OVER SIX HUNDRED employees and neighbors of altimore Goodwill Industries participated in the annual Thanksgiving dinner which is made possible by the public contributions. This dinner was served by the supervisory and executive staff. People of all denominations were included. Ready to go her are Joanne Curtis, 9, and Mary Ann Curtis, 10, 100 block Aisquith.

ANNAPOLIS SCENE — The Midnighters, a group of Annapolis matrons, recently entertained at a cocktail party at the Cas-Bar. Members, left to right, in picture number one, are Mesdames Vertex Brooks, treasurer; Clara McClure, Lillian Tyler, president; Beulah Turner, vice president; Back row, left to right, Mesdames Ruth Watlington, business manager; Emma Pickett, secretary; Lena Stanton, chaplain; Sarah Simms, assistant secretary, and Inez Thornton. In the second picture are Baltimoreans Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newman,

Miss Height still Council president

WASHINGTON — Miss Dorothy I. Height of New York, who has served as president of the National Council of Women since 1958, was re-elected during the recent nation convention here here, last week.

In addition to the National Council of Women, Miss Height is well known for her work with the YWCA.

THE CONVENTION THEME: "The colored Woman in the Emancipation Century" served as the basis for discussion as the women discussed the assessment of what had been the contribution of the colored woman and some of the things which had to be overcome during the challenging period.

"American Women — A Quiet Revolution" was the subject of the speech by Margaret Hickey, public affairs editor, Ladies Home Journal and member of the Advisory Council to implement the report to the President of the United States from the Commission on the Status of Women.

DR. JEANNE L. NOBLE, author of "College Education and the Negro Woman" presented a background paper bringing up - to - date her earlier research on the extent of college education and its impact on the lives and opportunity of colored women.

"Making use of the Resources of Government" was the theme of a report given by Dr. Grace L. Hewell, program co - ordinating officer, Department of HEW and William Welch, Administrative Assistant to Senator Phillip A. Hart.

ARTHUR A. J. WEGLEN who is serving as chairman of the "grass roots" campaign for NCNW presented the program to the delegates at a special meeting held Thursday night during the Convention.

The National Council is an organization of 25 national affiliated organizations. These member organizations held a Roundtable Luncheon on Friday at which M. Carl Holman, Information Officer, United States Civil Rights Commission, spoke on "How Effective Programming Effects Civil Rights."

THE TRADITIONAL INTERNATIONAL NIGHT was held at the State Department this year. A reception was given in honor of the wives of the African Ambassadors. Among the distinguished guests were six African Ambassador wives, representatives from the Chinese Embassy. Angier Biddle Duke, Chief of Protocol, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Cleveland, The Honorable G. Mennen Williams, Mr. William Crockett and Mrs. Katie Loucheim served as sponsors for the gala affair.

An International Tribute to Eleanor Roosevelt and Mary McLeod Bethune was the feature of the evening in the State Department Auditorium. Voices, Incorporated, a musical dramatic group of New York City, dramatically presented the program. The Eleanor Roosevelt Foundation cooperated by sending a film on the biography of Eleanor Roosevelt to be shown at the Hall.

THE SUMMARY of the Council's participation since the inception of the United Nations was presented by Mrs. Lisle Carter, the representative to UNESCO and Dr. Dorothy B. Ferebee, Past President, presided.

The Council plans to present the talents of voices, to audiences throughout the country.

Dr. Richard V. Moore, president of Bethune - Cookman College (founded by Mrs. Bethune), delivered a message to the Council delegates via a Washington television news program from Daytona Beach, Florida.

Saturday morning was devoted to young people from the direct action groups to discuss "The Challenging Questions Facing Youth Today." The Convention reaffirmed its determination to establish a youth emergency fund to lend support to young people.

Howard professor American U speaker

Dr. Leon E. Wright of Howard University's School Religion was the guest lecturer recently at the American University Philosophy Club.

The Professor of New Testament spoke on the subject of "Some Intimations of Reality."

The session was held at A.U.'s School of International Service Lounge.

Besides being an authority on New Testament Christianity, Dr. Wright is also an authority on the subject of parapsychology. In his lecture at American University.

