HERE A BRUNCH or Sunday supper dish that will just hit the spot. SAUSAGE-EGG SCRAMBLE. To serve 6 to 8 people, brown 1 pound bulk sausage in a fry pan, drain off excess fat and cook over low heat until thoroughly done.

Beat 12 eggs until light, adding 1 teaspoon salt. Pour egg mixture over sausage and cook slowly, stirring frequently until eggs are set. Correct seasonings if necessary. Serve hot.

What a bargain!

ELECTRIC SERVICE does so much for so little. It's the big bargain in your family's budget.

Your electric bill may be bigger these days—but think of all the new ways electricity works for you—every day. Actually, dollar for dollar, electricity does much more work than it did just a generation ago.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN H. MURPHY, JR.

3 members of AFRO's Murphy family feted with surprise birthday party at Sheraton Inn

The Baltimore Sheraton Inn banquet room was the scene of a surprise birthday party for three members of the AFRO's Murphy family who were born on Jan. 17.

Honorees were Dr. Carl Murphy, publisher and board of director's chairman; Mrs. Marie Murphy, wife of John H. Murphy, Jr., retired treasurer and Mrs. Alice Quivers Murphy, wife of John H. Murphy, III, AFRO president.

John H. III presided at the gala occasion attended by three generations of the family of the late John H. Murphy, Sr. who founded the publishing firm in 1892.

The three senior members of the family present at the dinner, Dr. Carl, John H. Jr., and D. Arnett Murphy, are the founder's sons.

• • •

THE INFORMAL dinner was preceded by a cocktail hour. Highlighting after-dinner speeches was a brief backward look over the years by Dr. Murphy who recalled when he, the AFRO, his brothers and sisters, his five daughters, nieces and nephews were "toddlers."

He attributed long life and success to prayer and noted that he had distributed copies of 70 some prayers to the family on significant occasions.

Maintaining a person is no older than he feels, Dr. Murphy said he is able to accomplish more in one day now than when he reached the half-century mark over 20 years ago.

Among others who spoke were Mrs. Alice Murphy, Mrs. Marie Murphy, three of Dr. Murphy's daughters, Mrs. Ida Smith, Mrs. Frances Wood and the family's latest bride, Mrs. Paul Moss (Bettye), who recalled her father as a poet and read one of his poems.

• • •

FAMILY GREETINGS were from John H. Jr., D. Arnett Murphy and John J. Oliver and from guests, John Berry, uncle of Mrs. Alice Murphy; Ke neth Wilson, AFRO Advertising Dept. head and Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, president of Morgan State College where Dr. Murphy is trustee board chairman. Mr. Moss gave benediction.

Others present were Mrs. Carl Murphy, Mrs. D. Arnett Murphy, Miss Sharon Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, Mrs. John Oliver, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dyson, Edward S. Smith, Miss Vashti Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick oward, Mrs. Martin Jenkins, Mrs. Lula Patterson, Arthur Carter, Cliff Mackay and William H. Kirkood.

WOOD TEMPLE NO. 872 of IPBOE held its installation ceremony Thursday evening, Jan. 16 at Columbia Lodge No. 85, 301 Rhode Island Ave., NW.

FASHIONS FOR SPRING

The committee on arrangements for the Ojike Memorial Center met at the home of Dr. Edward C. Mazique Sunday afternoon to formulate plans for the benefit fashion show luncheon to be held Feb. 22 at 12 in the Cotillion Room of the Sheraton Park Hotel.

Key notes of spring fashions is the theme of the show displaying products of American manufacturers.

Mrs. Marguerite Belafonte who produces the show will be the commentator. Professional models from New York and Washington will show the latest American designs.

Proceeds from the affair will go toward the erection of the Ojike Memorial Center in Nigeria. The hospital is named in honor of the late Mazi Mbonu Ojike.

Mr. Ojike was a journalist, teacher, and, statesman who received his higher education in the United States. He was a graduate of Lincoln University in Pennsylvania, Ohio State University and did further studies at Columbia University in New York.

He died at the age of 42 at the height of a brillant career. He did so much to stir national unity in his country that he is called the father of Nigerian Independence.

The general chairman of the U. S-Nigerian Foundation is Dr. Edward C. Mazique. Chairman of the committee on arrangements for the fashion show is Miss Ethel Payne.

The Foundation has income tax exemption.

Members of the committee include Mesdames Dorothy Proctor, chairman of committee of tickets; Ethel James Williams, Fannie Brown, Clara Harrington, Beatrice Sorrell, San Juan Barnes, Mayme Quick, Elaine Harris, Miss Ethel L. Payne, chairman of committee on public relations; Mesdames Ella Mae Gothard, Rose Marie Brooks and Charles Farrow.

Also Dr. Lorraine Williams, chairman of committee on receiving invitations; Misses La Mirien Northcross, Inez Rountree, Mesdames Alice Kitchen and Doris Bacon.

Others are Mrs. Florence Duncan chairman of Program committee; Mesdame Flora Cassell, Emmie Perkins, Mayme Quick, Anne Tolliver, Nancy Williams, Lucille McElvane, Alberta Jones, San Juan Barnes and Miss Joyce Elmore.

Mesdames Lynwood Rallford, chairman of committee on arrangements and door-prizes; Alice Cornish, Alice Kitchen, Emmie Perkins, Clara Harrington, Sally Langley, Alberta Jones, Dr. Mitcrell W. Spellman and Ernest L. Lum.

THE OVERSEAS Hunt and Fish Club will celebrate its third annual Wild Game Dinner-Dance, Friday, Jan. 24, at 7 at the Indian Spring Country Club in Silver Spring, Md.

