Saturday Niters' Round Robin romps through five residences

By MARIAM CAMPBELL

The Saturday Niters had an impromptu Round Robin, which began in the Philippine mahogany clubroom of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Tinsley in Brooklyn, Md., on New Year's Eve.

They went from the Tinsley's to Mrs. Marjorie Tutman's and then to Mr. and Mrs. Hubron Blackwell. From there they traveled to Mr. and Mrs. Kelvin Kitchen's home. The last stop was at the residence of Mrs. Lillian Wilson's.

The group went to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stokes on New Year's Day.

THIS PAST WEEK-END found Mrs. Jean Butler being the busy hostess. Her entertaining included a bridge party for Friday night and a Bon Voyage party on Saturday night.

Playing at the two bridge tables were Mesdames Augustine Gloster Marion Tilman Mildred Brown, Myrna Cooper, Pearl Corley, Beverly Hargrave and Delores Baden.

When prizes were awarded Mrs. Corley received the first. Mrs. Baden the second, and the Booby prize went to Mrs. Hargrave.

The Bon Voyage party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Ray of Mara Caibo from Venezuela, South America. Mr. Ray is leaving this city to accept an electronic engineer's position for General Electric in Syracuse, N.Y.

Bidding the couple farewell and wishing them luck were Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Brown, Calvin Corley, Thurston Graham, Alfred Woodland, Leonard Slaughtr, Joseph Reed and Wilbert Richardson.

Mesdames Nolinton Mitchell Romona Dorcas and Mr. Omar Doall were also about.

Coming from other states to say good-bye were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walker of the nation's capitol, Dr. Cast Hilton from Philly, Miss Aida Macando from Hawaii, and Col. Alfred Allen from Ohio.

THE ROSE peau de soir, three piece dinner suit, was quite becoming on Miss Brenda Bowie, at the dinner dance given for the Ninth Anniversary of Samuel J. Ennis Lodge No. 106, field at the Willard W. Allen Masons Temple on Saturday evening.

Among other guests were Messrs. and Meadames Kenneth James George Howard, Wesley Dorsey and Miss Beverly Givens.

George W. Johnson was chairman of the affair.

At the Alpha Wives Dance, Mrs. Joseph L. Press (Patricia), who was once cited as one of the best dressed women in Baltimore by Ebony Magazine, proved again that simplicity of design the more chic the look. Mrs. Press wore a sleeveless burnt orange wool sheath with a jewel neckline. Her jewerly consisted of gold bracelet-like earrings and a gold studded starfish pin on the waist line of the dress. On her feet were black classic suede pumps and she carried a small black suede clutch bag.

THE CARDS 'N PINS were served a delicious Italian meal with red wine to add zest, in a relaxed atmosphere, at the home of Mrs. Erma Meacham of Pulaski Street.

Present for the card meeting were Mesdames Beverly Tucker, Naomi Seaborn, Joan Johnson, Catherine Phifer, Hotense Scott and Cherry Blackwell.

Mesdames Gloria Tucker from Bel Air and Miss Catherine from Annapolis helped to make up the two tables.

Absent from this meeting were Mesdames Emma Joynes, Ponjola Priest, Collyn Harrington and Alice Shelton.

From Mildred's Kitchen

By MILDRED BROOKS

Folk. If you didn't attend the four-day WWDC Cooking School on stage at the Palace Theatre last week, you missed it. Miss Charmaine Robinson and her assistant, Miss Patricia Turner, both Field Home Economists for the National Live Stock and Meat Board in Chicago, presented "Spotlight on Foods" from a beautiful Washington Gas Light Kitchen.

Of great interest to the Homemakers present, were the attractive Budget-Stretcher Meat Recipes (like the first recipe) that take only a little time to prepare. Perk up your family's roast with this new flavor combination:

PICKLE POT ROAST
4-5 pound beef blade pot roast
2 tablespoons lard
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 medium onions, sliced
½ teaspoon celery seed
¼ teaspoon ground ginger
¼ cup sweet cucumber pickle juice
½ cup sliced sweet cucumber pickles
¼ cup flour
water

Brown meat in lard. Pour off drippings. Season with salt and pepper. Add onions, celery seed, ginger and pickle juice. Cover tightly and simmer 3 hours. Add pickles and continue cooking 30 min. or until meat is tender. Remove meat. Add enough water to cooking liquid to make 4 cups. Thicken liquid with flour for gravy. Serve with pot-roast. Garnish with parsley and radishes.

During the Food Demonstrations, the cuts of meat prepared were displayed for view by the audience. Factual information on the nutritive value, purchasing and storage of meat was explained. Emphasis was placed on the less popular, economy cuts. Location of cuts on the animal and general methods of cooking were clearly given. It might be well to mention, here, that meat cooking should be done with LOW TEMPERATURES for the best results.

This next recipe shows what can be done with an economy cut—give it a foreign flavor:

Lamb Steaks Teriyaki
4 lamb leg steaks, arm or blade chops, ¾ inch thick
¼ cup brown sugar
1 tablespoon ground ginger
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 clove garlic, minced
¾ cup soy sauce
¼ cup water

Combine brown sugar, ginger, lemon juice, garlic, soy sauce and water. Mix well. pour over steaks or chops and marinate at least 30 min. Set regulator for broiling. Place steaks or chops on broiler pan and rack so the meat is 3 to 5 inches from heat. Broil 8 to 10 min. or until steaks are done. 4 servings.

