Civil #90-02293

MEMORANDUM

On the basis of the testimony of Plaintiff before the Examiner, the support contained in the agreement is more than the $703.09 per month recommended by the Child Support Guidelines. Although the payment is not to begin until after the husband has discharged his obligations with respect to the mortgage on the family home, this seems to me to be a permissible provision under §12-204 (j) and §12-202 (a)(2)(iii).

However, the Order is stated in "per child" terms. The amount payable for only one child would be slightly more than that here-provided under the present Guidelines. The judgment has therefore been modified to reflect the lump sum amount to be paid for both children, with the amount payable for the remaining child after the first becomes emancipated to be determined at that time.

Finally, it is to be noted that the witness who testified before the Examiner did little more than repeat what had been told him by the Plaintiff. This did nothing to corroborate Plaintiff's testimony as required by §7-101 (b); but the matter is in this instance saved by the oath of the agreement under §8-104 of the Family Law Article.

The Clerk will attach a copy of this Memorandum to the Judgment.

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

THIS cause having come on for hearing and being submitted, and the proceedings having been read and considered, IT IS THEREUPON, this 13^d day of March, 1990, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, and by the authority thereof, ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that the said Martin A. AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, Martin A. Pierson, shall pay directly to the Defendant, Debra S. Pierson, the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per week until June 19, 1991, Sixty Dollars ($60.00) per week from June 20, 1990 to June 19, 1992 and Seventy Dollars ($70.00) per week thereafter, for the support and maintenance of the minor child and the Court makes the following specific findings:

NOV 13 1990 8 41 AM

- A. The amount of child support required under Subtitle 2 of the Family Law Article ("the guidelines") would have been $247.86.
- B. This order varies from the amount required under the guidelines by $31.19/month for the period until June 19, 1991 and thereafter, absent increases in the parties income, will exceed the amount required by the guidelines.
- C. The automatic increases of child support as provided in the Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement, the voluntary grant of use and possession of the family home from March 3, 1989 through September, 1990 and the provisions relating to a lump sum payment to Defendant of $35,000.00 as set forth in the Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement convinces the Court that a departure from the guidelines under the facts and circumstances of this case would be in the best interests of the minor child.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that if the Plaintiff, Martin A. Pierson, accumulates support payment arrears amounting to more than 30 days of support, he shall be subject to earnings withholding.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Plaintiff,

Martin A. Pierson, shall notify the Court within 10 days of any change of address or employment so long as this support order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject him to a penalty not to exceed $250, and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement, entered into by the parties hereto, dated June 20, 1990 shall be incorporated into but survive the passage of this Judgment.

DETERMINED PURSUANT TO MARYLAND FAMILY LAW, SECTION 12-202, that the basic child support obligation for the two (2) minor children of the parties would be a total of One Thousand Four Hundred Sixty One Dollars ($1,461.00) to be proportionately paid based on the income of the parties hereto; that the court, upon consent of the parties, finds that this amount at this time to be inappropriate and, therefore, does not order a specific amount of support for the following reasons:

2. That the Defendant has the care and custody of the eldest child of the parties who shall reach the age of emancipation in December of 1991, and that said child is matriculating in college in the Fall of 1991 and shall be receiving funds from both parties hereto to assist her in obtaining her college education;

ORDERED, that pursuant to the Agreement of the parties as set forth in the written Amendment to Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated May 6, 1991, the ~~Defendant~~/Counter-Plaintiff shall pay to the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant the sum of $300.00 per month as and for child support for the one minor child of the parties, accounting from August 1, 1991; as shown by the Child Support Guidelines Worksheet which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, the amount of child support deviates from the Guidelines by the sum of $3.26 per month, and the Court finds pursuant to Section 12-202(a)(2)(iv), Family Law Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, that this deviation serves the best interests of the child based upon the written agreement of the parties dated May 6, 1991, and specifically the fact that the ~~Defendant~~/Counter-Plaintiff has previously conveyed to the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant his interest in real property of significant value, which value the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant has actually obtained by her subsequent sale of the property as shown by the agreements of the parties and discovery previously filed in this proceeding, and it is further, assessed in the amount of $450.00 through July, 1991, and the ~~Defendant~~/Counter-Plaintiff be and is hereby ordered and directed to pay to the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant the sum of $50.00 per month towards these arrears, accounting from August 1, 1991 and payable until all arrears are paid in full, and it is further,

ORDERED, that pursuant to the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement of the parties dated September 21, 1989, and based upon the ~~Defendant~~/Counter-Plaintiff's termination of medical insurance benefits to the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant, the ~~Defendant~~/Counter-Plaintiff shall be responsible to take all action necessary to reinstate the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant as a named insured under his existing health insurance policy with Blue Cross and Blue Shield, and for the resubmission of all medical expenses previously incurred by the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant, and should Blue Cross and Blue Shield refuse to reinstate the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant then the ~~Defendant~~/Counter-Plaintiff shall be responsible for payment to the medical creditors of amounts equal to those which Blue Cross and Blue Shield would have paid had the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant continued as a named insured under the existing policy, and the ~~Defendant~~/Counter-Plaintiff shall be responsible to work out the appropriate payment plans with the various medical creditors for payment of the total amounts for which he is responsible, and he will indemnify and hold the ~~Plaintiff~~/Counter-Defendant harmless from any obligation thereon, and it is further,

ORDERED, that all the terms and conditions of the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement of the parties dated September 21, 1989, as well as the Amendment to the Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated May 6, 1991, over which this Court has jurisdiction, be and the same are hereby ratified and approved by this Court and incorporated but not merged into this Judgment by reference, and it is further,

ORDERED, that

- (1) If the obligor accumulates support payments arrears amounting to more than 30 days of support, the obligor shall be subject to earnings withholding;

same is sold and settled; and it is further

ORDERED, that the pension benefits of the Defendant are divided by this Court with the following set forth:

2. The Participant is GEORGE HENRY HEINLEIN, Social Security Number 215-46-5672, whose date of birth is November 27, 1947, and whose last known address is 3347 Pocahontas Drive, Edgewater, MD 21037;

Washington, DC 20001

6. The Alternate Payee's equitable interest in the Participant's pension is hereby declared to be fifty percent (50%) of the "marital share" of said Plan. The Court finds the "marital share" is the total number of months from the Participant's employment date (April 4, 1971) to date of separation of the parties (January 9, 1990); i.e. 224 months, to be the numerator, and the denominator shall be the total number of months during which benefits were accumulated prior to the time when the payment of such benefits shall commence. This Court intends to reserve jurisdiction to modify, amend or alter this Order to determine the denominator of the fraction, and contemplates a clarifying order awarding an actual percentage of the Participant's gross retirement benefits to the alternate payee as her property as of the date of the Participant's retirement or termination of employment, with the alternate payee receiving the amount awarded directly from the District;

7. This Order is issued pursuant to the Maryland Marital Property Act (Property Disposition in Annulment and Divorce, Maryland Code, 1984), Family Law Article, Section 8-201 through 8-213 as amended, which relate to marital property rights as defined therein between spouses in actions for divorce; and it is further

ORDERED, that counsel fees are denied both parties; and it is further

ORDERED, that failure to comply with Family Law Article Section 10-102 will subject the Obligor to a penalty not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00), and may result in the Obligor's not

ORDERED that the next monthly payment of alimony (being the payment due for December 1991) shall be paid on December 1, 1991, with subsequent payments of alimony due on the first day each month, and it is further

MEMORANDUM OPINION, ORDER AND APPENDIX

Charles and Jill Burrows were married on September 13, 1986. One child was born of this marriage, Robert Charles Burrows, born on November 7, 1988. The parties separated on September 6, 1990 when Mrs. Burrows moved out of the family home.