Honorees for the occasion are G. Mennen William, Assistant Secretary for African Affairs, the Department of State and Mrs. Gloria Richardson, chariman of the Cambridge Non-Violent Action Committee of Cambridge, Md.

THE GREATER DEAN-

Zetas mark Founder's Day

Dr. Deborah P. Wolfe, grand Basileus of Zeta Phi Beta, was speaker when Alpha Zeta Chapter held its 43rd annual Founders' Day Dinner Sunday, in the Hawaiian Room of the Emerson Hotel.

Mrs. Wolfe, Education Chief of the Committee on Education and Labor, the U. S House of Representatives, spoke on "Women and Youth Uniting for Freedom" in keeping with Zeta's Founders' Day Theme of "Hold High The Torch."

• • •

SPEAKING to some 150 sorors and guests including the brother organization, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Mrs. Wolfe expressed the need for freedom of opportunity and expression in order to make democracy work. She called this a 'day of challenge', and said colored Americans must understand and accept the past in order to make the present meaningful and the future bright, if they are planning to meet or partake of this challenge.

More colored Americans, she said, should be present at law-making meetings because "Our rights are bound by the rights of others."

• • •

THE SORORITY also paid tribute to Mrs. Arizona Stemour of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Fannie R. Watts of New York, two of the founders.

During the forty-four years of its existence, the sorority has spread to all sections of the U.S. and recently to Africa.

Locally, Zeta has been outstanding in sharing community relief work, granting scholarships and fellowships to deserving women students and contributing to organized relief.

Nationally, Zeta sponsors —Founders' Day, Finer Womanhood Week, National Juvenile Delinquency Project, National Foster Home Project, and an International six-point African Project.

• • •

Committee members for the Founders' Day celebration were Sorors Reva G. Lewis, chairman, Ruth W. Cleaver, Elizabeth Demby, Eleanor Colvin, Goldia Ford, Annie W. Johnson, Geraldine, Powell, Ruth Russell.

Sorors Carrie Scott, Mary J. Taylor, Katherine O. Johnson, J. Ethel Hodges, Angoe' McClain, Naomi Smith, Precious Williams, Octavia Jones, Roberta W. Clark, Emma D. Dudley, and Isoline Crowner.

• • •

OFFICERS OF the Alpha Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority are Mary Hurt, Basileus; Hazel Phillips, Anit-Basileus, Emma Dudley, Second Anit-Basileus, Sandra East, Third Anit-Basileus; Eva Dowd, Grammateus; Mary Taylor, Tamias, Beatrice Mayo, Antipokritas; Emma Henson, Epistoleus; Annie Johnson, Philacter; and Edna Johnson, Custodian.

Rights worker asks RFK for help in Miss.

HATTIESBURG, Miss. —A 23-year-old white Ne wYork man jailed here has asked Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy to come to Hattiesburg to defend him.

Oscar Chase, a 1963 Yale Law School graduate from Queens, N.Y. asked Kennedy in a telegram from the jail to come to Hattiesburg to defend him.

Chase, a worker for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) was arrested when he entered the "colored" waiting room in a Hattiesburg bus station. He was charged with "breach of the peace" and "vagrancy."

Antiques from 14th century shown at Pierians' exhibit

Articles dating back to the 14th centruy were among the exhibits shown when the Pierians' Club held their antique show, recently.

A table, from the collection of Mrs. John Hall, and shown by Pierian Mercedes Douglass, whose researcr has established its age in the early 14th century, was one of the pieces drawing attention.

The hand-carved teakwood item, inlaid ivory animals and flower and leaf motif decorate the top, and carved elephants' heads and trunks with ivory tusks form the table legs. The table was put together with pegs at the connection of geet and legs.

• • •

A SILVER LADLE, an heirloom of the Colbert sisters, shown belonged to their great grand-father, Henry Highland Garnet. Dr. Garnet was the first United States minister to Liberia in 1867. The ladle was used during social functions of State. Mrs. Annette Johnson, one of the sisters, also showed Mason's ironstone china, hand make, hand painted and hand glazed, that are over 100 years old.

China cups and saucers, more than 100 years old, shown by Mrs. Pearl Cole Brackett, belonged to Mrs. Brackett's grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Cole, who herself is 75 years old.

• • •

MRS. MEDFORD REYNOLDS exhibited a French clock which was a wedding gift to her grandmother in 1876. Mrs. Glen Tarter showed a decanter which ras been in her famlly for three generations, and which was a gift to her maternal grandfather from Count Cassini, who was, at the time, the Russian ambassador to the United States.

A pair of 75-year-old ceramic parrots were among a large exhibit from the collection of Mrs. I. Bradshaw Higgins. All of the above are members of the Pierians, a club of women devoted to the arts.

• • •

OTHER MEMBERS who brought antiques included Mesdames G. James Fleming, who is president of the group; Mester Norris, Herbert Moseley, G. Luther Washington, Henry Welcome, Herbert, Glenford Mussenden, James Mebane.

Guests also brought antiques to the show, including William Pinderhughes, who showed imported china, and Mrs. Rosina T. Cole, who showed silver decorated wine decanter and custard cups.

• • •

AMONG OTHER guests were Mesdames Jeannette Christmas, Mary Long, Cleo Diggs; Dr. Jesse Colson, Mrs. Selonia Walden, Mrs. Emma Bright, Mrs. Mary Adams, Mrs. Mildred Allen, Miss Audlyn Higgins, Mrs. Jane Williams of Washington, Mrs. Louise Sewell of Washington, Medford Reynolds, G. Luther Washington.

In addition to the show Simon Eccord gave a talk on "Antiques and Collecting," and a buffet was provided.

The show was held in the Me-De-So Club, with Mesdames Higgins, Welcome and Mussenden in role of hostesses.
