THOMAS A. DOBRZYN
Plaintiff
VS.
TRINA MARIE DOBRZYN
Defendant

* IN THE
* CIRCUIT COURT
* FOR
* QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY
* Case No. 90-02444

* * * * *

~~AMENDED~~ JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

The case came on for trial on the merits on Plaintiff's Amended Complaint for Divorce and Answer thereto before the Honorable John W. Sause, Jr.; subsequently, the Queen Anne's Department of Social Services made certain recommendations to the Court regarding the residential arrangements for the minor children during the school year as well as assisted the parties with a schedule for the time for the minor children are to be with each parent; and counsel and the parties have agreed to a settlement and disposition of the marital real and personal property of the parties.

The parties and their respective counsel having appeared before the Court on July 19, 1993, their agreement as to the issues of the case reached and placed on record, testimony taken, counsel heard and the papers read and considered. Accordingly, it is ORDERED, this 19th day of July, 1993, as follows:

1. ABSOLUTE DIVORCE. The parties be and are hereby DIVORCED ABSOLUTELY from each other;

2. CUSTODY.

1. DEFINITIONS. In the following paragraphs, "Father" means Thomas A. Dobrzyn; "Mother" means Trina Marie Dobrzyn; "Leo" means Leo Paul Dobrzyn, born February 27, 1980; "Stephen" means Stephen Joshua Dobrzyn, born May 9, 1986, "Tammy" means Tammy Annette Dobrzyn, born June 14, 1977.

2. JOINT CUSTODY. Subject to the terms of this Judgment, the parties will have joint legal custody of their minor children. Both parents will have an equal voice and obligation with respect to long range decisions involving education, training, discipline, medical care and other matters of major significance concerning the children's lives and welfare.

3. PHYSICAL CUSTODY OF LEO AND STEPHEN. Physical custody of Leo and Stephen shall be shared by the parents so that the parents shall have as nearly equal time with Leo and Stephen as is practical. During the school year, Stephen shall principally reside with Father and Leo shall principally reside with Mother as recommended by the Queen Anne's Department of Social Services. The parties shall continue to meet and confer to determine in advance a schedule that allows Leo and Stephen to spend nearly equal time with each parent. If the parties are unable to agree upon a schedule which divides the time of Leo and Stephen between the parents as equally as practical, the parties shall contact the Queen Anne's Department of Social Services for assistance with establishing an appropriate schedule.

4. PHYSICAL CUSTODY OF TAMMY. Mother will have physical custody of Tammy at all times; provided, however, that if Tammy and Father can agree upon such times that Father will have physical custody of her and Mother is in agreement, the parties will arrange between themselves for such times that Tammy's physical custody will be with Father.

5. FORM OF CUSTODY. The parent who is entitled to physical custody may have the children at that parent's home or other suitable place selected by that parent. Unless otherwise agreed by the parents, the parents shall equally share the transportation for children; under no circumstances, however, shall Tammy be permitted to drive Leo and/or Stephen to Father's home or to or from the place where the parties have agreed as a meeting place for the convenience of the parties.

6. RIGHTS AND DUTIES DURING CUSTODY

1. GENERALLY. Each parent shall at all times endeavor not to disclose to the children any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving the other parent and shall at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other parent and admonish the children not to do so.

2. AUTHORITY. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the children, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding each child's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining each child, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and (ii) permit each child to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

3. NOTICE. During any period when a parent has physical custody of each child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of each child, including but not limited to:

a-the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

b-the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological or dental advice or treatment;

c-the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which each child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which a child will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

Such information shall be given promptly after it becomes known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

7. COUNSELLING. Both parties and all of the children of the parties will participate in such counselling activities as are deemed appropriate and necessary by the Queen Anne's Department of Social Services with periodic reports to be filed with the Court.

3. SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE OF THE CHILDREN. Mother and Father shall each be charged generally with the support and maintenance of all of their minor children, but neither will be required to pay any direct support contribution to the other.

4. REAL PROPERTY.

1. Conveyance to Thomas Dobrzyn. Defendant, Trina Marie Dobrzyn, shall, by such documents as are reasonably necessary, at Plaintiff's expense, transfer and convey all of her right, title and interest in and to the marital property located in Queen Anne's County, Maryland known as 731 Kimberly Way, Stevensville, Maryland 21666 to Plaintiff. Plaintiff shall save, hold harmless and indemnify Defendant from any and all liability in connection with the purchase money indebtedness and any other joint obligations which are recorded liens or encumbrances on the property which arose prior to the date of separation of the parties.

2. Conveyance to Trina Marie Dobrzyn. Plaintiff, Thomas Dobrzyn, shall, by such documents as are reasonably necessary, at Defendant's expense, transfer and convey all of his right, title and interest in and to the marital property located in Dorchester Maryland known as Route 1, Box 255, Indian Town Road, Vienna, Maryland 21869 to Defendant. Defendant shall save, hold harmless and indemnify Plaintiff from any and all liability in connection with the purchase money indebtedness and any other joint obligations which are recorded liens or encumbrances on the property which arose prior to the date of separation of the parties.

5. PERSONAL PROPERTY.

1. Distribution and waiver. Except as set forth hereinafter, the parties have divided the marital personal property. Each party shall have, as his or her own separate personal property, free and clear of any claim of the other, all personal property of every kind and nature presently in his or her respective possession.

2. Vehicle to Defendant. Plaintiff shall convey his interest in and to the 1988 Ford Truck to Defendant. Defendant shall save, hold harmless and indemnify Plaintiff from any and all liability in connection with said vehicle, including any indebtedness on the vehicle and/or any charges, claims or expenses of any kind or nature in connection with the vehicle incurred by Defendant or anyone acting on her behalf. Neither party shall be entitled to any contribution or reimbursement for any loan payments made by the other party.

3. Business Waiver. Defendant waives any and all rights in and to the vehicle service business of Plaintiff.

6. EQUALIZATION PAYMENT. In order to equalize the marital property interests of the parties, Plaintiff shall pay to Defendant the sum of Three Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($3,600.00), payable in thirty-six (36) monthly payments of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each, without interest, with the first payment due thirty (30) days from the date of this Judgment and thereafter on the same day of each month following until paid. Plaintiff shall execute a confessed judgment promissory note in the customary form to evidence the payment of the amount set forth in this Section. In the event Plaintiff shall sell the marital real property being conveyed to him by Defendant (the "Property") or add another person's name to the deed (except for the minor children of the parties), the remaining balance due hereunder shall be due and payable either at the settlement or at the time another person's name is added to the deed. Refinancing of the property shall not cause the balance of the amount due to the Defendant to be fully due and payable and refinancing is specifically excluded as a default or acceleration event.

7. COUNTER-COMPLAINT. The herein filed Counter-Complaint be and is hereby dismissed.

8. COUNSEL FEES. Each party shall pay his or her own counsel fees.

9. COSTS. The open costs of the proceedings shall be divided between the parties

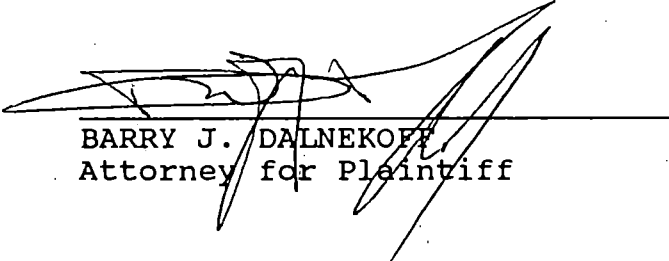

10. FORMER NAME. Defendant shall be permitted to resume the use of her former name, "TRINA MARIE MANUS".

SUBJECT TO THE CONTINUING JURISDICTION OF THIS COURT IN THE PREMISES.

Plaintiff	*	CIRCUIT COURT
v.	*	FOR
JOYCE M. SAUNDERS	*	QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY
Defendant	*	CASE NO.: 92-03747

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings and exhibits of record and the testimony heard and evidence received by the Court on July 14, 1993,

IT IS ORDERED on this 16th day of August, 1993 by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County that:

1. The parties are divorced absolutely on the grounds that they have lived separate and apart, mutually and voluntarily, without cohabitation for a continuous period of more than two (2) years.
2. Subject to the terms of this Judgment, the parties shall have joint legal custody of their minor children, Joy Marie Saunders (DOB: April 29, 1977) and Robert Jonah Saunders (DOB: September 28, 1982). Both parties shall have an equal voice and obligation with respect to long range decisions involving education, training, discipline, medical care, and other matters of major significance concerning the children's lives and welfare. The Plaintiff shall have primary physical custody of the minor child, Robert Jonah Saunders. The Defendant shall have primary physical custody of the minor child, Joy Marie Saunders. Each party shall have reasonable and liberal periods of physical custody with the minor child in the other's primary physical custody. Because (a) the parties are unable to agree on a schedule of physical custody/visitation and (b) a reasonably fixed schedule of physical custody/visitation will be in the best interests of the minor children, the matter of physical custody/visitation is referred to the Queen Anne's County Department of Social Services ("DSS") which shall consult with the parties and the minor children and make reasonable efforts to mediate a schedule of physical custody/visitation that in its judgment fosters a close relationship between the children and between the children and the parent who is not the primary physical custodian. The parties shall equally divide the cost of DSS's involvement. To guide the parties and DSS, any schedule of physical custody/visitation, at a minimum, shall include visitation every month, on alternating major holidays, and at least one (1) month during the summer school vacation.

RECEIVED
CLERK, CIRCUIT COURT

3. The parties shall equally share transportation of the children between the home of the other.

4. The parties shall at all times endeavor not to disclose to the children any differences of opinion regarding custody, support or any other matter involving the other and shall at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other and admonish the children not to do so.

5. During any period when the children are in the physical custody of one of the parties, that party shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding the children's welfare, including discipline and emergency surgery or medical care. However, the parties shall consult with each other, in so far as possible, before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and shall permit each child to speak with the other party privately by telephone.

6. The Defendant is awarded child support from the Plaintiff in the amount of $449.00 per month accounting from October 1, 1993 for the support of Joy Marie Saunders. The Plaintiff is awarded child support from the Defendant in the amount of $221.00 per month accounting from October 1, 1993 for the support of Robert Jonah Saunders. The Plaintiff shall pay the Defendant the net difference between the two support awards ($228.00 per month) for so long as he owes of duty of support for Joy Marie Saunders.

7. If either party accumulates support payment arrearages amounting to more than 30 days of support, he or she shall be subject to earnings withholding. The parties are required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as they have a duty of support.. Failure to comply with the requirements of the foregoing sentence will subject the party failing to so comply to a penalty not to exceed $250 and may result in that party not receiving notice of earnings withholding.

8. The Separation And Property Settlement Agreement executed by the parties on August 16, 1991 is incorporated, but not merged in this Judgment Of Absolute Divorce to the extent said Agreement is consistent with this Judgment.

9. To implement the provisions of Paragraph 9 of the Separation And Property Settlement Agreement, the Court makes the following findings and enters the following orders intending this Paragraph 9 of the Judgment Of Absolute Divorce to be a Qualified

Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") under §414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code:

a. The Defendant's name is Joyce M. Saunders. Her address is 404 Falcon Court, Stevensville, Maryland 21666. She is referred to herein as "Alternate Payee".

b. The Plaintiff's name is Robert A. Saunders. His address is 517 Bayside Drive, Stevensville, Maryland 21666. The Plaintiff is a participant in a tax-sheltered annuity managed or administered by the Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company ("VALIC"). The Plaintiff is referred to herein as "Participant".

c. The Participant's tax-sheltered annuity with VALIC is Account No. 8658420.

d. VALIC or, if applicable, the administrator of the Participant's annuity, upon receipt of a certified copy of this Judgment Of Absolute Divorce, shall distribute to the Alternate Payee the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) which constitutes a portion of the division of "marital property" of the parties as agreed in their Separation And Property Settlement Agreement, incorporated in this Judgment Of Absolute Divorce. Receipt by VALIC or the administrator of said certified copy shall be deemed to fulfill all requirements of the annuity as to notice and request for withdrawal by Participant of amounts standing in his account that are attributable to his contributions to the annuity. Distribution shall be made as soon as administratively possible, but no later than sixty (60) days after the entry of this Judgment Of Absolute Divorce.

e. VALIC or the administrator shall immediately divide Account No. 8658420 into two (2) accounts. One account shall contain Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) and shall be maintained for the benefit of the Alternate Payee. The other account shall contain the remainder of Account No. 8658420 and shall be held for the benefit of the Participant.

f. This QDRO shall be applicable in the event of the death of the Participant before distribution to the Alternate Payee of her interest in the annuity. Pursuant to §414(p)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Alternate Payee shall be treated as the surviving spouse of the Participant to the extent of her interest in the annuity.

g. This Paragraph of the Judgment Of Absolute Divorce is designed to meet the definition of a QDRO under §§206(d)(3)(C) and (D) of the Employee Retirement And Income Security Act of 1974, as amended and §414(p)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

h. The terms and provisions of this QDRO are not to be construed to (i) require a plan to provide any type or form of benefit or any option not otherwise provided for, (ii) require a plan to increase benefits (determined on the basis of actuarial value), (iii) require the payment of benefits to the Alternate Payee which are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order previously determined to be a QDRO.

i. Jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter are expressly reserved for the purpose of amending this QDRO to cause it to meet the definition of a QDRO in the event it is determined by VALIC or the administrator or any court of competent jurisdiction not to meet that definition.

10. Upon the establishment of the VALIC account in the Defendant's name referred to in Paragraph 9 of this Judgment Of Absolute Divorce, the charge upon the real property owned by the Plaintiff created under Paragraph 7 of the Pre-Trial Order entered by the Court on May 6, 1993 shall be fully and automatically released.

