The Top Ten

It seemed only a natural occurrence that Fred Robinson should become a disc jockey and be known as Rockin' Robin.

Robin a native of Swedesboro, N.J., is the son of

ROCKIN' ROBIN

Businessman - gospel promoter, Robert S. Robinson, and Mrs. Ernestine Robinson.

Like his father, Robin was endowed with a gregarious nature, a flair for talking and a sensitive musical ear.

In earyl childhood Fred was exposed to a varied musical training.

He studied piano, tuba and baritone horn and sang and participated in glee clubs operettas and variety shows in elementary and high school. He was twice awarded trophies for outstanding vocal achievements.

* * *

ROBIN GRADUATED from the Swedesboro High School in 1953, and, following the footsteps of his father and grandfather, became a licensed barber.

He worked a short while as a barber and subsequently decided to enroll in disc jockey school.

During rehearsal at dj school he realized the opportunity of combining the novelty of rock and roll with his own name to arrive at Rockin' Robin.

It was not until later that he remembered the recording of "Rockin' Robin" by Bobby Day and realized he had a theme "made to order".

Robin started his radio career in Atlantic City, New Jersey at radio stations WLDB and WMID, He then moved to Philadelphia, Pa. and Station WHAT. He came to be well known for his slogan, "If you think your heart can take it, come fly with me".

In 1960 he was awarded the "Disc Jockey of the Year" trophy. He came to WEBB, Baltimore, in August 1962 and shortly thereafter his rating soared to that of top R and B disc jockey in the area.

* * *

THE ROCKIN' ROBIN show is currently aired Monday through Saturday, 12 noon to 4:45 p.m.

Quite often Robin can be heard sending out kisses and dedications to the "Rockettes." Considered his pride and joy, the Rockettes are his number one fan club.

Robin is married to his childhood sweetheart, the former Flo Wise, an alumnus of Morgan State College, ex-professional model and newspaper writer.

Following are Rockin' Robin's top ten records of the week:

1. Quicksand — Martha and the Vandellas.
2. "As Long As I Know He's Mine"—The Marvelettes.
3. "Coming Back To You" —Maxine Brown.
4. "Need To Belong" — Jerry Butler.
5. "Signed, Sealed and Delivered—James Brown
6. "Pain In My Heart"—Otis Redding.
7. "You've Good For Me" —Solomon Burke
8. "Walking The Dog"—Rufus Thomas.
9. "For Your Precious Love" — Garnet Mims and The Enchanters.
10. "When The Lovelight Starts Shining Through His Eyes"—The Supremes.

Poitier's 'Lilies of Field' at Met

The winner of three awards in the recent Berlin Film tival — two of them special citations and the third going going to an actor or the best performance for an unprecedented second time is now playing at the Met Theatre, in Ralph Nelson's "Lilies of the Field." The picture is a United Artist release.

The best actor award goes to Sidney Poitier, star of the film version of William Barrett's fame novel of the same name, and he is the only actor in the history of the festivalto receive the honor twice. His previous award was for his part in "The Defiant Ones."

Hot hockey rivals in weekend series

Baltimore and Hershey, two of the biggest rivals in the American Hockey League, resume their battle for the Advocate Cup this weekend with a pair of important contests in the tightly-waged Eastern Division race.

The home-and-home series will be staged tonight (Friday) at the Civic Center in an 8 o'clock face-off with the second game at the Sports Arena in Hershey on Saturday night.

By virture of a pair of 3-2 victories last month, the Bears enjoy a 2-0 lead over the Clippers in this winter's play. Last year, the Clippers captured the first leg on the Advocate Trophy by edging the Bears during regular season play at 4 games to 3 with two ties. However, the Bears then eliminated the Clips in the post-season playoffs 2 games to 1.

TALL TROTTER — Bill (The Orbit) Garner, the first 7-footer since Wilt Chamberlain was a Globetrotter, is one of 5 players standing above 6-6 in the current lineup of the basketball funmakers. They're in D.C., December 14, and in Baltimore, Dec. 15.

This is such a nice-looking car and it moves so well that a person could easily buy it for those reasons alone.
Just imagine the same car with a 5-year/50,000-mile warranty.*
Easier, even.

Sport Fury 2-door hardtop

The 1964 Plymouth

The Sport Fury shown above is the star of the Plymouth line for 1964. All-vinyl bucket seats and large center console are standard equipment. Transmission options include a console-mounted 3-speed automatic, and a 4-speed manual stick with Hurst shifter, while engine options go all the way to a Commando 426-cu.-in. V-8.

Most valuable of all is the strong 5-year/50,000-mile warranty* on the parts that keep you going. If this is the year you picked to buy a new car, you picked a beautiful year to Get up and go Plymouth!

*HERE'S HOW PLYMOUTH'S 5/50 WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU: Chrysler Corporation warrants for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, against defects in materials and workmanship and will replace or repair at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business, the engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch), torque convertor, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings of its 1964 automobiles, provided the owner has the engine oil changed every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first, the oil filter replaced every second oil change, and the carburetor air filter cleaned every 6 months and replaced every 2 years, and every 6 months furnishes to such a dealer evidence of performance of the required service, and requests the dealer to certify (1) receipt of such evidence and (2) the car's then current mileage.
