AFRO finds Ossie's kin

By GEORGE W. COLLINS

On his whirlwind tour of Baltimore recently, Ossie Davis, the dynamic star of stage, screen and television, saw a lot of people — including Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin and Comptroller Hyman A. Pressman, who extended official greetings.

Despite his winning race with the clock and a tight schedule, however, Ossie flew out of town with onerege:t:

"I didn't get a chance to see my uncle."

Mr. Davis, who wrote and stars in the lead role of "Gone Are The Days," said his uncle, the Rev. John H. Davis, lives in Baltimore but "I don't know the address."

By the time he and co-star Godfrey Cambridge personally met students at Douglass and Carver High Schools and Morgan plus hundreds of fans at the benefit showing of the hard-hitting film version of the hard-hitting satirical take - off on the madness of segregation, time had run out and Ossie was unable to effort the reunion.

SHORTLY BEFORE he, his actress - wife Ruby Dee and Cambridge were airborne from Friendship, the AFRO assured the actor that it would find his uncle.

Ossie, your letter is eagerly awaited by:

Elder John H. Davis
1004 W. Franklin St.
Baltimore 23, Md.

The Rev. Mr. Davis said he and his wife, Mrs. Amanda Davis, have lived in Baltimore since 1931 after leaving their native Valdosta, Ga.

The minister said he is the brother of Ossie's father, the late Kent C. Davis, who died in 1947.

ORDAINED IN 1919, the clergyman said he is pastor of the Church of The Living God in Richmond, Va.

"I heard he was coming to town, but I didn't know exactly when," the minister said of his illustrious nephew. He added that he hasn't seen Ossie in "many years."

The Rev. Mr. Davis said they are the parents of five children, all of whom are adults and live in Baltimore.

Another cousin of the script writer and actor is Mrs. Carry Smith of Atlantic City, N. J. the minister told the AFRO.

LET'S TALK ABOUT PROFESSIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AT Westinghouse
DEFENSE & SPACE CENTER
We need engineers, physicists, mathematicians. People with degrees in these fields. People with vision . . . curiosity . . . creativity. Can you qualify?
For the man who can qualify for one of the many professional openings at Westinghouse Defense and Space Center, the rewards are considerable. Responsible participation in the vital space and defense projects that will make tomorrow's headlines. The satisfaction of personal achievement. Professional recognition.
At Westinghouse, a man goes just as far as his ambition and ability can take him. You will be encouraged to study for advanced degrees at Johns Hopkins University, the University of Maryland, or George Washington University under a special Tuition Refund Plan. You will share in pension and insurance plans and many other company benefits.
Tell us what you have to offer in the way of qualifications; we'll tell you more about what Westinghouse can offer you.
We invite you to send your resumé to L. M. Adkins, Dept. 634

Prairie View in Camellia Bowl

PRAIRIE VIEW, Texas—(ANP)—The Panthers of Prairie View college, already the champions of the Southwestern Athletic Conference, returned triumphantly to the campus last weekend from Kearney, Neb where they defeated Kearney State, 20-7, for the right to battle St. John's of Minnesota in the annual Camellia Bowl football game tomorrow (Saturday).

The Camellia Bowl game will be played in Sacramento, Calif. It matches the two finalists in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for the nation's small college championship.

PRAIRIE VIEW was forced to come from behind to defeat Kearney. The Panthers trailed at halftime by 7 - 0. They then came on to score all of their 20 points in the final period.

Ironically, it was a guy named Kearney who helped to put the damper on the Kearney team. Jack Kearney teamed with Eddie Seals to score the Panthers final two touchdowns.

Oscar says...

Only America's No.1 Brandy
tastes so great straight!
'He's Oscar Haynes, Washington District Manager for The Christian Brothers Wines and Brandy. He knows his brandy! He knows that this is the brandy that's number one in sales in the country. It's the American brandy made differently from all the rest—in special stills, with special blending of fine matured brandies, to a special formula. That's why this brandy tastes so special in a highball, manhattan, on-the-rocks or straight. Head straight for The Christian Brothers Brandy and see. Tonight. Available in ½ pints, pints, fifths, quarts.