Organization change at Potomac Electric

WASHINGTON

R. Roy Dunn, president of Potomac Electric Power Company, announced that at a meeting of the board of directors of the company, held this past Thursday, Nov. 21, Harry W. Dannettell, Jr., Dwight E. Hahn, and John C. Herbert were elected vice presidents.

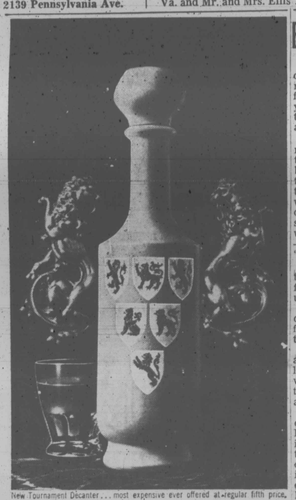
COUGHS

Due to

COLDS

If you have a wheezing and your chest feels raw, get a bottle of ROBINSON'S EXPECTORANT. It loosens the phlegm and takes away that chilly, achy feeling. Sold with a money back guarantee at ROBINSON'S CUT RATE DRUG STORE, 2139 Pennsylvania Ave.

CELEBRATE 25th ANNIVERSARY — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Terrell of D.C. and Mr. and Mrs. William Terrell of Wilson, N.C., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary together recently at the home of the Terrells. Out of town guests included their three daughters from New York and Mr. and Mrs. James Terrell, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Terrell of Norfolk, Va. and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Terrell from Wilson, N.C.,



New Tournament Decanter . . . most expensive ever offered at regular fifth price.

ONLY ONE Bourbon rates this beautiful new gift decanter in classic Wedgwood Green . . . emblazoned with golden lions.

ONLY ONE memorable flavor conveys your Holiday greetings so tastefully.

Give the One and Only

OLD FITZGERALD

BONDED BOURBON

Stardust gift wrap seals regular fifth as though wrapped by hand.

STITZEL-WELLER, America's Oldest Family Distillery

Estab. Louisville, Kentucky, 1849 • Mellow 100 Proof Straight Whiskey

Distributed By Kemp-Boone Co.

Baked Custard

For a satisfying and delicious egg-rich dessert that makes a good ending to both family and company meals, you'll find any of the variations of baked egg custards a fine choice.

When baking custards, remember time and temperature are important. Custards become watery when baked too long or at too high a temperature, because tiny watery bubbles form throughout the mixture. Also, be sure to keep egg custards well - chilled until serving — warm custards will "weep."

HERE ARE SOME suggestions for Baked Egg Custards from USDA home economists, of using a USDA basic recipe.

Two cups milk, three eggs, one-fourth cup sugar, one - fourth teaspoon salt, and one teaspoon vanilla.

Heat milk to scalding over low heat. Beat eggs slightly and add sugar, salt and vanilla, blending well to distribute ingredients evenly and completely.

GRADUALLY ADD scalded milk to egg mixture, slowly to prevent instantly cooking the egg. Pour egg mixture into 4 oven - to - table custard cups and place cups in deep baking pan. Pour in enough hot water to reach level of custard. The hot water helps the custard bake evenly and thoroughly.

Bake at 325 degrees F. until firm, 30 to 40 minutes. When custard is set, a silver knife inserted into the center will come out clean. Remove cups from hot water at once, allow to cool and then refrigerate until well chilled. This recipe serves 4.

Meat Balls

Big on flavor, this new way to serve ground meat will surely please your family.

The meat balls are made with 1 pound ground round, ½ cup cracker crumbs, ¾ cup chopped onion, ½ teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, ½ cup undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk, and 2 tablespoons butter.

Combine ground round, cracker crumbs, onion, salt, pepper and Carnation in mixing bowl. Shape into 12 meat balls. Melt butter in a large frying pan over medium heat. Add meat balls and brook until done, turning occasionally to brown all sides.

