Pet Milk has cash for lucky housewives

"The new Pet Milk Payday is a sure thing."

This was the announcement from L. S. Barnhart, Brand Manager for the Milk Products Division of Pet Milk Company, St. Louis Missouri. Mr. Barnhart said that the new Payday contest started on Oct. 7.

Taking a tip from the experts can pay off now in more ways than one. If you are lucky enough to have one or two or more cans of PET Evaporated Milk in your shopping bag when the Pet Milk Paymaster taps you on the shoulder, you will receive $1 for each can of milk.

You may even be the recipient of a surprise caller at your home. If the Paymaster calls on you, he will write a check for the number of cans of Pet Evaporated Milk in your kitchen cabinet.

You will have a chance to double your stakes, for a special bonus will be paid to the homemaker or shopper who can remember correctly the Pet Milk slogan heard on your local radio station.

Just listen to the "Pet Milk Showcase" heard-every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 9 a.m. on radio station WEBB.

Don't forget Pet Milk in your shopping bag or in your home may mean gold for you when the Paymaster calls or stops you in your too. "You start cooking with a Golden Spoon when you start cooking with Pet Evaporated Milk."

Ralph Ellison will speak at Morgan State

Famous novelist Ralph Ellison, author of the prize-winning book Invisible Man, will appear at Morgan State College October 30-31.

Mr. Ellison is being presented under the joint sponsorship of the Morgan Book-of-the-Month Reading Program and the annual Faculty-Student Conference on the Humanities.

This conference is an activity of the Humanities Division and is presented annually to examine some subject of particular relevance for students and teachers of the humanistic disciplines.

ELLISON, whose Invisible Man is being read at Morgan as the October book of the month, will speak at a public meeting Wednesday, Oct. 30, 8 p.m., in the Student Union Lounge.

He will also participate in a series of panels and lectures schedule for Thursday Oct. 31 when the theme "Folk Influences in Art and Culture" will be explored.

THE AUTHOR, a native of Oklahoma and a graduate of Tuskegee Institute, gained national recognition following the publication of Invisible Man.

He won the National Book Award and the Russwurm Award of the National Newspaper Publishers Association in 1952 and held the American Academy of Arts and Letters Fellowship in Rome for 1955-57.

He was a New York City Writers' Project participant and a 1945 Rosenwald Fellow. His interests in the arts have led him to an advisorship on the Board of P.F.N. Institute Jazz Studies, Inc.

Mr. Ellison, who is currently professor of literature at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N. J., has lectured on the subjects of American culture, folklore and on creative writing at New York University, Columbia, Fisk, Antioch, and Princeton.

POET'S CORNER

THE EXECUTION.

We force a man into a room
And strap him to a chair
The pellets drop —on him his doom.
He was —Then isn't there.
He was the symbol of our fury
Tho' like us a mother gave him birth
We were all his judge and jury
And condemned him to the earth.
We killed him in the name of justice
On mercy — closed the door
We are "good" men . . . but our lust is
So satisfied . . . by killing more.
Like Cain we our decision made
To put to death our brother
But in his grave we bury him we laid
A piece of one another.
For we overlooked , . . "Thou Shalt not kill"
And did not compassion woo.
Forgot the words that are ringing still
"For they know not what they do."

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

What God will do on judgment day?
To find before His judgment passed,
Some mortal, with his life did pay,
In electric chair — or chamber,
gassed.
How many times must one be tried?
I speculate, with no comment,
The word of God, man must abide,
The gallows give no such consent.

In Memoriams 3

BAILEY - In loving memory of my brother, JULIUS, who passed away October, 7, 1963:
If I had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sigh from your heart,
I would not feel so bad.
I did not know the pain you had,
I did not see you die.
I only know you went far away
And never said goodbye
SISTER - SUSIE BAILEY WRIGHT

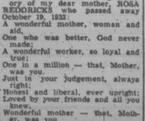
BIAS — In loving memory of my son, my husband and our father, CLARENCE, who passed away October 18, 1962:
Today my heart is heavy
My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how I miss you, CLARENCE, dear.
None but God in Heaven can see
Some day time heals an aching heart,
But no it isn't true.
For one long year has passed, dear,
And I still ache for you.
And my heart still aches for you.
FATHER, WIFE,
And DAUGHTERS.