In his Complaint for Absolute Divorce or Limited Divorce filed on September 25, 1990 as amended on June 12, 1991 Charles Burrows requested:

- a) That he be awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, Jill Burrows;
- b) That he be awarded custody of the minor child of the parties, namely ROBERT CHARLES BURROWS born November 7, 1988 both pendente lite and permanently;
- c) That he be awarded alimony and child support, both pendente lite and permanently;
- d) That the Court pass a use and possession order permitting the Plaintiff and the minor child of the parties to occupy the family home for a period of not less than three (3) years from the date of divorce;

e) That the Court pass an order requiring the Defendant to pay the mortgage payments on the family home, together with real estate taxes, insurance and other expenses in connection with the property;

f) That the Court pass a use and possession order permitting the Plaintiff and minor child of the parties to have the continued use of the family use personal property for a period of not less than three (3) years from the date of divorce;

g) That the Court determine ownership of all personal property of the parties, or either of them which is not included in a use and possession order, and order a partition or sale in lieu of partition of all jointly owned such property, and a division of the proceeds;

h) That the Defendant be ordered to pay Plaintiff's reasonable counsel fees, and costs of these proceedings;

i) That the Court order a Home Study Investigation for both parties;

j) That he should be awarded such other and further relief as the nature of his cause may require;

k) That the Court transfer at least one half (1/2) of the marital portion of the Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff's interest in her pension to Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant;

l) That the Court pass an Order granting to Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant a monetary award and that such monetary award be reduced to a Judgment in favor of Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant and

m) That the Court after determining the value and respective interest of the parties order a sale in lieu of partition of the real property owned by the parties, that is titled in their joint names, as tenants by the entirety; and a division of the proceeds of the sale thereof between the parties.

Jill Burrows responded and on November 16, 1990 filed a Counter Complaint for Limited Divorce in which she asked:

a) That she be awarded a Limited Divorce from the Counter-Defendant;

b) That she be awarded custody of the minor child of the parties, both pendente lite and permanently;

c) That she be awarded alimony, both pendente lite and permanently;

d) That she be awarded a reasonable sum for temporary and permanent child support;

e) That the Court determine the ownership of all personal and real property titled in the names of both parties or either of them;

f) That the Counter-Defendant be ordered to pay Counter-Plaintiff's reasonable counsel fees and the costs of these proceedings; and

g) That the Counter-Plaintiff be awarded such other and further relief as the nature of her cause may require.

The trial in this matter was held on June 12, 1991 and July 17, 1991. In this Memorandum Opinion as amplified by its companion Appendix, the Court addresses each of the parties' requests.

I

Husband's Request A-that he be awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, Jill Burrows - and Wife's Request A - that she be awarded a limited divorce from the Counter-Defendant.

The Court will grant Plaintiff-Husband's Request for an absolute divorce on the ground of Defendant Wife's adultery as provided in Section 7-103(a)(1) of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

II

Husband's and Wife's Request B - that (he) (she) be awarded custody of the minor child of the parties, namely Robert Charles Burrows.

Custody of the minor child of the parties, Robert Charles Burrows, shall be awarded jointly to the parties hereto with primary physical custody to the Defendant-Wife and with liberal visitation to the Plaintiff-Husband. Liberal visitation shall be defined as not less than the following schedule:

- (1) Tuesday evenings from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.;
- (2) Every other Thursday night from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 a.m. the following Friday;
- (3) On alternate Thursdays from 4:00 pm. until 8:00 a.m. the following Monday;
- (4) Alternate holidays; and
- (5) Two weeks in the summer between June 1 and September 1.
- (6) Father's day and Plaintiff's birthday.

Child custody and visitation are never set permanently and it may well be that as time passes and Robbie begins school some adjustment will have to be made - either by mutual consent or by further order of this Court. However, for the immediate future the Court feels that the above schedule will be in the best interests of Robbie by giving him the fullest possible time with both of his parents.

In making the determination of custody and visitation the Court is aware of the concerns of Mrs. Burrows as expressed by her counsel in closing argument. The Court feels however that Robert Charles Burrows interests will best be served by the above custody and visitation regimen. The Court agrees with Dr. Lea that in order to enhance the chances for a successful joint custody arrangement the parties should engage in counseling. To this end the Court shall direct that the parties engage in a program of counseling with Dr. Lea or a therapist selected by Dr. Lea for a period of six months. The Court will receive and review a report from the therapist selected at the end of that time.

III

Husband's and Wife's Request C and Wife's Request D - Alimony and child support.

(1) Alimony

The Court has considered the factors set forth in Section 11-106(b) of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland. In this case both parents are suitably employed and have similar incomes and assets. Thus, there is no economically dominant spouse and no rehabilitative or indefinite alimony shall be ordered in this case.

(2) Child Support

The Court has considered the Child Support Guidelines as set forth in Title 12 Subtitle 2 of the Family Law Article and finds that the evidence in this case does not rebut the presumption that the amount of child support resulting from the application of the guidelines is the correct amount of child support to be awarded. Therefore, the order for child support shall be in that amount.

Counsel for the plaintiff has requested the Court to order child support based upon a shared physical custody arrangement. Counsel for the defendant, on the other hand, has requested the Court to use the standard child support obligation worksheet based on sole custody with her client.

"Shared physical custody" is defined in Section 12-202(i) of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland as follows:

- (1) "Shared physical custody means that each parent keeps the child or children overnight for more than 35 percent of the year and that both parents contribute to the expenses of the child and children in addition to the payment of child support.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (1) of this subsection, the Court may base a child support on award on shared physical custody:
 - (i) solely on the amount of visitation awarded; and
 - (ii) regardless of whether joint custody has been granted"

In this case the Court has ordered joint custody with a visitation schedule that provides for overnight visits with the father on 150 nights per year which constitutes 41 percent of the nights in a year. While this exceeds the basic requirement of 35 percent of the year to meet the definition of shared physical custody the Court finds that whether or not to base a child support award on shared physical custody is discretionary with the Court. In this case the Court exercises that discretion and shall award child support with the child support obligations of Mr. Burrows based on sole custody with Mrs. Burrows. Accordingly Mr. Burrows shall pay support in the amount of $312 per month or $72 per week. Of this amount $258 per month or $59.54 per week shall be paid directly to the day care providers, Kay Potter and Totland. The remaining $54 per month or $12.46 per week shall be paid weekly directly to Jill Burrows.

IV

Husband's Request D and F - Use and possession of family home and family use personal property.

In making an award of the use and possession of a family home or family use personal property the best interests of the minor child should be and is the principle concern of the Court, but the practical needs of both parents should not be ignored. Herget vs. Herget, 77 Md. App. 268; 550 A2d 382 (1988). In this case the primary custodian of the minor child shall be the mother - who has made no request for use and possession. The Court will deny the husband's request for use and possession orders.

Husband's Request E - that the Court pass an order requiring the defendant to pay the mortgage payments on the family home, together with real estate taxes, insurance, and other expenses in connection with the property.

Husband's Request E asked that the Court pass an order requiring the defendant to pay the mortgage payments on the family home together with real estate taxes, insurance and other expenses in connection with the property. The Court will treat this request as one for contribution for one half of these expenses.

The Court finds that since the separation of the parties on September 6, 1990 the husband has made 9 mortgage payments in the amount of $457 each. In addition, the husband has paid taxes in the amount of $795.90, insurance in the amount of $229, and a pest control fee of $50 for a total payment by husband of $5187.90.

Generally, a co-tenant who advances monies for the payment of a mortgage encumbering the concurrently owned property pays taxes thereon, or who pays premiums for casualty insurance protecting the concurrently owned property is entitled to contribution from his co-tenants. This principle generally applies to tenants by the entirety's property after the spouses are separated. Crawford v. Crawford, 293 Md. 307, 443 A2d 599 (1982); Manns v. Manns, 308 Md 347, 519 A2d 740 (1987); Watson v Watson, 77 Md App. 622, 551 A 2d 505, 510 (n9) (1989).