11. The parties shall equally divide open court costs.

12. The parties' requests for attorney's fees and litigation expenses are denied.

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

This case having come on for hearing on Friday, August 6, Plaintiff having given testimony, Defendant not being present but represented by counsel, Patrick J. Palmer, Esquire, testimony having been heard and considered, it is hereupon this 16th day of August, 1993, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, Maryland, ORDERED as follows:

1. That the Plaintiff, Debra Sherone Cook, be divorced absolutely from the Defendant, James Michael Cook;
2. That custody of the four minor children of the parties, namely, Tiffany Cook, Isaiah Cook, Teyonka Cook, and Sharhonda Cook, be awarded to the Plaintiff, Debra Sherone Cook;
3. That the Defendant, James Michael Cook, not having specified a desire for visitation, the same is hereby reserved pending further order of this Court;
4. That the Defendant, James Michael Cook, shall pay to the Plaintiff, through the Support Collection Unit of this Court, the sum of Five Hundred and Fifty-Two Dollars ($552.00) per month as child support for the four minor children of the parties. (One Hundred Twenty-Seven Dollars and 38/100 ($127.38) per week) with such support due and payable beginning August 9, 1993;

5. That Plaintiff's prayer for legal fees in the amount of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) is denied;

6. That Plaintiff's request for alimony in the amount of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150.00) per month is denied;

7. That Plaintiff, Debra Sherone Cook, shall have use and possession of the family home located in Grasonville, Maryland, for a period of three years from the date of this Order;

8. That the Plaintiff, Debra Sherone Cook, shall have use and possession of family use personal property including the 1987 Ford Arrowstar for three years from the date of this Order;

9. The Defendant, James Michael Cook, shall be responsible for one-half of the mortgage payments on the marital home for a period of three years from the date of this Order;

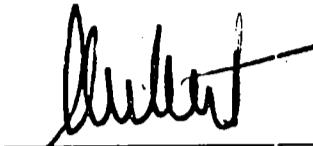

10. That Plaintiff's prayer for an equitable portion of Defendant's pension fund is denied because of the actions of Plaintiff's attorney at the Court hearing;

11. That Defendant, James Michael Cook, is ordered to pay all court costs of this proceeding; and

12. That Plaintiff's prayer for One Thousand Five Hundred Seventy-Six Dollars ($1,576.00) in unpaid child support through July 1993 is denied; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that if the party who owes support is in arrears more than thirty (30) days, he shall be subject to earnings withholding. The obligator is required to notify this Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment, so long as this Support Order is in effect. Failure to notify the Court of a change of address or employment will subject the obligor to a penalty not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) and may result in the obligor not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

DARCY LYNN GARDNER * IN THE Plaintiff * CIRCUIT COURT
 vs. * FOR
 BRUCE WARREN GARDNER, SR. * QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY
 Defendant * CASE NO. 92-03618

* * * * *

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause having come on for hearing this 16th day of September, 1993, and testimony having been heard and considered, it is this 16th day of September, 1993

ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED that the Plaintiff, Darcy Lynn Gardner, is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr.; and it is further ORDERED that custody of the minor children of the parties, Bruce Warren Gardner, Jr., Renee M. Gardner, and Christopher W. Gardner, is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff, Darcy Lynn Gardner; and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant, Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr., shall pay the sum of $128⁰⁰ per week for the support of the minor children of the parties payable through the Queen Anne's County Bureau of Support Enforcement, payment to be due and accounting from the 6th day of September, 1993; and it is further ORDERED, that if the Obligor accumulates support payments arrears amount to more than thirty (30) days of support, the obligor shall be subject to earnings withholding.

The obligor is required to notify the Court within ten

(10) days of any change of address or employment so long as this Order is in effect. Failure to comply with the notice requirement will subject the obligor to a penalty not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00), and may result in the obligor's not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding; and it is further

ORDERED that the Plaintiff is hereby restored to the use of her maiden name of Darcy Lynn Poff; and it is further ORDERED that husband's pension is hereby found to be marital property subject to division as follows:

1. Pursuant to Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code, this qualified domestic relations order (Order) assigns a portion of the benefits in the National Elevator Industry Pension Plan (the Plan) from Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr., to Darcy Lynn Poff (formerly Darcy Lynn Gardner) in recognition of the existence of her marital rights to Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr.'s retirement benefits.

2. Participant in the Plan is Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr., Social Security Number 213-54-8586, whose last known mailing address is 103 College Drive, Queenstown, MD 21658.

3. Alternate Payee is Darcy Lynn Poff, Social Security Number 212-70-3327, whose last known mailing address is Rt. 1, Box 36Q, Centreville, MD 21617.

4. The National Elevator Industry Pension Plan is hereby ORDERED to assign 50% of Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr.'s present accrued benefit to Darcy Lynn Poff. Darcy Lynn Poff shall have the right to begin receiving benefit payments from the Plan on or after the date on which Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr. attains or would have attained the earliest retirement age under the Plan. In determining the benefit, Darcy Lynn Poff shall be entitled to any cost-of-living increases as proportionate share of Bruce Warren Gardner Sr.'s interest in the total benefit. Additionally, Darcy Lynn Poff shall be entitle to a proportionate share of any early retirement subsidy granted to Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr. if Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr. elects to retire prior to the normal retirement age.

In the event that Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr. dies before Darcy Lynn Poff, Darcy Lynn Poff will be entitled to a joint and survivor annuity based on the accrued joint and survivor annuity on the date of divorce in proportion to the accrued joint and survivor benefit on the date of death.

If Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr. dies before any retirement benefits are paid from the Plan, Darcy Lynn Poff shall receive a preretirement survivor annuity based on the percentage of the accrued preretirement survivor benefit on the date of divorce in proportion to the accrued preretirement survivor benefit on the date of death.

5. This qualified domestic relations order is not intended to require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefits or any option not otherwise provided by the Plan, nor shall this Order require the Plan to provide for increased benefits not required by the Plan. This Order does not require the Plan to provide benefits to Darcy Lynn Poff that are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order previously determined to be a qualified domestic relations order.

6. All benefits payable under the Plan other than those payable to Darcy Lynn Poff shall be payable to Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr. in such manner and form as he may elect in his sole and undivided discretion, subject only to Plan requirements.

7. Darcy Lynn Poff is ORDERED to report any retirement payments received on any and all appropriate income tax returns. The National Elevator Industry Pension Plan is authorized to issue any and all appropriate Internal Revenue forms or reports to the Internal Revenue Service for any direct payments made to Darcy Lynn Poff.

8. While it is anticipated that the National Elevator Industry Pension Plan will pay directly to Darcy Lynn Poff the benefit awarded to her, Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr. is designated a constructive trustee to the extent he receives any retirement benefits under the Plan that are due to Darcy Lynn Poff but paid to Bruce Warren Gardner, Sr. and is ORDERED AND DECREED to pay the benefit defined above directly to Darcy Lynn Poff within three days after receipt by him.

ORDERED that the agreement of the parties with respect to all other marital property is hereby approved and incorporated into this Judgment; and it is further ORDERED that the Defendant shall pay the sum of $900⁰⁰ as contribution toward Plaintiff's reasonable counsel fees;

and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall pay the costs of this proceeding.

SEPARATION AND PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made this 1st day of December, 1989, by and between TIMOTHY BRIAN KEARNS of the District of Columbia (hereinafter referred to as the Husband) and MARY LYNN SEYBERT of the District of Columbia (hereinafter referred to as the Wife).

R E C I T A L S:

- A. The parties were lawfully married to each other on July 11, 1987 in Bethesda, Maryland.
- B. No children have been born to the parties or been adopted by them.
- C. The parties mutually and voluntarily agreed to and did in fact separate on or about April 15, 1989 and have continued to live separate and apart from each other in all other respects to the present and agree to continue to do so.
- D. The parties desire in this Agreement to fully, finally and completely determine and settle all rights and obligations between them arising out of their marriage or otherwise and to have this Agreement replace and supercede any and all previous Agreements between the parties.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and of the mutual promises herein made and exchanged and of the acts to be performed, the parties do hereby enter into the following:

A G R E E M E N T

1.0 SEPARATION

1.1 The parties may and shall at all times hereafter live separate and apart from each other. Each party may live at such place or places as he or she may, from time to time, choose or deem fit.

1.2 Except as otherwise provided herein, each party shall be free from interference, authority or control, directly or indirectly, by the other, as fully as if she or he were single and unmarried. Neither shall endeavor to compel the other to cohabit or dwell with him or her or in any manner whatsoever molest or trouble the other party.

2.0 SUPPORT

2.1 The Wife agrees to and hereby does release the Husband from all obligations for maintenance, alimony or support of the Wife both now and in the future and hereby does relinquish and waive any and all rights or claims to earnings, accumulations, money or property of the Husband both now and in the future.

2.2 The Husband agrees to and hereby does release the Wife from all obligation for maintenance, alimony or support of the Husband both now and in the future and hereby does relinquish and waive any and all rights or claims to earnings, accumulations, money or property of the Wife both now and in the future.

2.3 The parties understand and expressly agree that the provisions relating to alimony and spousal support contained in section 2.0 of this Agreement shall not be modifiable by either party as a result of any change in the circumstance of either party, financial or otherwise, or for any other reason and that neither shall seek to modify same, and that said provisions shall not be modifiable by any court.

3.0 PROPERTY

3.1 Real Property. The parties do not own or have any interest in any real property, either in their joint or sole names.

3.2 Automobiles. The Wife agrees that the Husband shall continue to be the sole owner of the 1982 Toyota automobile which is presently titled in the Husband's name and is fully paid for and the Wife hereby waives and relinquishes any and all rights, claims, title and interest she may have in said automobile.

3.3 Bank Accounts, Stockbrokerage Accounts, Certificates of Deposit And The Like. Each party shall become the sole owner of all bank accounts, stockbrokerage accounts, certificates of deposit and other similar accounts and investments at financial institutions which are currently titled in that party's sole name and each party waives and relinquishes any and all right claim or interest she or he may have in all such accounts and investments titled in the other party's sole name.

3.4 Tangible Personal Property. Each party shall become the sole owner of all tangible personal property in his or her possession and each party waives and relinquishes any and all right claim or interest she or he may have in all such tangible personal property now in the possession or control of the other party.

4.0 DEBTS

4.1 Each party shall be responsible for any debt he or she has incurred and agrees to indemnify and hold the other party harmless in all respects from same. Henceforth, neither party shall incur any debt or obligation in the name of the other party and each party agrees to indemnify and hold the other party harmless as to any debts or liabilities which are not the responsibility of the other party pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph.

5.0 ATTORNEYS' FEES

5.1 Each party shall be solely responsible for his or her own counsel fees and costs incurred in this matter and shall be responsible for his or her own legal fees or costs in connection with any divorce proceedings subsequently instituted by either party.

6.0 MUTUAL RELEASES

6.1 Except as otherwise provided herein, each party hereby releases and forever discharges the other, his or her heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, and property and estate from any and all rights, claims, demands, or obligations arising out of or by virtue of the marital relation of the parties including dower rights, curtesy, homestead rights, right of election regarding the estate of the other, or to take against the will of the other, right of inheritance on distribution in the event of intestacy, right to act as executor or administrator of the estate of the other, right to maintenance, alimony, or support from the other party, and all other similar or related rights under the laws of any state or territory of the United States or of any foreign country, as such laws exist or may hereafter be enacted or amended. Nothing herein, however, shall constitute a waiver of either party of the right to take a voluntary bequest or bequests under the Will of the other.

6.2 Each party does hereby release and discharge the other of and from all causes of action, claims, rights, or demands whatsoever, in law or in equity, which either of the parties had or now has against the other, except for any and all causes of action for divorce.

7.0 MISCELLANEOUS

7.1 Any waiver of breach or default under this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. If either party fails in the due performance of any of his or her obligations hereunder, the aggrieved party shall have the right to sue for damages for the breach thereof, or to seek such other legal remedies as may be available to him or her and nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrict or impair either party's right to exercise this election. The breaching or defaulting party shall be responsible for all reasonably legal fees and costs incurred by the other party in securing compliance with this Agreement, damages for its breach, or otherwise incurred by reason of the defaulting party's breach or failure to perform any of his or her obligations hereunder.

7.2 Each party shall at any time or times as required, make, execute, and deliver any and all further assurances, releases, and contracts, documents and instruments that may be requisite and necessary to carry into effect the covenants, conditions, and provisions herein contained. If either party shall fail to comply with the provisions of this Paragraph, this Agreement shall constitute an actual grant, assignment and conveyance of property and rights in such manner and with such force and effect as shall be necessary to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

7.3 Except for obligations that are specifically contingent upon the party's survival and as otherwise provided for herein, all covenants, stipulations, promises, agreements, and provisions of this Agreement shall apply to, bind, and be obligatory upon the parties hereto, their heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors, and assigns, or any of them whether so expressed or not.

7.4 Each party hereby represents and warrants to the other party that a full, complete, and accurate disclosure has been made by him or her as to the identity of all assets in his or her name or the joint names of the parties and of the earnings of him or her, both past and current. Each party acknowledges that he or she has received such information as that party has requested concerning assets and further acknowledges that in entering into this Agreement he or she has not relied on any representations made by or opinions expressed by the other party as to the value or worth of any of the assets but has made his or her own judgments in that regard.

7.5 The parties have incorporated in this Agreement their entire understanding. No oral statement or prior matter extrinsic to this Agreement has any force or effect. The parties are not relying upon, and specifically herein repudiate, any representations other than those expressly set forth herein and shall not be bound by any representations, warranties, promises, covenants, or understandings other than those expressly set forth herein. All prior agreements between the parties, whether written or oral, are hereby revoked and held for naught and the parties agree that this agreement shall replace and supercede any and all previous agreements between the parties.

7.6 In the event that either party hereto shall institute proceedings to obtain a temporary, interlocutory or final judgment, order or decree of divorce, one from the other, in any state, district, country or jurisdiction, this Agreement shall be submitted to the court for its approval, ratification and incorporation in the decree by the court, provided said court is not in a jurisdiction where incorporation will result in merger of the Agreement in the decree. In any event, the parties expressly agree that they each may enforce the terms of this Agreement independent of any such subsequently entered divorce decree and that this Agreement shall be independent of and not be affected by any such decree or judgment of divorce.

7.7 The parties hereby declare and acknowledge that each fully understands everything set forth in this Agreement; that each has sought and obtained independent legal advice from counsel of his or her own selection to the extent that he or she deemed necessary; the each understands the legal liabilities and rights hereto; that each believes the Agreement to be fair, just and reasonable; and that each party has signed this Agreement freely and voluntarily.

7.8 This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the District of Columbia.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings of record, the testimony heard by the Court, ~~the stay of proceedings entered on July 15, 1993 by Judge Battle R. Robinson of the Family Court of State of Delaware for Sussex County in custody proceedings in that Court between the parties (Case No. CS93-3676) in light of the prior pendency of this matter,~~ and agreements placed on the record by counsel on October 19, 1993, this appearing to be an uncontested matter for divorce,

IT IS ORDERED on this 17th day of ~~December~~^{January}, 1994 by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County as follows:

1. The parties are divorced absolutely on the grounds that they have lived separate and apart, continuously and uninterruptedly, for a period in excess of two years.

