ORDER GRANTING DECREE OF DIVORCE A MENSA THORO, AWARDING CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION, AND USE AND TEMPORARY POSSESSION OF FAMILY HOME

Upon consideration of the testimony and exhibits produced at hearings in the captioned case held on September 30, October 22, and November 4, 1980, and for the reasons set forth in the Memorandum Opinion filed herein, it is this 7th day of November, 1980, hereby O R D E R E D, A D J U D G E D, and D E C R E E D by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, in Equity, as follows:

1. The Court grants a divorce a mensa thoro decree to the parties herein. This decree is based on Paragraph Four of Michael Darok's Amended Bill of Complaint, and on Amended Paragraph 4 of Charlotte C. Darok's Counter-Bill of Complaint, each on the grounds of mutual and voluntary separation of the parties on or about March 21, 1980.

CHILD CUSTODY

2. The care, custody and control of Mark Tracy Darok (born on March 17, 1966) and of Tami Michelle Darok (born on March 25, 1967), be and it is hereby awarded to their father Michael Darok.

3. The care, custody and control of Mathew Trent Darok (born on August 4, 1971) be and it is hereby awarded to his mother Charlotte C. Darok.

CHILD VISITATION

4. Michael Darok shall have regular visitation privileges with his son Mathew Trent Darok every other Sunday commencing November 16, 1980. between the hours of 9 A.M. and 6 P.M. The father shall be required to provide transportation for his son to and from his mother's home in Rock Hall.

5. Charlotte C. Darok shall have regular visitation privileges with her daughter Tami Michelle Darok every other Sunday commencing November 23, 1980 between the hours of 9 A.M. and 6 P.M. This visitation shall be arranged on the weekends when Mathew Trent Darok is home with his mother, so that the two children will be together at the same time at each parent's home. The mother shall provide transportation for her daughter to and from her father's home in Kings Town.

6. For the reasons set forth in our Memorandum Opinion, and the Court believing that under the present circumstances it would be better for the hostile young lad Mark Tracy Darok not to be required to visit with his mother at this time, the Court will not now order this visitation. We will take a fresh look at future visitation after school has ended next June and/or after emotions have cooled, if requested to do so.

7. Each parent may share visitation with the child with which he or she does not have custody one-half of each Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, and other major holidays including the child's birthday. The father shall have the holiday mornings until 1 P.M. and the mother the holiday afternoons. If the parents and children mutually agree to reverse these holiday visits, they may do so. This holiday visitation will not apply to Mark visiting his mother for the present.

CHILD SUPPORT

8. Michael Darok shall be responsible for the support of Mark Tracy Darok and Tami Michelle Darok, except as hereinafter provided.

9. Charlotte C. Darok shall be responsible for the support of Mathew Trent Darok.

10. Charlotte C. Darok shall also provide Blue Cross and Blue Shield coverage (provided through her place of employment and to which she contributes) for all her children. She shall also be responsible and pay for the clothing and medical and dental needs of her daughter Tami Michelle Darok. The mother may shop for and choose her daughter's clothing but the daughter may be present and assist in the selection.

USE AND POSSESSION OF FAMILY HOME

11. The Court awards to the father Michael Darok the temporary use and possession (pending a divorce a vinculo matrimonii) of the family home located on Truslow Road, in Kings Town (across the Chester River from Chestertown) in the Second Election District of Queen Anne's County, Maryland, which is owned by the parties hereto as tenants by the entireties, as authorized by Section 3-6A/⁻⁰⁶Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland. This Order does not apply to the adjacent vacant lot. This home is to be used by the father for the care of two of the three minor children of the parties. We have considered all the factors required by Section 3-6A-06, and after balancing all these factors and the equities have exercised the powers granted the Court in making this decision.

12. The Court makes no adjudication with respect to the family use personal property (i.e. the furniture and household goods) almost all of which the mother took with her to Rock Hall when she left the home. Neither has the Court made any adjudication as to the ownership or ultimate division of the real and personal property since no a vinculo matrimonii divorce/^{has} been granted in this case.

13. The future care, custody, control and visitation of these children will remain in the continuing jurisdiction of this Court. All other matters relating to the use and possession of the family home and family use personal property, and the equitable division of property acquired during marriage are reserved for future adjudication.

14. Each party will pay their own attorney's fees and deposition costs. The additional Court costs which have not already been advanced and paid by each party are assessed one-half to each.

vs. : Equity No. 7185
MARK R. STRICKENBURG :
Defendant :

ORDER AND DECREE OF DIVORCE A VINCULO MATRIMONII

UPON CONSIDERATION of the pleadings filed herein, and the testimony and exhibits presented by the parties, it is by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, this 13th day of July, 1983,

ORDERED, that Mark R. Strickenburg be, and he is hereby, awarded a divorce a vinculo matrimonii from Helen A. Strickenburg, and it is further

ORDERED, that the unpaid costs of this proceeding be paid equally by the parties, and it is further

DECLARED and FOUND by this Court that:

A. At the time that the parties separated, they owned a 1980 Toyota Tercel as joint tenants. The car had a GMAC loan payable at $113.60 per month. The wife has paid 24 payments since the separation (a gross sum of $2,726.40). She is entitled to contribution from the husband for one-half of the amounts paid by her to discharge this joint liability. The Court orders that a judgment be entered in favor of Helen A. Strickenburg against Mark R. Strickenburg in the amount of $1,363.20 as his contribution. The Court further orders that the 1980 Toyota Tercel be sold forthwith and the net proceeds of that sale be divided between the parties equally. Frank Walsh and Walter W. Pitsenberger are appointed as Trustees for purposes of this sale. They are authorized and empowered to take possession of and to sell the 1980 Toyota Tercel. From the gross proceeds, they are to pay the outstanding loan balance to GMAC, the outstanding loan balance on the life insurance policy owned by Mark Strickenburg, the cost of the sale^{and} a reasonable commission to themselves as Trustees. After those deductions, any remaining balance will be divided between the parties.

B. At the time of the separation, the parties owned real property at 122 Penny Lane, Stevensville, Maryland (Romancoke on the Bay) as tenants by the entirety. The present mortgage balance is $55,000.00. Since the separation of the parties, the husband has made all payments on the real property. The presumption that half of these payments were gifts has been rebutted. The Court finds that, after applying all credits to the gross payments, Mr. Strickenburg has advanced and has paid $8,975.00 of his own funds to discharge this joint liability. The Court finds that Mrs. Strickenburg owes him at this time $4,487.50 as her contribution for monies already paid. The Court orders a money judgment to be entered in favor of Mark R. Strickenburg against Helen A. Strickenburg in the amount of $4,487.50.

C. The Court further orders the said Helen A. Strickenburg to pay one-half of all future mortgage payments as they accrue (or one-half of all amounts which represent the difference between rental income on the property and the current mortgage payment) until the property is sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by the parties. Helen Strickenburg is required to pay one-half of all expenses related to this real estate including mortgage payments, interest, taxes, road fees, termite control contracts, and reasonable property maintenance to maintain the property in its present condition, to the extent that rental income from the property does not satisfy these costs.

It is further ordered that Helen Strickenburg be, and she is hereby, permitted and allowed to resume the use of her maiden name, Helen Rowena Allison.