However, between tenants by the entirety the entitlement to contribution is an equitable matter and not a matter of right and is within the sound discretion of the trial court. Wassif v. Wassif, 77 Md App. 750, 766, 551 A2d 935 (1989), Spessard v.

Spessard, 64 Md App. 83, 90, 494 A2d 701 (1985); and Broseus v. Broseus, 82 Md App. 183, 57 A 2d 874 (1990). The Court further notes that it has found that the payments for which reimbursement or contribution is sought were made from marital funds. Thus, contribution may be denied.

Therefore, the decision as to whether to grant contribution lies within the discretion of the trial judge and is exercised after a consideration of the particular factors in the case at bar. Prahinski v. Prahinski, 75 Md App. 113, 540 A2d 833, 846 (1988). In this case the Court notes that from the date of separation until the date of divorce the husband continued to reside in said family home which wife had voluntarily vacated.

Considering all of the circumstances of this case, including those factors which are set forth in Section 8-205(b) of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland to be considered in determining the amount of a monetary award, the Court finds that the most equitable disposition would be to allow husband reimbursement for one half (1/2) of the above-mentioned expenses plus one half (1/2) of such expenses paid by him between the date of the decree for divorce and the sale of the property. Both of these amounts shall be a credit in husband's favor from the net sales proceeds at the time of settlement on the sale of the property. The Court finds the expenses paid to the date of this decree to be $5187.90.

VI

Husband's Request G - that the Court determine ownership of all personal property of the parties, or either of them which is not included in a use and possession order and order a partition or sale in lieu of partition of all jointly owned such property, and a division of the proceeds. Wife's Request E - That the Court determine the ownership of all personal and real property titled in the names of both parties or either of them;

This request is denied. The Court finds that the parties have already made an equitable distribution of their personal property. This division had been considered in determining the monetary award, child support and alimony.

VII

Husband's Request H and Wife's Request F - that they be awarded reasonable counsel fees and costs of these proceedings.

In deciding this issue the two principle factors are:

a) The financial resources and financial needs of both parties; and

b) Whether there was substantial justification for bringing or defending the action. Fox v. Fox, 85 Md App. 448, 584 A 2d 128 (1991).

In this case the financial resources and needs of the parties as well as their respective shares of marital property are so evenly divided that no award of counsel fees and court costs will be made. Each party shall pay their own counsel fees and the court costs shall be equally divided.

VIII

Husband's Request I - that the Court order a Home Study Investigation for both parties.

This request is denied as being moot.

IX

Husband's Request K - that the Court transfer at least one half (1/2) of the marital portion of Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff's interest in her pension to Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant.

Defendant, Counter Plaintiff Wife, is twenty four years old and has been employed by the Queen Anne's County Recreation and Parks Department for six years. Due to the many years before her pension will become due and payable, the Court finds that it would be too speculative to grant Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant any portion of said pension. Therefore Plaintiff's Request K shall be denied.

Husband's Request L - that the Court pass an order granting to Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant a monetary award and that such an award be reduced to a Judgment in favor of Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant.

(1) Identification of Martial Property

With the exception of the family home the parties have agreed which property is marital and which is non-martial.

The land upon which the family home was subsequently constructed was previously owned by Mrs. Burrows' grandmother, Gladys S. Cahall. This land was part of the property conveyed by Mrs. Cahall to her son Julian Walter Cahall, Jr., by deed dated December 11, 1985 (this deed was subsequently set aside by this Court in Civil Action 86-00718 and a deed to Mrs. Gladys S. Cahall was executed by Julian Walter Cahall, Jr. on April 14, 1987).

In the December 11, 1985 deed to her son Mrs. Cahall provided:

"The grantee agrees to convey to Judith Cahall Connelly, upon her request and after proper zoning approvals, a 3.279 acre lot in the vicinity of Roe-Hope Road, and if the said Judith Cahall Connelly is living and consents, or dies without having made such a request on behalf of herself, then her daughter, Jill Nelson Connelly, shall have the same right to receive said lot of land. "

Judith Cahall Connelly was Mrs. Cahall's daughter and the mother of the defendant/counter-plaintiff in this case and Jill Nelson Connelly is now Jill Nelson Connelly Burrows, the defendant/counter-plaintiff herein. This evidence of donative intent to convey a lot to Mrs. Burrows would seem to corroborate her testimony that the lot upon which her house was subsequently built was a gift to her. However, as we have noted this donative intent was stated in the deed dated December 11, 1985.

Before the gift was accomplished by virtue of a deed dated May 12, 1987 several things had changed which brought about a change in the donative intent of the donors. First, the parties in this case had married on September 13, 1986 and had therefore been married for some eight months prior to the conveyance by the donor Mrs. Cahall and her daughter Mrs. Connelly, Mrs. Connelly joined in the 1987 deed for the purpose of acknowledging that she had no further rights whatsoever with respect to any remaining lands of Gladys S. Cahall and/or any further rights (if she ever had any rights) under the deed dated December 11, 1985. Second, and perhaps most persuasive, we have the testimony of Mrs. Connelly that it was her intention in giving up her first claim to the subject property that it become a gift from her mother to both of the parties in this case. Finally, we have the investment of $42,800 of marital funds in constructing the home on the subject property. On the other side of the question we have the testimony of Mrs. Burrows that the subject property was intended as a gift to her alone and therefore is non-marital in nature.

In making a decision on this issue the Court is aware of the holdings of Pope v. Pope, 322 MD 277, 587 A2d 481 (1991) which noted that under Property Disposition in the Annulment and Divorce Act and in the case law of this state the appropriate analysis to be applied is the source of the funds theory. Citing Harper v. Harper, 294 MD 54, 448 A2d 916 (1982). Further in Grant v. Zich, 300 MD 256, 477 A 2d 1163 (1984), the Court held that "when characterizing property as marital or non-marital ... for the purpose of granting a monetary award ... a presumption of gift does not arise from the titling of property as tenants by the entirety." Therefore the burden here, as in Pope, was on the spouse claiming a marital interest in the property to establish every element of a gift and the proof must be by clear and convincing evidence.

The Court is also aware of the recent opinion in Merriken v. Merriken, 87 MD App. 522, at 541, 590 A2d 566 (1991). In that case the Court set forth the "frequently recited requirements for a valid inter vivos gift are an intention on the part of the donor to transfer the property, a delivery by the donor and an acceptance by the donee Rogers v. Rogers, 271 MD 603, 607 319 A2d 119 (1974)."

In this case while there was evidence of a donative intent to convey the lot to Mrs. Burrows by her grandmother in 1985, no delivery took place and therefore no gift was effected at that time. When delivery did take place the intent of the donor was effected by said delivery of the deed to the property to both Mr. and Mrs. Burrows who both accepted the gift. The intention on the part of the donor is evidenced by the testimony of Mrs. Connelly. Therefore, the Court believes that Mrs. Cahall and Mrs. Connelly had the intent to convey the lot to both their granddaughter/daughter and grandson-in-law/son-in-law, and, accordingly it is this Court's opinion that the family home was a gift to both of the parties and is marital property.

(2) Valuation

With the exception of the family home and the personal property previously divided between them the parties are in agreement as to the valuation of their property. In light of the Court's ruling that the family's home is entirely marital property and is to be sold and the net proceeds divided it is perhaps of little consequence who is correct as to the value thereof. For purposes of this opinion however the Court has valued the family home as having a gross fair market value of $95,000 less the outstanding balance on the mortgage (marital debt) of $42,000 resulting in a net value of $53,000.

With respect to the personal property the Court finds their value and status to be as shown on the Appendix hereto.

(3) Monetary Award.

Section 8-205 of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland states that "... after the court determines which property is marital property and the value of the marital property the court may ... grant a monetary award ... as an adjustment of the equities and rights of the parties concerning marital property, whether or not alimony is awarded." Subsection (b) sets forth the factors to be considered in determining the amount and method of payment of a monetary award.