Wintry days sharpen appetites for hearty meat dishes such as this next recipe. It is a sausage casserole-type dish with potatoes, surrounded by a tasty cheese crust. How about this for your Saturday Night Supper?

DOUBLE CRUST PORK PIE
2 pounds pork sausage
½ cup water
½ cup chopped onion
2 medium potatoes
2 medium potatoes
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
½ cup condensed celery soup
2½ cups Biscuit Mix
¼ cup grated cheddar cheese
2/3 cup milk

Combine pork sausage, water and onion . Cover and cook for 30 min. Pour off drippings. Pare potatoes and cut into ¼-inch cubes. Cook until tender and drain. To pork sausage mixture add pimiento and celery soup. Add cooked potatoes and mix lightly. Add grated cheese and milk to Biscuit Mix, mix ing evenly with a fork until dough just holds in a ball. Divide the dough in half. Roll half of the dough to 1/8-inch thickness and cut for top crust, making several openings to allow for escape of steam. Roll out remaining dough to 1/8-inch thickness and line a 10-inch pie pan, allowing - inch of crust to extend over edge. Fill with hot meat mixture. Place top pastry over filling. Fold lower crust over top crust. Crimp edges. Bake at 400 degrees F 15 to 20 min. or until brown. Serves 8.

The Recipe Booklet, "Spotlight on Foods," given to everyone in attendance, has a recipe that would delight the Teenager. So, for that next Record Hop — here's an easy recipe for the gang:

Shaw is not second class say ex-dean

WASHINGTON

John H. Brown, Jr., director of vocational services, Urban League, Washington, and a former dean of men at Shaw University told the men students Monday that financial situation which Shaw is now facing does not reflect on the type of training that is being offered at the institution.

"The training you are getting at Shaw is not second class," he said.

Brown stated that many colored people have migrated to the Metropolitan area who are unskilled, with a poor background of education, due to a segregated society.

THE URBAN LEAGUE, through a program by Bob Kennedy's office, is trying to upgrade the colored people in Washington, D. C. through a tutorial program.

B. & P. makes plans for Mid-Winter Executive meet

Plans for upcoming program events occupied the attention of the Baltimore Club of the National Association of Business and Professional Women at its monthly meeting, Tuesday evening, at the YWCA.

First plans were for the hosting of the mid-winter executive committee of the National Association on Friday, January 31 and Saturday, February 1 at the Sheraton-Belvedere Hotel here.

Registrations from 7 to 8 p.m. Friday will be followed by a meeting of the national officers with the national president, Marian Bryant of Pittsburgh. A Get-Acquainted Hour will conclude the evening.

REGISTRATIONS WILL continue on Saturday morning followed by a business session. After luncheon at 12:30 an afternoon business session will take place. The hostess club will entertain the visitors at a cocktail party in the evening at the home of Mrs. Lena K. Lee, 3701 Calloway Avenue.

Mrs. Susie Strother, chairman, outlined the plans of her committee for a Business Leadership Conference also at the Sheraton-Belvedere on Friday, March 6. The theme will be "Improving Ourselves as Business and Professional Women." Highlights of the conference will be four business clinics at 6 p.m. followed by dinner at 7 with Dr. Winfred O. Bryson, business leader and Morgan professor, as guest speaker.

There will be a spring hat showing during the dinner.

THE CLINICS to be conducted by local business leaders will explore the areas of Investment Practices; Public Relations in Business; Small Business; Experiments of business products and services.

Mrs. Julia King, chairman, presented final plans for the benefit popularity contest to raise funds for the club's Provident Hospital pledge and service projects.

PARTICIPANTS INCLUDE Mesdames Roslyn Catlin, Alice R. Matthews, Clarissa Matthews, India Silver, Helen Fowlkes, Elvera Richardson, Susie Strother, Elizabeth Demby and Sedonia Merritt. The contest will conclude with the crowning of Miss B and P.

MRS. EDNA DECOURSEY JOHNSON, speaking for the Junior B and P Club, reported on its membership party in the form of a Get-Acquainted Tea, Sunday afternoon.

Club members were urged to do their utmost to support the civil rights legislation. Hostesses for the meeting were Marian Jones, chairman, Harriette Howard, Catherine Torrence, Sarah Diggs, Emma Dudley, Helen Fowlkes, Mildred Gittings, Hilda Smith, Gwendolyn Brooks, Agnes Curtis, Gwendolyn Biddle.

Mrs. Motley set to run for office

NEW YORK (ANP) — Constance Baker Motley, the NAACP attorney who played a major role in getting James H. Meredith into the University of Mississippi, said last week she will seek a New York State senatorial seat.

In announcing her decision, she said "it is time leaders in the civil rights movement enter the political power structure by becoming active in politics."

Mrs. Motley said she has been active in the civil rights struggle for about 18 years and that this experience would be invaluable if she succeeds in her senatorial campaign.

The senate seat she will seek became vacant Jan. 1 when James L. Watson resigned to become a judge.

A GOOD CITIZEN is registered to VOTE. Do so today. Next primary election is May 1964. Register at Supervisor of Elections Office, Fayette and Gay Sts.
