Sizzling 'Lively Ones' on stage at Poly tonight

"The Lively Ones" are on their way.

On Friday, Nov. 15, the city of Baltimore will be treated to a unique collection of performers as the "Folk and Jazz Wing Ding" will take the stage of the Polytechnic Institute Auditorium at 8:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Johns Hopkins University YWCA this outstanding group will include Nina Simone and Quartette, Herbie Mann and his Afro-Cuban 6, The Modern Folk Quartet, Ron Eliran and Steve DePass.

Each of these acts has been making a big noise in the world of modern music. All have been widely acclaimed for their individual talents.

Now, as they tour eastern colleges and universities during the month of November, an unequaled opportunity is being offered to folk and jazz fans.

Nina Simone, having given command performances recently at Carnegie Hall and the Hollywood Bowl, will bring her brilliant and versatile skills to the stage.

Hailed as the foremost practitioner of "folk jazz" different groups amid the many that have sprung up in recent years.

Ron Eliran was first introduced to America on the Ed Sullivan Show. Since then this classical guitarist and folk-singer satirist has gathered about him an ever-growing following.

Steve DePass is something special. The audience throws suggestions for ballad topics at him and he fires back with a song that invariably scores a hit. The surprising thing — he makes his ballads up on the spot.

Tickets for the "Folk and Jazz Wing Ding" are on sale at the Johns Hopkins YWCA (CH 3-2810) and Fred Walkers.(LE. 9- 2662)

NOV. 21

"Alice In Wonderland" will be presented in a bright new version by the famous Nicolo Marionettes at the Edgewood Elementary School. Edgewood Elementary School, Edgewood St. and Walbrook Ave., at 1:30, 7:30, 8:30 and 7:30 p.m. Sponsored by the PTA.

CAMP PIE PAN

TIL. is a long one to describe but the result is an inexpensive ultra - light disposable frying pan.

Take a wire coat hanger. Chop off twist and hook. Straighten wire and bend into V, 12 inches long.

Wrap the end with asbestos (for an insulated handle).

Now, purchase as many cheap aluminum pie - pans as meals you wish to cook. Pans weigh nothing and stack together for easy carry.

To use, bend pan's edges around arms of wire to hold steady. Throw pan away when your meal is cooked.