In this case both the marital and the non-marital property of the parties is set forth in the Appendix attached hereto. As the Court of Special Appeals noted in Ward v. Ward, 52 MD App 336, 339, 449 A2d 443 (1982), "it is important to recognize that the monetary award is purely discretionary." In this case the Court feels that the distribution of the marital and non-marital property is such that no monetary award would be required in order to balance the equities, and therefore the husband's request that the Court pass such an order is denied.

Inasmuch as the Court has determined that no monetary award is indicated in order to balance the equities in this case it will not be necessary to consider the ten factors of Section 8-205(b) of the Family Law Article as these factors need be considered only if the Court decides to make a monetary award. Coutant v. Coutant,

XI

Husband's request M that the Court after determining the value and respective interest of the parties order a sale in lieu of partition of the real property owned by the parties, that is titled in their joint names, as tenants by the entirety; and a division of the proceeds of the sale thereof between the parties.

Husband's request in which the wife joined at trial, that that home be sold in lieu of partition will be granted by ordering that the marital home of the parties which is titled in their joint names as tenants by the entirety be sold (the Court finding that the property cannot be divided without loss to the parties' interests as per Real Property Article, Section 14-107(a)), and the proceeds divided as follows:

Upon the request of Mrs. Burrows the Court will give the parties an opportunity to agree upon a private listing of the property for sale with a real estate broker to be agreed upon between them. If, however, there is no such broker agreed to by both parties within 30 days of the date of this opinion and decree, the Court will appoint trustees for the purposes of effecting the partition sale.

ORDER AND JUDGMENT

WHEREFORE, it is this 30th day of July, 1991, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the Plaintiff and Counter-Defendant, Charles Burrows be, and he hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the Defendant and Counter-Plaintiff Jill Burrows, upon the ground of adultery as provided in Section 7-103(a)(1) of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon review of the pleadings of record, the transcript of testimony taken before the Standing Examiner of this Court, Edward Turner, Esquire on September 19, 1991, it appearing that this is an uncontested divorce action,

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

This cause standing ready for hearing and being duly submitted, the proceedings were by the Court read and considered.

It is thereupon, this 11th day of December, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-One by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, ADJUDGED AND ORDERED, that the said MAGGIE L. CUFFIE, the above-named Plaintiff be, and she is granted an ABSOLUTE DIVORCE from the Defendant, DONALD L. CUFFIE; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, MAGGIE L. CUFFIE, be and she is hereby granted the care and custody of DERRICK LEVON CUFFIE, minor child of the parties, subject to visitation by the Defendant in accordance with the following schedule:

- (1) Defendant to have said minor child with him on the second and fourth weekends of each and every month from 5:00 P.M. on Friday until 8:00 P.M. on Sunday during the period commencing on September 1 of each year and continuing through May 30 of each year. If either party is unable to comply with this schedule, then, and in that event, said non-complying party is to advise the other party at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the scheduled visitation in order to reschedule same.

(2) Defendant to have said minor child with him for three (3) weeks, which may or may not be consecutive, during the school summer vacation period. The Defendant shall advise the Plaintiff of the specific dates for the summer vacation visitation at least forty-five (45) days in advance thereof; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Defendant, DONALD L. CUFFIE, shall pay to the Plaintiff the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per week for the maintenance and support of the parties' minor child, accounting from the date of this Judgment of Divorce and continuing through the minority of said child; said sum to be paid through the Bureau of Support Enforcement for Queen Anne's County; and, in addition, the Defendant shall, at his expense, provide health and hospitalization insurance for the benefit of the minor child of the parties throughout the period of said child's minority; the aforesaid provision pertaining to the amount required to be paid by the Defendant for the maintenance and support of the parties' minor child is approved and established by the Court after due review and consideration of the child support guidelines set forth in Title 12, Subtitle 2, Sections 12-201, et seq. of the Family Law Article, Annotated Code of Maryland. In determining whether the application of said guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate, the Court has given due consideration to the existence of an oral separation and custody agreement between the parties, the experience and budget history obtained as a result of ten (10) years of consecutive and continuous child support payments made by the Defendant prior hereto, and the detailed financial statement and Child Support Worksheet submitted for the record in this case. Insofar as the above-stated child support requirement of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per week to be paid by the Defendant varies from the strict application of the child support guidelines, the following, in compliance with Section 12-202(a)(2)(ib) 2. of the Family Law Article, is herewith provided:

A. The amount of child support that would have been required under the guidelines is Sixty Four Dollars ($64.00) per week; and

B. The child support payment set forth in this Judgment of Divorce, as agreed to and proposed by the parties, is Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per week; and

C. The amount of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per week, based upon a budget history of ten (10) years and the concurrence with said amount of the parties hereto, will provide the custodial parent with sufficient and adequate funds for the maintenance and support of the parties' minor child. In addition, the harmonious concurrence of the parties will also serve the best interests of the minor child; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that this Order constitutes an immediate and continuing withholding order on all earnings due the Obligor on and after the date of this Order, subject to the conditions set forth in Md. Code Ann. Fam. Law Art., Sec. 10-120, et seq.; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that if the Obligor accumulates support payment arrears amounting to more than 30 days of support, he shall be subject to earnings withholding; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Obligor shall notify the Court within 10 days of any change of address or employment so long as this support order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject him to a penalty not to exceed $250.00, and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that no right of alimony shall accrue unto either of the parties hereto, by virtue of their express waiver thereof; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the matters ADJUDGED and ORDERED herein supersede and replace the matters set forth in the ORDER issued by this Court on February 3, 1981 in Case No. 6685; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that this Court expressly retains jurisdiction over the minor child of the parties, and that all provisions of this Judgment pertaining to custody, visitation and support are subject to the further

Order of this Court; and

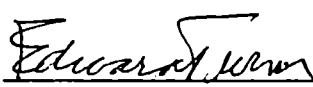

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the costs of these proceedings shall be shared equally by the parties; and with the Christmas/New Year's holiday, beginning in 1992/93 with the first week of the recess through Christmas Eve at 7:00 p.m. and alternating thereafter. The Plaintiff shall keep the Defendant informed of her current address and telephone number. While the minor children are with the Defendant in July of each year, the Plaintiff shall have the right to visit with the children one or two days a week, provided such visits do not interfere with bona fide plans made for the children by the Defendant, are discussed with the Defendant at least 48 hours in advance, and do not involve overnight stays away from the Defendant's residence.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Clerk will send true copies of this Order to counsel for the Plaintiff, to counsel for the Defendant and to the Bureau of Support Enforcement.

3. The Defendant shall provide the Plaintiff with a current operating telephone number where the children can be reached during any period of visitation. The Defendant shall also provide the name, address, and telephone number of any day care providers he proposes to use to care for the minor children during any period of visitation. The Defendant shall not interfere with the Plaintiff's reasonable efforts to meet with and investigate the qualifications of any day care provider selected by the Defendant. In the event of a dispute over the Defendant's choice of day care providers, the parties shall make reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute before the Defendant's period of visitation begins. The Defendant shall also provide the Plaintiff with his current address should he relocate from his present address of 601 Hughes Drive, Cape May, New Jersey.

His failure to comply with these reporting requirements will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in the Defendant not receiving notices of proceedings regarding earnings withholding.

6. The Defendant shall carry, maintain, and pay for health and dental insurance offered through his place of employment for the benefit of the minor children for so long as he has a duty of support. The Defendant shall provide the Plaintiff with evidence of such insurance as the Plaintiff may reasonably request from time to time. Longest; "David" means David Joseph Longest, Jr., born June 6, 1987; and the underscored words in this paragraph have the meanings indicated:

school period means the period beginning at noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week prior to the start of the child's normal school year and (except for a 7-day period during the child's Christmas recess from school) continuing until noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week after the close of the school year.

recess period means (i) summer recess- the period beginning at noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week after the close of the normal school year and continuing until noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week prior to the start of the next school year and (ii) Christmas recess- seven consecutive days during the child's Christmas recess from school.

weekend means a period commencing at 6 p.m. on Friday and continuing until 7 p.m. on the following Sunday.

holiday means January 1, Easter, the Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas, and the birthday of the child of the parties.

period shall be from the close of school on the child's birthday until 8:00 p.m. that same evening.