WOOLWORTH'S

America's Christmas Store

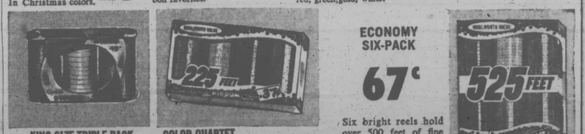
RIBBONS AND BOWS GIVE GIFTS A LIFT

CURL-RIGHT RIBBON — A giant spool of ribbon, 9" long, takes to a quick end curl. In Christmas colors. 25¢

MULTI-COLOR RIBBONS — Assorted widths, assorted colors in a handy wheel of ribbon favorites. 49¢

SATIN RIBBON SPOOL — Gleaming satin ribbon in 5" widths. 45' long. Your choice of red, green, gold, white. 49¢

100 FT. RIBBON SPOOL — Lots of wrapping ribbon at a little price. Pick your color. 67¢



KING SIZE TRIPLE PACK — Plenty of wrapping mileage in three choice colors, red, gold and green. 49¢

COLOR QUARTET — Suit the color to the gift. 4 big spools of easy-curl ribbon 225" in asst. colors. 37¢

ECONOMY SIX-PACK 67¢ — Six bright reels hold over 500 feet of fine shine solid color ribbon.

HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME — Extra wide ribbon rolls solve your gift wrap problems. In colors. 49¢

4-REEL RIBBON VALUE — Easy-to widths in this handy 4-pack of favorite color ribbons. 49¢

FOR THAT FINISHING TOUCH, CHRISTMAS SEALS, TAGS, CARDS

ECONOMY 200-PIECE ASSORTMENT — Big value pack, loaded with enough seals and tags to decorate every gift you give. 33¢

LUXURY 60-PIECE ASSORTMENT — A special selection to add a final flip to your most important gifts. 39¢

YOUR MONEY'S WORTH MORE AT WOOLWORTH'S

Gadabouting In Baltimore

Dinner and music for 'Kings, Queens'

With Lula Jones Garrett

Dinner and music was the King and Queen Pinochle Club's contribution to the pre-Thanksgiving partying, here, Sunday.

Members and guests gathered at four in the afternoon in Wilson's Restaurant for cocktails, hors d'ouvres and listening to a delightful program ere dining.

Milton Dorsey was master of ceremonies. Guests were welcomed by Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter. The grace was by Mrs. Henrietta Woods.

Mrs. Ella Hilson, guest speaker, talked on "Within This Present Age". Roslyn C. Catlin and Sinclair Swan brought delight to the program with their beautiful voices. Mrs. Charlotte Swan was accompanist.

The club was organized in the home of Mrs. Carpenter. Mrs. Henrietta Scott is current president. Mrs. Theresa Fonseca outlined the charity work of the club. Members, (all the ladies wearing beautiful corsages of yellow chrysanthemums) also include Mesdames Ethel Clay, Sarah Brown, Gertrude Patterson and Henrietta Woods; also George Brown and Elmer West.

Guests, who joined them at the flower-laden, candle-lighted table) included Mrs. Catlin, Mr. and Mrs. Swan, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Minnie Davis, Mrs. Sarah Kelson, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, Mrs. Helen Haves.

Mrs. Rebecca Harris, Mrs. Dora Datcher, Mrs. Clarence Hughes, George Brown, Mrs. Ruby Walker, Mrs. Patricia Payne, Mrs. Pearl Mason, Mrs. Marie Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wooley, Joseph Clark, Elmer West, Mr. and Mrs. C. Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. H. Anderson of Philadelphia and Theodore Clay.

A DELICIOUS dinner, a spirited business session, and intimate conviviality were in the offering when Catherine Wilson held forth for the Baltimore chapter of Girl Friends, on Saturday.

And adding to the warmth in their hearts was the return to the fold of Elsie Dotson, who had been prevented from attending meetings by illness for some time.

Georgianna Chester (who chairs the project) told the group that plans for the Christmas Cotillion and annual presentation of their debutantes are in fine fettle and that a more successful than ever prospect is presaged by current reservations. Irma Roy, who heads the chapter, presided.

Attending were Agnes Patterson, Laura Jones, Eliza Mae Parrott, Gwendolyn Lewis, Doris Wheeler, Catherine Laws, Frances Vessells, Anita Wheatley, Lula Patterson, Bernice Chatman, Gaynell Spaulding and Elizabeth Stewart.

