500 African students riot in Moscow

MOSCOW — More than 500 African students staged a mass protest over the death of a Ghanian student who they claimed was killed by Russian citizens and in protest of racial discrimination in general in the Soviet Union.

The students twice scuffled with police and crowded around the main gate of the Kremlin. They shouted and carried signs in English and French reading "Stop Killing Africans" and "Moscow, a second Alabama."

One student also cried " It is a matter of white against black all over the world."

The student who was killed was Asare - Addao, 29, a medical student from Ghana, his body was found last Friday at a crossroad spot 10 miles from Moscow.

* * *

A RUSSIAN news agency indicated that the student had been drinking, had collapsed in the snow and frozen to death. However, another African medical student who was an observer at the autopsy said that Mr. Asare - Addo had bruises on his hands, knees and a wound under his chin which indicated that they had been inflicted by blows.

Tucker warns on thwarting minority hope

WASHINGTON

Sterling Tucker, executive director, Washington Urban League warned that if the patience and courage of the American colored citizens is again frustrated, no one can predict what their future course will be.

He made the statement in an address before the American Association of University Women.

TO PREVENT this, deep rooted social change is needed, Tucker said, and urged social planing, not at the demonstration level, but in the form of a massive and concerted attack.

"We are at loggerheads in terms of implementing positive constructive programs," Tucker stated. "The Civil Rights revolution is upgrading the hopes of the colored family because the prospect of opportunity has been improved. Yet we must be careful that our courage is not dashed to the rocks or used up in false alarms."

He noted that though America is in the midst of a social revolution, change has not occurred, only the prospect for change.

Brazil takes on giant Graham in year-end tilt

WASHINGTON

Bobo Brazil, United States heavyweight champion from Columbus, Ojio is to meet Dr. Jerry Graham, 321 - pound psychologist originally from Phoenix, Arizona, in the main event of the holiday wrestling show at Washington Coliseum December 30.

Brazil only recently administerer the 357 - pound Gorilla Monsoon the Manchurian giant's first defeat locally at the Coliseum, and is an outstanding contender for Bruno Sammartino's world heavyweight championship belt.

* * *

DR. GRAHAM, who actually holds a college degree in psychology, recently returned to this country after a two and one half year tour around the world.

He insists that he hiked his weight purposely from 260 to 321 pounds by going on a special diet while training with, and opposing Suma matmen in Japan, and that the diet has enabled him to add new strength without sacrificing anything in speed and agility.

Kelly, Morgan star, signs with Browns

BALTIMORE

Handyman Leroy Kelly of Morgan State College eleven, singed a 1964 contract with the Cleveland Browns following a dinner engagement at the Sheraton Inn, Wednesday evening.

The 21 - year - old, 190-pound halfback from Philadelphia was the 8th round pick of the Browns in the recent draft of college players. He received an undisclosed bonus for accepting the Brownie terms.

* * *

KELLY'S SINGING was negotiated by Paul Bixler, the No. 3 man in the Cleveland football dynasty, As personnel director and assistant coach, Bixler falls in line of importance behind only owner Art Modell and head coach Blanton Collier.

Bixler indicated that he had taken a personal interest in Kelly when he revealed that the youthful all-round Bears' star had been under surveillance the entire season. He gave Kelly personal scouting coverage when Morgan played Florida A and M in the Orange Blossom Classic, Dec. 14.

* * *

COACH EARL BANKS of the Bears, was on hand at Bixler's invitation. He says he is convinced that Kelly can help the Browns with his running, pass catching and ounting.

Bixler hinted, that the young Bruin ace might fit better into the defensive picture at Cleveland. He said he was greatly impressed with Kelly's coverage of speedster Bob Hayes, the world-record sprinter, in the at Miami.

Kelly, who ran, caught passes, kicked and sparkled on defense for the Bears, said he'll play anywhere the Browns put him.

"I just want to play," beamed Leroy.

Liberty Bowl football may face pickets

The prospect of a picket line continued to haunt the 1963 Liberty Bowl football game as Saturday's kickoff in Philadelphia Stadium looms near.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has threatened to throw pickets around the stadium to protest the appearance of the Mississippi State eleven.

* * *

CECIL MOORE, NAACP chapter chairman, charged that the city is subsidizing discrimination by permitting Mississippi State to play on the city - owned grounds.

Mississippi State, which plays North Carolina State in the post - season fixture, clings to its policy of lily - white student body and athletic teams.

A SPOKESMAN for the Liberty Bowl promoters said that the invitations to the two schools will stand.

"The teams were invited on the basis of being football teams," he asserted, "and that's the way we are operating."