PHYSICAL CUSTODY

2.2. PHYSICAL CUSTODY. Physical custody of the child shall be shared by the parents as follows:

a-Father will have physical custody of David accounting from June 29, 1992 and continuing (i) during the school period; (ii) during the first half of the summer recess period; (iii) every third weekend during the school period accounting from June 29, 1992 but not during the summer recess period David is with Mother; and (iv) on alternate holidays as specified in Paragraph 2.1, and b-Mother will have physical custody of David (i) during the second half of the summer recess period following the summer recess period David is with Father, (ii) the Christmas recess period, (iii) for two (2) consecutive weekend visits (with the third weekend with Father) and on either Tuesday afternoon or Thursday afternoon from 4:30 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. the evening of the day selected in the week following the second consecutive custodial weekend with Mother during the school period except the calendar months in which the school year begins and ends and not during the summer recess period David is with Father, and (iv) on alternate holidays as specified in Paragraph 2.1.

2.3. HOLIDAYS. Each parent shall have physical custody of David on alternate holidays, commencing with physical custody by Mother on Christmas Day of 1992. In order that a parent will not have physical custody on the same holiday each year, in 1992 and each succeeding even-numbered year, the schedule will begin with physical custody by Mother on January 1; and in 1993 and each succeeding odd-numbered year, it will begin with physical custody by Father on January 1. A holiday visit is not a substitute for any portion of a weekend visit to which a parent is entitled in the same month. The alternating schedule is not affected by, and a parent is not entitled to a substitute holiday visit if, (i) a holiday occurs during a period (including the Saturday or Sunday of a weekend) when that parent otherwise has physical custody or (ii) the parent is unable or unwilling to have physical custody on the holiday.

2.4. CHANGE OF SCHEDULE. The provisions of subparagraphs 2.2 and 2.3 are intended to reflect only minimum objectives and minimum rights with respect to physical custody and visitation to be observed in the absence of agreement between the parents. The parents are authorized and encouraged, by mutual agreement, to supplement or vary those provisions in order to permit contacts between the child and each parent as frequently as possible and as may be necessary or desirable to accommodate (among other things) the schedules of all involved and especially the activities of the child, such as school plays, sporting events, 4-H projects, family gatherings and the like, which a weekend or other scheduled period of physical custody would restrict or prohibit.

2.5. FORM OF CUSTODY. The parent who is entitled to physical custody may have the child at that parent's home or other suitable place selected by that parent. Father will be responsible for picking up and returning the child to the home of Mother for Mother's weekend visitation until Mother obtains transportation and, at that time, unless otherwise agreed by the parents, the parent entitled to a weekend or holiday visit shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child to the home of the other parent.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES DURING CUSTODY

2.6. GENERALLY. Each parent shall at all times endeavor not to disclose to the child any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving the other parent and shall at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other parent and admonish the child not to do so.

2.7. AUTHORITY. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding the child's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining the child, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and (ii) permit the child to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

2.8. NOTICE. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the child, including but not limited to:

a-the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

b-the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological or dental advice or treatment;

Civil # 91-03206

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

An affidavit filed on March 12, 1992, indicates that Defendant was served with the original complaint on February 29, 1992, by private service in accordance with Rules 2-121 and 2-123. An order of default was denied on April 16, 1992, and the complaint dismissed with leave to amend for reasons of substantive infirmity in the complaint. An amended complaint was filed on April 30, 1992, with a certificate reflecting mailing to defendant, at various addresses, in accordance with Rule 1-321. Plaintiff made a simultaneous request for further service by posting (Rule 2-122), which was denied for the reason that it was unnecessary in light of service under Rule 1-321.

On June 1, 1992, the matter was scheduled for trial on June 17, 1992. Defendant was notified but did not appear. Testimony was taken from plaintiff and a witness, on the basis of which a judgment of divorce is proper under §7-103 of the Family Law Article on the basis of voluntary separation for a period of more than 1 year prior to filing of the amended complaint. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that:

1. The parties are divorced absolutely.
2. Plaintiff shall pay the costs of this action.

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on for hearing and testimony having been heard and considered,

It is thereupon, this 27th day of Aug, 1992 by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, ADJUDGED AND ORDERED, that the said Verna Leigh Beish, the above named Complainant be, and she is granted an ABSOLUTE DIVORCE from the Defendant, Jeffrey Lee Beish, Sr.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Agreement between the parties dated March 10, 1992, relative to custody, child support, property rights, counsel fees, court costs, etc., be and the same is hereby approved and made a part of and incorporated in this Judgment, but not merged therein, having the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, Verna Leigh Beish, be and she is hereby granted the care and custody of Jeffrey Lee Beish, Jr., and Lisa Elizabeth Beish, minor children of the parties.

The court finds that the Defendant, Jeffrey L. Beish, is totally disabled and has the following income:

1 RECEIVED
CLERK, CIRCUIT COURT
1992 JUL 28 AM 8:51
QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY

$1680.00 Veterans Benefits
$ 689.00 Social Security
$2369.00

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff, Verna L. Beish, has been receiving Social Security benefits and Veterans benefits but these benefits will cease upon her divorce from the Defendant. She is not employed but receives directly, the following income payments for the benefit of the minor children.

$121.00 Veterans Benefits
$416.00 Social Security
$537.00

The Court further finds that the dependent benefits received by the Plaintiff do not result in a reduction of the amount received by Defendant.

The Court further finds that application of the child support guidelines to the parties' combined income of $2369.00 would result in a basic child support obligation of $582.00.

The court finds that the parties have entered into an agreement under which the Defendant agreed to pay $40.00 per week per child ($344.00). Due to the fact that the children receive benefits of $537.00, the addition of $344.00 in child support results in a total of $881.00 being received for their benefit. In view of the fact that this exceeds the guideline by $299.00 per month, it is clear that application of the guidelines would be inappropriate and enforcement of the parties' agreement would serve the best interests of the children.

THEREFORE, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the said Defendant shall pay the sum of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per week, per child, through the Queen Anne's County Bureau of Support Enforcement for the maintenance and support of the minor children, accounting from the date of the said Agreement, in accordance with the terms of and as more fully set forth in the said Agreement.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that if the Defendant accumulates support payments arrears amounting to more than thirty days, he shall be subject to earnings withholdings; he is required to notify the Court within ten days of any change of address or employment so long as he is obligated to pay child support in accordance with this Judgment of Divorce; and failure to do so shall subject him to a penalty not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00), and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

ORDER REGARDING CUSTODY PENDENTE LITE

Following a hearing held on September 18, 1990, and for reasons stated at that hearing, it is ORDERED that, subject to the terms of this Order, the parties will have joint legal custody of their minor child and that both parents will have an equal voice and obligation with respect to long range decisions involving education, training, discipline, medical care and other matters of major significance concerning the child's life and welfare.

1. DEFINITIONS. In the following paragraphs, the underscored words in this paragraph have the meanings indicated:

school period means the period beginning at noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week prior to the start of the child's normal school year and (except for a 7-day period during the child's Christmas recess from school) continuing until noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week after the close of the school year.

recess period means (i) eight consecutive weeks selected by Father during the period beginning at noon on the second Sunday which is at least 1 week after the close of the normal school year and continuing until noon on the first Sunday which is at last 1 week prior to the start of the next school year and (ii) seven consecutive days, exclusive of holidays, during the child's Christmas recess from school.

weekend means a period commencing at 6 p.m. on Friday and continuing until 6 p.m. on the following Sunday.

