JOINS PRO GOLF WHEEL — Althea Gibson used a recent Florida trip to prepare for her upcoming venture into professional golf. The two-time Wimbledon and Forest Hills tennis champion, signed last week to a sponsor's contract by Dunlop (sporting goods firm), plans to join the tournament circuit in April.

15 see Rose Bowl duty; 11 for Illini

PASADENA, Cal. — A touchdown by Jim Warren, a 175-pound halfback from New Orleans, La., took Illinois out of a 7-3 deficit and set the fuse on her 17-7 victory over Washington in the Rose Bowl football game New Year's Day.

The score, registered on a pitchout from quarterback Mike Ialiaferro, was the first of the day for the Illini, who were making it 3 for 3 in Tournament of beat UCLA, 45-14, in 1947, and turned back Stanford, 40-7, n 1952.

* * *

WARREN WAS one of 5 tan players who saw action in the oldest of the New Year's Day classics. Illinois used 11, with halfbacks Sam Price of Toledo, Ohio, and Art McCaskill of Centralia, Ill., turning in fine running chores.

Also figuring large in the Illini effort were guard Ed Washington and tackles Archie Sutton and Bill Minor.

* * *

FULLBACK JUNIOR Coffey kept the Washington Huskies in the contest to the end with off-tackle slashes that took some, but not enough, pressure off Bill Siler's passing bids.

Two costly fumbles and so many interceptions, however, blunted the Washington hopes. And when sophomore fullback Jim Grabowski capped a drive of 85 yards in the final quarter with a 1-yard touchdown thrust, Illinois was out of reach.

* * *

DEFENSIVE captain Charlie Browning, end Pete Gleen Reece were the other tan members of the losing Husky squad.

Browning hails from Stockton, Greenlee from Seattle, Angeles.

Coffey, who was rated one of the top collegiate backs in the nation this fall, despite an injury suffered in the final month of the season, is a native of Dennis, Texas.

Rounding out the total of 14 tan athletes, who saw duty were halfbacks Trenton, Jackson, and Dick Lee, guard Don Saunders and ends Eddie Blewett and Mike Summers, all of the Illini.

Prairie View named recipient of Scott Memorial Trophy

ATLANTA, Ga. — The Panthers of Prairie View A and M College, Texas, were named the 1963 recipients of The W. A. Scott II, Memorial Trophy, annually awarded by the 100 Percent Wrong Club Atlanta, to the mythical champions of Inter collegiate football.

William J. (Billy) Nicks, Prairie View athletic director and head football coach, and his star quarterback, Jimmy Kearney, were named "Football Coach" and "Collegiate Player" of the year, respectively, by the 100 Percenters.

* * *

NICKS' team had a 9-0 record for the regular season, while in post-season competition his Panthers defeated Kearney State College, Nebraska, 20-7, in an NAIA small college play-off.

At Sacramento, Calif., the Panthers dropped the NAIA championship, 34-7, to St. John's College, Collegeville, Minn., in a hotly contested Camellia Bowl game. During the season, Prairie View defeated Lackland AFB., Jackson State, Texas Southern, Wiley, Grambling, Arkansas A. M and N, Bishop, Alcorn and Southern.

* * *

THE SCOTT Trophy, sponsored by The Coca-Cola Company, was initiated a decade ago by The 100 Percent Wrong Club of The Atlanta Daily World in memory of the newspaper's founder and first editor-publisher, W. A. Scott II, an All-American quarterback at Morehouse College in the late twenties. The award was here on Tuesday, December 31.

At the 29th annual All-Sports Jamboree, honors were also set for two other coaches of the year, a professional football player, a sports public relations man and the club's all-Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

"The Pioneer Award" and "The Two Friends Awards," which honor the memory of A. F. Herndon, founder of The Atlanta Life Insurance Company, will be announced at a later date.

* * *

C. E. GAINES, Winston-Salem Teachers College, Winston-Salem, N.C., and Clifton Anderson, Maryland State College, Princess Anne, Maryland, were cited as the top basketball and track coaches for 1963.

Grambling's Willie Davis, defensive end of the Green Bay Packers, was the professional football player of the year. Sports writing honors went to Frank Render, of Virginia State College, Petersburg, Va.

Tan stars aid Nebraska win in Orange Bowl

MIAMI, Fla. — Nebraska relied heavily on four of her nine tan athletes to turn back Auburn, 13-7, in the annual Orange Bowl football game here New Year's Day.

Guard Bob Brown, who was picked in virtually every major All-America selection this fall; backs Rody Johnson and Willie Ross and end Tony Jeter contributed much to the Cornhuskers triumph.

* * *

BROWN, a 240 - pound Clevelander who signed immediately after the game with the Philadelphia Eagles, was the key man in springing quarterback Dennis Claridge for the game's first touchdown, a 38-yard run on the second play of the contest.

Bob opened the hole just inside the Nebraska right tackle, then cleared out the stubby linebacker to break Claridge free. The big quarterback went all the way on a maneuver that seemed to demoralize Auburn throughout most of the first half.

* * *

THE CLARIDGE TD and a pair of field goals by Dave Thelen accounted for all the Nebraska tallies, but Auburn came back in the final period to threaten menacingly. That's when Johnson and Ross came into the picture.

Rody, a fullback from Arcadia Pass., Texas, and Ross, a halfback from Hope, Ark., took turns gaining of valuable yardage in the drive against when the Cornhuskers were committed to staying possession back.

Johnson was effective with his bursts up the middle and Ross, with off-tackle slants.

Jeter was a defensive gemini throughout the afternoon, repeatedly smashing Auburn plays in the making.

* * *

JOINING BROWN in the pro ranks shortly after the final gun was fired, who signed with the Buffalo Bills in preference to the National League's St. Louis Cardinals, who also had drafted him.

Johnson is a draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers.

Also in the victorious Nebraska lineup were halfbacks Willie Fleetwood and Tell Vaughn, fullback Gene Yoder, tackle Jim Brown and end Freeman White.

Methodist 5's commence play

The Rev. Daniel Ridgell, president of the Methodist Athletic Association, will launch the league's 1964 basketball program tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at the Maple Glen School, Laurel.

The opening games will match the two units of Union Memorial Church, against Maple Glen teams, with the double-header getting under way at 1 o'clock. The units are made up of youngsters 11 years and under and youngsters in the 12-14 bracket.

* * *

THE ENTIRE association swings into action on next Saturday, with games being played at School No. 62, located at Baltimore and Fulton. Starting time will be 10 a.m.

There are ten teams featured in the association, under the direction of Clay Mitchell, and the program will extend through January and February.