2. The Plaintiff shall have the sole legal care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, JOSHUA PAUL BONSALE, through March 1, 1994. Thereafter, the parties shall have the joint legal care, custody, and control of the minor child without the need for further orders of this Court and each shall have an equal voice and obligation with respect to long range decisions involving education, training, discipline, medical care and other matters of major significance affecting the child's life and welfare, though the Plaintiff shall remain the primary physical custodian of the minor child. Prior to and after March 1, 1994, the parties shall cooperate and communicate regarding major decisions affecting the health, safety, welfare, and education of the minor child. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Plaintiff shall advise the Defendant and consult with him regarding any serious and non-routine medical or psychological treatment proposed for the minor child, except such treatment required on an emergency basis. The Plaintiff shall also cooperate with the Defendant full access to the minor child's academic, athletic, and extracurricular activities, including the full authority and right to discuss the minor child's performance at school with the child's teachers and counsellors. The parties shall provide each other with their current addresses and a working telephone number so they may contact the minor child, at reasonable times and frequencies, when he is in the physical custody of the other.

3. The Defendant shall have the right and privilege to have the minor child in his physical custody, at a minimum, as follows:

a. On alternate weekends from Friday evening to Sunday at 6:00 p.m. between October 22, 1993 and December 31, 1993, the Defendant shall have the minor child in his physical custody at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Todd, 21 Freeport Road, Stratford, New Castle, Delaware 19720. The Defendant shall provide transportation to and from the Plaintiff's residence during this period of time.

b. On alternate weekends from Friday evening to Sunday at 6:00 p.m. beginning on January 1, 1994, the Defendant shall have the minor child in his physical custody without the necessity of remaining at his parents' home in Delaware. Beginning January 1, 1994, the parties shall meet at the Plaintiff's mother's home in Sudlersville, Maryland to exchange the minor child.

c. On alternating major holidays (defined to mean: Christmas Eve until noon on Christmas day, Christmas Day from noon, and from 6:00 p.m. on the day preceding Thanksgiving, New Year's Day, Easter, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, and the child's birthday to 8:00 p.m. of the day of such holidays) beginning with the following schedule for 1993-94: Thanksgiving with the Plaintiff, Christmas Eve through noon on Christmas Day with the Defendant, Christmas Day from noon with the Plaintiff, New Year's Day with the Defendant, the child's birthday with the Plaintiff, Easter with the Defendant, etc.) The parties shall meet at the Plaintiff's mother's home in Sudlersville, Maryland to exchange the minor child on such holidays. The child shall be with the Plaintiff on each Mother's Day and with the Defendant on each Father's Day.

d. At least three weeks each summer to coincide as nearly as possible with the Defendant's work vacation. The parties shall discuss and agree upon a schedule for the summer before June 1st of each year.

The schedule of physical custody set forth above is intended as a minimum. The parties are encouraged to arrange for such additional periods of contact between the Defendant and the minor child as are reasonable and as the parties can agree.

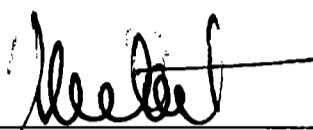

4. The Defendant shall pay directly to the Plaintiff as child support the sum of $65.00 per week accounting from Friday, October 22, 1993. The parties shall equally divide all uncovered medical expenses attributable to the child, patent medicines ordinarily maintained in a medicine cabinet excluded. In the event group health, dental or major medical insurance is provided through either party's place of employment, that party shall cause the child to be a covered individual under such group plan and maintain such coverage as long as the party ^{and} or child remain eligible.

5. If the Defendant accumulates support payment arrearages amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, he shall be subject to earnings withholding. The Defendant is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as he continues to have a duty of support. Failure to comply with the requirements of the foregoing sentence will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed $250 and may result in the Defendant not receiving notice of earnings withholding.

6. The parties shall equally divide open court costs.

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE

This cause standing ready for hearing and being duly submitted, the proceedings were by the Court read and considered.

The Court finds grounds for an absolute divorce; and that the presumed amount of child support under the child support guidelines is $265.98 per month; and that the parties have agreed to a greater amount; and that the agreement is acceptable in that it promotes good will between the parties and is in the best interests of the child.

IT IS THEREUPON this 17 day of February, 1994, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, and by the authority thereof, ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED that the above Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff, David M. Clark, Jr., be and he is hereby awarded an Absolute Divorce from the above Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant, H. Annette Price-Clark; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED that the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement between the parties dated January 12, 1993 filed in these proceedings is hereby approved and by reference made a part of and incorporated in this Judgement to the extent of the jurisdiction of the Court, but not merged herein, as if fully set forth herein and the parties shall abide by and perform in accordance with its terms; and

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED that if the Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff, David M. Clark, Jr., is in arrears in the payment of monies for the support and maintenance of the minor child more than thirty (30) days, he shall be subject to earnings withholding as provided for in Md. Code, Family Law, Title 10, Sec. 10-101 et seq., and

The pleadings in this matter having been heard and considered, it is this 14th day of March, 1994,

ORDERED, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, as follows:

1. Francis D. Burkhardt is granted an absolute divorce from Rita E. Burkhardt based upon the grounds of voluntary separation.
2. The Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement between the parties dated October 7, 1992, is hereby approved and made part of and incorporated, but not merged, in this Judgment, having the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and the parties are directed to be bound thereby.
3. Pursuant to Paragraph 4.1 of the Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement, the Court finds Plaintiffs interest in the Industrial Paper Company 401K Pension Plan is marital property. The parties have agreed the value of that interest is $36,274.64. Rita E. Burkhardt, Defendant, is granted a monetary award in the amount of $18,137.32 and a qualified domestic relations order is entered simultaneously hereto which transfers to Defendant an interest in Plaintiff's pension plan in that amount.

QUALIFIED DOMESTIC RELATIONS ORDER

WHEREAS, Rita E. Burkhardt, Defendant in the above-captioned proceeding, has a present right to receive retirement benefits earned by her during the parties' marriage; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have agreed that the aforementioned benefits constitute marital property and have agreed to a division of those benefits in a Marital Property Settlement Agreement dated October 7, 1992, which is incorporated into the decree of divorce dated March 14, 1994.

NOW THEREFORE, it is this 14th day of March, 1994;

ORDERED, that in accordance with the provisions of Sections 401 (a) (13) and 414 (p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, Sections 306 (d) (1), (2), shall receive payments from retirement plan as follows:

1. Identification of Participant and Alternate Payee.

The Participant is Francis D. Burkhardt whose current address is 356 Wicomico Road, Stevensville, Maryland 21666. Participant is a citizen of the United States, was born on October 5, 1955, and his Social Security Number is 212-46-3135. The Alternate Payee is Rita E. Burkhardt, 643 Deering Road, Pasadena, Maryland 21122. The Alternate Payee is a citizen of the United States, was born on April 12, 1941 and her Social Security Number is 214-38-2922. The Alternate Payee and the Participant were married on January 22, 1966.

2. Plan Identification.

(a) Francis D. Burkhardt is a participant in the following retirement plan (hereinafter "The Plan"):

Industrial Paper Company 401K Pension Plan
c/o Susan Mehiel
2832 Maisel Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21230

(b) By reason of his employment, the Plaintiff is entitled to certain retirement benefits in his Industrial Paper Company 401K Pension Plan as of December 14, 1993, (a recent valuation date) which consisted of vested benefits in the Plaintiff's 401K Account totalling $36, 274.64.

3. Division of Account Balance.

(a) The Plan is hereby ordered to transfer for the Alternate Payee's benefit, fifty percent (50%) of Participant's accounts calculated as of the Plan's most recent valuation date prior to the date of this Order adjusted for pro rata investment experience from such valuation date to the date of segregation. After segregation, Alternate Payee's account shall be her sole account and shall be credited with Plan earnings or losses from the date of segregation until the date of distribution. The remaining balance in Participant's accounts after segregation, together with future investment experience and contributions thereto, shall remain the property of the Participant.

(b) The Plan will pay Alternate Payee's share of accrued benefits in any form permitted by the Plan that is selected by the Alternate Payee.

(c) The Alternate Payee shall continue to be treated as the surviving spouse of Participant's benefit for purposes of the spousal survivor benefit under this Plan until such time as this Order is accepted by the Plan and Alternate Payee's benefit is segregated into Alternate Payee's name by the Plan.

4. Date of Distribution.

Benefits shall be paid to Alternate Payee in the form selected by Alternate Payee at the earlier of (a) the date Participant actually receives his benefits, or (b) the earliest retirement age under IRC Section 414 (p). Additionally, in the event that the Plan is amended to provide an immediate distribution to Alternate Payees, the Plan is directed to make payment to Alternate Payee at that time if distribution of her benefits has not already been made or commenced.

5. Limitations. This Order:

(a) Does not require any Plan to provide any type or form of benefit, or any option, not otherwise provided under the Plan;

(b) Does not require any Plan to provide increased benefits (determined on the basis of actuarial value); and

(c) Does not require the payment of benefits to an Alternate Payee which are required to be paid to another Alternate Payee under another order previously determined to be a Qualified Domestic Relations Order.

6. Continuing Jurisdiction.

The Participant, the Alternate Payee, and this Court, intend this Order to be a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) as defined in Section 414 (p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, and the parties having agreed thereto, this Court retains jurisdiction to make such modification as it determines may be necessary to qualify this Order as a "QDRO" in accordance with applicable law.

7. Applicable Law.

This Order is issued incident to the Decree of Absolute Divorce and pursuant to the authority of Section 8-205 of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland which relates to the adjustment of marital property rights between spouses and Internal Revenue Code Section 414 (p).

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This matter having come before the Court for trial on the merits on November 23, 1993, and the Court having heard and considered all testimony, exhibits and arguments of counsel, it is this 19th day of April, 1994, ORDERED as follows:

A. The parties are hereby granted an ABSOLUTE DIVORCE based upon the grounds of voluntary separation.

B. For the reasons set forth at trial, it has been determined that it is in the best interest of the minor child of the parties that custody of that child shall be shared in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY. The parents shall have joint legal custody of the minor child and shall have equal voice and obligation with respect to long range decisions involving education, religious training, discipline, medical care and other matters of major significance concerning the child's life and welfare.

Filed Apr 19, 1994

2. GENERALLY. Each parent shall at all times endeavor not to disclose to the child any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving the other parent and shall at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other parent and admonish the child not to do so.

3. PHYSICAL CUSTODY.

(a) GENERAL SCHEDULE. Plaintiff, Charles Von Den Bosch, shall have sole physical custody of the minor child at all times except as otherwise ordered herein. Defendant shall have physical custody of the child on alternate weekends commencing at 6:00 P.M. on Fridays and concluding at 6:00 P.M. on Sundays. The transfer of physical custody of the child from Plaintiff to Defendant and from Defendant to Plaintiff shall occur at ^{Carter} ~~the~~ ~~the~~

Childrens Wear at the Kent Narrows Factory outlets on Ant Island, Chester ~~Store located in the Chesapeake Pottery Shopping Center,~~

~~Queenstown~~, Maryland, or at any other business establishment located in that shopping center, as may be agreed by the parties. If Defendant does not appear at the designated location prior to 6:30 P.M. on any given date, Plaintiff shall return to his home with the child and remain there until at least 7:30 P.M. to facilitate transfer of physical custody. If Defendant is unduly delayed, she shall make all reasonable attempts to contact Plaintiff in order to mutually arrange the transfer.

(b) HOLIDAYS. The Parties shall have physical custody of the child for alternate holiday periods. As used in this ORDER, holiday period means January 1, Easter, Memorial Day, the Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, and Christmas Day between 6:00 P.M. on the day preceding the holiday and 8:00 P.M. on the holiday except that (i) on Christmas Eve, the period is from 1:00 P.M. on December 24 until 10:00 A.M. on December 25 and (ii) on Christmas Day, the period is from 10:00 A.M. on December 25 until 8:00 P.M. on December 26. Each parent shall have physical custody of the child on alternate holidays commencing with physical custody by Plaintiff on Thanksgiving of 1993. Each parent shall have a period of physical custody of the child on their respective birthdays and the child's birthday; as Plaintiff shall have custody on Father's Day as Defendant on Mother's Day.

(c) ODD/EVEN-NUMBERED YEARS. In order that a parent will not have physical custody on the same holiday each year, beginning in 1994 and each succeeding even-numbered year the schedule will begin with physical custody by Defendant on January 1 and in 1995 and each succeeding odd-numbered year, it will begin with physical custody by Plaintiff on January 1.

(d) CONFLICTS. Each parent has a right to holiday custody even if the other parent might otherwise have physical custody of the child in accordance with Paragraph B-3(a) hereof. In order to accommodate such conflicts, if a weekend visit referred to in Paragraph B-3(a) would be interrupted by a holiday visit, the weekend visit shall be postponed until the following Friday.

(e) GENERALLY. A holiday visit is not a substitute for any portion of any other period of custody. The alternating schedule is not affected by, and a parent is not entitled to a substitute holiday visit if (i) a holiday occurs during a period when that parent otherwise has physical custody or (ii) the parent is unable or unwilling to have physical custody.

(f) AUTHORITY. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding the child's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining the child, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and (ii) permit the child to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

(g) NOTICE. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the child, including but not limited to:

- (i) the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;
- (ii) the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological or dental advice or treatment;
- (iii) the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which a child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which a child will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

Information regarding a child being out of the State of Maryland shall be given to the other parent at least fourteen (14) days prior to the time when the child leaves Maryland and shall include address(es) and telephone number(s) where the child may be contacted during the period of absence from Maryland. Other information referred to in this paragraph shall be given promptly after it becomes known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

(h) REVISORY POWER. All provisions of this Order are subject to review and/or modification in the best interest of the child.

C. CHILD SUPPORT. In accordance with Md. Fam. Law Code Ann. § 12-202 et seq. it is hereby determined that the child support guidelines require payment of $78.50 per week by the non-custodial parent. Accordingly, it is ORDERED Defendant Valerie Von Den Bosch shall pay unto Charles Von Den Bosch the sum of $78.50 per week as support for their minor child, Vincent Von Den Bosch beginning November 29, 1993. Said payments are to be payable to and distributed by the Queen Anne's County Bureau of Support Enforcement. If Defendant accumulates support arrearages amounting to more than thirty days of support, she shall be subject to earnings withholding. The Defendant is required to notify the Queen Anne's County Bureau of Support Enforcement within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment as long as she owes a duty of support. Failure to comply with the requirements of the foregoing sentence may subject Defendant to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in Defendant not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

D. MARITAL PROPERTY. Pursuant to the Joint Statement of Marital Property filed herein, this Court finds that the 1989 Chevrolet Cavalier, valued at $4,700.00 and titled in Defendant's sole name is marital property. Further, Plaintiff's interest in his pension fund which accrued during the course of the marriage, the present value of which is $3,326.00, is marital property. Based upon the circumstances which led to the estrangement of the parties, the respective present financial position of the parties, and as an adjustment of the equities and rights of the parties concerning marital property, Plaintiff is hereby GRANTED a monetary award in the amount of $687.00 and same is hereby reduced to a judgment against Defendant and in favor of Plaintiff.

