Friend

A friend you can always count on . . . that's one of the many roles the telephone plays in your life.

For your telephone is a tried-and-true companion, always ready to give you a hand with anything and everything—in any weather, at any time, to take you any place.

Your telephone friend actually helps save you money, too. In fact, the more you use your telephone, the more you're likely to save. You save time, and save expenses that would otherwise mount up if you had to do everything by yourself.

It's hard to imagine what life would be like without the friendly telephone to help lighten and brighten your days.

And the telephone is still one of the biggest bargains in your family budget. Use it often.

By MARIAN CAMPBELL

Amidst the lovely holiday decor and an à la carte dinner, in one of the banquet rooms, at One West on Monday evening, Mrs. Alice Shelton presided at the annual Christmas meeting of the Ladies' Auxriliary of Maryland's Pharmaceutical Society.

HAVE YOU EVER wondered what type of social chit chat is exchanged at a dance between the dancing, and tasting of delicacies During the Delta Sigma theta dance on Friday among the younger, set, the conversatfons ran from wearing apparel to where to send your child for his schooling.

Panyola Priest's guests found the dress of Mrs. Gwendolyn Rooks quite becoming and unique. It was an orange velvet sleeveless designed by Mrs. Richard Glascoe, with an artist's palette design in the yoke. Mrs. Priest's baby blue sheath of brocade, highlighted by a peacock's fan across its back, was also being commented upon. She had designed and made her own dress.

TE MEN were busy complimenting Mr. Donald Matthews on his green mohair, double-breasted, cut - away continental suit, which he had purchased in New York.

Her friends were exclaiming over the pre-Xmas gift received by Mrs. Vivian Madison from her husband. He gave her a white, red-ip-holstered T-Bird.

At the next table, which was where Mrs. Ernest Brown and her guests were seated, one could hear the former Yvonne Smith, of this city, being asked about her sister, Hiriam and Gerald. Hiriam has begun to practice law on the West Coast. Gerald is in his second year of law school at Howard University, married to the former Gwendolyn Noel, of this city, and is the father of two. Yvonne is now Mrs. Ferdinand Leacock. Her husband is a resident at Ft. Howard Hospital.

MANY AT Joyce Parker's table were congratulating Miss Muriel Rawlings on her permanent appointment in the Sthool System. Also at that table they were admiring the coif of Mrs. Janice Smith. She had it cut into a full 'pixie' style and tipped with blonde coloring. Charming!

MRS. JON SPENCER was exquisite looking in her two piece white outfit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sgro in Milford Mills last evening. The top was of a pink hue sequinned top and the skirt was a swirling white chiffon.

Spareribs can be welcome change

A succulent main dish of crispy brown spareribs, sizling from the oven, will be a welcome change of page for a meal during the holidays.

Like the old lady who gave the recipe for rabbit stew . . . the first thing to do is to catch a rabbit. In this case, the main thing to do is to get some meaty ribs. Try the Slaughter House, Warwick Avenue, for this, where the ribs can be cut to your order.

• • •

ONE DELIGHTFUL way to prepare spareribs is with stuffing. Apples make one of the top stuffings.

Try one onion, chopped, a tablespoon minced parsley, three stalks of celery, chopped, six tart apples, chopped, a fourth cup sugar, a cup bread crumbs, two matching spareribs (about one and a half pounds each,) salt and pepper.

Combine onion, parsley, celery, apples, sugar and crumbs. Spread one section of the ribs with stuffing. Cover with other section and season. Bake uncovered in moderate oven (350 F.) until tender. This should take about one and a half hours. Serves six.

• • •

YOU MAY LIKE a sweet potato stuffing better.

For this you will use two cups mashed sweet potatoes, a tablespoon minced onion, a cup cooked rice, one and a half cups minced celery, two tablespoons melted fat, salt and pepper, and four pounds spareribs.

Mix first seven ingredients thoroughly. Break spareribs through the center and remove any surplus fat.

Spread potato mixture on bony side of half of ribs, fold in center to cover filling with other half of ribs.

Place in baking pan with heavy meat side on top. Season meat and dredge with flour. Cover bottom of pan with boiling water and cook in moderate oven (325 F.) for one and a half to two hours or until tender. Serves 6.
