BACON GETS POST WITH BLIND VETS

Oliver (Carl) Bacon of Gardena, Calif., has been appointed executive director of the Blinded Veterans Association.

BALTIMORE AFTER DARK On the TOWN with the Pub Crawler

There are many things to do and places to go over this weekend. Among them are these few which should be tagged "a must."

Folksinging lovers will be smart to descend on the Civic Center Sunday p.m. and give a listen to Peter, Paul and Mary, folksingers deluxe.

Then there's the final "curtaintime" call at Ford's before it is offered up in the march of progress. General Manager Leonard B. McLaughlin couldn't have chosen a spicier play to ring down the curtain on the 92-year history of the legitimate house.

"A Funny Thing Happened On The Way to The Forum," is the hit play and Jerry Lester is the key-man, around whom a fast-moving comedy unravels to the hilarious delight of live theatre lovers. One of the featured dancers is the bronze cutie Helen Sylvia.

GLORIA (SOUL GIRL) LYNN will stage a two-day cabaret and dance at the Coliseum. Gloria is backed by Jerome Richardson, the Quincy Jones All Stars, the Rocking and Rolling Five B's. Mike James will be at mike side for the Friday and Saturday evening shows.

Whenever we find businessmen who are attempting to bring a touch of class to the twilight zone, we feel that should be lauded unstintingly.

Thus off come our lids to Walter (Tall Man) Thomas, who has vowed to do something about the widespread inability to dance among the gay set.

"Oh, yes, we can twist, walk the dog, mash potatoes, but can we really dance?" is the legitimate question put by Walter.

After observing professional dance instructor George Leroy work with his Wednesday night classes, the answer to Walter's question is a resounding "No."

If you want to become proficient in the scintillating art of the waltz, tango and merengue you should go to the Kleeco's Tango Room and get into the swim every Wednesday.

MACEO PAYSEUR has taken a major step to bring class to his lovely lounge, always a favorite meeting place of the smart set.

Beginning Sunday, the lounge will kick off its five-day "Grand Opening" celebration to show off the newest, and prettiest addition to any lounge in the city.

The second-floor room, with modern, contured and plushly upholstered chairs, is the last word in atmosphere. The spacious, modern and gleaming kitchen would delight the heart of a gourmet, who knows that care in preparing food is the essence of gracious eating.

The DeBetris Brothers of the Madison Club are also purveyors of class and their cavernous house on the sunrise side of town reeks with same. You must go there.

CASINO RECENTLY halted its food program. Al Quille preferring instead to concentrate on swinging entertainment. That they have in the music of Cornell Muldrow.

Moulin Rouge, Knotty Pine, Jones, New Colony, Dotson's, Avenue, Red Fox, Steve's, Ambassador, Hilton House, Cabana, Wooden Nickel are the other patrons of the prow who invite you to stop in and live a little on your night out.

Registration workshop in Cherry Hill

A registration workshop for the more than 28,000 resident of Cherry Hill is being conducted by Miss Anne Mercer, author of the forthcoming book, "Know Your Government And Vote."

Sessions are held at 8 p.m. on Wednesdays in St. Veronica Catholic Church, 806 Cherry Hill Rd. Father Daniel Cassidy is church rector.

The Rev. John H. Clark invited Miss Mercer to conduct the non-partisan workshops.

The project has had the full support of Cherry Hill leaders like Mrs. Sarah J. Bundy, Shephard H. Burge, Mrs. Isolene D. Ceo, Mrs. Aretta D. Bunham, Mrs. Vernetta Braham, Mrs. Ruth Wilson, George Dunham and James L. Bundy, attorney.

Aim of the workshop is to so inform and interest all the citizens of Cherry Hill in the process and importance of registration and voting that there will be a full registration among the eligible.

HOPKINS DEBATES

The Johns Hopkins University will hold its 14th annual intercollegiate Debate Tournament on Jan. 31 and Feb. 1 at Homewood, it was announced today by Barry Handwerger, Chairman of the Debate Council at the University.

Book week set

Tere Rios, a local novelist, will speak at College of Notre Dame during February, "Catholic Press Month."

Tere Rios, author of "Brother Angel", 1963's popular young-adult novel, will lecture at Fourier Library, College of Notre Dame on Thursday, February 27 at 3:30 p.m. during "Catholic Book Week."

The public is invited.

Top area colleges in Baltimore meet

A galaxy of track and field performers from all the area's major colleges, is awaiting the gun for the annual Cross City indoor meet at 5th Regiment Armory tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon. Starting time is noon.

