WILLIE KIRKLAND AL SMITH

ONE COMING, ONE GOING — Baltimore Orioles early this week completed trade with Cleveland Indians that brought outfielder Willie Kirkland to Baltimore City and sent flychaser Al Smith to the Tribe. Kirkland, ex-Giant, played three years in Cleveland. Smith came to Birds in trade with White Sox last winter.

Skins, Colts draft nine tan stars

WASHINGTON

The Washington Redskins and the Baltimore Colts picked nine colored players between them in the 1963 draft of college football talent early this week.

The Skins tapped four and the Colts five.

Both clubs chose tan prospects on their first rounds. Baltimore, in fact, used up her first two draft choices on colored hopes.

CHARLEY TAYLOR, power-running halfback of Arizona State University, was the 1. selection of the Skins. Halfback Mary Woodson of Indiana, led off the Colts' choices.

In addition to Taylor, Washington plucked fullback Jim Snowden of Notre Dame, on the third round; halfback Gene Donaldson of Purdue, on the eighth; halfback Ozzie Clay of Iowa State, on the 14th round.

THE COLTS followed their selection of Woodson, with a second - round pluck of fullback Tony Lorick of Arizona State.

On their 10th round, the Steeds annexed halfback Ken Graham of Washington State, and on the 16th, they picked up Alvin Hayman, a back at Southern University.

John Butler, a back at San Diego State, was the Baltimore selection on the 18th round.

Former Ohio State cage captain leads Trotters

WASHINGTON

One of the six outstanding rookies who will perform with the Original Harlem Globetrotters in their basketball stand against the Atlantic City Sea Gulls at the Washington Coliseum December 14, is Jim Doughty, six-foot, five - inch; 205 - pound center.

Doughty captained last year's Buckeye combination and has been a rebounding star of Ohio State University's great combinations of the "Jerry Lucas" era of the past three seasons.

"JUMPIN' JIM", a resident of Columbus, O. was one of Ohio State's most opportune scorers and best - rounded players.

He is joining five other interesting first - year men in the finest rookie representation in their 37 - year history.

OTHER FRESHMAN basketeers who will bow in with the Trotters against the Sea Gulls locally are: Bill (The Orbit) Garner, seven - foot center, University of Portland; Connie Hawkins, 6 - 8 foot, five - inch; 205 - pound center, University of Iowa and Pittsburgh Rens of the American Basketball League; Howard Montgomery, 6 - 5 forward, Pan American College; Bobby Mason, 6 - 2 guard, and Meadowlark Lemon, 6 - 2 guard and center.

FOR EGGHEADS ONLY

Seasoned men don't even try to take whole eggs into the woods.

They break the eggs in a bottle, fish them out as needed and then use the bottle for something useful when all the eggs have gone.

OUTDOOR TIPS

FLOWER GROWERS"

Don't throw away the soil you kept worms in.

It makes the finest soil available for such indoor plants as African Violets, ivy, etc. Rich in humus.

OIL GLOVES

Oil from petrolatum greases makes a serviceable waterproofing for leather goods.

Rub some into your leather gloves now. Gloves will keep you warmer, stay soft longer and stay dry.

AMMO CASE

New plastic cigarette packs make an ammunition case that's just the size to hold 9 .30 .06 shells in your pocket and keep them from rattling.

PINE-SCENTED CLOTHES

It's a mute point how well your scent can be disguised where deer are concerned.

The "no scent" school aftershave lotion (soap odor, aftershave lotion, soap odor, they say, is too strong) or ever smoke a cigarette on stand.

The "scent" school smokes and washes and says around and no matter what you do the deer will smell you if he's down wind.

The no-scent boys counter with the question, "Why make a bigger smell than you have to?"

To this endless controversy add this tip: Scent your dear jacket and pants with pine needles for three months before the season.

Man smell will be masked.

EASY INFLATER

An old but air-tight truck inner tube makes a fine air mattress inflater.

Fill the tube before you set out for camp. (It makes an excellent carrier for your automotor in transit).

At camp just insert air mattress stem over valve stem of tube and loosen the latter.

In goes the air. Up goes the air mattress without the long puff.

TIRE CHAINS

Don't throw away tire chains when the cross links wear out.

Get a cold chisel and a chisel and a sledge and chop cross pieces off.

Two long lengths of outside chain can be used to lock your boat or as a safety chain for trailer to name just two places.

CATCH GRASSHOPPERS

Cheesecloth in a size big enough to make a net between two poles will be your fastest way to catch grasshoppers and field crickets.

A length six feet by four feet is perfect. Two men can sweep in through high grass, then pick the insects out at their leisure.

