Now ye, that I, John B. Burke, Clerk of the Superior Court of the State of Connecticut in and for the County of New London, having inspected the files and records of said Court in my custody, do find there remaining on file a certain judgment in a cause wherein Elizabeth Rankin Shepard is plaintiff and Willard O. Shepard is defendant, in the words and figures, to wit:

State of Connecticut at a Superior Court, holden at Norwich within and for the County of New London on the 29th day of October, 1954, Domestic Relations Session.

Present, Hon. J. Howard Roberts, Judge.

Elizabeth Rankin Shepard : Superior Court, of Newark, New Jersey : New London County.

No. 22295 vs.

Willard O. Shepard : October 29, 1954.
of Waterford, Connecticut

Judgment

This action, by writ and complaint dated June 17, 1954 claiming a divorce and custody and support of minor children and alimony, as on file, came to this Court on the First Tuesday of July, 1954 when the defendant appeared; and thence to September 17, 1954 when by leave of Court the plaintiff filed an amendment to her complaint indicating the correct surname of the parties as Shepard, and not Shephard; and thence to October 19, 1954 when the defendant having failed to file a pleading, the Court placed the case on the uncontested list; and thence to October 29, 1954 when the parties filed a stipulation approved by the Court relative to the custody and support of their minor children and rights of visitation and to claim for alimony; and thence by continuance to the present term, when the plaintiff appeared to prosecute said complaint, but the defendant made default of appearance to defend.

The Court finds that at the date of this complaint the defendant was a resident of Waterford in the State of Connecticut, and that said writ and complaint have been duly served upon the defendant, in this State, as appears by the officer's return thereon endorsed, and that said complaint has been pending in this Court more than ninety days from the return day.

The Court having heard the plaintiff, finds the following allegations in said complaint as amended to be proved and true:

1. The plaintiff, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Rankin, and the defendant intermarried at Saybrook, Connecticut on April 19, 1941.

2. The defendant has resided continuously in this State three years next before the date of this complaint.

3. The defendant on diverse days between June 17, 1947 and the date of this writ, has been guilty of intolerable cruelty to the petitioner.

4. The plaintiff and defendant have two minor children, issue of their marriage: George Scott Shepard, born January 25, 1943 and Jeremy Shepard, born April 2, 1949.

The Court further finds in accordance with said stipulation that:

5. The plaintiff ought to have the custody of said minor children, with the right, however, to the defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and that the defendant shall have custody of said minor children annually for the period of two weeks immediately following the close of the school session and for one week during Easter holidays and on Thanksgiving week ends from Wednesday evening to Sunday evening, and when said minor children are committed to the custody of the defendant they shall be transported from Connecticut to New Jersey by train.

6. $25.00 a week is a reasonable sum for the defendant to pay to the plaintiff for the support of said minor children, except during the above specified periods when the defendant has custody.

7. No claim is made for alimony.

Whereupon It is adjudged that said Elizabeth Rankin Shepard be and she hereby is divorced from said Willard O. Decree for Divorce

This cause came on to be heard and was heard on the 8th day of November, 1950, on the petition of Complainant for divorce, the answer of the Defoece Proctor having been filed and the pro confessor taken and read testimony of the complainant, Doris Faye Fishpaw and witnesses for the complainant, Walter Deley and Mrs. Walter Deley examined in open court, from all of which it appeared to the Court that the complainant is entitled to the relief sought; a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant on the charge of the complainant that the defendant abandoned her or turned her out of doors and failed or refused to provide for her.

Further that the maiden name of the complainant be restored to her.

It is therefore Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant Doris Faye Fishpaw and the defendant Ray Curtis Fishpaw be and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved and forever held for naught. Further that the maiden name of the complainant Doris Faye Deley be and is hereby restored to her, so that henceforth for all purposes whatsoever, she may lawfully use the name of and be known as Mrs. Doris Faye Deley.

The complainant shall pay all costs herein for which let execution issue.

No. 4544

Henrietta H. Carter

Decree

This Cause, standing ready for hearing, and the proceedings having been read and considered, it is thereupon this 29th day of April, 1963, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, In Equity, and by the authority of said Court, Adjudged, Ordered And Decreed that the Complaint, Clayton C. Carter, be and he is hereby divorced A. Vinculo Matrimonii from the Respondent, Henrietta H. Carter.

And it is further Ordered And Decreed that the custody of the two infant children of said parties to this cause, namely, Marcia Goldsborough Carter and Nancy Biddle Carter, be and is hereby granted and awarded to the Complainant, Clayton C. Carter, subject to the subject to the further order of this Court in the premises; the said Respondent, Henrietta H. Carter, to have rights of visitation, subject to the further order of this Court, by, from and with said infant children aforesaid, as follows, to wit:

(a) Said infants shall be permitted to visit with the Respondent as said infants may desire, on week days after school hours, and on Saturdays, Sundays, holidays and vacations, without limitation or restriction, provided that such visitations shall not interfere with the normal and regular routine of the Complainant's household as to meals and chores and duties to be performed by said infants.

(b) Said Respondent shall be entitled to visitations with said infants, at the domicile of the Respondent, for one evening and overnight visit per week (including the evening meal), and one full two day weekend per month; the parties hereto to agree upon the exact schedule of such overnight and week-end visitations at least twenty-four hours in advance thereof.

(c) Said Respondent shall be entitled to visitation with said infants for a reasonable period of time on Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and Easter Day.

(d) Visitation privileges hereinabove prescribed shall not interfere with the normal school or church activity of said infants.

(e) Said Respondent shall have the privilege of taking said infants on a summer vacation, or vacation trip, of not more than two weeks duration, whether in the State of Maryland, or elsewhere provided said Respondent shall give the Complainant at least thirty (30) days prior notice thereof, and further provided the Respondent is accompanied thereon by Grace B. Tolton, mother of the Respondent, or by some other respectable and responsible adult.

(f) The aforesaid visitation privileges are based upon the continued residence of the Respondent in the home of, or with, her said mother, Grace B. Tolton. In the event the Respondent changes her residence, or remarries, or becomes gainfully employed in a full time job, or in the event of other substantial changes in the existing status of either of the parties hereto, or of said infants or either of them, the aforesaid schedule of visitations shall be reviewed by this Court.

And the Complainant, Clayton C. Carter, be and he is hereby ordered to pay the costs of these proceedings.