E. COSTS. The costs shall be divided evenly between the parties.

F. DEFENDANT'S NAME. Defendant's maiden name, Valerie Giles, shall be restored.

CASE NO. 93-04077

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause standing ready for hearing and duly submitted, the proceedings were, by the Court, read and considered.

It is thereupon this 27th day of July, 1994, by the Circuit Court of Queen Anne's County, ORDERED,

1. That the Parties be and are hereby granted an Absolute Divorce, and it is further
2. The Parties shall have joint legal custody of their minor child, namely, Samantha Kristine (date of birth 5/16/90), in accordance with the terms of this Order. Both parents will have an equal voice and obligation with respect to long range decisions involving education, religious training, discipline, medical care and other matters of major significance concerning the child's life and welfare.
3. Physical custody of the minor child of the parties shall be shared jointly by the parties as follows:
 - a. Plaintiff, Carol Anne Hood, shall have primary physical custody of the minor child.
 - b. Defendant, Damon Scott Hood, shall have physical custody of the minor child for the period beginning July 1 and ending August 15 of this year and each year hereafter, Defendant shall also have physical custody of the minor child in even numbered years beginning with 1994 for seven (7) consecutive days during the Christmas Holiday period which shall include Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. In odd numbered years beginning with 1995, Defendant shall have physical custody of the minor child for seven (7) consecutive days during the Thanksgiving Holiday period. Defendant shall also have physical custody for seven (7) consecutive days during the Easter Holiday period or the child's spring break from school at such time that the child attends school, provided Defendant notifies Plaintiff on or before December 31 each year of the dates during which such Easter Holiday or spring break custody periods with the child will be exercised during the upcoming year. Defendant shall also be entitled to have physical custody of the minor child for any weekends, whether three (3) day or four (4) day weekends, that he is able to exercise provided he gives notice to Plaintiff of such planned weekends at least fourteen (14) days prior to such weekends.

c. The Defendant's mother, Fran Hood, who presently resides in Phoenix, Arizona, shall be entitled to exercise custody and visitation with the minor child at all times during which Defendant has been granted physical custody pursuant to the terms of this Judgment.

d. The Defendant shall also have custody of the minor child on the child's birthday every other year, if Defendant is able to exercise custody for that date or weekend. Plaintiff shall have custody for each Mother's Day while Defendant shall have custody for each Father's Day if Defendant is able to exercise custody for that date or weekend. Custody under this paragraph to be within Maryland. 4p

e. Defendant or Defendant's mother, Fran Hood, shall be responsible for payment of costs to provide transportation of the minor child from Plaintiff's residence to either Defendant's residence or to the residence of Defendant's mother, Fran Hood, in Phoenix, Arizona, for all periods of physical custody which are exercised by Defendant or Defendant's mother. Defendant may deduct one-half (1/2) of the costs of such transportation for the minor child, if not by motor vehicle, from his child support payments to Plaintiff provided he can present a written receipt to Plaintiff evidencing his payment of such costs and provided that such deduction shall not be made with respect to the period of custody in July and August.

4. Any change of circumstances pertaining to the residence or living conditions of the minor child will entitle either Party to seek a modification of the custody provisions of this Judgment.

5. The provisions of Paragraph 3 are intended to reflect only minimum objectives and minimum rights with respect to custody and visitation to be observed in the absence of agreement between the parents. The parents are authorized and encouraged, by mutual agreement, to supplement or vary those provisions in order to permit contacts between the child and each parent as frequently as possible and as may be necessary or desirable to accommodate (among other things) the schedules of all involved and especially the activities of the child, such as school plays, sporting events, 4-H projects, family gatherings and the like, which a weekend or other scheduled period of custody would restrict or prohibit.

6. Each parent will at all times endeavor not to disclose to the child any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving any parent and will at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of a parent and admonish the child not to do so.

7. During any period when a child resides with a parent, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding the child's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining the child, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and (ii) permit the child to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

8. A. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the child, including but not limited to:

(i) the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

(ii) the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological, or dental advice or treatment;

(iii) the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which a child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which a child will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

B. Such information shall be given promptly after it become known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

9. a. Pursuant to the attached Child Support Guidelines Worksheet "A" (Sole Custody) Plaintiff shall pay the sum of $410.00 per month directly to the Defendant for the support and maintenance of the minor child. Plaintiff shall pay said amount for the minor child in accordance with the aforesaid Child Support Guidelines and with any additions or Amendments thereto, or pursuant to any Order of Court which may be issued.

herein, until the minor child reaches the age of 18, dies or becomes emancipated.

b. Defendant shall not be required to pay child Support to Plaintiff for the ^{month of July} ~~period beginning July 1 and ending August 15~~ of this year and each year hereafter provided Defendant exercises physical custody of the minor child for that period of each year.

c. Defendant, Damon Scott Hood shall arrange to have said child support paid directly from his employer by allotment or otherwise. If Defendant fails to make such arrangement, or after doing so, discontinues said arrangement, then ten (10) days thereafter the court shall authorize the service of an earnings withholding order pursuant to Md. Ann. Code FL 10-120 through 10-136, and any additions or amendments thereto.

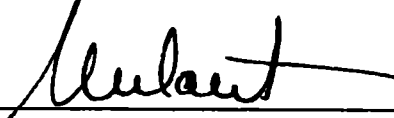

d. If Defendant, Damon Scott Hood, accumulates support arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, he shall be subject to earnings withholding.

e. Defendant, Damon Scott Hood, shall notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the support order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholdings.

f. Defendant, Damon Scott Hood, shall maintain medical insurance coverage through his employer, ~~the U.S. Navy~~, as long as such coverage is available, on the minor child and shall inform Plaintiff regarding any medical insurance cards or verification forms which may be issued by the insurance provider and which Plaintiff may need on behalf of the minor child.

10. Each parent is hereby ordered to keep the other parent informed at all times of their respective addresses and telephone numbers (both for residence and place of employment) and to immediately provide the other parent with written notice of any change in their respective addresses and telephone numbers (both residence and place of employment). Each parent shall also provide to the other parent the name, address, and telephone number of any day-care provider or relative each parent may utilize to care for the child while in that parent's physical custody.

11. All outstanding Court costs shall be paid for equally by the Parties.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

The matter came before the court for trial on July 12, 1994. Both parties were present; and plaintiff was represented by counsel. Following reception and consideration of testimony received from both parties and a corroborating witness called by plaintiff, it is ORDERED that:

1. The parties are divorced absolutely.
2. This judgment does not affect the Order entered in this action on April 15, 1993 (hereafter, "the 1993 Order), relating to custody, visitation, child support, use and possession, etc., except that (a) the provisions of the 1993 Order relating to counseling, having been abandoned by the parties, are rescinded and (b) as used in the 1993 Order, "reasonable visitation" shall be construed to include the requirement that any visitation by Susan Lynn Kirby will be preceded by at least one week's prior notice to William Mark Kirby as to place, time and duration.
3. The Clerk will enter judgment in favor of William Mark Kirby and against Susan Lynn Kirby in the amount of $4,767.64, representing unpaid child support for the period from April 15, 1993, to and including the payment due May 15, 1994.
4. A lien is hereby imposed upon Susan Lynn Kirby's interest in the real property formerly owned by the parties as tenants by the entirety and known as 45 Greenwood Shoals, Grasonville, Maryland (hereafter "the family home") with respect to (a) the judgment to be entered in accordance with paragraph 3; (b) all child support which accrues on and

This cause standing ready for hearing and duly submitted, the proceedings were, by the Court, read and considered.

It is thereupon this 15th day of July, 1994, by the Circuit Court of Queen Anne's County, ^{name for time to June 27, 1994,} ORDERED,

1. That the Parties be and are hereby granted an Absolute Divorce, and it is further

2. The Parties shall have joint legal custody of their minor child, namely, Samantha Kristine (date of birth 5/16/90), in accordance with the terms of this Order. Both parents will have an equal voice and obligation with respect to long range decisions involving education, religious training, discipline, medical care and other matters of major significance concerning the child's life and welfare.

3. Physical custody of the minor child of the parties shall be shared jointly by the parties as follows:

a. Plaintiff, Carol Anne Hood, shall have primary physical custody of the minor child.

b. Defendant, Damon Scott Hood, shall have physical custody of the minor child for the period beginning July 1 and ending August 15 of this year and each year hereafter. Defendant shall also have physical custody of the minor child in even numbered years beginning with 1994 for seven (7) consecutive days during the Christmas Holiday period which shall include Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. In odd numbered years beginning with 1995, Defendant shall have physical custody of the minor child for seven (7) consecutive days during the Thanksgiving Holiday period. Defendant shall also have physical custody for seven (7) consecutive days during the Easter Holiday period or the child's spring break from school at such time that the child attends school, provided Defendant notifies Plaintiff on or before December 31 each year of the dates during which such Easter Holiday or spring break custody periods with the child will be exercised during the upcoming year. Defendant shall also be entitled to have physical custody of the minor child for any weekends, whether three (3) day or four (4) day weekends, that he is able to exercise provided he gives notice to Plaintiff of such planned weekends at least fourteen (14) days prior to such weekends.

c. The Defendant's mother, Fran Hood, who presently resides in Phoenix, Arizona, shall be entitled to exercise custody and visitation with the minor child at all times during which Defendant has been granted physical custody pursuant to the terms of this Judgment.

d. The Defendant shall also have custody of the minor child on the child's birthday every other year, if Defendant is able to exercise custody for that date or weekend. Plaintiff shall have custody for each Mother's Day while Defendant shall have custody for each Father's Day if Defendant is able to exercise custody for that date or weekend. Custody under this paragraph to be within Maryland.

e. Defendant or Defendant's mother, Fran Hood, shall be responsible for payment of costs to provide transportation of the minor child from Plaintiff's residence to either Defendant's residence or to the residence of Defendant's mother, Fran Hood, in Phoenix, Arizona, for all periods of physical custody which are exercised by Defendant or Defendant's mother. Defendant may deduct one-half (1/2) of the costs of such transportation for the minor child, if not by motor vehicle, from his child support payments to Plaintiff provided he can present a written receipt to Plaintiff evidencing his payment of such costs, and provided that such deduction shall not be made with respect to the period of custody in July and August.

4. Any change of circumstances pertaining to the residence or living conditions of the minor child will entitle either Party to seek a modification of the custody provisions of this Judgment.

5. The provisions of Paragraph 3 are intended to reflect only minimum objectives and minimum rights with respect to custody and visitation to be observed in the absence of agreement between the parents. The parents are authorized and encouraged, by mutual agreement, to supplement or vary those provisions in order to permit contacts between the child and each parent as frequently as possible and as may be necessary or desirable to accommodate (among other things) the schedules of all involved and especially the activities of the child, such as school plays, sporting events, 4-H projects, family gatherings and the like, which a weekend or other scheduled period of custody would restrict or prohibit.

6. Each parent will at all times endeavor not to disclose to the child any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving any parent and will at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of a parent and admonish the child not to do so.

7. During any period when a child resides with a parent, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding the child's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining the child, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and (ii) permit the child to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

8. A. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the child, including but not limited to:

(i) the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

(ii) the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological, or dental advice or treatment;

(iii) the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which a child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which a child will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

B. Such information shall be given promptly after it become known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

9. a. Pursuant to the attached Child Support Guidelines Worksheet "A" (Sole Custody) Defendant shall pay the sum of $410.00 per month directly to the Plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the minor child. Defendant shall pay said amount for the minor child in accordance with the aforesaid Child Support Guidelines and with any additions or Amendments thereto, or pursuant to any Order of Court which may be issued herein, until the minor child reaches the age of 18, dies or becomes emancipated.

b. Defendant shall not be required to pay child Support to Plaintiff for the month of July of this year and each year hereafter provided Defendant exercises physical custody of the minor child for that period of each year.

c. Defendant, Damon Scott Hood shall arrange to have said child support paid directly from his employer by allotment or otherwise. If Defendant fails to make such arrangement, or after doing so, discontinues said arrangement, then ten (10) days thereafter the court shall authorize the service of an earnings withholding order pursuant to Md. Ann. Code FL 10-120 through 10-136, and any additions or amendments thereto.

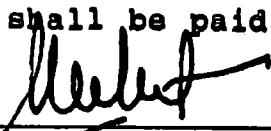

d. If Defendant, Damon Scott Hood, accumulates support arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, he shall be subject to earnings withholding.

e. Defendant, Damon Scott Hood, shall notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the support order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholdings.

f. Defendant, Damon Scott Hood, shall maintain medical insurance coverage through his employer, as long as such coverage is available, on the minor child and shall inform Plaintiff regarding any medical insurance cards or verification forms which may be issued by the insurance provider and which Plaintiff may need on behalf of the minor child.

10. Each parent is hereby ordered to keep the other parent informed at all times of their respective addresses and telephone numbers (both for residence and place of employment) and to immediately provide the other parent with written notice of any change in their respective addresses and telephone numbers (both residence and place of employment). Each parent shall also provide to the other parent the name, address, and telephone number of any day-care provider or relative each parent may utilize to care for the child while in that parent's physical custody.

11. All outstanding Court costs shall be paid for equally by the Parties.

ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall have primary physical custody of the two minor children, and it is further ORDERED that the Defendant shall have liberal visitation with the two minor children, which visitation shall be not less than:

1. Every week from Tuesday at 3:00 p.m. until Thursday at 10:00 a.m. provided that once each month Defendant may notify the Plaintiff that he wants to switch the weekday visitation to a weekend visitation (Friday from 5:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m.) and the parties will make the switch if no special event is planned for the minor children.

2. Alternate holidays, with each holiday to alternate from year to year.

3. Alternate birthdays of each child, with each child's birthday to alternate year to year.

4. Father's Day and Defendant's birthday.

5. Alternating portions of Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, with the first portion to be Christmas Eve until Christmas Day at noon, and the second portion to be Christmas Day at noon until December 26 at noon, with each period to alternate year to year.

