BROTHER—WILMER SINKFIELD
NEPHEW—WENDELL SINKFIELD

GREEN — In loving memory of our son and brother, RICHARD, who passed away December 28, 1948:

Why did he go when life seemed fair
And no dark clouds were near
To dim the brightness of our lives
Or start the bitter tear.
We thought not at the close of day,
When night veiled earth and sky
That one so full of life and hope
Would breathe his last goodbye.
LOVING MOTHER—MATILDA
SISTERS and BROTHER—BERTHA, MARY and HENRY

GUPTON — In loving memory of my husband, JAMES E., who passed away May 15, 1961:

In my heart your memory lingers
Sweetly, tender and true
There is not a day, dear husband
That I don't think of you.
YOUR DEVOTED WIFE—ROSA GUPTON

HAMMOND — In loving memory of our husband and father, JAMES, who passed away July 18, 1963:

I open to see in the soft, dim light
A face I love the best.
And think of him when the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far off West.
I miss you so less as the time passes on
Than I did on the day of your going
For absence can never close the door of my heart
And the lamp of my love is still glowing
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world.
Your love the best to recall
For no one on earth can take your place.
You are still the dearest of all.
