Jeanne'e Chrisholm, Arthur Houston wed

With Lula Jones Garrett

Back from a New York honeymoon, this week, are the newlywed Arthur T. Houstons.

Mrs. Houston is the former Jeannette Smith Chisholm. She is a Los Angeles, Calif. real estate broker.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston were married in Bethel AME church on December 29th, by the Rev. Harrison Bryant, in a ceremony attended only by members of the family and a few close friends.

The bride was lovely in a gold brocade sheath of Oriental design, with whier she wore a cap of latticed pearls and a corsage of white orchids. Her shoes were of white pole de soie.

Her attendant was her 12-year-old daughter, Roxanne, who was equally as pretty in pink brocade. Walter T. Brown was best man for Mr. Houston.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at her Whitmore Avenue home, where, after champagne toasts were drunk to the couple, they left for New York.

Mrs. Houston will remain in her teaching post here until the end of the term in June after which she and her daughter will join Mr. Houston in Los Angeles. The bridegroom will be here until the end of the month, at which time he will return to California, but will be here for a brief time in April.

POT - POURRI: Both Epsilon Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha and the Baltimore Alumnae chapter of Delta Sigma Theta will observe Founder's Days, within a week.

Deltas will be at the Elegante Room for a business session at 7:30 on Tuesday and hold their celebration beginning at 9 p.m.

Alpha Kappa Alphas will indult their new officers at a session in the Madison Avenue branch YWCA, on Saturday evening at 7:45, and this will be followed by the Founder's Day observation.

Tonight (Friday) The Alpha Wives will have their party (postponed by the Kennedy death) at Union Hall, Dundalk.

Add to the pretty parties of the week that when Vera Flint entertained her bridge group in her newly acquired home at Sequoia and Hilton Road, Saturday.

She made a pretty setting with red table cloth and white china for her service. then settled down to cards, with Flozella Clark and Irma DeBeal as guests, to play with members Ruth Martin, Ruperta Watera, Dereva Stanley, Vashti Jude and Ida Smith.

WHEN THE HOST is positively satisfied over his party and freely admits "That was a good one," you can be sure the affair was super.

And that was exactly how Harry Cole felt on Saturday night about the black-tie affair he gave for his Doris, with whom, two days before, he had celebrated their sixth wedding anniversary. She was, by the way, radiant enough in a frock of gold, low of back, squared at front neckline and featuring inverted pleats at the hip line, to perk up any party.

And others about, properly perked up were:

Rick and Jean Cummings Herbert and Deanna Brown, Tom and Frances Lee, Rudy and Mary Lou Redd, Shirley and Dorcthy Clinton;

Samuel and Gladys Daniels, Jim and Lu Gilliam, John and Dot Wood, Dave and Margaret Mason, Harold Jennifer (the virus had her pinned down) Lawrence and Iris Mapp;

James and Pinchie Dennkins, Robert and Jackie Watts, Simon and Kay Carter, Warren and Ada Weaver, Charles and Rita Wagner, Robert and Sonia Dragon, Norman and Sherrie Polski, Bill and Wilhelmina Garner, June Thorne and Sam Wilson, George and Ada Woodland, Howard Mitnick, Julius and Bernice Mitnick, Milton and Dereva Standly, Bill and Margo Ross;

George Hubbard (the, too, a virus victim) Bill and Alice Pinderhughes, Myra and Jack Polen, the Lionel Disbordes, Bernard and Stevie Harris and Winfred and Gwendolyn Seaborne.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. Armstead Jenkins enhanced the holidays with an elegant luncheon and card party in the Monday afternoon.

Their guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Samuel Daniels, John E. Stokes, Robert Camper, Joseph Perkins, Marsden Rawlings;

Also Mesdames Clara Maxwell, Esther Simmons, Doris Wallace, Audrey Pinderhughes, Sarah Cameron, Frances Wood, Phyllis Diggs Bettye Shelton, Bernadine Harrison, Shirley Woods, Ellen Johns; and Miss Alice Dodson.

'Twas a nice little number in plum - colored wool (a shift trimmed in lavender crepe) that the hostess wore and guests backed her up in the fashion area with such as a two-piece cranberry and pink ensemble worn by Mrs. Stokes, a black wool two-piece, with cape, Mrs. Daniels' choice; a dark green French knit, sequin trimmed, selected by Mrs. Maxwell and another knit, this in brown and beige worn by Mrs. Cameron.

At cards Mrs. Camper took first bridge prize, Mrs. Maxwell, first pinochle prize; Mrs. Shirley Woods, second bridge prize and Miss Dodson, second pinochle prize.