6. Five weeks (not necessarily consecutive) during the summer to be agreed upon; provided that if the parties mutually agree, one or more weeks during the rest of the year can be substituted for one or more weeks during the summer, and it is further ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall have the children with her on Mother's Day, her birthday, and for five weeks (not necessarily consecutive) during the summer to be agreed upon without any weekday or weekend visitation by the Defendant, and it is further

ORDERED that the parties shall be flexible in scheduling all changes in visitation, shall notify each other of any required changes in visitation, and shall consider the children's best interests when considering any requested changes to visitation or attendance at special events, and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month as child support, with the first payment due on and accounting from January 1, 1994, and it is further

ORDERED that based upon the Child Support Guideline worksheet attached hereto showing the Defendant's child support obligation to be Four Hundred Ninety-Eight Dollars ($498.00) per month, the Court finds that it is in the best interests of the children that Defendant pay the agreed upon amount of child support in the amount of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month, and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall maintain his existing medical insurance coverage on the Plaintiff until the entry of this Judgment of Absolute Divorce, and it is further

ORDERED that the Plaintiff may remain on Defendant's medical insurance coverage after the entry of this Judgment of Absolute Divorce, provided that she pays the cost of her insurance coverage, and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall maintain medical insurance coverage on the minor children for so long as they are eligible for coverage, and it is further

ORDERED that if the Plaintiff's employment offers medical insurance on the children as part of her employee benefits, Plaintiff shall with the agreement of the Defendant add the children to the insurance coverage and each party shall pay one-half the insurance premiums actually incurred by the Plaintiff for the children's coverage, and it is further

ORDERED that each party shall pay fifty percent of all reasonable medical and dental expenses which are not covered by insurance, and it is further

ORDERED that Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff the sum of $326.50 as his one-half share of uninsured medical expenses which were incurred for the parties children prior to January 28, 1994, and it is further

ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall be entitled to claim Brett and Defendant shall be entitled to claim Britta as dependents on their federal and state income tax returns, and it is further

ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall have the use and possession of the family home at 302 Windward Cove, Grasonville, Maryland, and it is further ORDERED that during Plaintiff's use and occupancy of the family home, each party shall pay the following:

1. One-half the mortgage (principal, interest, taxes and insurance) with defendant to deliver his check payable to the mortgagee to Plaintiff by the 5th of each month.

2. One-half of normal maintenance expenses, after each party consults with the other party.

3. One-half of all extraordinary necessary home expenses over $100.00 after consultation between the parties, and it is further

ORDERED that each party shall deduct on his or her income tax returns the one-half share of interest and taxes actually paid by that party, and it is further

ORDERED that the family home shall be listed for sale on February 1, 1995 with the parties to fully cooperate in choosing a realtor, listing the property, and making the sale, and it is further

ORDERED that if the parties are unable to agree on the sale price of the family home, an independent appraiser shall be jointly employed by the parties, and the parties shall sell the family home for 95 percent of the appraised value and to lower the price as recommended by their realtor, and it is further

ORDERED that if the family home is not sold by August 1, 1995, upon request of either party, a trustee shall be appointed to sell the family home for the best price obtainable, and it is further

ORDERED that the net proceeds from the sale of the family home shall be divided as follows:

1. The first $21,500 of the net proceeds shall be paid to the Plaintiff in reimbursement of her claimed nonmarital contributions.

2. The remaining proceeds shall be equally divided between the parties, and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall sell the 1987 Mercedes titled in his name for a reasonable price to be determined by him, and the net proceeds shall be divided equally between the parties, and it is further

ORDERED that until the Defendant sells the Mercedes and pays Plaintiff's share of the proceeds to the Plaintiff, Plaintiff shall have the use and possession of the Mercedes or of any other vehicle which Defendant may choose to provide to Plaintiff, and it is further

ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall have the use and possession of the furniture and furnishings located at the family home, and it is further

ORDERED that upon the sale of the family home, the parties shall attempt to agree upon a division of all jointly owned furniture and furnishings, and, if the parties are unable to agree on such a division, they shall retain the services of the American Arbitration Association (with each party to pay one-half of the cost of the arbitration) with the arbitrator to decide upon an equal division of all such jointly owned furniture and furnishings, and it is further

ORDERED that Plaintiff shall transfer all of her stock in C & C Charters, Inc. to Defendant in consideration of the following:

1. The payment by Defendant to Plaintiff of $7,500 at the time of the sale and settlement of the family home.

2. Immediate transfer by Defendant to the Plaintiff of his entire Individual Retirement Account at Queenstown Bank, which retirement account has a present balance of approximately $7,229.55 (as of 6/15/93), and it is further

ORDERED that the transfer of the Defendant's Individual Retirement Account to the Plaintiff is a tax free transfer of an individual retirement account between divorcing spouses pursuant to a written Settlement Agreement, and it is further

ORDERED that as part of the transfer of the Plaintiff's stock in C & C Charters, Inc., the Defendant shall indemnify and hold Plaintiff harmless from any loss, liability, claims or expenses arising out of any obligations, loans, claims or expenses related to that business, and it is further

ORDERED that the Defendant shall re-establish the bank account of the parties' son, Brett, within three months of January 28, 1994 by depositing the sum of $1,400 under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, with Defendant as custodian, and it is further

ORDERED that the parties shall file joint federal and state income tax returns for 1993, with each party to receive one-half of any refund paid and to pay one-half of any tax due, and it is further

ORDERED that each party shall pay his or her own attorney's fees and litigation expenses without any contribution from the other party, and it is further

ORDERED that this Court retains jurisdiction over all matters related to custody, visitation and support of the parties' minor children, and it is further

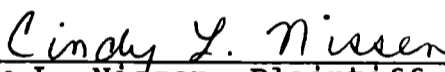

ORDERED (a) that this constitutes an immediate and continuing withholding Order on all earnings of the obligor (Defendant) on or after the date of the Order and that the withholding Order be served immediately on the obligor's employer and (b) that the obligor is requested to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the Support Order is in effect and (c) that failure to comply with paragraph (b) of this subsection (Family Law Article Section 10-120) will subject the obligor to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in the obligor's not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding, and it is further ORDERED that the Defendant shall pay the open and unpaid costs of this proceeding.

IT IS ORDERED on this 20th day of July, 1994, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County as follows:

1. That the said Terry L. Eury, Plaintiff, be, and she is hereby granted an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, Douglas Alan Eury;
2. That the Plaintiff be, and she is hereby granted, the custody of the minor child of the parties, Amber Lynn Eury, born November 16, 1982, subject to reasonable rights of visitation of the aforesaid minor child of the parties with the Defendant, Douglas Alan Eury;
3. That the Defendant, Douglas Alan Eury, shall pay unto the Plaintiff, through the Queen Anne's County Bureau of Support Enforcement, the sum of $100.85 per week for support of the minor child. Said child support payments shall continue until the child reaches the age of majority, marries, becomes self-supporting, or upon the death of said child or Plaintiff.
4. That the Order shall constitute a continuing wage withholding order on all earnings of the Defendant, Douglas Alan Eury, beginning August 1, 1994. The Defendant is required to notify the Bureau of Support Enforcement of any change in address or employment as long as he continues to have a duty of support. The failure to comply with such notification requirement will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholdings.

5. That the Defendant, Douglas Alan Eury, shall assume sole responsibility for and make all payments in connection with two joint credit accounts of the parties, those being Montgomery Ward, Account #252639233 and Maryland National Bank, Account #5329015785187478; Defendant further agrees to hold Plaintiff, Terry L. Eury, harmless with respect to any liability pertaining to the above two credit accounts.

6. That the Plaintiff, Terry L. Eury, shall assume sole responsibility for and make all payments in connection with the joint credit account of the parties, Discover Card, Account #6011003728510361; Plaintiff further agrees to hold Defendant, Douglas Alan Eury, harmless with respect to any liability pertaining to the above credit account.

7. That the Defendant, Douglas Alan Eury, shall receive the sum of $7,124.07 from the sale of the parties' property known as 408 Elm Street, Stevensville, Maryland; those monies are currently held in escrow account of Upper Shore Title Company, Inc.

8. That the Plaintiff, Terry L. Eury, shall receive the sum of $11,000.00 from the sale of the parties' property known as 408 Elm Street, Stevensville, Maryland; those monies are currently held in escrow account of Upper Shore Title Company, Inc.

9. That Delaware Water Resources (Household Retail Services) shall be paid in the amount of $1,391.73 from the proceeds of the sale of the parties' property known as 408 Elm Street, Stevensville, Maryland. Any amount due and owing the aforesaid Delaware Water Resources over and above the aforesaid amount shall be paid by Plaintiff.

10. Any monies remaining from the sale of the 408 Elm Street property after the division of proceeds as described in the paragraphs directly above, shall be divided equally between the parties.

11. The parties shall equally divide the court costs.

CONSENT JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This case having come on for hearing before this Court on June 1, 1994, both parties having been present and represented by counsel, testimony having been heard and considered, and upon the consent of the parties as to all matters except child support and responsibility for extraordinary medical expenses attributable to the minor child, it is this 1st day of June, 1994, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, Maryland,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED, that the Plaintiff, Leeanne Stauffer, is granted a judgment of absolute divorce from the Defendant, Robert Stauffer; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall not go forward with any abuse allegations against the Defendant or that he is unfit as a result of events occurring prior to the date of this Judgment and the Defendant shall not go forward with any allegations that the Plaintiff is unfit or that she improperly influenced the minor child with regard to abuse allegations for events occurring prior to the date of this Judgment; and, it is further,

Filed June 1, 1994

ORDERED, that this Court's July 14, 1992, Emergency Ex Parte Order Concerning Custody is vacated; and, it is further,

ORDERED, all factual allegations of abuse against the Defendant, which are alleged to have occurred on or before July 5, 1992, and all allegations that the Defendant is unfit and all allegations that the Plaintiff is unfit or that she improperly influenced the minor child with regard to these allegations, are ^{abandoned, and the fact of such abandonment is} res judicata as of the date of this Judgment and the visitation provisions of this Judgment are based not on any findings of abuse but upon the best interest of the child considering the child's present psychological condition; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that in the event either party seeks to modify the provisions of this Judgment, both parties are estopped from raising, directly or indirectly, all events preceding this Judgment that may reflect on either parties' fitness as a parent; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that in the future, before any unsupervised visitation is instituted, the minor child and Dr. Wolff or his successor, ~~are not prevented from testifying~~ ^{may} as to the child's preferences and her then current psychological state; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that the custody of Sheena Stauffer is awarded to the Plaintiff; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant shall have reasonable rights reserved to him to visit and be visited by said minor child, which at this time, because of the child's current psychological condition, shall be as may be recommended by Dr. Anthony Wolff with either party having the right to request this court's assistance in establishing or setting conditions for said visitation, and the goal of any visitation program shall be the full resumption of a meaningful parent-child relationship between the Defendant and the minor child, including but not limited to the visitation schedule set forth in ARTICLE VI. VISITATION, of the parties' February 25, 1991, Separation Agreement; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that the minor child shall see only Dr. Wolff or a mental health professional recommended by him and neither party shall have the right to take the child to any other mental health professionals without the consent of the other or approval by this court; and it is further,

ORDERED, that Dr. Wolff has the discretion to use other mental health professionals in the visitation program to reduce the costs of treatment; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that both parties shall fully cooperate with the visitation program as set forth by Dr. Wolff and attend the sessions recommended by him; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that in the event Dr. Wolff recommends supervised visitation outside his professional offices and his presence, the initial supervisors shall be the child's paternal and maternal grandfathers, who shall conduct any such visitations between Defendant and his minor child in strict conformity with the directions and recommendations of Dr. Wolff; and, it is further, ORDERED, that said supervisors may be replaced by a mutually agreed upon third party or parties approved by Dr. Wolff or by Court Order; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that in the event that the Defendant desires unsupervised visitation, he shall first seek Dr. Wolff's recommendation, and thereafter, if unable to secure the Plaintiff's agreement, he shall apply to the Court for this visitation; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that the Department of Social Services (DSS)' involvement and contact with the minor child shall cease following not more than five (5) regular weekly counselling sessions between the minor child and Patricia Cummings of DSS which, in any event, shall occur on or before July 15, 1994; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that the expenses for the child's therapy shall be paid directly to Dr. Wolff and shall not be part of any monthly child support obligation in recognition of the fact that it is impossible to determine the cost of the child's therapy on a monthly basis; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant shall obtain and maintain health insurance for the minor child as is provided at his present place of employment. The Defendant shall also provide the Plaintiff with all claim forms or an insurance card for the minor child and shall immediately forward to the Plaintiff any reimbursements received from the health insurer for payments made by the Plaintiff to the child's medical providers; and, it is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall be restored the use of her maiden name "LEEANNE MORRISON"; and, it is further,

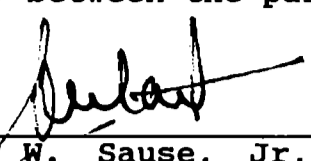

ORDERED, that the provisions of the Agreement of the parties dated February 25, 1991, be and the same are hereby ratified and approved by this Court and incorporated, but not merged, in this Judgment of Absolute Divorce insofar as this Court has jurisdiction except as modified by this Judgment and with the exception of ARTICLE V. SUPPORT as it pertains to child support; and it is further ORDERED that the issue of child support and the allocation of the child's extraordinary medical expenses, including but not limited to the child's therapy expenses for Dr. Wolff, shall be presented to the court for final determination; and it is further

ORDERED that, except as provided herein, all other relief requested by either party shall be denied; and it is further

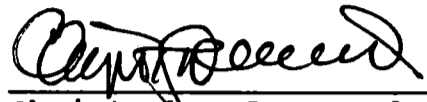

ORDERED that this file be sealed by the Clerk of this Court; and it is further ORDERED that any outstanding unpaid costs as taxed by the clerk shall be divided equally between the parties.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause standing ready for hearing and duly submitted, the proceedings were, by the Court, read and considered.

It is thereupon this 4th day, of August, 1994, by the Circuit Court of Queen Anne's County, ORDERED,

1. That the Parties be and are hereby granted an Absolute Divorce.

2. That the Parties shall have joint legal custody of their minor children, namely, John Paul Lucas, Jr. (date of birth 12/31/88), and Laura Leigh Lucas (date of birth 6/21/92) in accordance with the terms of this Order. Both parents will have an equal voice and obligation with respect to long range decisions involving education, religious training, discipline, medical care and other matters of major significance concerning the children's life and welfare.

3. That the terms of the Marital Separation and Property Settlement Agreement executed between the Parties on June 14, 1994, and of the Stipulation For Substitution Of Amendment To Agreement, each of which has been previously filed in this case, are hereby incorporated but not merged herein.

4. Any change of circumstances pertaining to the residence or living conditions of the minor children will entitle either Party to seek a modification of the custody provisions of this Judgment.