• • •

SOROR DOROTHY WASHINGTON became basileus of Gamma chapter of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa at the home-meeting at the YWCA, Saturday evening.

In fact, the entire slate of officers presented by the nominating committee under the chairmanship of Soror Ethel Brewington, was unanimously accepted.

Other officers are:

Sorors Rosalie McGuire, first anti-basileus; Ruby Freeland, anti - basileus; Ethel Brewington, third anti-basileus; Lucille Johnson, grammateus; Della Macer, epistoleus; Rebecca Brown, tamiouchos; Alice Catlin, journalist; Benny Roey, tamias; Effie Scott, dean of pledgees; Anne Payne, assistant dean of pledgees; Elmira Collins, custodian of the insignia; and Delores Hunt, parliamentarian.

Entertainment for the evening included a hat show and hair styling.

• • •

THE ALFRED WOOLRIDGES (Janet), now settled in their new Edgewood Rd. Home, had a pretty dinner on Sunday evening, honoring their friends.

It was in honor of the 14th wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Edward McDaniels (Berniece); the birthday of Mrs. William Gardner (Mattie); and the engagement of Bettye Phillips and Paul Moss.

Also about were Mr. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Weaver and Mrs. Clarence Maiden.

• • •

ON SUNDAY, the Town and Country Club met with Queenie Lane at her West North Avenue home for a get acquainted party for The Debutante and Sub Debutante that the club will sponsor at the Girl Friend's Cotillion.

The guests of honor Misses Jacqueline Bullock debutante-to-be; and Martina Wiley, sub debutante, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. Leslie Bullock and Mrs. Ambrose Wiley, respectively.

Mrs. Irma Roy president of the Girl Friends, was a guest.

Mrs. Lane wore aqua taffeta with black accessories for receiving.

A variety of sandwiches, plus various sippibles, were served in the lower level club room in the Lane home.

Attending the affair were: Anna Williams, Inez Young, Ruth Paysour, Eleanor Anderson, Mildred Curtis, Maizie Rea, Sanetta Chaney, and Elizabeth Dyett.

• • •

MRS. ALICE SHELTON, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Maryland Pharmaceutical Society, represented the organization at the "Youth on Parade" luncheon held recently at the Presidential Arms in Washington.

The luncheon was presented by the Washington Pharmaceutical Association. Auxiliary. Sterling Tucker, executive director of the Washington Urban League, was the guest speaker. Twenty-two young men and women from the Washington area, who has achieved exceedingly good merit in civic endeavors and in schools, were presented to the group.

Mrs. Cladys Burton, president of the Washington chapter, presided over the afternoon luncheon. Chairman was Mrs. Alma Rimmer.

On program were Rev. William A. VanCroft, Mr. and

(Continued on page 10)

DEBUTANTES from throughout the State of Maryland who made their bows at a cotillion held in Washington, Friday evening, included left to right, seated: Misses Pamella D. Sharp, Angela Bryant, Mary Jean Brown, Cassandra Taylor, Joanne Elizabeth Hatcher, Marilyn Kathryn Martin, Patricia Spriggs, Brenda Wilson and Regina Rebecca Thomas; standing: Misses Annette Agnes Bell, Veronica L. Chandler, Dorothy Virginia Sherman, Brenda Ann Parker, Beverly Ann Harvey, Sharon Elaine Miller, Gloria Jean Singleton, Catherine Joyce Taylor, Patricia Jayne Watkins, Brenda L. Freeland, Shirley Ann Edwards and Naomi Janette Bell.

Thanksgiving quiet, but now the fun begins

Thanksgiving on the home front was a quiet day of church - going and family gatherings. Even our sports editor, Sam Lacy, was at his own fireside for the nonce . . . 'twas the first time he had spent Thanksgiving not away on assignment in 20 years.

Of course, Cupid never takes a holiday. Monterey Kinney Clay, of this town, and Leroy Bynum of Philadelphia, quietly slipped up to the Manse of Madison St. Presbyterian Church to be married by the Rev. Reginald Daniels, Wednesday. They were attended by her brother-in-law and sister, the Maxwell Chatmans.

