(FOR 10 TO 12 LB. BIRD)

8 cups bread crumbs (4 soft white—4 corn bread)
1 lb. Parks Hot 'n Sagey Sausage
1 cup Onion, chopped
1 cup Celery, chopped
½ cup Green Pepper, chopped
2 tbsp. Salt (about)
2 Eggs, well-beaten
Liquid from Giblets or Warm Water to moisten

METHOD—
1. Crumble sausage in large skillet and brown lightly, pouring off drippings as it collects, but leaving about 4 tablespoons.
2. Add vegetables and saute slowly until they are clear, but not brown.
3. Toss bread with salt—add eggs and mixture of sausage and vegetables.
4. Toss lightly—sprinkle with liquid and mix. You want the stuffing just moist enough to hold a loose ball when you form it with your hand. For best results, use unsweetened corn bread, no crusts. If corn bread is not available, use soft white bread crumbs entirely.

NOTE—The same recipe, using Parks Famous Flavor Sausage, will provide a mild-seasoned dressing.

Anything you make in the slow, careful (and delicious) old-fashioned way is bound to be more expensive than a bland mass-produced product. And that's just why Parks' Famous Flavor Sausage is a premium-priced sausage.

It's made from a generations-old secret country recipe, carefully prepared in modern kitchens from pure, lean pork and expensive savory spices.

What do you wear?

"Hello," said the lady on the phone, "Can you tell me ARE THE DAYS?"

The AFRO man on the other end of the line had no answer and there was no woman at hand so he could only say 'I'll check and let you know."

The ticket-buyer said "Thank you, I'd hate to show up in the wrong thing."

The lady's question started wheels turning.

A look at the latest edition of Women's Wear Daily, the fashion industry "bible" had the answer. This newspaper for experts had a timely article "What To Wear To The Movies" complete with pictures of ladies at a first-run show.

All wore simple cocktail dresses or suits tailored for evening wear. Mrs. Henry Ford, wife of the automobile company president, was caught by the photographer emerging from her car in a simple brocade suit of lime green. She was hatless and carried a small matching clutch purse.

"Does this answer your question?" the lady who had wondered was asked.

She said "You mean dress but not too dressy unless you're going someplace else after the show."

"That's what Women's Wear Daily says," the AFRO man answered.

"Well, then," said the lady, "See you Monday night."

WHAT TO WEAR TO THE MOVIES? Mrs. Melanie Terrell left) and Mrs. Pauline Brooks discusses appropriate apparrel for AFRO's red carpet showing of the new movie "Gone Are The Days" at the Charles Theater, Monday night, Nov. 25. Mrs. Brooks, dress salon owner, recommended either cocktail dress or evening suit for such an afair. Mrs. Terrell is wearing a brocade suit (which has matching evening coat) which fits the show bill.

With Susie Strother, Home Economist for the Food Fair Stores, Inc.

The new homemaker gleams with joy and delight when she sees her loved ones or guests enjoy a new dish she has tried or even the good wholesome meals she prepares daily.

She has a twinkle in her eye when rer youngsters begin to grow sturdy and strong, learning and gaining knowledge as they go, and her husband, with the proper pep and energy, working to a goal in life to see that his family has what is needed to be good citizens.

These, together with prayer and understanding love, make the homemaker proud as she sees her family come and go to their varied places of duty.

THE QUESTION may arise, what is the foundation of all this, that my family is happy, and strong, healthy and wise? Where there is love, good care, the right balanced meals and proper food, makes for a wonderful family.

One can say, 'I know my family gets plenty to eat' is this answer especially when the meal is one sided, or too much of one and not enough of the other. This is why we have chosen to speak with you on Food and Nutrition.

BEFORE WE go into this subject, suppose we let the fruits of the harvest add a touch of fall to the dinner table in a combination of succulent golden brown pork steaks en casserole with apple kraut. This is one of those taste - tempting dishes that can be served without flurry of last minute preparation.

Certainly you will cherish this during one of your busy fall days. Here's how you can prepare this economical dish!

For 4 servings, purchase 4 pork shoulder steaks cut ½ inch thick from Food Fair. Brown the steaks in 2 tablespoons of shortening (FF deluxe). When browned, pour off the drippings and season the meat with salt and pepper. Next, combine 1 tablespoon each of prepared mustard and prepared horseradish (Fyne Taste). Spread this mixture over the steaks.

Then for the Apple-Kraut. Combine one 1-pound, 13 ounce can of Fyne Taste Sauerkraut, drained; 2 medium apples, chopped; ½ cup chopped onion, and 1 teaspoon caraway seeds. Place the apple-kraut mixture in a 2 quart casserole. Arrange the browned pork steaks on top.

Cover tightly and bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees Fahrenheit, for 30 minutes. At the end of this time, uncover the steaks and continue to bake for 30 minutes.

TO COMPLETE this meal you may want open-faced baked potatoes which will bake right along with your casserole and corn muffins.