5. The provisions of this Judgment are intended to reflect only minimum objectives and minimum rights with respect to custody and visitation to be observed in the absence of agreement between the parents. The parents are authorized and encouraged, by mutual agreement, to supplement or vary those provisions in order to permit contacts between the children and each parent as frequently as possible and as may be necessary or desirable to accommodate (among other things) the schedules of all involved and especially the activities of the children, such as school plays, sporting events, 4-H projects, family gatherings and the like, which a weekend or other scheduled period of custody would restrict or prohibit.

6. Each parent will at all times endeavor not to disclose to the children any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving any parent and will at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of a parent and admonish the children not to do so.

7. During any period when either or both of the children reside with a parent, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding either or both of the children's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining the children, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and (ii) permit the children to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

8. A. During any period when a parent has physical custody of either or both of the children, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the children, including but not limited to:

(i) the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

(ii) the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological, or dental advice or treatment;

(iii) the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which either child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which either child will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

B. Such information shall be given promptly after it becomes known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

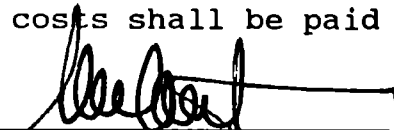

9. A. Pursuant to the attached Child Support Guidelines Worksheet "A" (Sole Custody) Defendant, Jill Annette Lucas, shall pay the sum of $182.90 per month directly to the Bureau of Support and Enforcement for Queen Anne's County for the support and maintenance of the two (2) minor children. Defendant shall pay said amount for the minor children in accordance with the aforesaid Child Support Guidelines and with any additions or Amendments thereto, or pursuant to any Order of Court which may be issued herein, until the minor children reach the age of 18, die or become emancipated.

B. If Defendant, Jill Annette Lucas, accumulates support arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, she shall be subject to earnings withholding.

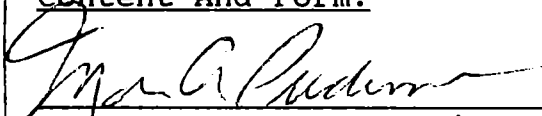

C. Defendant, Jill Annette Lucas, shall notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the support order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in her not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholdings.

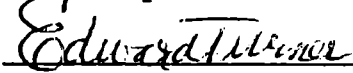

10. Each parent is hereby ordered to keep the other parent informed at all times of their respective addresses and telephone numbers (both for residence and place of employment) and to immediately provide the other parent with written notice of any change in their respective addresses and telephone numbers (both residence and place of employment). Each parent shall also provide to the other parent the name, address, and telephone number of any day-care provider or relative each parent may utilize to care for either of the children while in that parent's physical custody.

11. All outstanding Court costs shall be paid for equally by the Parties.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE AND
QUALIFIED DOMESTIC RELATIONS ORDER

The case having come on for hearing on Plaintiff's Complaint for Divorce and Defendant's Answer, testimony taken before a Standing Examiner of this Court and the papers read and considered. Accordingly, it is ORDERED, this 25th day of August, 1994, as follows:

1. ABSOLUTE DIVORCE. The Plaintiff, CHARLENE R. STAFFORD, be and is granted an ABSOLUTE DIVORCE from the Defendant, EDWARD P. STAFFORD.

2. AGREEMENTS. The Separation and Property Settlement Agreement between the parties dated January, 1992 identified as Exhibit #2 and the Memorandum of Agreement executed by the parties identified as Exhibit #3 (the "Memorandum of Agreement") be and are hereby incorporated, but not merged, in this Judgment of Absolute Divorce.

3. ALIMONY. DEFENDANT shall pay alimony to PLAINTIFF in accordance with the terms and provisions of Section 1. of the Memorandum of Agreement between the parties.

3.1. Payment. In accordance with the Memorandum of Agreement, all alimony due to PLAINTIFF shall be paid directly to PLAINTIFF by allotment or other such allocation as may be made from the pension payments now being received by the DEFENDANT from his Civil Service Retirement Pension. DEFENDANT shall immediately notify the Office of Personnel Management to begin direct payments to PLAINTIFF and DEFENDANT shall execute such documents and papers as are required to effect direct payment to PLAINTIFF. In the event any additional Orders of Court are required to effect direct payment of alimony to PLAINTIFF, DEFENDANT shall consent to the passage of such Orders upon presentation of such Orders to him. Until such time as direct payments are made to PLAINTIFF, DEFENDANT shall pay all monthly alimony payments to PLAINTIFF when and as due.

3.2. Adjustments. In the event a reduction in the amount of the payment due to the PLAINTIFF from the DEFENDANT in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Memorandum of Agreement is required after the submission of the income verification as set forth in the Memorandum of Agreement, PLAINTIFF shall cooperate with DEFENDANT and the payor of the pension payment in voluntarily making the reduction without the necessity of a further Order of the Court. However, if a determination is made that a reduction is required in accordance with the terms of the Memorandum and the payor of the pension payment continues to make full payment to PLAINTIFF, PLAINTIFF shall immediately pay to DEFENDANT the difference between the amount of the full payment received by her and the reduced amount due to her upon receipt of the full payment by her from the payor of the pension payment. In the event that PLAINTIFF fails to pay any amount to the DEFENDANT as a result of any reduced amount due to PLAINTIFF, PLAINTIFF hereby consents to a confession of judgment against her for all such amounts which may be due to DEFENDANT as a result of the excess payment made to PLAINTIFF.

4. SURVIVOR ANNUITY BENEFITS. DEFENDANT shall provide and maintain survivor annuity benefits in accordance with Section 2. of the Memorandum of Agreement between the parties. In connection therewith, the following findings are made and provisions set forth relating to the payment of survivor's benefits:

4.1. ORDERED, that pursuant to the parties' agreement and consent, the Court finds as follows in regard to the survivor benefits with the United States Navy:

4.1.1. That the Defendant, EDWARD P. STAFFORD, Social Security Number 008-20-1240, having retired from the United States Navy and currently receiving pension benefits with entitlement to designate the recipient of his survivor annuity, is referred to herein as the "Member";

4.1.2. That the Plaintiff, CHARLENE R. STAFFORD, Social Security Number 045-26-1303, is referred to herein as the "Spouse";

4.1.3. That the Member's last-known address is Edward P. Stafford, P.O. Box 6551, Key West, Florida 33041;

4.1.4. That the Spouse's last-known address is 1012 Tallwood Road, Apt. TB, Annapolis, Maryland 21403;

4.1.5. That this Court has jurisdiction over the Member by reason of his consent as evidenced by his personal appearance and that of his counsel;

4.1.6. That this Court shall retain jurisdiction to modify this Order to effectuate the intent of the parties; and having made the above findings, it is

4.1.7. ORDERED, that the Member shall designate the Spouse as the survivor beneficiary of his retirement pay until November 5, 1999, after which date the Spouse's entitlement shall terminate; and it is further

4.1.8. ORDERED, that the Member shall immediately execute such documents as are necessary to effectuate the designation of the Spouse as the survivor beneficiary and shall execute such other documents as may be required at any time to effect the provisions of this Judgment relating to designation and/or payment of the survivor annuity benefits; and it is further

4.1.9. ORDERED, that the Member shall bear the entire cost of the said benefit to the Spouse and that the Spouse shall not be charged with the same, unless she specifically agrees to be so charged in writing; and it is further

4.1.10. ORDERED, that the Member shall take no action which would in any way reduce the benefits to which the Spouse would otherwise be entitled hereunder; and it is further

4.1.11. ORDERED, that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over all matters related to provision of the United States Navy survivor annuity benefit to the Plaintiff as set forth above.

4.2. ORDERED, that pursuant to the parties' agreement and consent, the Plaintiff is granted and assigned an interest in Defendant's Civil Service Retirement System survivor benefit annuity as provided hereinafter. In connection therewith, the following findings are made and provisions set forth relating to the payment of survivor benefits:

4.2.1. The name, address and Social Security Number of the participant in the Civil Service Retirement System is EDWARD P. STAFFORD, P.O. Box 6551, Key West, Florida 33041, Social Security Number 008-20-1240;

4.2.2. The designee of Defendant's survivor benefit annuity is CHARLENE R. STAFFORD; 1012 Tallwood Road, Apt. TB, Annapolis, Maryland 21403; Social Security Number 045-26-1303;

4.2.3. The Plan Administrator is the United States Office of Personnel Management, Court Order Benefit Section, Post Office Box 17, Washington, D.C., 20044; and having made the above findings, it is

4.2.4. ORDERED, that the Defendant shall irrevocably and immediately designate Plaintiff as beneficiary of the maximum survivor benefit annuity under his Civil Service Retirement System pension; and it is further

4.2.5. ORDERED, that Defendant shall immediately execute such documents as are necessary to effectuate the designation of the Plaintiff as the survivor beneficiary as provided herein and shall execute such other documents as may be required at any time to effect the provisions of this Judgment relating to designation and/or payment of the survivor annuity benefits; and it is further

4.2.6. ORDERED, that the Defendant shall bear the entire cost of the said benefit to the Plaintiff and that the Plaintiff shall not be charged with the same, unless she specifically agrees to be so charged in writing; and it is further

4.2.7. ORDERED, that the Defendant shall take no action which would in any way reduce the benefits to which the Plaintiff would otherwise be entitled hereunder; and it is further

4.2.8. ORDERED, that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over all matters related to the provision to Plaintiff of the Defendant's Civil Service Retirement System survivor annuity benefit.

4.3. Qualified Domestic Relations Order. The foregoing provisions of Section 4 and its sub-sections are hereby approved and designated as a Qualified Domestic Relations Order relating to each of the foregoing survivor annuity benefits.

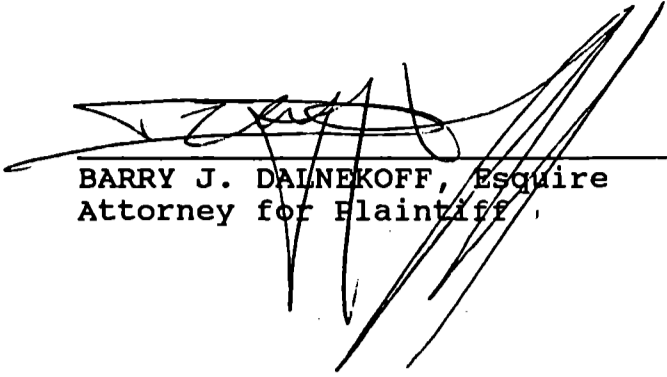

~~5. COSTS. The parties shall each pay one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the open costs in this case.~~

SUBJECT TO THE CONTINUING JURISDICTION OF THIS COURT IN THE PREMISES.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon a review of the pleadings of record, the testimony heard by the Court on September 15, 1994, and the consent of the parties, the Court finding that this is an uncontested matter for divorce:

IT IS ORDERED on the 15^R day of September, 1994 by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County that:

1. The parties are divorced absolutely on the grounds that they have voluntarily lived separate and apart for a continuous period of more than one year.
2. The parties shall have the joint legal and shared physical custody of their minor children, Brandy Marie Chenoweth (date of birth: August 21, 1985) and Courtney Lynn Chenoweth (date of birth: October 30, 1989).
3. The minor children shall reside with the parties for alternating two week periods, beginning on September 4, 1994 at 12:00 p.m. through September 18, 1994 at 12:00 p.m. when the minor children shall reside with the Plaintiff. The minor children shall reside with the Defendant from September 18, 1994 at 12:00 p.m. to October 2, 1994 at 12:00 p.m. and so on.
4. The children will continue to attend school in Queen Anne's County. The parties will be responsible for seeing that the children are delivered to and picked up from school at the appropriate times while the children are in his or her physical custody.
5. The parties shall be generally charged with the support of the minor children while they are in the parties' respective physical custody. On a monthly basis, the Defendant shall reimburse the Plaintiff for one-half of all work-related day care paid by the Plaintiff during the previous month.

CASE NO. 93-04299

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings of record, the testimony and evidence received by the Court on October 11, 1994, this appearing to be an uncontested matter for divorce,

IT IS ORDERED on the 19th day of October, 1994 by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County as follows:

1. The parties are divorced absolutely.

2. The parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor children of the parties, namely, Michael T. Davis (DOB: (9/6/79) and Heidi L. Davis (DOB: 8/29/88). The Plaintiff shall have primary physical custody of Michael and the Defendant shall have primary physical custody of Heidi. Beginning on Saturday, October 22, 1994, the Plaintiff shall have Heidi in his physical custody on alternating Saturdays and Sundays from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Beginning on Friday, October 28, 1994 the Defendant shall have Michael in her physical custody every other weekend from Friday at 5:00 p.m. to Sunday at 8:00 p.m. to the end that the children shall spend at least weekends in the same home. The parties are directed to contact the Custody Mediation Service of the Queen Anne's County Department of Social Services which is directed to assist the parties and Heidi in moving toward alternating weekend visitations (Friday at 5:00 p.m. to Sunday at 8:00 p.m.) between the Plaintiff and Heidi which, in any event, shall begin not later than ninety (90) days from the date of this Judgement of Absolute Divorce. The parties shall cooperate with each other in arranging for additional periods of visitation with the child in the other's primary physical custody during the school year. The parties shall also be entitled to have both children in his or her physical custody for two weeks (not necessarily consecutive) each summer to be arranged and agreed upon by the parties by May 15th of each year. The parties shall alternate physical custody of the children on major holidays (defined to mean Christmas Eve from 6:00 p.m. to Christmas Day at 11:00 a.m., Christmas Day from 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., New Years's Day, Easter, Memorial Day, July 4th, Labor Day, and Thanksgiving), beginning with Thanksgiving, 1994 when both children shall be with the Plaintiff.

3. The parties shall have an equal voice in major decisions affecting the lives, health and welfare of the minor children. The parties shall keep the other fully informed of all school conferences, reports, and activities and extracurricular activities affecting or in which the children are involved so that both parents may attend or participate in such conferences, events or activities. The parties shall cooperate with each other and act flexibly with respect to periods of visitation, particularly to avoid disrupting bona fide school and extracurricular activities involving the children.

4. The Plaintiff shall pay the Defendant, through the Queen Anne's County Bureau of Support Enforcement, 120 Broadway, Centreville, Maryland, 21617, the sum of $27.00 per week in child support commencing with and accounting from Friday, October 14, 1994. This Order shall constitute an immediate and continuing wage withholding order on all earnings of the Plaintiff. He is required to notify the Bureau of Support Enforcement of any change in address or employment so long as he continues to have a duty of support. The failure to comply with such notification requirement will subject him to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

5. Because the parties expressly waived alimony by stipulation of Counsel in open court, no alimony is awarded to either party.