1990 SEP 19 AM 8:24
QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY

day, except that in the months of October and November 1990, "weekend" means a period commencing at 6 p.m. on either Friday or Saturday, at the election of Father, and continuing until 6 p.m. on the following day.

holiday means January 1, Easter, the Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas, and the birthday of the child.

holiday period means a period between 6 p.m. on the day preceding the holiday and 8 a.m. on the day following the holiday except that (i) on Christmas Eve, the period is from 6 p.m. on December 24 until 1 p.m. on December 25 and (ii) on Christmas, the period is from 1 p.m. on December 25 until 8 a.m. on December 26.

In addition, for so long as Randy H. is confined within the Maryland correctional system, and for purposes of visitation and physical custody referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 only, Father includes the parents of Randy H. Horney.

PHYSICAL CUSTODY

2. PHYSICAL CUSTODY. Physical custody of the child shall be shared by the parents as follows:

a-Mother will have physical custody of the child (i) during the school period, (ii) on weekend visits twice each calendar month during the summer recess period and (iii) on alternate holidays as specified in Paragraph 3, and b-Father will have physical custody of the child (i) during the recess period, (ii) on weekend visits twice each calendar month during the school period, except the calendar months in which the school year begins and ends, and (iii) on alternate holidays as specified in Paragraph 3.

Unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parents, weekend visits shall be on the first and third weekends of the month.

3. HOLIDAYS. Each parent shall have physical custody of the child on alternate holidays, commencing with physical custody by Mother at Thanksgiving of 1990. In order that a parent will not have physical custody on the same holiday each year, in 1991 and each succeeding odd-numbered year, the schedule will begin with physical custody by Father on January 1; and in 1992 and each succeeding odd-numbered year, it will begin with physical custody by Mother on January 1. A holiday visit is not a substitute for any portion of a weekend visit to which a parent is entitled in the same month. The alternating schedule is not affected by, and a parent is not entitled to a substitute holiday visit if, (i) a holiday occurs during a period (including the Saturday or Sunday of a weekend) when that parent otherwise has physical custody or (ii) the parent is unable or unwilling to have physical custody on the holiday.

4. CHANGE OF SCHEDULE. The provisions of Paragraphs 2 and 3 are intended to reflect only minimum objectives and minimum rights with respect to physical custody and visitation to be observed in the absence of agreement between the parents. The parents are authorized and encouraged, by mutual agreement, to supplement or vary those provisions in order to permit contacts between the child and each parent as frequently as possible and as may be necessary or desirable to accommodate (among other things) the schedules of all involved and especially the activities of the child, such as school plays, sporting events, 4-H projects, family gatherings and the like, which a weekend or other scheduled period of physical custody would restrict or prohibit.

5. FORM OF CUSTODY. The parent who is entitled to physical custody may have the child at that parent's home or other suitable place selected by that parent. Unless otherwise agreed by the parents, the parent entitled to a weekend or holiday visit shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child to the home of the other parent. However, until such is specifically authorized by written Order of Court, the child may not ride in any motor vehicle operated by Father.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES DURING CUSTODY

6. GENERALLY. Each parent will at all times endeavor not to disclose to the child any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving the other parent and will at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other parent and admonish the child not to do so.

7. AUTHORITY. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding the child's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining the child, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and (ii) permit the child to speak with the other parent and the child's grandparents privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

8. NOTICE. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the child, including but not limited to:

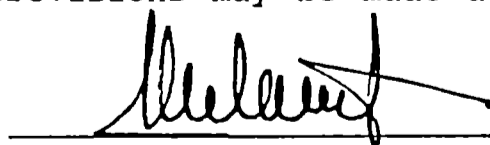

a-the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

b-the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological or dental advice or treatment;

c-the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which a child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which a child will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

Such information shall be given promptly after it becomes known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

9. REVISORY POWER. The terms of this Order shall continue in effect, subject to further Order of the Court, until final judgment. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect the scope or terms of the final judgment, it being contemplated that additional and/or different provisions may be made at that time.

Plaintiff	:	CIRCUIT COURT
vs.	:	FOR
SAMUEL P. SPEAR	:	QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY
Defendant	:	Case No. 90-02628

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on for trial in open court, and testimony having been taken and the issues of divorce and custody having been duly submitted on the evidence adduced, coupled with the stipulation of the parties dictated into the record settling all related property and economic issues, which agreement was confirmed by each of the parties, respectively, upon inquiry of them individually by the Court; and the Court having duly considered the issues as submitted, it is thereupon, this 19th of August, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-two, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County

ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED:

1. That the plaintiff, Ella I. Spear, be, and she hereby is, granted an Absolute Divorce from the defendant, Samuel P. Spear.

2. That the custody of the three (3) minor children of the parties, to-wit: Paul Kyle Spear; Samuel Todd Spear; and Kevin Brodie Spear, be, and it hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff, subject to rights of reasonable and liberal visitation by and with the defendant, upon reasonable advance notice to the plaintiff, all until further order of this Court.

3. That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, by deduction from his current balance on deposit in the existing The Centreville National Bank escrow account, the sum of $3,500.00, as and for advance child support for the months of August through December, 1992, inclusive.

4. That beginning on Friday, January 1, 1993, and weekly on each successive Friday thereafter, until the further order of this Court, the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, as and for child support, the sum of $161.54 per week, in advance, payable on Friday of each week accounting from January 1, 1993, such payment to be made through the Bureau of Support Enforcement for Queen Anne's County; and

5. That the child support ordered under Paragraph 4 above shall be subject to a continuing earnings withholding order under FL Sections 10-120 et seq., and the defendant is hereby required to notify both the Bureau of Support Enforcement and the plaintiff, on or before December 31, 1992, of the name and address of his then employer; and within no more than ten (10) days of any change of employment thereafter so long as this Order is in effect, Defendant shall furnish new information as to his then employment to both the Bureau of Support Enforcement and the plaintiff. Failure to do so will subject defendant to a penalty not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00), and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

6. That in accordance with the mandate of FL, Section

12-202(a), the Court has determined that the strict application of the Guidelines is inappropriate in this particular case; and its reasons for departing slightly therefrom are (a) that while the support which would otherwise have been required under the guidelines on currently available earnings information would be $744.70 per month; and (b) while the payment of only $700 per month under this order does vary from the guidelines by the amount of $44.70 per month, the Court has determined that because the defendant has no fixed and established regular earnings, since he works exclusively on a commission basis which is subject to constant fluctuation, it is in the best interest of the minor children that they have the stability and assurance of the agreed-upon fixed regular support contribution.

7. On or about the 15th day of May in each year, beginning with May 15, 1993, the parties shall exchange precise and complete information as to their then respective current gross income, in a form susceptible of verification, which information shall include at a minimum their W-2 statements and/or Forms 1099 for the preceding calendar year. In accordance with FL, § 12-202 (b)(2), the amount of child support to be paid by the Defendant shall be automatically adjusted, upward or downward, if, using the then current guidelines [see FL, § 12-202 (c)], "...would result in a change in the award of 25% or more".

8. That defendant shall forthwith pay to the plaintiff, by deduction and withdrawal from his share of the existing escrow account, the sum of $3,000.00 as and for his contribution to her counsel fees attributable to this matrimonial litigation.

9. That after deduction and payment from the escrow fund of the obligations required by paragraphs 3 and 8 above, the balance remaining to defendant's credit in The Centreville National Bank escrow account (Account Number 315079-00) shall be released from escrow and distributed to him; and the subject account shall thereupon be closed and the remaining balance distributed to plaintiff.

10. That all tangible and intangible personal property now in possession of either party, however titled, shall remain and be the sole property of the party now in possession.