THE HILTON STREET home of Dr. and Mrs. Archie Robinson was all aglow as they were host at a cocktail party given for Dr. and Mrs. John Armstead, of Wichita, Kan.

Dr. Armstead is formerly of Baltimore. Friends came to greet and others to meet the Armsteads.

The guests included Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cannaday, of Washington; Mrs. Lelia Chisolm of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Thea-

IT WASN'T an all girl show (the Girl Friends' presentation of debutantes of 1964) as the picture above shows. Here a group of the debutantes' escorts chat before the presentation. They are, left to right: Dennis Day, John Bethea, Paul Scott, Reggie Daniels, Roland Frasier, Carlyse Gundy, and Wallace Taylor.

Que-Ettes' Winter Ball draws 400 guests to beautiful Mall

The Provident Hospital Building Fund was given another monetary boost on New Year's night, when the Que-Ettes, auxiliary to Omega Fraternity (Pi Omega chapter) held their formal Winter Ball in the Mondawmin Shopping Center Mall.

In a setting of golden holiday decorations, sparked by a huge International tree, and the beautiful decorations of the Mall which include flashing fish-filled fountains and hundreds of trees, more than 200 beautifully gowned ladies and their escorts formed a charming picture. A hugh smorgasbord was the center for the small tables at which guests were seated between dances.

* * *

THE HIGH DRESS affair saw a galaxy of fashions, from the floor-length white wool sheath, featuring a draped back, worn by Mrs. Mary Pitts, to the white brocade frock with brief jacket selected by Mrs. Bernice McDaniels.

Mrs. Alma Parker chose a long sheath of black and brown striped silk, while the ensemble chosen by Mrs. Dora Hutchinson was a white brocade frock with matching coat. Mrs. Frances Woods wore a short winter print and Mrs. Mabel Alleyne, a full-length gown of orchid satin. Mrs. Verda Welcome chose a white gown paved with sequins and crystals.

Mrs. Evelena Henderson's gown was of white brocade which featured a Cleopatra neckline in gold sequins and beads. Mrs. Iris Wheaden was in a bouffant gown of gold satin and Mrs. Connie Johnson's bouffant frock of fuscia satin had a tiny train.

* * *

MRS. SHIRLEY STROTHERS, who heads the Que-Ettes, was striking in a full-length Grecian model in pale blue chiffon. Dr. Effiétee Payne, chairman of the affair, selected a bouffant white taffeta, strapless gown. Mrs. Edna Mosley, (she, until recently, was Edna Dungee) was chic in white skirt and gold sequin top, and a gorgeous evening coat, the gift of her bridegroom.

Mrs. Bertha Seay was in an all-white sheath with sequin top. Mrs. Margaret Jackson wore a gown of gold brocade.

* * *

DR. PAYNE'S Committee also included Mesdames Margaret Jackson, Byrle Williams, Shirley Strother, Mattie Gardner, Sarnia McDaniels, Myrtice Bennett and Evelena Henderson.

In addition to Mrs. Strother, officers of the auxiliary are Mesdames Bennett, vice president; Mary Bacote, recording secretary; Salome Fuller, corresponding secretary; Margaret Jackson, financial secretary; and Meribah Bell, treasurer.

Here's how to freeze cooked food

Freezing prepared foods may not save time, but it may allow time to be used to better advantage.

Prepare the dish as if it were to be served right away, but do not cook quite done. Reheating for serving will finish the cooking.

Cheese or crumb toppings are best added when the food is reheated for serving.

COOL THE cooked food quixkit. Pour out in shallow pans or place the uncovered pan of food in iced or very cold water. Change water to keep it cold. Allow head space for freezing liquid and semi-liquid foods. Seal, label freeze quickly and sore at 0 degree F. or lower.

To have the food in desired amounts for serving and for quicker defrosting, separate servings with two pieces of freezer paper. Some main dishes may be frozen in the containers in which they were baked.

IT IS BEST to freeze meat pies and turnovers unbaked. You can use any good meat loaf recipe for freezing. Just make enough for several meals instead of one and freeze the extra loaves.

Homecoming

The annual homecoming weekend festivities at Coppin State College opens today (Friday) at 10 a.m. with an all - college pep rally, said Miss Jerlyn Manuel, chairman of the athletic committee.

Saturday, at 2 p.m., the Coppin basketball team will play the team from Bowie State College in the Pullen Gymnasium.

The festivities will end with a homecoming dance Saturday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. for Coppin and Bowie students and Coppin Alumni.

Purnell Dominick's Orchestra, of Annapolis, has been engaged for the dance, Miss Manuel announced.