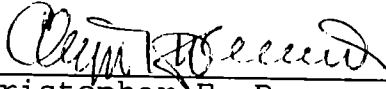

6. The Plaintiff shall pay open court costs.

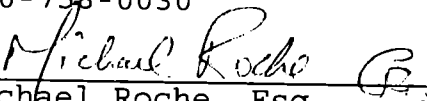

7. The Defendant may return to use of her maiden name, Mary V. Wheat.

8. The minor child, Heidi, shall be known to the public and registered in school only under the name, Heidi L. Davis, and under no circumstances shall Heidi be known or held out to the public as Heidi Wheat or Heidi Wheat Davis until such time as Heidi is of an age to make such a decision for herself.

9. The Plaintiff shall be responsible for the payment of the marital debt due to AVCO and the balance due to Dr. N. L. Centofante for medical care provided to Heidi.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This matter standing ready for hearing and testimony having been taken, it is this 16th day of January, 1995 by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County ordered as follows:

1. That Kelly Ann Price be, and she is hereby, awarded an Absolute Divorce from John A. Price.
2. That both parties having waived alimony, the same be, and it is hereby, denied.
3. That both parties having waived an interest in each other's pension or retirement funds or accounts, if any, the same be, and it is hereby waived.
4. That the parties shall have the joint custody of their minor child, PATRICIA CLAIRE PRICE ("CLAIRE"), born on the 6th day of December, 1989, with CLAIRE to reside principally with the Plaintiff and with the Defendant to have visitation every other weekend and one night during the week.
5. That the parties shall split their time with CLAIRE on the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays and that other major holidays shall be alternated.

6. That the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff as child support the sum of $276.00 monthly or $64.00 weekly and that said child support shall continue until the first to occur of (1) death of the Child or the Defendant; or the child's attaining the age of 18 years, being married or becoming otherwise emancipated.

7. That, with regard to the custody of CLAIRE, the following shall apply:

A. FORM OF CUSTODY. The parent who is entitled to physical custody may have the child at that parent's home or other suitable place selected by that parent. Unless otherwise agreed by the parents, the parents shall equally shares the transportation for the child; under no circumstances, however, shall Defendant transport CLAIRE if he has consumed any alcoholic beverage within four (4) hours prior to the transport.

B. RIGHTS AND DUTIES DURING CUSTODY.

1. GENERALLY. Each parent shall at all times endeavor not to disclose to the child any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving the other parent and shall at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other parent and shall admonish the child not to do so.

2. AUTHORITY. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding the child's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining the child, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and (ii) permit the child to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

3. NOTICE. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the child, including but not limited to:

a-the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

b-the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, physiological or dental advice or treatment;

c-the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which the child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which the child will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

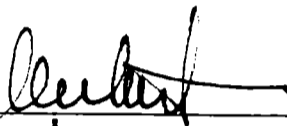

Such information shall be given promptly after it becomes known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

8. That Defendant shall cover CLAIRE on his health insurance until the terminal events set forth above for child support.

9. That the Defendant shall be evaluated within 60 days of this order by the Queen Anne's County Health Department for assessment of substance abuse.

10. That the Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement signed by the parties be, and it is hereby, incorporated but not merged into this Judgment.

11. That the Obligor herein is required to notify this Court within 10 days of any change of address or employment so long as the support order is in effect and that failure to comply with this provision shall subject the Obligor to a penalty not to exceed $250.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This matter having come before the Court for trial on the merits on November 29, 1994, this Court having jurisdiction and having heard and considered all testimony, exhibits, and arguments of counsel, it is this 15th day of July, 1995, ORDERED as follows:

A. The parties are hereby granted an ABSOLUTE DIVORCE based upon the grounds of voluntary separation.

B. Pursuant to the Joint Statement of Marital Property filed herein the Court finds that Defendant has interests in several pension, retirement or profit sharing accounts and those interests are marital property. The present value of Defendants interest in the Civil Service Retirement System (hereinafter referred to as "Retirement Plan") is $47, 713.00. The present value of Defendants interests in The Wills Group, Inc., Employees' pension Plan (hereinafter referred to as "Pension Plan) and the H.S. Swann, James W. Wills, Jr., Employees' Profit Sharing Plan (hereinafter referred to as "Profit Sharing Plan") is $7, 909.52. It is noted that the parties were married during the entire time in which Defendant gained interests in the Wills Group, Inc. Pension Plan and the H.S. Swann, James W. Wills, Jr. Profit Sharing Plan. It is further noted that the parties were married for 24 years of the 29 years during which Defendant accrued retirement benefits from the Civil Service Retirement System. Based upon the respective financial positions of the parties, the circumstances which led to their estrangement, and as an adjustment of the equities and rights of the parties concerning marital property, Plaintiff is hereby GRANTED a monetary award in the amount of $23,698.12 which represents one half (1/2) of the present value of Defendant's interest in the Pension Plan and Profit Sharing Plan and twelve twenty-ninths (12/29) of the present value of Defendant's interest in the Retirement Plan. A Qualified Domestic Relations Order is entered simultaneously hereto which will transfer to Plaintiff the above mentioned interests in Defendant's Retirement Plan, Profit Sharing Plan and Pension Plan.

RECEIVED

C. Defendant, Dennis Nichols, shall pay to Plaintiff, Linda Nichols, directly, alimony in the amount of $150.00 per week, ^{accounting for} the ~~first payment being due on~~ December 5, 1994. Alimony shall continue to accrue until such time as Plaintiff remarries, or Defendant dies or retires. With the exceptions of death or remarriage, alimony shall accrue for a minimum of three (3) years, after which time, either party may request this Court to modify same. Husband shall be deemed to have retired when he unilaterally terminates all gainful employment. Termination of his current employment to purposefully avoid the payment of the alimony ordered herein, will not terminate Defendant's obligations.

If Defendant accumulates support payment arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, he shall be subject to earnings withholding.

Defendant is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as this Order is in effect and failure to do so will subject him to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

In making its decision, the Court has considered Plaintiff's ability to become self supporting, the time necessary for Plaintiff to gain sufficient education or training to enable her to find suitable employment, the standard of living enjoyed by the parties established during the marriage, the duration of the marriage, the contributions each party made to the well being of the family, the circumstances that contributed to the estrangement of the parties, the age of each party, the physical and mental condition of each party, the ability of Defendant to meet his needs while meeting the needs of the Plaintiff, the financial needs and resources of each party including all income and assets, the monetary award entered in this matter and the financial obligations of the parties.

Further, the Court has considered whether the Plaintiff can reasonably be expected to make substantial progress toward becoming self supporting and the unconscionably disparate levels of income and standards of living which will exist after Plaintiff has made as much progress toward becoming self supporting as possible.

Defendant : CIVIL NO. 4707

JUDGMENT

Upon consideration of the pleadings and the testimony presented to this Court at a hearing on February 23, 1995, this Court makes the following findings of fact:

A. The parties have continuously lived separate and apart for more than two years preceding the filing of the Complaint for Absolute Divorce filed in this case, and there is no hope or expectation of reconciliation.

B. Plaintiff's former name was Mary Green Wheeler.

C. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed that Plaintiff waives her interest in the real property of the parties in the State of Florida and will sign a deed to that effect when presented by Defendant.

D. Plaintiff and Defendant have also agreed that Defendant will pay her the sum of $250 per month from his pension arising out of his service in the United States Air Force, which pension makes monthly payments to Defendant of at least $250 per month.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is this 3rd day of March, 1995, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED, AND DECREED, as follows:

1. Plaintiff is divorced absolutely from Defendant.
2. Plaintiff's maiden name, Mary Green Wheeler, is restored.
3. Plaintiff having waived her claim to the real property of the parties in the State of Florida, she will execute a deed for that property upon its presentation to her.
4. Defendant will pay to Plaintiff the sum of $250 per month as alimony, pursuant to the Annotated Code of Maryland, Family Law Article, Sections 11-101 et seq., beginning April 1, 1995, as follows:

JUDGEMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE
AND
TEMPORARY CUSTODY AND SUPPORT ORDER

The parties through their counsel having reached an agreement in settlement of all issues related to Custody, Visitation, Child Support, and Division of Marital Property, it is this 10th day of March, 1995, by the Circuit Court of Queen Anne's County, Maryland,

ORDERED, as follows;

1. The Plaintiff, Alvin Franklin Wolf, is hereby granted an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, Stacey Diane Wolf.

2. That the Father shall have the temporary legal and actual care and custody of the minor children of the parties, subject to the following visitation by Mother;

A. The first, third and fourth full weekend of each month from 6:00 p.m. Friday until 6:00 p.m. Sunday.

B. Two non-consecutive weeks in the summer from 6:00 p.m. Friday until 6:00 p.m. the following Sunday.

C. One-half Christmas Day and Thanksgiving Day.

D. Father shall have actual custody each Father's Day.

E. Mother shall have actual custody each Mother's Day.

F. The parties shall alternate all other Holidays.

G. Father shall provide transportation to and from visitation and the exchange of custody shall occur at the Paternal Grandparents house in Duck Neck, if not otherwise agreed to by the parties.

3. Neither party shall expose the children to any friends or acquaintances who are deemed to be or have a negative influence upon the minor children of the parties.

4. During periods of Mother's visitation, the children shall reside at the home of the Mother's Paternal Grandmother, Margaret

5. During the period of Mother's visitation the minor children of the parties shall not be left alone with the Mother's Paternal Grandmother, Margaret Rose, or the Mother's Paternal Uncle, Frederick Rose, except for very limited periods of time which may be necessitated by the Mother having to run errands.

6. The purpose of visitation is for the Mother to have visitation and contact with the minor children. Accordingly, should the Mother's time be otherwise occupied as a result of employment or social engagements during a period of said visitation, such that she would not be able to spend the majority of that period of visitation with the minor children, the Mother shall contact the Father in an effort to reach an agreement modifying the schedule.

7. Father shall provide mother with the name, address, and references for any housekeeper or in-house child care provider that he employs.

8. The above Custody matter shall be set in for a review hearing prior to the commencement of the 1995-1996 school year.

9. Each parent will at all times endeavor not to disclose to the minor children any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation or any other matter involving the other parent and will at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other parent and admonish Christian not to do so.

10. The Father shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the minor children, including but not limited to:

a. The complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

b. The purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological or dental advice or treatment;

c. On Sundays when the Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant has visitation, if the Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff desires the minor child to attend church services or Sunday School at her church, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff shall provide partial transportation. Should the Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff exercise this option, the parties shall meet before and after church services and Sunday School at Smiley's in Kingstown, Queen Anne's County, Maryland, for the purpose of exchanging actual custody, providing that the parent relinquishing custody shall remain at the drop off location until such time as the other parent has arrived.

2. The Plaintiff/Counter-defendant shall have Christmas morning visitation on even numbered years as provided in the above referenced Kent County Order, and it is further,

ORDERED, that this is a Qualified Domestic Relations Order as follows:

QUALIFIED DOMESTIC RELATIONS ORDER

1. The following definitions shall apply for purposes of this Order:

A. "Domestic Relations Order" means a Judgment, Decree, or Order (including approval of a property settlement agreement) which:

(1) relates to the provision of child support, alimony/maintenance payments, or marital property rights to a spouse, former spouse, child, or other dependent of a participant, and

(2) is made pursuant to a state domestic relations law (including a community property law).

B. "Qualified Domestic Relations Order" means a Domestic Relations Order which:

(1) creates or recognizes the existence of an alternate payee's right to, or assigns to an alternate payee the right to, receive all or a portion of the benefits payable with respect to a participant under a plan;

(2) clearly specifies certain facts, as set forth in subsequent Paragraphs herein; and

(3) does not alter the amount or form of benefits under a plan, as set forth in subsequent paragraphs herein; and

C. The "Participant" is Thomasina M. Fabri whose Social Security Number is 213-54-6414.

D. The "Alternate Payee" is Norman E. Fabri the spouse of the Participant, whose Social Security Number is 148-44-6435.

2. This Order applies to the Valic Annuity Plan No. 8707286, Group 01262, Sub Group 002, Plan Type TSA 1, in the approximate amount of $15,100.00 (hereinafter the "Plan").

3. The Administrator of the Plan is the Variable Annuity Life Insurance Company. (hereinafter the "Plan Administrator").

4. The name and last known mailing address of the Participant and the Alternate Payee covered by this Order:

Participant: Thomasina M. Fabri
1032 Benton Corner Road
Sudlersville, Maryland 21668

Alternate Payee: Norman E. Fabri
23121 Club Terrace
Chestertown, Maryland 21620

The Participant and the Alternate Payee were married on August 4, 1979.

5. The Alternate Payee's interest in the Plan shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the Participant's account balance as of January 4, 1995, plus all earnings on said one hundred percent (100%) share from January 5, 1995 to the date of distribution.

The Alternate Payee may at any time request that his interest in the plan be rolled over into an Individual Retirement Account in his name only, it being the parties' intent the Participant shall incur no penalty for the transfer of the Plan to the Alternate Payee.

6. The Alternate Payee's account shall, upon the Alternate Payee's request, be paid to him independent of any payment to Participant, in such manner as he may elect under the Plan as if the Alternate Payee was a participant in the Plan, after the first to occur of the following:

(a) the date on which the Participant (or in the event of her death, the Participant's beneficiaries designed under the Plan) receives any distribution from the Plan as a result of death, disability, termination of the Participant's participation in the Plan, or the termination of the Plan;

(b) the date on which the Participant attains (or would have attained) her "earliest retirement age", which term is defined as the earlier of (1) the date the Participant is entitled to a distribution under the Plan or (2) the later of (i) the date the Participant attains age fifty (50) or (ii) the earliest date on which the Participant could begin receiving benefits under the Plan once she is separated from service; or

(c) any other date or event which, under the Plan and applicable law, would permit Husband to receive distributions as Alternate Payee.

(d) If the Alternate Payee should die prior to the payment to him in full of his interest in the Plan, to the extent allowable under the terms of the Plan and applicable law, any such unpaid amount shall be paid to those persons designated as beneficiaries by the Alternate Payee in the same manner as if the Alternate Payee was a participant in the Plan.

7. This Order:

A. Does not require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit, or any option, not otherwise provided under the Plan;

B. Does not require the Plan to provide increased benefits (determined on the basis of actuarial value); and

C. Does not require the payment of benefits to an Alternate Payee which are required to be paid to another Alternate Payee under another order previously determined to be a Qualified Domestic Relations order.