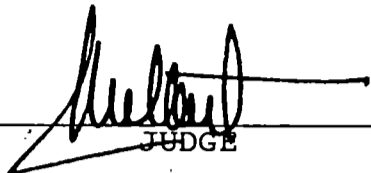

11. That, as agreed by and between the parties, with the approval of the Court, the defendant, Samuel F. Spear, shall resign as a Co-Trustee on the trust account administered jointly by the parties in trust for their minor son, Kevin, said account being Account No. 1-276502-00 in The Centreville National Bank.

12. That any outstanding tax bills, either State or Federal, due by the parties jointly for the calendar year ending December 31, 1987, shall be paid one-half by each party; and the plaintiff shall pay to the Prospect Bay Country Club the sum of $256.00 to be applied against the parties' joint pre-August 6, 1990 club account; and the defendant shall pay any balance owed in excess thereof.

13. That in accordance with her request, the plaintiff's maiden name, Ella Irene Yeomans, shall be, and it hereby is, restored to her.

14. That the open costs of these proceedings shall be paid by the defendant.

Smith, born October 2, 1981, and the underscored words in this paragraph have the meanings indicated:

school period means the period beginning at noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week prior to the start of each child's normal school year and (except for a 7-day period during each child's Christmas recess from school) continuing until noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week after the close of the school year.

recess period means (i) summer recess- the period beginning at noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week after the close of the normal school year and continuing until noon on the first Sunday which is at least 1 week prior to the start of the next school year and (ii) Christmas recess- seven consecutive days during each child's Christmas recess from school.

weekend means a period commencing at 6 p.m. on Friday and continuing until 7 a.m. on the following Monday.

holiday means January 1, Easter, Memorial Day, the Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas, and the birthday of each child of the parties.

holiday period means a period between 6 p.m. on the day preceding the holiday and 8 a.m. on the day following the holiday except that (i) on Christmas Eve, the period is from 6 p.m. on December 24 until 1 p.m. on December 25 and (ii) on Christmas, the period is from 1 p.m. on December 25 until 8 a.m. on December 26 and (iii) if the birthday of a child falls on a school day, the period shall be from the close of school on the child's birthday until 8:00 p.m. that same evening.

2.2. PHYSICAL CUSTODY. Physical custody of the children shall be shared by the parents as follows:

a-Mother will have physical custody of Jeremy and Jason, commencing immediately, and continuing (i) during the school period (except as provided in Paragraph 2.2(b) below); (ii) during the remainder of the summer recess period following the custodial period of Father; (iii) on alternate weekends during the school period and summer recess period accounting from and commencing with February 14, 1992 but not during the summer recess period Jeremy and Jason are with Father; and (iv) on alternate holidays as specified in Paragraph 2.3, and b-Father will have physical custody of Jeremy and Jason (i) during the first four (4) weeks of the summer recess period and the Christmas recess period; (ii) on alternating weekend visits during the school period (except on the weekend immediately preceding the commencement of each school year and on the weekend immediately following the end of each school year) accounting from and commencing with February 7, 1992, but not during the summer recess period Jeremy and Jason are with Mother; (iii) on alternating Tuesday and Thursday evenings each week from 6:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M.; (iv) on the other alternating Tuesday evenings when Father does not have the children for the weekend from Tuesday evening at 6:00 P.M. until Wednesday morning when the children shall be taken to school by Father and on Thursday evening from 6:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M.; and (v) on alternate holidays as specified in Paragraph 2.3.

Father shall notify Mother, as promptly as possible, of any delay or inability by Father to comply with the times set forth above for Father to pick-up the children from Mother's residence. Father shall also notify Mother in the event any circumstances prevent Father from returning the children to Mother's residence in accordance with the schedule set forth above.

2.3. HOLIDAYS. Each parent shall have physical custody of Jeremy and Jason on alternate holidays, commencing with physical custody by Mother on Easter, 1992. In order that a parent will not have physical custody on the same holiday each year, in 1993 and each succeeding odd-numbered year, the schedule will begin with physical custody by Mother on January 1; and in 1994 and each succeeding even-numbered year, it will begin with physical custody by Father on January 1. A holiday visit is not a substitute for any portion of a weekend visit to which a parent is entitled in the same month. The alternating schedule is not affected by, and a parent is not entitled to a substitute holiday visit if, (i) a holiday occurs during a period (including the Saturday or Sunday of a weekend) when that parent otherwise has physical custody; or (ii) the parent is unable or unwilling to have physical custody on the holiday.

2.4. CHANGE OF SCHEDULE. The provisions of Paragraphs 2.2 and 2.3 are intended to reflect only minimum objectives and minimum rights with respect to physical custody and visitation to be observed in the absence of agreement between the parents. The parents are authorized and encouraged, by mutual agreement, to supplement or vary those provisions in order to permit contacts between the children and each parent as frequently as possible and as may be necessary or desirable to accommodate (among other things) the schedules of all involved and especially the activities of each child, such as school plays, sporting events, 4-H projects, family gatherings and the like, which a weekend or other scheduled period of physical custody would restrict or prohibit.

2.5. FORM OF CUSTODY. The parent who is entitled to physical custody may have the children at that parent's home or other suitable place selected by that parent. Unless otherwise agreed by the parents, the parent entitled to a weekend or holiday visit shall be responsible for picking up and returning each child to the home of the other parent.

2.6. RIGHTS AND DUTIES DURING CUSTODY.

2.6.1. GENERALLY. Each parent shall at all times endeavor not to disclose to the children any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving the other parent and shall at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other parent and admonish the children not to do so.

2.6.2. AUTHORITY. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the children, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding each child's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining each child, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations; and (ii) permit each child to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

2.6.3. NOTICE. During any period when a parent has physical custody of each child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of each child, including but not limited to:

a-the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

b-the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological or dental advice or treatment;

c-the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which each child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which a child will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

Such information shall be given promptly after it becomes known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

3. SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE OF THE CHILDREN.

3.1. Accounting from October 29, 1992, Father shall pay to Mother the sum of Three Hundred Seven Dollars ($307.00) per month, payable in accordance with terms set forth below, said amount being in accordance with the Uniform Child Support Guidelines as reflected in the support work-sheet filed in this case.

3.2. Father shall be given credit for the amount of his marital interest in the Marital Home as set forth in Paragraph 4.3 below in the amount of Twenty One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($21,500.00) against and toward the payment of child support set forth in Paragraph 3.1 above at the rate of Three Hundred Seven Dollars ($307.00) per month. In the event that the amount of child support to be paid by Father to Mother shall be increased during the period which Father shall be responsible to pay child support to Mother, Father shall be required to pay only the amount in excess of Three Hundred Seven Dollars ($307.00) per month to Mother; if the amount of child support shall be decreased, then the remaining credit due to Father shall be reduced at the decreased monthly rate. At such time as the full credit in the amount of Twenty One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($21,500.00) due to Father has been exhausted, Father shall pay child support to Mother in the full amount due and payable by Father to Mother for child support. If the child support payments have not been modified by the time the credit is exhausted, Father shall pay the sum of Three Hundred Seven Dollars ($307.00) per month as child support to Mother.

3.3. No deviation or departure from the method of payment of child support by Father shall be permitted without further Order of this Court. No other credits or payments made by the Defendant shall be credited against or applied to the child support obligation of Defendant without further Order of this Court. No departure from the Maryland Child Support Guidelines shall be permitted without further Order of this Court.

3.4. Any arrears in payment of children support under the Order of Court dated May 29, 1992 are hereby extinguished.

3.5. The parties shall exchange copies of their federal and state income tax returns and all other evidence of their earnings and income (as defined in the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, §12-201 et seq, Family Law Article, Md Ann Code) each year during which child support shall be payable on or before May 1st of each year commencing with 1993. In the event either party shall file an extension for the filing of federal and/or state income tax returns in any year during which earnings information is required to be exchanged, the party requesting such extension shall provide to the other party copies of all W-2 statements, 1099 statements and all other information concerning the income and earnings of that party to the other and shall, upon the request of the other party, provide a verified statement under oath setting forth the income and earnings of the other party.

