Services held for Mrs. Irene Winkler

Funeral services were held today (Friday) 12 noon at the Perkins Square Baptist Church for Mrs. Irene Winkler, 65, 600 block N. Fulton Ave.

The Rev. Ward D. Yerby officiated and burial was in Westview Memorial Cemetery.

A native of Mecklenberg, Va., Mrs. Winkler had lived in Baltimore since 1930 and had been a member of the Perkins Square Church since 1932.

She died on Sunday as the result of an accident on Oct. 1. She was struck by an automobile while crossing at Edmonson and Warwick Aves.

* * *

AT PERKINS Square, Mrs. Winkler was a member of the senior choir, Usher Board, Ladies Guild, secretary of the Ward D. Yerby Circle, teacher of the Sunday school and treasurer of the Deacon Board.

She was also treasurer of the Neighborhood Club Block 108.

Mrs. Winkler was ordained as a minister some 15 years ago.

Survivors include her husband, George R. Winkler; two sons, Robert C. and Raymond, M. Winkler; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Frances Walker; five grandchildren; two brothers, Norman Barnes of Baltimore and Joseph Barnes of Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Ella J. Harris.

Funeral services were held Thursday for Willie Davis, 57, of 440 St. Marys St., who died Nov. 17, at his home after suffering a heart attack.

Mr. Davis who had been ailing since June, was buried in Mt. Auburn Cemetery following services at the World Wide Bible Way Church, where he had been an active member for many years.

A native of Montgomery, Ala., Mr. Davis came to Baltimore in 1940.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Gussie Davis, and two children, Nimrod M. Davis and Mrs. Girtha White.

Arrangements were made by the Charles R. Law Funeral Home.

MRS. IRENE WINKLER

Last rites held for Judge Barrett

Funeral services were held Thursday for Municipal Judge William L. K. Barrett, who died Monday night in Union Memorial Hospital.

The 63-year-old judge, a native Baltimorean, was attending a dinner party at the Boumi Temple when he collapsed and was taken to the hospital where an emergency operation was performed.

Hospital official reported that the judge had suffered an abdominal disorder.

Appointed by Governor Tawes in April 1961, as a justice in the Municipal Court, Judge Barrett had been associated with Democratic politics for some time.

In 1941, Judge Barrett was appointed a substitue traffic court judge and became two years later a fulltime magistrate. He was elected a municipal judge last November and was to have served a ten year term.

The dinner at the Boumi Temple was an annual affair sponsored by the Scimeter Club for city judges.

Surviving is his wife who lives at the Marylander Apartments, 3501 St. Paul St.

J. Albert Grooms

Requiem mass will be said Saturday a.m., at St. Peter Claver Church for J. Albert Grooms, 71, 2307 Druid Hill Ave.

Mr. Grooms, retired parts clerk at Archway Motors, died Nov. 19 at Ft. Howard Hospital. He had been ill since July.

Son of the late James and Marcella Grooms, the deceased was educated in the Baltimore public schools.

HE SERVED IN France during World War 1.

A brother, Nelson D. Grooms of the Druid Hill Ave. address, survives. And, two sisters, Mrs. Ada Butler and Mrs. Mary Hackett.

Also surviving is a niece, Mrs. Ada Weaver; and a nephew, Robert J. Hackett Jr. The Hemisley Funeral Home is in charge.

BAZAAR AT YWCA on Sunday, sponsored by the Y-Ten Clubs, featured foods from various countries represented by the nine participating groups. About 150 persons paid a small admission and another fee to sample the foods served by costumed teens. Miss Marjorie Jennings, teen-age program director, said proceeds went to the YWCA's World Fellowship Fund which helps sponsor branches in underde veloped nations. In top photo, Mrs. Earl Koger Jr. and her two children enjoy some of the Mexican food at table set up by members of the Royal Teens Club Members taking part Sunday included Linda Parron, Cynthia Thornton, Brenda Williams, Pamela Parron, Juliatte Owings, Joan Hill, Phyllis Degree, Zelda Partee and Roslyn Wright. Gay AFRICAN table, sponsored by School 139 included Betty Wilson, Rosalyn Lipcomb, Mrs. Lula Maddox, Debbie Rhyne, Beverly Rhyne, Yulonda Holmes, Marie Stevens, Janey Albritton, Rhonda Elsey, Devoark Maddox, Linda Whitner, Shirley Stoner, Debbie Lanier, Vannessa Hall, Lucille Jenkins, Andre Armstead and Mrs. Mildred Armstead.

Tannettes Club marks anniversary

Members of the Tannettes Civic Club recently celebrate their first anniversary at the Garrison Louge.

Organized in 1962, the club seeks to help the less fortunate members of the community. Miss Steohanie Johnson is the president.

Mrs. Lauretta Watty was guest speaker at the meeting and spoke of the need to help less fortunate persons and the way people can work as volunteers.

Officers of the club are Stephanie Johnson, presiden Bette Ray, vice - president; Jewell Hart, secretary, Shirley Harper, treasurer; Shirley Lee, assistant treasurer; Janet McNeil, sergeant at arms, and Delores Couser, publicity chairman.

Mrs. E. Chase

Mrs. Edith Chase, 57, 1556 Argyle Ave., died Nov. 13, at Provident Hospital.

She had been hospitalized for seven days following a stroke.

Funeral services were held at the Orchard St. Methodist Church, Monday, and burial was in the Western Star Cemetery.

Mrs. Chase, who was an active member of the Orchard St. Church, is survived by a brother, Winfield Chase; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Whittaker, of New York City.

A good citizen is registered to vote. Register now at the Supervisors of Elections, People's Court Bldg., Gay and Fayette Sts., Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Thursday 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.
