v.

Civil #89-01953

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

The matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's Complaint, the Order of Default entered November 15, 1989, and the testimony taken before the Special Examiner on December 18, 1989. The Court finds that basis exists for absolute divorce by reason of the parties' separation since February 1978. Family Law Article, §7-103 (a)(5). However, no basis is found for affecting any determination made with respect to the rights and obligations of either party with respect to Wayne Spence, Jr., and/or Stephen Jermaine Spence as now or hereafter established in Chancery #7264 and Chancery #7304.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED as follows:

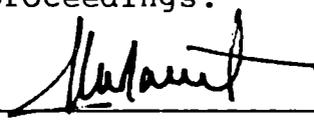

1. The parties are divorced absolutely.

2. Nothing in this judgment affects any judgment, order or other determination heretofore or hereafter made by this Court in other actions between the parties, namely, (a) Chancery #7264, which relates to Wayne Spence, Jr., born September 22, 1974, and (b) Chancery #7304, which relates to Stephen Jermaine Spence, born March 11, 1978.

3. The Clerk will send a copy of this judgment to the Bureau of Support Enforcement and place copies in each of the above-mentioned Chancery proceedings.

The parents are authorized and encouraged, by mutual agreement, to supplement or vary those provisions in order to permit contacts between the children and each parent as frequently as possible and to accommodate inter alia the schedules of all involved and especially the activities of the children (such as school plays, sporting events, 4-H projects and the like) which a weekend or other scheduled period of physical custody would restrict or prohibit.

7. During any period when he or she has physical custody of a child, the custodial parent shall (a) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment, other than routine physical examinations and (b) permit the children to speak with the other parent by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

8. During any period when a parent has physical custody of a child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the child, including but not limited to:

a-the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

b-the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological or dental advice or treatment;

c-the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, social and other organizations with which the child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests or shows; school or church ceremonies or activities in which the child will participate; meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization).

Such information shall be given promptly after it becomes known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

9. Each parent will at all times endeavor not to disclose to the children any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation or any other matter involving the other parent and will at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other parent and admonish the children not to do so.

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

On the basis of a Joint Stipulation and Consent Agreement filed January 11, 1990, this action was referred to an Examiner in accordance with Rule 2-542. Defendant subsequently filed a Counter Complaint to which Counter/ Defendant filed an Answer on February 8, 1990.

Testimony was taken before the Examiner on February 19, 1990, on the basis of the Counter Complaint. The Court was unable to proceed on the basis of the then-record, since the Examiner had authority to proceed only on the basis of the record as it existed on January 11, 1990. The parties have since stipulated that failure to obtain a second Order of Referral was an oversight.

On the basis of the foregoing, it is ORDERED that:

1. This action is referred to an Examiner for the purposes of taking testimony with respect to the Counter Complaint filed January 18, 1990, and the answer thereto of February 8, 1990.

2. On the basis of the Stipulation of Counsel signed February 26, 1990, and March 1, 1990, the testimony taken before the Examiner on February 19, 1990, is received as and for the testimony taken in accordance with Paragraph 1 of this Order.
