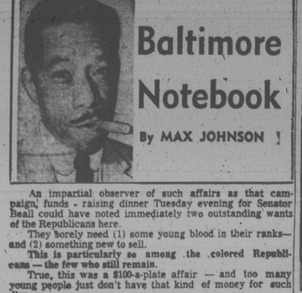
DENY DEPT. OF PUBLIC WORKS LAYOFFS



Baltimore Notebook

By MAX JOHNSON

An impartial observer of such affairs as that campaign fund-raising dinner Tuesday evening for Senator Beall could have noted immediately two outstanding wants of the Republicans here.

They borely need (1) some young blood in their ranks—and (2) something new to sell.

This is particularly so among the colored Republicans — the few who still remain.

True, this was a $100-a-plate affair — and too many young people just don't have that kind of money for such dinners.

Everybody knows, though, all patrons to these dinners don't purchase their tickets out of their own pockets.

I HAVE noted the same faces at these GOP affairs for a number of years now — from $15-a-plate dinners up.

As a matter of fact — the Republicans have lost two notable faces since their last public outing.

George Russell, the energetic young attorney and former police commissioner, decided several months ago the party was moving too slow for him — and switched his affiliation to the Democrats.

John Hargrove, attorney and former People's Court jurist, recently deserted the Republicans to join the Democrats.

The Republicans' Mayor McKeldin virtually pushed Mr. Hargrove out of the GOP ranks.

He kicked him off the Jail Board — to name a Democrat.

• • •

AND WHEN the mayor then refused to recommend his appointment to a vacant assistant city solicitor post —Mr. Hargrove decided he had enough.

The Republicans could ill afford to lose George Rubell or John Hargrove — certainly not both.

The loss of both has caused a large segment of the colored community, and much of the young white too in which both are known, to look askance on the Republican party here.

The Republicans haven't helped their case a bit by sitting nonchalantly — as though nothing has happened.

They are not only sitting idly — nobody seems to have a sound program to advance for building the party.

• • •

RATHER — THERE now seems to be ranks —splitting dissention among the party's top brass.

Some bigwigs are sore at Senator Beall for his fund-raising dinner.

Mayor McKeldin is ignoring them all — going his merry way making more Democratic friends to elect him to office again.

All of this poses a puzzling picture — for the young person becoming of age and preparing to register with a party. This is especially true — in such cases where the young person is colored.

He looks around and sees very few young of his race in the GOP ranks here.

• • •

AND WHEN he looks to see what the Republicans have to offer him — they try to sell him an old Abe Lincoln.

So, the possible young recruit immediately heads for the Democratic party — probably thinking on the way if the Republicans have progressed no further than Lincoln the party of no place for him.

Of course, it's understandable for neither Hoover nor Eisenhower has left the party match to set.

Somebody, realizing this, has come up with a new gimmick.

They have come up with what somebody thinks is a brilliant idea of picking Arizona's Senator Barry Goldwater as the GOP's new sales slant here.

THEY HOPE to strengthen their forces by parading the banners of the ultra - conservative Goldwater.

And some Republicans are sure to try this fool trick to entice colored citizens to join and support their party.

So, let me warn at the outset — Colored citizens here, nor anywhere else, don't want any part of Senator Goldwater.

It seems, then, the Republicans here must find another issue and other candidates — and many whites too.

They are ahurtin' bad for some young blood — and something to sell.

And it's their own fault.

Party bigwigs just haven't exhibited any hustle.

Republicans here need a Newton Steers or a Charles Mathias — somebody with get-up-and-go to breathe some life in the party.

HEARING COMPLAINT of seven-year Social Security employee Charles Barbour are, left to right: Charles Mason, federal personnel specialist, Washington; J. Francis Pohlhaus, counsel to the Washington Bureau NAACP; Leon Gilmore, chairman, NAACP government workers committee; Del. Clarence M. Mitchell III and Dr. Furman L. Templeton, representatives of the Social Security Investigation Committee appointed by Commissioner Robert Ball; Nathaniel Lawson and Santa Jones, secretary and assistant secretary of the NAACP government workers committee. More than 100 Social Security Veteran Administration, Edgewood Arsenal and Aberdeen Proving Grounds employees made complaints during a hearing at Sharp Street Methodist Church. Del. Mitchell said the investigations committee had requested a freeze on jobs until after the probe is completed. He also urged workers wanting supervisory training to apply and report any denials to him. Gilmore announced another meeting for Friday, Oct. 18 at 8 p.m. at Sharp Street. All government workers are urged to attend if they have complaints involving racial discrimination.