A total of 25 teams will make up the field, according to information given the press on Thursday.

These include Morgan State College, Maryland State, University of Maryland, Georgetown, Norfolk State and Howard University.

ALSO AMONG the entries are athletes from the strongest clubs in the Washington - Baltimore environs. The D. C. Capital Runners, Baltimore Olympic Club, D. C. Striders, Cross City, and Chesapeake and Cumberland Valley Track Clubs are sending representatives.

On the distaff side, the crack Frederick (Md) girls aggregation will have representation, although their internationally famous duo of Debbie Thompson and Tammy Davis will not be on hand for the event.

This pair is competing in the annual Maple Leaf Games in Toronto (Canada) this weekend.

PROSPECTS ARE for hot competition throughout the program, but particularly in the 600-yard dash, the 60 yard high hurdles and the mile relay.

In the 600, Morgan's brilliant Nick Lee and Maryland State's Earl Rogers, star of last week's Armory meet, will clash in a continuation of their personal vendetta.

But also expecting to have something to say about the finish are Jim Johnson of Norfolk State College, whom many regard as the best quarter-miler in the CIAA, and Harry Stokes, a formidable contender from American University.

MORGAN'S JOHN BETHEA, recovering from a muscle pull sufered in Boston two weeks ago, figures to get a severe test from Buddy Green, ace of the D.C. Striders club team. Also worth watching in this event is Jim Hackett, fence star of BOC.

The relay race may resolve into another of those frequent duels between Morgan and Maryland State. The latter will be striving to avenge two successive early-season setbacks at the hands of the Golden Bears.

MARYLAND COACH Cliff Anderson will throw his four some of Ron Wilson, Harvey Morris, Ed Skinner and Rogers at Hurt's veteran quartet of Bethea, Bob Bagley, Hubie Brown and Lee.

It alone may prove the price of admission.

"Not to be completely disregarded, however, are the likes of University of Maryland, Georgetown, Norfolk State and Mt. St. Mary's — SAM LACY.

Douglass eyes 3rd place in Calvert clash

Derailed by Edmondson on her Tuesday visit to Edmondson, Douglass High hopes to get back into the Division 2 title picture this afternoon (Friday) when she entertains Calvert Hall in a Maryland Scholastic Association basketball contest.

The Ducks were victimized by a determined Edmondson rally which wiped out an early 9 - point deficit and pulled away in the second half.

• • •

THE DIFFERENCE in the game was on the foul line where the defending champions managed only 9 of 22 free throws. Edmondson, on the other hand, had an unusual high of 40 tries and cashed in on 27 of them.

The loss threw the Ducks into a third place tie with Calvert Hall and Loyola, each with a 3-2 slate. The Cardinals were beating Poly, 41-27, while Douglass was sustaining her Tuesday setback.

Colts' Mackey on radio staff

Samuel E. Feldman, vice president and general manager of Radio Station WEBB, announced the appointment of Baltimore Colts end John Mackey, as a member of the sports and public relations staff of the outlet, early this week.

Mackey will concentrate mainly on college and high school athletics and will bring to WEBB listeners a day-report and analysis of the sports scene.

NOW 22 years old, Mackey was born September 24, 1941 in Freport, New York. He has five brothers; his father is a minister. A star football player since high school, he also won letters in basketball and track.

During his first season with the Colts, he was such a standout, that he became the only rookie to be named to the All-Pro game from the Western Division of the National Football League this year.

Recently married to the former Sylvia Ann Cole of Washington, the Mackeys now make their home on Wakefield Road in Baltimore.

LET'S TALK ABOUT PROFESSIONAL OPPORTUNITIES AT Westinghouse
DEFENSE & SPACE CENTER
We need engineers, physicists, mathematicians. People with degrees in these fields. People with vision . . . curiosity . . . creativity. Can you qualify?
For the man who can qualify for one of the many professional openings at Westinghouse Defense and Space Center, the rewards are considerable. Responsible participation in the vital space and defense projects that will make tomorrow's headlines. The satisfaction of personal achievement. Professional recognition.
At Westinghouse, a man goes just as far as his ambition and ability can take him. You will be encouraged to study for advanced degrees at Johns Hopkins University, the University of Maryland, or George Washington University under a special Tuition Refund Plan. You will share in pension and insurance plans and many other company benefits.
Tell us what you have to offer in the way of qualifications; we'll tell you more about what Westinghouse can offer you.
We invite you to send your resumé to L. M. Adkins, Dept. 634