But beginning tonight, the natives will turn the heat on.

The fun begins early with Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity pouring their cocktails at the Alcazar at nine . . . going on into dancing until one a.m.

The Neptune Yacht Club will be doing the same at the Coliseum. . . .

And the piece de resistance will be the formal dance at which the Baltimore chapter of Guardsmen will entertain their several hundred town guests . . . and the couple of hundred members and out-of-towners who are here for their weekend of top-drawer affairs.

"The hosts' biennial gathering will open this (Friday) evening, with a formal dance at the Blue Crest, North Reisterstown Road, where their out - of - town guests will be joined by close to 400 local guests. A Continental breakfast is to follow this affair.

• • • •

ON SATURDAY the men will have a business session: their ladies cocktails and a fashion show, during the early afternoon; and in the evening the Guardsmen will entertain at a supper party in the Blue Crest Fordleigh.

Among Guardsmen already in the city for the festivities are:

Dallas Miller, John Brawner, Herlock Cain, Jr., Hillard Chapman, Nathaniel Jones, Walter T. Sullivan from Philadelphia;

W. A. Goldsborough, Dr. Perry Little, Dr. C. Mason Quick, Dr. C. R. Stanley, Emory L Rann, of North Carolina; Dr. Lanky Jones, Dr. John Selden, Jr., Walter Riddick, Victor J. Ashe, from Norfolk; and Greg Carter.

And, of course, the gals in their lives!

The out - of - towners are being housed in the Warren House Motel, Near Pikesville, the Blue Crests, being adjacent. A number of the hosts are also taking suites MISS BRENDA L. FREELAND is crowned "Queen of 1963 Debutantes" by Mrs. Alice Dunnigan, Education and Community Relations Consultant of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity.

Leslie Hayling, Herman Wiley, Dr. James (Moose) Parker, Dr. James Cowan, Adam McDaniel, Dr. Harry Mickey and Dr. W. G. Alexander of New Jersey;

Henry Williams, Charles Johnson, Dr. Everett White, Barrington Bowser, from Richmond, Va.

Lloyd Genus, Leon Perry, John Wall, Frank Irving, George C. Williams, Gordon Wilson, Dr. Samuel Bullock, Dr. Thomas Dent, William S. Thompson, Joe Sewall, Buddy Rogers, from Washington;

From Brooklyn, Dr. George Thomas, Stephen Miller, Gladstone Atwell, Clarence Sherman, Robert Brown, Edward Hairston, S. S. Correia, Frank Bizzell, Howard R. Bennett and Weston Throne;

Also Dr. Anthony Smith, Dr. W. B. Schrophshire, Raymond Ware, Charles E. Bryant, Walker D. Brown, Jr., J. E. Gilbert and R. E. Thomas, Jr. from Atlanta, Ga.;

Dr. Charles C. Hant, Robert Ross, W. Harmon Brown, Gus Granger, James (Chum) Reid, Elbert Strothers, Dr. John C. S. Holloman, Jr. and H. Floyd Britton from the Manhattan chapter.

Dr. W. N. Johnson, Dr. Harold C. Walker, Joe Carwin, Rip Raysor, Robert J. Hay from Connecticut; Ralph Boykins, Joseph Quarles, Dr. Frank Carter, Court Reporters and Workman's Compensation Commission.

Following the opening talks by the moderator and guest panelists a question and answer period was carried on with a very responsive group of youngsters ranging from junior high school and upward.

THE REV. E. R. OBEY, pastor, and Mrs. Madeline Murphy, Director of Community Service of the Cherry Hill Community Presbyterian Church gave excellent guidiance to the discussions and helped the Chairman Robert Porter, Jr. to make plans for the program.

The President of the fraternity, William S. Lyles, gave the closing remarks. Mrs. Porter, wife of the chairman, was in charge of servers and Workman's Compen-

Beautician to hold regional conclave here

Mrs. Ruth Matthews, regional supervisor of the Middle Atlantic Region 2 of the National Beauty Culturists' League has announced the program for the conference which will be held in this city December 1 and 2.