PLASTIC WORM STORAGE

It's a good idea with new popular plastic worms and other natural baits to store them in waxed paper bags or plastic polyethene bags.

Otherwise they may stick together.

RED FOR SUCCESS

Don't forget if you're headed out deer hunting to have a piece of bright red cloth to wrap around any deer you might get.

And NEVER hoist a deer over your shoulders without covering it with a red cloth.

Cavaliers win title second years in row

WASHINGTON

For the second year in a row the Cavalier A.C. has won the conference crown in the D.C. Amateur Athletic Conference.

Although there are two games remaining on their schedule, they can lose both and still win the title.

Their closest rivals — the Collegians and the Stonewalls —have five and three defeats.

Rub Fields, coach of the Cavaliers, called this yetar's team "my finest team."

The Cavaliers will play the Alexandria Rans in the Suburban Bowl on Sunday, Dec. 15 at Alexandra, Va.

Bowl-bound Bears set Morgan marks

BALTIMORE

The Morgan State College Bears, who will play Florida A and M in the Orange Blossom Classic December 14 in Miami, have set some new Morgan football records.

The Bears set a new scoring high for Morgan teams, T. R. Still, statistician, reports, when they scored 302 points this season.

The previious high was set by the famed Eddie Hurt - coached 1933 team which scored 294 points.

A TRUE comparison here, however, is not possible since the 1933 team played only 8 games, while the present eleven played 9.

Also, the 1933 team only allowed its opposition six points, while the 1963 Bears gave up 61 points to their opponents.

THIS YEAR'S squad also set an individual scoring record, with Oliver Dobbins grounding out 74 points.

Dobbins, who has been named the CIAA's "outstanding player of the year," broke the 72 - point season record tallied by George Rooks of the 1952 team.

Other top scorerers on the squad were Earl Mayo with 34 points, Leroy Kelley and Clarence Scott with 30 points each, Bernard Blanks with 22 points and Roland Savage with 18.

THE INDIVIDUAL rushing leader was Dobbins, 416 net yards gained. Other leaders were: Clarence Scott, 386 net yards gained; Leroy Kelly, 339; Roland Savage, 211; Bernard Blanks, 179; and Earl Mayo, 104.

Russell Jolivet, the sophomore quarterback, led the team in total offense (rushing and passing) with 401 net yards.

Carol Whitaker, the junior quarterback, was second with 369 net years, and Gilbert Carter, freshman, was third with 144.

US Olympic Committee names Hurt

EDDIE HURT

NEW CORK—Eddie Hurt, veteran tutor and athletic director at Morgan State College, on Monday became the first colored person named a United States Olympics coaching staff.

Hurt received the unanimous backing of the 22-man Olympic Track and Field Committee for a post on the 4 - man staff that will handle Uncle Sam's cinder squad in Tokyo next summer.

THE HEAD coach will be Bob Giegengack of Yale University. Sino on the staff in addition to Hurt will be Payton Jordan of Stanford University, and Rut Walters of Wisconsin.

The Morgan mentor tutored the sprinters on the U.S. squad for the 1960 Pan-American Games in Chicago. His assignment for the 1964 Olympic Games has not as yet been settled.

APPOINTMENT of Hurt to a coaching post brought to an end long speculation over the reasons the Olympic teams committee has bypassed qualified tan tutors for so many years.

Ed Temple of Tennessee State University, has handled several U.S. girls teams, but these chores have never been recognized as official coaching assignments.

In the 1960 Olympics, nine colored coaches were on the scene at Rome, but all were there as tutors of foreign

Brutes, gals on Civic card

BALTIMORE

Hans (The Great) Mortier, who lost a stirring battle to world champion Bruno Sammartino three weeks ago at the Baltimore Civic Center, will try to retain his stature as a leading challenger when he grapples big Bobo Brazil here on Wednesday night.

Bobo, an enormous athlete who once had big league baseball aspirations, is himself in need of a winning streak. Both battlers will be in top shape for their one fall, 45 - minute limit, affair.

It's one of the co - features of a 7 - match card featuring title holder Sammartino versus Gorilla Monsoon, from Manchuria.

AND WHEN Baby Cheryl and her partner, Diamond Lil, fly out in the direction of Little Darling Dagmar and little Doll Paige, a tag match that will be a melee of beauty, muscle, real wrestling skill and all the female tricks in the book, will be under way.

Little Darling may be one of the cutest and most congenial gals in the world, but she's in to win. And Baby Cheryl has long since issued this warning to all other female wrestling cuties: "Beware. Sister!"

