparation of our cadets. . ."

ONE OF 64 colleges, 55 were in competition with Morgan for overall summer camp standing.

WHAT WITH the papers and the news media filled with stories of juvenile delinquents and/or school dropouts it's very heartening to look around and note the many teenagers who are quietly and seriously pushing forward ever planning for a rewarding future. Count among those leaders of tomorrow Marie, Leroy and Darhl Outlaw.

Nineteen - year - old Marie is an on - campus junior at the University of Maryland. A language and government major, Marie plans for a career in the U. S. Foreign Service.

Leroy, a tall 6 foot 3 senior at Arundel Senior High not only excells in his studies but has also won a letter for basketball and track and has served on that school's student council. Upon graduation from Arundel High, Leroy hopes to enter one of the United States Service Academys. He's also active in the Boy Scouts and will receive his Eagle award in the near future.

Fifteen year old Darhl entered Arundel Senior High as a freshman this year. She plays the piano beautifully, is a member of the school's Pep Club and the post JANGO's (Junior Army - Navy Guild Organization) Darhl has her eye on a nursing career.

Marie, Leroy and Darhl are the children of Chief Warrant Officer and Mrs. Lee R. Outlaw, who hail from Greenville, Tenn. Mr. Outlaw is with the 36th Evacuation Hospital. The summer months found him in Delaware training reserve officers.

Mrs. Outlaw is a personnel clerk in 2nd Army, adjutant general's office, processes cases of men who apply for regular army appointments.

Well traveled, while in Italy, the Outlaw's visited sixteen European countries.

Ushers re-schedule Mahalia Jackson

The Interdenominational Church Ushers Association announces the booking of Miss Mahalia Jackson for another concert recital here in Constitution Hall on Monday, Nov. 4, at 8:30 p.m.

The return engagement was scheduled as I. C. U. A.'s fulfillment of an overwhelming public demand.

Having sung in churches all her life, Miss Jackson feels most at home before an audience assembled by a church organization, a factor which promises to make her return engagement a sell-out.

As he promised many moons ago (and he always keeps his promises) Walter-Tall Man — Thomas has unveiled his Tango Garden Room at the Kleeco.

Now if you have a flair for atmosphere and charm, you've gotta peek in and see what the dapper Walter has done with the upper deck of his house of fun and relaxation.

From the staircase to the far walls of the spacious room, you get the feeling that you are indeed on the edge of paradise. You gotta see it.

Knotty Pine, the original House of the Stomp, showcases a unique feature tonight that should go over big.

Broadway entertainers will pitch a Limbo Party and this gives you a swinging chance to see how low you can go — under the pole, that is.

"You must come up to see us sometime," is the ageless but friendly invitation that Rose and "Meathall" have extended to all gay guys and gals who find the confines of the Cabana Club exciting — and this includes quite a number.

Goldsboro widow awarded $11,913

GOLDSBORO, N. C. — Mrs. Mattie Bell Forte of Fork Township was awarded $11,913 by a Superior Court jury Friday for injuries received in an automobile collision on Sept. 9, 1961.

Defendants in the suit were Marion Goodwin, a white man from this county, and the estate of Mr. Forte's husband, Clinton Forte, who was killed, along with a daughter, in the head - on collision.

Mrs. Forte suffered multiple fractures, cerebral concussion and traumatic shock. A doctor testified she had permanent partial disabilities.

The plaintiff was suing for $10,000 for permanent injuries, $10,000 for pain and suffering, and $1,913 for doctor and hospital bills. She contended the accident resulted from negligence on the part of both Goodwin and her husband.

The Commissioners approved an amendment to the Reorganization Order which permitted an expansion of the Commission from two to four members.

COLUMBIA, S. C. —, The future of the 26 public parks here, which were closed Sunday to avoid desegregation, seems now to rest with the State's General Assembly, the assembly is expected to act when it convenes in January.

State law prohibits the operation of state parks on an integrated basis and city officials moved to close the park when ordered by a federal court August 20 to integrate.

Sen. Edgar A. Brown of Barnwell, said he hopes the parks can be kept open. Sen. Marion Gressette of Calhoun, chairman of the School Segregation Committee, says the parks should be closed rather than integrated.

LAST YEAR the state's 20 white parks and six parks for colored patrons drew about 3.2 million persons. About 50 persons, most of them white, are employed at the parks for caretakers purposes. About $415,000 is appropriated annually for the operation of the parks.

Zion bishops see Kennedy on D. C. visit

WASHINGTON

The bishops of the AME Zion Church were received in a special audience at the White House recently by President John F. Kennedy as they prepared to celebrate the denomination's observances of the Emancipation Centennial.

A freedom parade in New York preceded the celebration.

The parade was made up of floats from 14 districts of the First Episcopal area and from various fraternal and civic organizations.

Under the direction of the pastor and presiding Bishop William J. Walls, bishops taking part in the observances were Raymond Luther Jones, Herbert Bell Shaw, Stephen Gill Spottswood, Charles Eubank Tucker, Joseph Dixon Cauthon, Felix Anderson, William Milton Smith, S. Dorme Larley, William Hilliard, William Cornelius Brown and Hampton Thomas Medford.

Calvert County's oldest resident dead at 114

One of Maryland's oldest, if not the oldest, native daughters has died.

She was Mrs. Alice Ireland Jones, 114 years old, of Huntingtown in Calvert County.

Funeral services were held for her last Saturday at the Putuxent AME Church in Huntingtown. She had been a life-long member of the church.

A native of Calvert County, Mrs. Jones remained active up until about two years ago. She lived in a small home by herself, but a son maintained a home close beside hers.