The Regional Conference will open with worship services at the Ames A.M.E. Church, Carey and Baker Sts. All other activities of the day will take place at Wilson's Lounge, 1601 West North Ave.

Theme of the meetings is "Better Service Through Automation". Speakers on the panel discussion include Mrs. Carolyn Dismond, from Harrisburg, Pa., Mrs. Doris Clark, principal of the Calvinade Beauty School and president of the Washington Beauty Shop Owners, of D. C.; Mrs. Elizabeth Artis, Youth chairman, and Leon Wallace, special assistant to the Director of Veteran's Administration.

Clinics will begin at 8:30 Monday, December 2. Hair styling, weaving, coloring, business English, charm and wet setting are among demonstrations to be featured.

Guest artists include Walter Black of New York City and Miss Pearl Witcher, of Danville, Va.

Beauticians will attend from Virginia, West Virginia, District of Columbia, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New York as well as Maryland. Lead to come . . . . . speaker.

CAKE FOR THE BRIDEGROOM—Clarence Steven samples wedding cake, offered by his bride, the former Miss Daisy Mullins at reception following their marriage in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mullins of Baltimore. (Photo by Farmer)

Chi Psi Sigma holds forum

The Chi Psi Sigma Fraternity held its first in a series of Forums and Panel Discussions at the motel for individual entertaining in the interim.

Discussions entitled "Occupational Outlook" at the Cherry Hill Community Presbyterian Church on Sunday.

"The Forum and Panel Discussion were designed to inform the youth and young adults of the opportunities that lie ahead and the necessity for preparedness.

THE MODERATOR for the Panel was Frank Jones of the Chi Psi Sigma. Guest panelists were Maurice Jones, public relations department of Koesters Bakery, and Frank Carter, Court Reporter.

Annapolis DOINGS

By ELOISE RICHARDSON

The Mental Health Association of Anne Arundel County will hold its second annual meeting in the House of Delegates Chambers at the State House on Thursday evening, Dec. 5 at 8 p.m. Dessert and coffee will be served at 7:30

Theme of the program will be "Alcoholism and the Mental Health Association." Mrs. Gertrude L. Nilsson, coordinator, Services to Alcoholics Maryland State Department of Mental Hygiene, will be the guest speaker.

A report from the association interest at the Crownsville will be made for the summer of 1963 by the following:

Miss Gail Blackmore, chairman, representing the group, who is a psychology major at the University of Maryland; Miss Judith Fedrick, pre-medical student, University of Maryland; Miss Linda Bush, nurses' training, St. Agnes Hospital, and Miss Ellen Bland, sociology major, Junior, Kent State University, Kent, Ohio.

• • •

WHEN THE Methodist ministers of the South Baltimore District and their wives held their monthly meeting on last Saturday, the ministers went on record endorsing Robert L. Watts of Baltimore for the appointment of a municipal judgeship. The group voted to make direct contact with Gov. J. Millard Tawes to make such a request.

The ministers and their wives also endorsed the idea of supporting the formation of a branch of Woman Power in Anne Arundel County. Information on this project was brought to the group and the wives by Mrs. Victorene Adams, executive director of Woman Power; Dr. Delores Hunt, a member of its executive board; Mrs. Elizabeth Diggs and Mrs. Eloise Richardson.

After the business sessions, a very delicious dinner was served in the dining room of the host church, Union Methodist Church, which is located at Davidsonville.

The ministers' wives who attended their meeting were:

Mesdames Nellie Parker, president; Eva Scott, vice-president; Felicia Adams, recording secretary; Edna Johnson, assistant recording secretary; Dorothy Bennett, treasurer; Odell Conn, chaplain, Alma Mason, sheer treasurer;

Also Mesdames Martha Davis, Dorothea Jordan, Rosnetta Crosson, Beatrice Greef, Marguerite Smith, Cassie Astor, Angela Ford, Fannie Langford, Minnie Sharperson, Alice Scarborough, Isa Kelly and Margaret Sewell.

• • •

ALTHOUGH THE weekend was one of mourning because of the death of our beloved President John F. Kennedy, the seventh annual Maryland Debutante Ball, an annual cultural outlet, was held at Hotel Statler Hilto on Saturday evening.