Werner assures workers on jobs

Wide-spread humors that there would be a wholesale firing of colored employees in the Department of Public Works, particularly its Sanitation Bureau, were discounted as false Thursday by Bernard L. Werner, Public Works director.

The rumors followed the disclosure a few days ago by Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin that over expenditures in this municipal agency would create a deficit of $350,000 by the end of the year.

Reports were somehow circulated that at least 66 employees, mostly laborers, would be fired because the Bureau of Sanitation was padded with political handicap jobs.

• • •

MR. WERNER told the AFRO Thursday:

1. There will be no layoffs of present employees.

2. There will be a job freeze until Jan. 1.

3. Departmental spending will be curtailed to essentials, but services will not be curtailed.

He said he had no idea of how the rumors started that there would be a large number of employees fired.

Dr. Jeudy's wife asks $$ accounting

Charging that she not only has been deserted, but that she has also been bilked in the financial area, Mrs. Turgot Jeudy filed a suit against her physician husband here, Tuesday.

Mrs. Jeudy, the former Ardell Sembly, has asked the court to have Dr. Jeudy render an accounting declaring his entire earnings from every source, as well as all of his assets of every nature, a statement of all monies he derives from properties or assets which he holds with her.

She also seeks a decree of permanent alimony and a sum necessary to employ counsel for the prosecution of her suit against him.

She asks that she be given care and custody of their six-year-old daughter, and support for her.

• • •

THE PETITION, filed in Circuit Court by Southey T. Miles, Jr., attorney, says that the couple was married in Dundalk, Md. on June 28, 1954.

Mrs. Jeudy says that though he has always conducted herself according to Jeudy as a kind, chaste and affectionate wife and fulfilled all her marital obligation he constructively abandoned her on August 1, and declared his intentions to no longer live with her.

She says that the abandonment and desertion has continued uninterruptedly since that time and is deliberate, final and beyond any reasonable hope of reconciliation. The offense has not been condoned or forgiven by her, she says.

• • •

DR. JEUDY, says his wife, derives an excess of $20,000 a year from his medical practice. She said that since 1954, at which time he was a resident intern, he worked and helped him manage, operate and develop the practice.

They now own real estate at 3544 Lynchester Road as tenants by the entireties, as well as an apartment house at 3119 Mondawmin Avenue, she says Mrs. Jeudy.

The Mondawmin Avenue property was originally owned by her she points out and says she caused her husband's name to be placed on a deed, transferring the title to both their names.

She added that up to that time she paid all real estate taxes, mortgage payment, maintenance and repair charges on the property.

• • •

SINCE HIS NAME was placed on the deed, the wife says, Dr. Jeudy has collected all the rents but has not accounted to her for her legal share of the profits.

She added that in addition, she has been advised that he has individually owns real estate at 549 N. Fulton Avenue, a 1963 Cadillac, securities, insurance policies, etc.

• • •

THE PETITION states that there are certain bank accounts and building and loan association books in joint names, from which the husband has either withdrawn the monies or had them transferred to his name individually.

She is employed as a school teacher. He, she says refuses to pay the household bills and her salary is not adequate to support herself and dependent child. She wants the court to award her a decree of alimony and support for the child in such amount as may seem suitable and appropriate under the circumstances.

FEPC causes boss in Texas to quit

AUSTIN, Texas (ANP) — The Texas Employment Commission's hiring of a Houston attorney brought the resignation last week of the commission's general counsel C. M. Turlington.

Turlington said he was resigning because the commission had not consulted him before hiring the Houston lawyer, Hamah King, to work in his department.

Complaining in his letter of resignation that he had not even met King, Turlington said, "The employment of this lawyer was without my knowledge or consent."

Furnace blast accident is fatal to two steelworkers

A stream of hot air resulted in death of two men and injury to a third when a blast furnace door fell open at a Sparrows Point steel company, Tuesday.

Clifford Trusty, 55, 1724 N. Bond St., was killed instantly.

Blake Williams, 39, 2527 Hollins St., died the next day in Maryland General Hospital. He had third degree burns over 90 per cent of his body.

The third man, Howard L. Williams, 39, 1818 Rutland Ave., was treated at the steel mills' dispensary and released.

Howard Williams is not related to Blake Williams.

Blake Williams was born in Macon, N.C., and migrated to Baltimore in 1946. Soon after his arrival in the city, he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel company.

At the time of his death, he was a washerman.

Mr. Williams married the former Miss Alice Jones 18 years ago and they had three children, Pamylen, 9; Jannetta, 6; and Darline, 2.

Mr. Williams also had a step-son, Charles Chase, 14.

The steel worker was a member of Central Baptist Church.

Funeral services for the accident victim will be held in Macon's Pine Grove Baptist Church, Sunday. Burial will be in the cemetery behind the church.