MRS. JONES was the wife of the late Joseph J. Jones, a farmer who also was a native of Calvert County.

Surviving are two daughters, Mesdames Littie and Essie Reed; two stepdaughters, Mesdames Genett Coates, and Leavie Jones.

Also there are two sons, Norvel and Melvin Jones; two stepsons, Harrison and Lucas Jones.

Mrs. Jones is credited with having one of the largest surviving families noted here in recent years.

There are 79 grandchildren; 202 great grandchildren; 419 great, great grandchildren; 43 great, great, great grandchildren, and three great, great, great grandchildren.

New TV series to use tan actors frequently

NEW YORK — Quinn Martin, executive producer of ABC—TV'S "The Fugitive" series, which premieres this week, has announced a policy of frequent use of colored actors and actresses in non-stereotyped roles.

For one of the episodes, "Decision In The Ring," Martin has hired four leading performers, Ruby Dee, James Edwards, Hari Rhodes and Davis Roberts.

Edwards plays an harassed prize fighter in the segment and gives a sensitive portrayal of a boxer facing an agonizing decision. Miss Dee plays the sympathetic role of his wife.

IN ADDITION to the above mentioned quartet and the series' star, David Janssen, Academy Award winner James Dunn will guest star in the "Decision In The Ring" episode.

According to producer Quinn Martin: "There are many outstanding colored performers. Talented people are talented regardless of their color. With such outstanding actors as these available to me, I'd be a fool not to use them."

EDITOR CONVINCED OF POWER OF FAMOUS FORTUNE-TELLER

BY WALTER C. ROBINSON, Editor, The Chattanooga Observer

DOC R. C. ANDERSON

mentioned on "Meet the Press" those persons who are gifted by God to see into the future and able to work miracles on earth through God? When I think of one man I do not think that prophecy ended with the Bible. Through faith and power of God this man — according to their statements — has restored the sight of Mary King, Flint, Mich., and Cleve Corbin, Chattanooga, Tenn., when they were blind.

This man has helped thousands who came from near and far with every kind of problem. Word of mouth has spread untold praise of this remarkable man. People come with heavy hearts and leave filled with joy and hope and new faith in their future.

Husbands and wives have been brought back home, and a sweetheart was, brought back given from Canada through the strange power of this gifted man. I know of a man who spent a great deal to get help to bring his wife back. In despair he came to Doc Anderson, who got results in one day. I smile when I think of the man who came to Doc Anderson to help find his unfaithful wife. Doc told him where to find her and was he surprised! Older men and women tell and marvel at the way he has restored their nature.

This unusual man — through his mysterious gifts dating back to his boyhood—has located lost stolen and hidden money—$1500 — after everybody else failed. The success of his financial blessings is known all over the world.

His famous predictions were Program September 30, 1956. It is wonderful how he tells your past, present and future without you saying a word. This remarkable man has a drawer full of unsolicited letters from grateful people testifying to their peace of mind, happiness and financial success. Most of them ended with wishes of God's blessings for Doc Anderson.

I could write for hours about his wonderful works and gifted power, but maybe you would like to see him yourself—so you may write DOC R. C. ANDERSON, 202 W. Gordon Ave., Rossville, Ga., for information about his work or phone 831-1091 if you wish to make a date to see him in person. I am told you must see him in person to be helped. I understand he can be seen seven days a week.

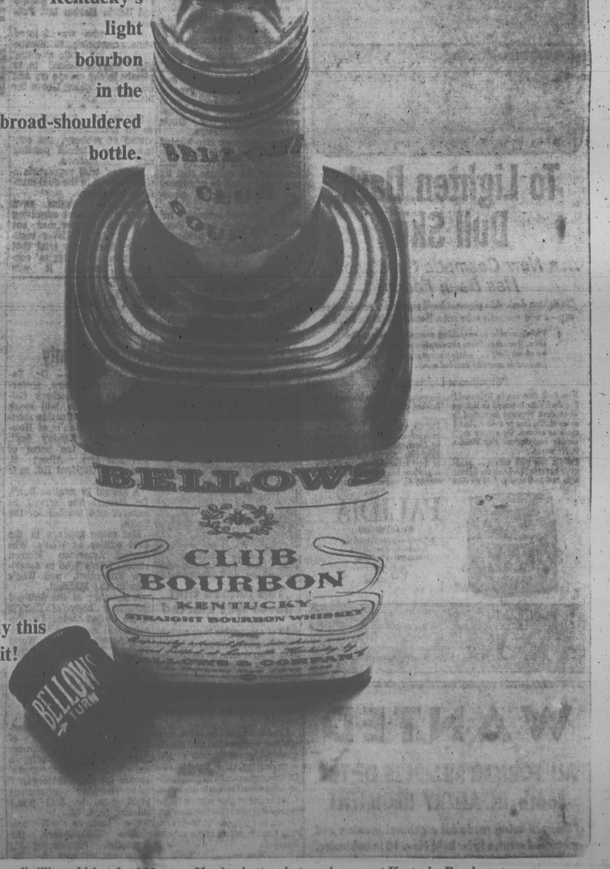
BELLOWS & CO., LOUISVILLE, KY. • KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY • 86 PROOF

Try Kentucky's light bourbon in the broad-shouldered bottle.



Only this can top it!

We've been distilling whiskey for 133 years. Here's what we do to make a great Kentucky Bourbon. ☐ We use one-quarter inch char in every barrel ☐ only #1 Government-inspected grains ☐ only charcoal-filtered water ☐ distill it twice ☐ age away one gallon in every five (to insure smoothness). Your reward: uncommonly fine flavor . . . unexpected lightness. Bellows Club Bourbon. $4.36 a ⅕ qt.
