Petitioner

1978, July 6th, Certified copy of an Order of Court on Custody and Non-Support received from the Family Court of the State of Delaware stating the following:

"ORDERED THAT

Present in Court is the petitioner, Mr. William E. Kaminski; his legal counsel, John O'Brien, Esquire; his estranged wife, Mrs. Frances I. Kaminski; and her legal counsel, Bruce Disend, Esquire.

Mr. Kaminski has petitioned this Court for Custody of the parties minor son, Jason Edward born 12/4/74.

It appears to the Court that there is no showing that the Respondent, Mrs. Frances I. Kaminski, is unfit in all respects to have the custody of the parties child or that Mr. William E. Kaminski is better able to have the child's Custody.

It is the sense of the Court, however, that a Visitation schedule should be established in order that the child may have the benefit of the best relationship possible with his father as well as with his mother.

Mrs. Kaminski has also raised the issue of her obtaining possession of certain items of property such as cooking utensils and toys which are necessary for her to care for the child and which are admittedly in the possession of Mr. Kaminski. Although there is not directly any petition before the Court relating to the matter but because it may effect the well-being of the child, the Court has undertaken to direct the parties to exert their best efforts to settle the question of division of Personal property amicably for the sake of the child.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Court sua sponte grants Custody of the aforesaid male child, Jason Edward born 12/4/74, to his mother, Mrs. Frances I. Kaminski.

2. The father, Mr. William E. Kaminski, shall have visitation with the lad Jason every other weekend for one day in the vicinity of the child's home in the company with the lad's paternal grandfather with the first such visitation to take place on Saturday or Sunday, December 3rd or 4th, 1977 until the end of February 1978. Beginning March 1978, the father shall have visitation with Jason Edward every other weekend. He will be picked up on Friday evening at 6:00 P.M. and returned on Sunday evening at 6:00 P.M.

The father shall have visitation with the child Jason Edward on every other holiday, namely Easter, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, and Christmas, with the first such visitation to be at Easter. Also the father shall have visitation with Jason Edward for 2 weeks in the summertime during the father's vacation", filed.

1978, July 6th, Certified copy of an Order of Court dated March 30, 1978 received from the Family court of the State of Delaware for New Castle County stating the following:

"BEFORE THE HONORABLE ROXANA C. ARSHT, Judge of the Family Court of the State of Delaware"

FRANCIS I. KAMINSKI
202 Maryland Avenue
Cambridge, Maryland 21613

Respondent

The parties appeared for an Emergency Hearing on the father's complaint and Rule to Show Cause Contempt regarding Visitation. Judge Warder on November 29, 1977, entered a visitation order which it was agreed had not been complied with but primarily it was based on the fact that the father did not exercise his every other weekend one day visitation for three months before he requested overnight visitation which the mother then refused. Judge Warder's order appears to have been based on the need to have the father gradually re-establish a relationship with his child after which it would be appropriate and in the child's best interests to allow the child to have overnight visitation with the father. Since the child is very young and has only seen the father three times since the November hearing, the Court as of this date, without a finding of Contempt orders the mother to grant the father visitation as set by Judge Warder to begin again the three months visitation on one day of the weekend every other weekend for three months after which the father can have overnight visitation on the weekends every other weekend. This is to begin as of this Sunday, April 2, 1978. In addition the father is to telephone in advance as he has been, but to make certain that he arrives as close as possible to the time agreed upon for him to pick up his child. He is also, when he comes for Visitation not to bring with him someone else's child or any other person other than his father. Case closed", filed.