4. REAL PROPERTY.

4.1. Marital Home. Defendant shall, by such documents as are reasonably necessary, convey to Plaintiff all of his right, title and interest in and to the Marital Home located at 415 Chesapeake Avenue, Stevensville, Maryland 21666 (the "Marital Home").

4.2. Purchase Money Mortgage. Plaintiff shall assume and pay, in accordance with the terms thereof, the purchase money mortgage on the Marital Home after Defendant has conveyed his interest therein to Plaintiff. Plaintiff shall save, hold harmless and indemnify Defendant from any and all liability in connection with the purchase money mortgage after conveyance of Defendant's interest to her.

4.3. Marital Interest. Defendant's marital interest in the Marital Home is agreed by the parties to be in the amount of Twenty-One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($21,500.00). Defendant hereby waives payment of that amount from Plaintiff and agrees, acknowledges and consents that the full amount thereof shall be and is paid to Plaintiff as a prepayment of child support due and payable to Plaintiff.

5. PERSONAL PROPERTY.

5.1. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party shall retain all personal property now in his or her respective possession free and clear of all claims by the other party.

5.2. The parties shall equally divide (or arrange for copies to be made and provided to the other party) all family photographs.

5.3. Defendant shall retain in trust, for the benefit of the minor children of the parties until they reach the age of eighteen (18) years, the five (5) diamonds received by him from his grandmother. At the time the children attain the age of eighteen, Defendant shall deliver the five (5) diamonds to the children and the diamonds shall become the property of the children.

6. MUTUAL WAIVER OF ALIMONY. The parties both having waived alimony, the same is hereby denied to both of them.

7. PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS.

7.1. Plaintiff shall assume and pay the balances on the Sears Roebuck account and the Colonial National Visa Account.

7.2. Defendant shall assume and pay the balances on the following accounts: the Citibank Visa account; the Beneficial Finance loan account; the Hechinger account; the Associates Capital loan account; and the balance on the Macy's account.

7.3. Each party shall save, hold harmless and indemnify the other from any and all liability in connection with the balances assumed by the other in accordance with Paragraphs 7.1 and 7.2 above.

8. COUNSEL FEES. Each party shall be responsible for his or her counsel fees in this case.

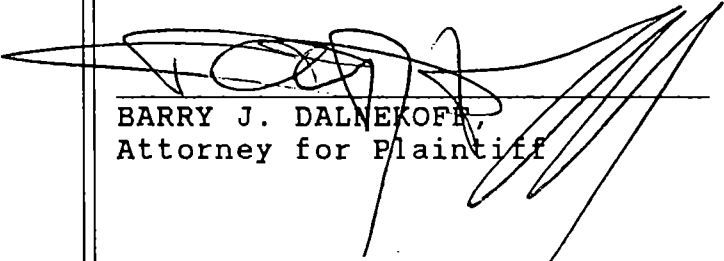

9. COSTS. Defendant shall pay the open costs in this case.

JUDGMENT FOR ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause standing ready for hearing and being duly heard, the proceedings were by the Court heard and considered.

It is thereupon this 7th day of April in the year one thousand nine hundred and ninety three, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, Maryland

ORDERED that the terms and conditions of the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement in effect between the parties dated the 9th day of February, 1993, be and they hereby are incorporated without merger in all respects into this Judgment, and it is further

ORDERED that the legal custody of the minor child of the parties, TRAVIS CHRISTOPHER ANDERSON, born June 10, 1983, be and hereby is awarded jointly to the Plaintiff and Defendant; the Plaintiff shall be the primary residential parent, and the Defendant shall have the right to visit with the child and the right of the child to visit with the said Defendant as specified in the Agreement referred to herein, and it is further

ORDERED that this Court retain jurisdiction over the parties and their minor child for the sole purpose of protecting the welfare of the said minor child, and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant pay the sum of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per week, in advance, to said Plaintiff as support for the minor child of the parties, accounting from February 9, 1993 and continuing until April 14, 1993, and thereafter, the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per week, payable weekly, in advance, directly unto the Wife, and continuing until the said child reaches the age of eighteen (18) years, dies, becomes self-supporting, or the death of the Defendant, whichever event occurs first, and it is further

FOUND that this order for child support meets the requirements of Family Law, Section 12-202 (a)(2)(iv)2., in that the amount of child support that would have been required under the guidelines was One Hundred Sixty Eight and 49/xxx ($168.49) Dollars per month, this order varies from that amount by ~~Forty Eight~~ ^{Forty Eight} and 18/xxx ($48.18) Dollars more per month, and the best interests of the minor child are served by resolving the issues of child support between the parents, encouraging the Defendant to find full time work, settling the issues of child support, both as to arrearages and liquidated amounts for the foreseeable future, and assigning to the Wife full financial responsibility for noncovered medical expenses, and it is further

ORDERED that this Order constitutes an immediate and continuing withholding Order on all earnings due the Defendant on or after the date of this Order subject to the conditions set forth in Maryland Code Annotated Family Law, Section 10-120 et seq., and it is further

ORDERED that if the Defendant accumulates support payment arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, Defendant shall be subject to earnings withholding, and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the support Order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject Defendant to a penalty not to exceed Two-Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding, and it is further

FOUND that the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement between Plaintiff and Defendant dated February 9, 1993, provides that an award or payment shall be paid to Defendant from the Plaintiff's deferred compensation plans, known as GE Pension Plan and GE Savings and Security Plans, (the "Plans"), in which Plaintiff (SSN 216-70-1602) is a participant, and that such award or payment shall be made pursuant to a Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") issued by this Court and qualifying under Section 414 (p) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"); and

Whereas, this Order is intended to be a QDRO, it is therefore further adjudged and ordered as follows:

A. FINDINGS OF FACT:

1. Plaintiff is Pamela Jean Anderson, whose address is 329 South Caroline Road, Stevensville, Maryland

21666. Plaintiff is the Participant in the Plans to which this Order relates.

2. Defendant is Thomas Theodaore Anderson, whose address is 122 N. Harrison Street, Easton, Maryland 21601. Defendant is the "Alternate Payee" of the Plans to which this Order relates.

3. The Plans to which this Order applies are as follows: GE Pension Plan, GE Savings and Security Program. All of the Plans are managed locally by GE QDRO Processing, One Independence Way, P. O. Box 8088, Princeton, N. J. 08543-8088.

B. PROVISIONS OF ORDER:

1. The Plan Administrator of the Plans, upon receipt of a certified copy of this Order, shall distribute to the Defendant a portion of the Plans if, as, and when received by the Plaintiff according to the following formula:

$$\frac{1}{2} \times \frac{\text{Years and months of marriage}}{\text{Years and months of employment credited towards retirement.}}$$

Receipt by the Plan Administrator of a certified copy of this Order shall be deemed to fulfill all requirements of the Plans as to notice and request for withdrawal by the Participant.

2. In the event of the death of the Participant before distribution to Defendant of his interest in the Plans, Defendant shall be treated as the surviving spouse of the Participant only to the extent of his interest in the Plans, to be calculated according to the formula set forth in paragraph B 1 above, and Defendant shall, from this date forward, be deemed to have waived all joint and survivor and pre-retirement survivor annuity provisions and benefits thereunder.

3. Plaintiff and Defendant shall each consent in writing to the distribution to Defendant, and now former spouse, according to the formula set forth above.

4. This Order is intended to meet the definition of a QDRO under Sections 206 (d) (3) (C) and (D) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, and Section 414 (p) (1) (A) of the Code, as amended.

5. Jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter is expressly reserved for the purpose of amending this Order to cause it to meet the definition of a QDRO in the event that this Order is determined by a Plan Administrator or any court of competent jurisdiction not to meet that definition, and it is further