They're all little darlings and the lady wrestlers — but somehow, they always forget they're ladies when they get into the ring.

let Monroe, both veterans, David Nesbitt and Clarence Scott are slated to return to the varsity after they finish their football chores.

Morgan five bows Saturday

BALTIMORE

Morgan State College opens its 1963-64 Basketball season tomorrow (Saturday) in Hurt Gymnasium; meeting Virginia Union University of Richmond, at 8 p.m.

Coach Howard K. Wilson announced a 20-game schedule for the Bear cagers, who this year hope to improve from their won 10, lost 12 record of last season.

The Morgan squad is being built around a nucleus of seven men, including five veterans and two newcomers.

THE VETERANS are Barry Simms, Lee Cornish, team captain Edward Strawther, James Turk, and Grant Turner. Freshman members of the core of the varsity squad are Robert Gordon of Lawrenceville, Va., and James Hall of Towson, Md.

Ranked closely behind these seven cagers are Charlie Briscoe and Nathan-

In Memoriam 3

BASTFIELD — In loving memory of my husband and our father, LEE, who passed away December 7, 1961.
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true;
There is a token of affection dear;
And a heartache still for you.
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing,
If you only could come home.
Off and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I hold you, dearest husband,
Two years ago today.
Loving Wife, MARY

BOOKER — In memory of our loved one, FRANCEL LEON JR., who passed away December 4, 1960.
We cannot forget you, and do not intend

We think of you often, and will to the end,
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you will always be.

Sons, FRANCEL and CORTEZ

CAGER — In memory of our dear husband, ALBERT L. CAGER, who passed away two years ago, December 8, 1961.
Two Years in a peaceful rest
Had our dear husband that day.
When the news we loved was called away
God took him home
It was his will
Within our hearts he lives still.

DIGGS — In loving memory of our mother, IDA, who passed away December 5, 1962.
Mother, dear it has been many years since you left us, we miss you more and more as time goes by. It seems as though it was but yesterday. Your memory lingers on. We see it is a dream! Or do my eyes deceive? Oh, no, I see your smile through the years to me. I feel the pressure of your hand. Oh, I wish a dream once more I can hear you say that you should be sorry for Mother of my childhood's pleasant days; still whispers your counsel and dispelling fears. Are you a dream or gone from my years forever? Or do you really walk along the ways and know my triumph, or my sorrow. Yes! That quickly cease when you sees me home to rest. Then if I but dream dear God, at me sleep.

GOSNELL — In loving memory of our dear father, JOHN, who passed away December 4, 1947.
Gone, dear Father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face;
But you left us remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still.
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
Loving Daughters,
ESTHER, JOHN, EDNA WILSON, ELLA CHAMS
Granddaughter,
NATALIE MATTHEWS

GRAHAM — In loving memory of my dear husband, ALBERT, who passed away December 4, 1961.
The lips cannot express your loss,
My heart cannot tell what to say;
God alone knows how I miss her
In a home that is lonesome to day.
DEVOTED NIECE - M. E. RUSH

GREEN — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, EARL, who passed away December 1, 1962.
We do not forget you, nor do we intend
We think of you often, and will to the end;
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
Wife, HILDA GREEN,
CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN

HARGIS — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, MARTHA E., who passed away December 5, 1962.
Nothing but memories as we journey on.
Longing for a smile from a loved one gone.
None knows the depths of our deep regret,
But we remember and will never forget.
DEVOTED CHILDREN - GERTRUDE, MARTHA, ROSE, BEARDINA, WILLIAM and JAMES

HAWKINS — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOHN W. HAWKINS, who passed away December 7, 1952.
What would I give to clasp his hand,
Those happy face to see,
To hear his voice and see him smile.
That meant so much to me.
Wife,
CLARA B. HAWKINS

HOOD — In loving memory of our dear husband, JOHN, who passed away December 4, 1961.
Sweet memories are all we have left to cherish.
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing,
If you only could come home.
Off and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I hold you, dearest husband,
Two years ago today.
Loving Wife, MILDRED HOOD

McCLINTON — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOHN W., who passed away December 8, 1962.
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee.
Oh, how I miss you, JOHN, dear,
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart.
But, no, it isn't true
For the longer I live
The more I miss you.
We have suffered, since we lost you,
We have suffered since we lost you.
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers on.
Sweetly, tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear husband,
That we do not think of you.
Wife, CHILDREN, MOTHER, SISTERS, BROTHER AND FAMILY.

WILSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, LUCY WILSON, who fell asleep one year today, December 7, 1962.
No one knows how much we miss you.
No one knows the bitter pain,
We have suffered since we lost you.
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers on.
Sweetly, tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
Daughter, ELLA M. WILSON