Mrs. Williams said there will be no review of the accident by the steel company for 17 years. He is a dustman.

CAUSE OF the accident has not been determined.

A company spokesman announced that a furnace door came off and hot air blew out striking the men.

The furnace is used to melt iron ore to pig iron and its temperatures rise to several thousand degrees.

The family of Blake Williams told an AFRO reporter that the victim was required 14 spent only 15 minutes of his eight-hour day in the area where he was fatally injured.

Mr. Williams' survivors include his wife and children, mother, Mrs. Thenia Williams, of Macon; seven brothers, Grady and Leaven Hawkins, of Philadelphia; Groven, Roy and Brown Hawkins, of Macon, N.C.; George Hawkins, of Warrenton, N.C., and Cephas of Baltimore; and two sisters, Mrs. Julia Shearin and Mrs. Blanche Palmer, both of Macon.

Mr. Trusty is survived by his wife, Mrs. Daisy Trusty; four sisters, Miss Naomi Trusty, Mesdames Mildred Miller, Marion Smith and Helen Johnson.

Also, three sons, Lawrence, Elmer and Vernon Trusty; and a daughter, Mrs. Bernadine Harrell.

CLIFFORD TWISTY

body.

"I want his friends to remember him as he was before the accident," she said.

Arrangements are being handled by the Arlington & Phillips Funeral Home, 1727 N. Monroe St.

• • •

MR. TRUSTY was chairman of the deacon board at Memorial Baptist Church. He also sang on the Gospel Choir and the Men's Chorus.

A native Baltimorean, he had worked for the steel company since 1953 and was a claryman.

The Rev. Angus A. Smith will officiate at the funeral services to be held at Memorial Baptist.

Date of funeral and burial place had not been decided at AFRO presstime.

Dr. King to speak Oct. 24

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. will address the Clergy Convocation on Race and Religion at Morgan State College, Oct. 24.

Religious leaders of all faiths and denominations have been invited to the first meeting of its kind in Maryland.

The Convocation will be held in Morgan's Murphy Auditorium from 1-4 p.m.

The Rev. Fred M. Webber, General Presbyter of Baltimore, is chairman of the historic civil rights conclave.

The co-chairmen are Rt. Rev. Austin L. Healey of St. Martin's Roman Catholic Church and Rabbi Morris Lieberman of the Baltimore Hebrew Congregation.

• • •

DR. KING will speak on the topic "The Crisis That Confronts Us."

Following Dr. King's address, Farren Mitchell, executive secretary of the State Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations, and David L. Glenn, executive secretary of the Equal Opportunity Commission, will discuss Maryland dimensions of the problem.

The final phase of the convocation will be consideration of the "Shape of the Future," led by the Most Rev. T. Austin Murphy, Auxiliary Bishop of Baltimore's Roman Catholic Church; Bishop John Wesley Lord, Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Church; Rabbi Uri Miller, president of the Synagogue Council of America; and other leaders.

The program has been given the blessing of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, the Maryland Council of Churches' Committee on Race and Religion, and various Rabbinical groups.

Baby killed by falling wall clock

A mother hears the screams of her 10-month-old baby boy. She runs frantically toward the sound.

On the living room sofa where she had left him only minutes before Sunday, Mrs. Barbara Worrell, 23, 1000 block E. Preston St. found her son, Joel with one of the prongs of a clock embroidied in his head.

"He must have pulled the cord," she told the AFRO Tuesday. "And the clock fell from the wall. It wasn't even three minutes. I had just sat him there, the thing happened so quickly."

THE FRIGHTENED mother said she picked the child up and rushed to Sinai Hospital. She called to a passing motorist for help and he drove them to St. Joseph's Hospital where the child was admitted.

He died on Monday.

"I couldn't stand the sight of that clock so I gave it away," she said.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. today (Friday), from an East Baltimore funeral home.

Also surviving in addition to Mrs. Worrell and her son, Floyd, a student at School No. 146, is the child's father Raymond Worrell.

THIS CHILD IS DEAD—Joel Worrell, 10 months old, died Monday as a result of injuries received when a "sun burst" clock fell from his wall and a prong plunged into his brain. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Worrell of the 1000 block Preston St.

NAACP membership drive to have area meetings

The Baltimore Branch, NAACP Campaign moves into a new geographical area of the city for report meetings

The first such report meeting will be held Thursday, Oct. 10, at Ebenezer Baptist Church, 306 E. 23rd St., the Rev. Maxwell Johnson, pastor.

This meeting will cover all churches and workers in the surrounding area. Pastors, their choirs and congregations are asked to accompany workers to their meeting for their reports and also to outline the type of NAACP campaign they will carry on in their churches.