BIAS - In memory of our cousin, CLARENCE, who passed away October 18, 1962:
Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true
Just the love and sweet devotion
From those who think of you.
THE BUTLER FAMILY

BOWYER — In loving memory of our dear mother, EMMA, who passed away one year ago, October 16, 1956:
Gone from us beautiful things,
Sunset and roses, and trees.
Gone and our hearts full of loyal friends.
And, they, He made all these.
He gave to the earth a gift more rare
More loving and more true.
Of God's gifts, there is one most rare—
A mother as dear as you.
Your Devoted CHILDREN.

BURLEY — In loving memory of my dear loved one, CECELIA MAE, who passed away October 16, 1962:
Oh, how hard we tried to keep her with us,
But our cares were all in vain,
Angels came and took her with them.
She is safe and free from pain.
Devoted HUSBAND, SON, MOTHER, FATHER, And RELATIVES.

JOHNSON — In loving memory of our son, CARROLL W., who passed away, October 16, 1949:



You're not forgotten, dear father, dear,
Nor ever shall you be,
As long as life and memory last
We shall remember thee.
Children,
ROSA, EMMA
ELISE WILLIAMS.
WILLIS JOHNSON

BIAS - In memory of my son and our father, CLARENCE P., who passed away October 18, 1962:
Our love always our thoughts,
No matter where we go.
We miss you, our dear one
Because we loved you so.
Father JAMES BIAS
Children - LEONY BIAS
CLARCE BIAS

GENTRY — In loving memory of my dear daughter and our sister, MARIE GENTRY, who passed away October 18, 1961:
Memories are keepsakes,
No one can steal.
And death is a heartache,
Which none can heal.
Loving memories are all we have left of a dear daughter and sister.
Mother, CAROLINE BLAND
Devoted Sisters,
PEARL, GILMORE,
CATHERINE GILES
MARY ANDERSON.

JOHNSON — In loving remembrance of my dear husband, CHARLES W., who was killed nine years ago, October 20, 1954:
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Loves remembrance outlasts all,
And though the years be many or few,
They are filled with remembrance, dear, of you.
Your Loving Wife, CELIA.

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my sister, EDNA, who passed away October 19, 1962:
Peaceful be thy rest, dear sister,
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I do the same.
Sister, CELIA JOHNSON

MITCHELL — A tribute of love to the memory of my beloved husband, CHARLES HOWARD MITCHELL, who passed away October 17, 1961:
You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head, you did not bend.
I kept the watch with you, dear husband,
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain,
God grant some day we'll meet again.
Loving Wife,
MARGARET C. MITCHELL.

PROCTOR — In loving memory of our mother, MARY J., who passed away October 18, 1962:
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
DAUGHTERS, SON-IN-LAW And GRANDCHILDREN.

REDDRICKS — In loving memory of my dear mother, ROSA REDDRICKS, who passed away October 19, 1952:
A wonderful mother, woman and friend
One who was better, God never made.
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true;
One in a million — that, Mother, was you.
Just in your judgement, always right,
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
Wonderful mother — that, Mother, was you.
Loving Daughter,
LAURA BEAN.

STROTHER — Sacred to the memory of my dear uncle, LINCOLN STROTHER, who entered the eternal rest October 18, 1961:
Although life's sun for each must set
Those whom we love we never forget.
His Devoted Niece,
EMMA C. BAKER
Washington, D.C.

SMITH — In loving memory of my husband, DANIEL F. SMITH, who passed away October 18, 1961:
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true;
There is a token of affection, dear,
And a heartache still for you.
Loving Wife, VIOLA SMITH

SMITH — In loving memory of our dear mother, LAURA, who passed away September 2, 1961 and our devoted father, J. HARVEY, who passed away October 10, 1962:
Time can never take away loving memories
Daughters, MILDRED SMITH
LOUISE SEYMOUR
SON—SHERMAN SMITH

SHARPERSON — In loving memory of my dear husband, REV. ROBERT FULTON SHARPERSON who passed away October 20, 1957:
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how I miss you, ROBERT dear.
None but God in Heaven can see
And a heart full of pain.
But, no, it isn't true.
For six long years have passed, dear,
And my heart still aches for you.
Loving Wife,
HAMIE SHARPERSON.

TAYLOR — In loving memory of SAMUEL S. TAYLOR, who departed October 19, 1961:
Time can never take away fond memories.
A Friend, PINKEY D. BROWN
New York City.

TRACY — In loving memory of my beloved husband, WILLIAM, who passed away September 30, 1963:
His pleasant way and smiling face
Are a pleasure to recall.
We had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Wife, MRS. ANNIE TRACY

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of our dear mother, LOUISE, who passed away October, 16, 1962:
Dear Mother, we often think of you
And wish you were here.
Gone but not forgotten
By Her CHILDREN.