The ball, which is sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Henry Wise of Lanham, could not be postponed because of extenuating circumstances. Dedicated to the task of helping the youth of our state, Dr. and Mrs. Wise have this record for their work.

"If we can, by offering this overall program of self improvement, vocational guidance, varied cultural and social activities, motivate any one of these debs to 'come out of the crowd,' we make a progressive step toward civic, social and cultural leadership as a result of being a debutante . . . our efforts have not been in vain. To this end we dedicate ourselves."

Twenty - one girls made their bow before an audience over over 300 people. — relatives and friends. Miss Brenda Freeland, the daughter of Mr and Mrs. William Freeland of Price Frederick County was crowned "Queen of the Ball."

Her runner-ups were Miss Naomi Janet Bell, the twin daughter of Mrs. Naomi Bell of Mount Heights, second place; Miss Shirley Anne Edwards, the daughter of Mrs. Parthenia B. Edwards, of Washington, third place; Miss Brenda Ann Parker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Parker, of Prince Frederick; fourth place, and Miss Veronia L. Chandler, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chandler fifth place. These girls will receive scholarships from the proceeds of the ball. Scholarship amounts will be announced later.

The queen was crowned by Mrs. Alice Dunnigan, Education and Community Relation consultant for the President's Employment Opportunity.

The Honorable Clarence Mitchell 3rd of the Maryland State Legislature was recipient of the Maryland Debu-

(Continued on page 10)

Mrs. Ruth Whaley urges sorors vote

Culminating activities for Founders' Week, Alpha Alpha Sigma Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority held a public meeting at the Sharon Baptist Church on Sunday.

Greetings were extended to the audience by Soror Emily Bryant. The guest speaker, Soror Ruth W. Whaley, Secretary of the Board of Estimates of New York City and Legal advisor of the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, was introduced by Soror Carolyn Robinson. Mrs. Whaley spoke on "Horizons of Citizenship."

At the beginning of her talk, Soror Whaley posed such questions as What is the present image of Greek organizations Is the image what it needs to be in this period? If that which has shaken other groups has caused changes; then why has it not done something to Greek organizations Have we outlived our usefulness and Have we given sufficient determination, affection and interest to our youth

• • •

SOROR WHALEY told the group that as a major objective, Greek organization should take the lead in the campaign to register and vote.

Said she: "Voting is necessary. As we cry for freedom and equality, let us be sure that we exercise our right to the ballot and offer interpretation to those who need guidance. "Let it be said that in this era of progress, Greek organizations did lend their support in getting out the vote. Rededicate ourselves to the vision that as Greeks, we should set forth a vision of service within the group and within the community. Help to build a cathedral of good will and service.

• • •

OTHERS participating on the program were the Rev. James Moore, who offered the invocation and benediction; Miss Sybil Green and Soror Pafelle Green, soloist; the Chorale Ensemble of Sollers Point High School under the direction of Mrs. Clara Statham Green, chairman of the music department of Sollers Point High; Mack Statham, music director of Samuel Gompers Jr. High School, who rendered an organ solo; and Soror Catherine Royston who read the history of the Sorority.

Soror Dorothy Howard acted as Mistress of Ceremonies.

Sorors planning Founders' Week activities were Julia Medley, chairman, Pauline Butler, Janice Evans, Dorothy Howard and Willie Mae Stanley.

NU ALPHA MU Sorority composed of high school pals, held luncheon on Saturday to mark end of pledging of new members. Girls attend Lemmel, Douglass, Forest Park, Houston and Edmondson Highs. Standing, left to right, Gloria Coleman, recording secretary; Lois Bryant, treasurer; Audrey Fountain, president; Barbara Graves, 2nd vice president; Marie Phillips, dean of pledgees; LaVerne Taylor, 1st vice president. Newly initiated members standing, left to right, Audrey Divers, Jacqueline Bobo, Cynthia Underwood, Carolyn Richardson and June Page. Not pictured, Jo Ann Jones and Brenda Tates. Adult advisors are Mesdames Bernice Taylor, Hazel Bryant, Alberta Sanders and Betty Phillips. Group plans holiday program for less fortunate in the coming weeks.