• • •

ON LAST Tuesday night, the NAACP Membership campaign was kicked off with a stirring report of the association activities in the Deep South by Gloster Current, director of Branches.

Mr. Current spoke to a full house at Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Church and reports came in in large numbers for those present.

Many new workers were signed up and took materials to start working in their blocks.

The campaign tradition of giving an orchid to individual bringing in the largest over 10, went to Mrs. Dora Caldwell of Douglas Memorial Community Church. She reported in 43 memberships.

Each Tuesday night at Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Church, Dolphin and Etting Sts., an orchid will be given to the person bringing in the highest over 10.

In Memoriam 3

ALLEN — In loving memory of WILLARD WALLACE ALLEN, who departed this life two years ago, October 5, 1961.
Beyond the sunset and the shade,
The radiant morn of God appears,
Where none shall ever be afraid,
And there shall be no tears, no tears.
Beyond the sorrow of farewell
The broken heart, the failing breath,
God's love shall every foe dispel,
And there shall be no death, no death!
Wife—GLADYS V. ALLEN
Daughter—M. ROSALIND ALLEN and ELIZABETH HALE
Sister—FLORINE A. BURKE

ALLEYNE — In loving memory of our dear friend VIVIAN GAITH, who passed away October 6, 1957.
We do not forget you
Nor do we intend
There is a sad but sweet remembrance,
Then are memories fond and true.
There is a token of affection,
And a heartache still for you.
The memories will never die
As the years roll on and days pass by,
In our hearts a memory is kept,
We love we loved and will ever forget.
"THE V. A. G.'s"

BENNETT — In loving memory of Mr. Jerome Bennett, who passed away October 1, 1962.
Lovely Husband, Dad and wife,
Upright and just to the end of her days.
Sincere and true, in her heart and ways.
Beautiful memories she left behind.
THE FAMILY

BUTLER — A tribute of love is in the memory of MARY ELEANOR BETH, who passed away nine years ago October 5, 1954.
Nine years have rolled a sweet and dear
All things this world may send.
But when we lost our darling mother,
We lost our dearest friend.

COUSINS — In loving memory of my husband, Lloyd O. Cousins, who departed this life October 1, 1956.
Gone, not forgotten.
Now over seven years that I miss you dear Lloyd.
I will remember you dear husband
Wife—MARY COUSINS

DORSEY — In loving memory of our loved one, LLOYD O. "Jim" Dorsey, who departed this life.
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently dried his loving eyes,
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
He was weary, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His eyes closed, his work done,
His frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Children—CLAIRE and SKIP
Mother—GEORGIA
Brother—LIKA PEACH

DUFFIN — In loving memory of Mr. Charles Duffin, who departed this life October 5, 1958.
We do not forget you, nor do we intend
We think of you often, and will to the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
Wife—BESSIE NONIE.

FYE — In loving memory of my friend, ARNETTA, who passed away October 7, 1961.
There is a sad but sweet remembrance
There is a memory fond and true;
There is a token of affection, dear,
And a heartache still for you.
Friend—WALTER SHIELDS

WILSON — In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, ERNIE, who passed away October 1, 1962.
God made her a beautiful bloom of sweet and rose, and true,
Dear to her family and loyal friends.
Life after he made all those,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare.
More loving and more true,
All of God's gifts, he loves most rare— A mother as dear as you.
Sons, CHARLES and GRANDCHILDREN

Loving Grandchildren GEORGE D., GENETTA LANE, HARRY L., JR.

JONES — In loving memory of LILLIAN B., who passed October 7, 1962.
We words will ever express
This sorrow feeling of loneliness.
Your loving smile and gentle face,
Your patience and utmost grace
Your kindness, gentleness and unselfish giving,
Can never be placed among the dead.
The memory of you shall always prevail in our hearts,
We thank God for having a mother like you.
Although we had to part
Devoted Husband

Children
LILLIAN, WILLIAMS and ALPHONSO, JR.

LEE — In loving memory of my dear husband, DAMONE, who passed away October 4, 1961:
If I had seen you for the last time and held your dying hand, And heard the last sigh from your heart,
I would not feel so bad
I did not know the pain you had, Or not see you die
I only hope you went far away And never said goodbye
When the evening shades are falling
And I am sitting all alone,
I think of the happy days I spent with you
If you only could come home.
Oh, and oft my thoughts do wandering roam
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you dearest husband,
Two years ago today.
Loving Wife—OVETTA

NOEL — In loving memory of my dear husband, THOMAS J. NOEL, who passed away October 7, 1961:
The hill were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes,
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His eyes closed, work done,
His frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Wife—BESSIE NONIE.