8. The Alternate Payee shall include all of the taxable portion of the Plan when received by him in his gross taxable income. For purposes of Sections 72 and 401(a)(9) and 414(p)(11) of the Code, the Alternate Payee shall be treated as the distributee of any distribution or payment made to said Alternate Payee under this Order. The proceeds of the Plan, when paid, shall not be taxable income or taken as a deduction on the Participant's income tax returns.

9. It is intended that this Order will qualify as a Qualified Domestic Relations Order under Section 414(p) of the Code, and the provisions herein shall be administered and interpreted in conformity therewith.

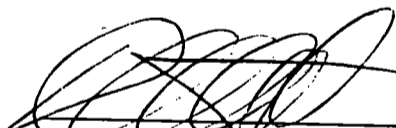

10. Notwithstanding the aforementioned and with the consent of the parties, this Court hereby retains jurisdiction to amend this Order, but only for the purpose of establishing or maintaining its qualification as a Qualified Domestic Relations Order under the Code; provided, however, that no such amendment shall require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit, or any option, not otherwise provided under said Plan, and further provided that no such amendment or the right of the Court to so amend will invalidate this Order as "qualified" under the Code.

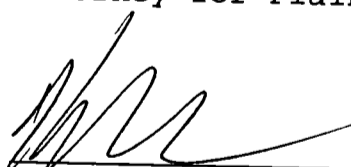

11. A true copy of this Order shall be served upon the Plan Administrator forthwith. Said Order shall take effect immediately and remain in effect under the further order of the Court.

JUDGMENT FOR ABSOLUTE DIVORCE
AND PERMANENT CUSTODY ORDER

WHEREAS, the above-captioned matter having come before this court for a hearing on the Plaintiff's Amended Complaint for Absolute Divorce and Permanent Custody and Support; and

WHEREAS, upon the consent of the parties, as evidenced by their Affidavits filed herewith, and the approval of this Order by their respective legal counsel, it is this 23rd day of March, 1995, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County, Maryland;

ORDERED, as follows:

1. The Plaintiff, Kelly Lynn Foxwell, is hereby granted an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, Terry J. Foxwell.

2. The Plaintiff, Kelly Lynn Foxwell, is granted the sole and exclusive custody of the minor children of the parties, namely Nicholas Jay Thomas Foxwell and Alexander Ryan Foxwell.

3. The Defendant, Terry J. Foxwell, shall have the privilege of visitation with the minor children every weekend, Father's Day and alternating holidays, providing that said visitation occurs in the presence of and at the home of the paternal grandmother of the minor children.

4. The Defendant, Terry J. Foxwell, will pay to the Plaintiff, Kelly Lynn Foxwell, for the benefit of the minor children of the parties, child support in the amount of Forty-Eight Dollars ($48.00) per week, accounting from November 1, 1993, said amount being in accordance with the Maryland Child Support Guidelines.

5. The Defendant, Terry J. Foxwell, shall convey to Plaintiff, Kelly Lynn Foxwell, all of his right, title and interest in and to the marital home located at Route 1, Box 31B, Chestertown, Queen Anne's County, Maryland, and shall execute any deed, assignment, or other documents which may be reasonably necessary for the conveyance of such right, title and interest.

6. In consideration of Defendant's transfer to Plaintiff of his interest in the marital home, Defendant shall receive from Plaintiff the sum of Fourteen Thousand Nine Hundred Seventy-Six Dollars ($14,976.00), which said sum shall be in the form of credit toward Defendant's obligation to pay to Plaintiff child support payments. Said credit shall be for Three Hundred and Twelve (312) weeks of child support payments at the rate set forth in Paragraph 4 of this Order and shall cover the period from November 1, 1993 to October 31, 1999.

7. Plaintiff, Kelly Lynn Foxwell, shall be solely responsible for the payment of the mortgage and all other expenses of the marital home; and Plaintiff shall hold and save Defendant harmless from the said Mortgage and expenses, and shall indemnify Defendant from any liability therefor.

8. The parties shall retain ownership of all personal property in their possession.

9. The Plaintiff, Kelly Lynn Foxwell, shall pay the open costs of these proceedings at the date of judgment.

TAKE NOTICE

(1) If the obligor accumulates support payments arrears amounting to more than Thirty (30) days of support, the obligor shall be subject to earnings withholdings; and

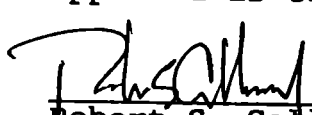

(2) The obligor is required to notify the court within Ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the support order is in effect; and

(3) Failure to comply with paragraph two (2) of this subsection will subject the obligor to a penalty not to exceed $300.00, and may result in the obligor's not receiving notice of proceedings for earning withholding.

SEPARATION AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made this 9th day of January, 1993, by and between DAVID SIMPSON, hereinafter referred to as "Husband," and LINDA WALLS SIMPSON, hereinafter referred to as "Wife."

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS the parties hereto were married on October 8, 1988, in Centreville, Maryland, and

WHEREAS, in consequence of disputes and unhappy differences which have arisen between the parties hereto, the said parties have voluntarily and mutually agreed to live separate and apart, and are, as of the 8th day of January, 1993, living separate and apart.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual promises and undertakings herein contained, and other good and valuable considerations, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties voluntarily and mutually covenant and agree as follows:

1. The parties may and shall at all times hereafter live and continue to live separate and apart. Each shall be free from interference, authority and control, direct or indirect, by the other as fully as if he or she were sole and unmarried. Each may reside at such place or places as he or she may select. Each may, for his or her separate use and benefit, conduct, carry on, and engage in any business, profession or employment which to him or her may seem advisable. Each shall be at liberty to act and do as he or she sees fit, and to conduct his or her personal and social life as freely and as fully as if he or she were sole and unmarried.

2. The parties shall not annoy, molest, or otherwise interfere with each other, nor shall either of them compel or attempt to compel the other to cohabit with him or her, by any means whatever.

3. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party releases and forever discharges the other, his or her heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, property and estate from any and all rights, claims, demands or obligations arising out of or by virtue of the marital relation of the parties including dower rights; curtesy; homestead rights; right of election regarding the estate of the other or to take against the will of the other; right of inheritance or distribution in the event of intestacy; right to act as executor or administrator of the estate of the other; and all other similar or related rights under the laws of any state or territory of the United States or of any foreign country, as such laws exist or may hereafter be enacted or amended. Nothing herein, however, will constitute a waiver of either party to take a voluntary bequest or bequests under the will of the other.

4. Each party hereby waives, releases and discharges the other from any and all causes of action, claims or demands whatsoever, in law or in equity, which he or she may or might have claim against the other by reason of any matter, cause, or thing whatsoever, except marital actions and claims founded upon the provisions of this Agreement.

5. The parties hereto will be jointly responsible for the payment of all debts incurred by the parties prior to the execution of this agreement.

6. Each party agrees to indemnify the other from any debts, obligations or liabilities of such party which come into existence following the effective date of this Agreement. And each party agrees to hold the other harmless from and against any and all such claims and demands which may accrue or otherwise be asserted against the other. Each party covenants and agrees that he or she will not incur any debts, obligations or liabilities on the other party's credit or do anything for which the other party could legally be liable. Each party will, immediately following the execution of this Agreement, cancel all charge accounts of whatsoever nature for which the other party could be obligated, and each agrees that he or she will in the future establish charge accounts in his/her sole name only.

7. The parties further agree that the execution of this document shall in no way be considered or construed as a waiver or bar to any cause of divorce which either of the parties may now have against the other or which may hereafter accrue, or be considered or construed as constituting a ground or cause for divorce.

8. This agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties. There are no representations, warranties, promises, covenants or understandings other than those expressly set forth herein.

9. Each party hereto declares that he or she fully understands the facts and all his or her legal rights and liabilities; and that each believes the agreement to be fair, just and reasonable, and that each signs the agreement freely and voluntarily.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have set their hands to two counterparts of this agreement, each of which will constitute an original, this 9th day of January, 1993.

DAVID SIMPSON

LINDA WALLS SIMPSON

SEPARATION AGREEMENT ADDENDUM

In addition to the provisions contained in the Separation Agreement of January 9, 1993, the parties further voluntarily and mutually covenant and agree as follows:

1. The husband agrees to cooperate with arrangements made by the wife to transfer title to mutually held real property known as 113 Clapp Lane, Chestertown, Maryland, into the wife's name solely. He shall receive compensation limited to $1 for this transfer.

2. The wife agrees to either sell or to refinance without the husband said real property. She further agrees that this will be accomplished by December 31, 1996.

3. The husband agrees not to receive or to seek any proceeds of the sale of the said real property.

4. The 1992 Saturn SL1 automobile shall become the property of the husband, and the wife will execute all documents necessary and appropriate to convey title to said automobile to the husband. Husband agrees to have wife's name removed from loan note related to 1992 Saturn SL1 at the time the title is conveyed. JWS

5. The parties have divided between them, to their mutual satisfaction, all furniture and household furnishings, and all other items of personal property which hertofore have been held by them in common, jointly, or as tenants by the entirety, and neither party will make any claims to any such items which are agreed to be owned by the other.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the testimony heard and evidence received by the Court on January 13, 1995

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED on the 24th of March, 1995 by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County as follows:

DIVORCE

1. The parties are divorced absolutely on the grounds that they have lived separate and apart, mutually and voluntarily, without cohabitation for a period in excess of one year.

LEGAL CUSTODY AND RELATED RIGHTS AND DUTIES

2. The parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor child of the parties, Nicole D. Jackson (DOB: 3/12/1987). Both parents will have an equal voice and obligation with respect to long range decisions involving education, training, discipline, medical care and other matters of major significance concerning Nicole's life and welfare. In addition, the parties shall each have the following rights and duties as parents of Nicole:

A. Generally. Each parent shall at all times endeavor not to disclose to Nicole any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving the other parent and shall at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of the other parent and admonish Nicole not to do so.

B. Form of custody. The parent who is entitled to physical custody may have Nicole at that parent's home or other suitable place selected by that parent. Neither parent may impose any condition upon physical custody by the other parent.

C. Notice. During any period when a parent has physical custody of a child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of Nicole, including but not limited to:

a-the physical location of Nicole (including address and telephone number) at a time when Nicole is spending the night at a place other than the home of the parent having physical custody or the home of any relative of the parent having physical custody;

b-the physical location of the parent when the parent is spending a night at a place other than the home of the parent or a relative of the parent;

c-the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

d-the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological or dental advice or treatment, e-the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which Nicole is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which Nicole will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

Such information shall be given promptly after it becomes known to the custodial parent and is sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

D. Authority. During any period when a parent has physical custody of Nicole, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding Nicole's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining Nicole, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations.

E. Telephone access. A parent having physical custody shall permit Nicole to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

DEFENDANT'S PHYSICAL CUSTODY RIGHTS

3. The Defendant, Denise L. Jackson, shall have physical custody of Nicole during:

A. the "school year", which for purposes of this Judgment begins the day before the commencement of the school year and continues (except for periods referred to in Paragraph 4) to the close of the normal school year;

B. "summer visits" which, in the absence of other arrangements between the parties, shall be the first half of July and August of each year.

C. alternating holidays as hereafter provided, commencing with Nicole's birthday.

PLAINTIFF'S PHYSICAL CUSTODY RIGHTS

4. The Plaintiff, Mark F. Jackson, shall have physical custody of Nicole during:

A. "summer visits" which, in the absence of other arrangements between the parties, shall be the remaining portion of June following the close of the "school year" referred to in Paragraph 3 (A), the second half of July, and the second half of August prior to the beginning of the "school year."

B. a "midwinter visit" representing one-half of Nicole's Christmas recess from school, which is designated by the Plaintiff before November 1, but not to interfere with Christmas Eve or the Christmas holiday visit to which the Defendant is entitled as referred to in Paragraph 6;

C. on weekends during the school year referred to in paragraph 5;

D. alternating holidays as hereafter provided, commencing with the Easter holiday 1995.

WEEKEND VISITS

5. Unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parents, (a) weekend visits will be on alternating weekends and will begin at 6 p.m. on Friday and continue until 6 p.m. on the following Sunday, except when the Plaintiff's work week ends on Thursday (generally from March 15th through October 30th), in which event the weekend visit for the Plaintiff will begin at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday.

HOLIDAY VISITS

6. In this Judgment, "holidays" include January 1, Nicole's birthday, Easter, the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve and Christmas.

A. Each parent will have physical custody of Nicole on alternate holidays and, in addition, on the parent's birthday.

B. A parent-birthday visit does not affect the alternating schedule of holidays referred to in clause (a), but is to be regarded as a holiday for all other purposes of this paragraph.

C. A holiday visit has precedence over any other physical custody.

D. A holiday visit begins at 6 p.m. on the day preceding the holiday and continues until 8 a.m. on the day following the holiday, except that (i) on Christmas Eve the period is from 6 p.m. on December 24 until 1 p.m. on December 25, and (ii) on Christmas, the period is from 1 p.m. on December 25 until 8 a.m. on December 26.

E. A holiday visit is in addition to any weekend visit to which a parent is entitled in the same month. The alternating schedule is not affected by, and a parent is not entitled to a substitute holiday visit if (i) a holiday occurs during a period (including the Saturday or Sunday of a weekend) when that parent otherwise has physical custody or (ii) the parent is unable or unwilling to have physical custody on the holiday.

PHYSICAL CUSTODY SCHEDULE TO BE FLEXIBLE

7. The provisions of Paragraphs 3, 4, 5, and 6, of this Judgment Of Absolute Divorce are intended to reflect only minimum objectives and minimum rights with respect to physical custody to be observed in the absence of agreement between the parents. The parents are authorized and encouraged, by mutual agreement, to supplement or vary those provisions in order to permit contact between Nicole and each parent as frequently as possible and as may be necessary and desirable to accommodate schedules of all involved and especially the activities of Nicole, such as school plays, sporting events, family gatherings, 4-H projects and the like, which a weekend or other scheduled period of physical custody would restrict or prohibit.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

8. The Plaintiff, Mark F. Jackson, shall have full and complete access to any and all information regarding Nicole which, by law, can be disclosed to a parent of minor children, including information regarding the child which may be in the hands of any State, Local or Federal governmental agency, the child's school or teachers, and child's medical or mental health care providers, as if the Plaintiff, Mark F. Jackson, had sole legal custody of Nicole.

CONTRIBUTION CLAIMS AND DUTIES

9. The Court finds as a matter of fact that as of the date of this Judgment, neither party is entitled to contribution from the other for any mortgage payments, taxes, insurance, or other carrying charges or maintenance expenses incurred by either party on the jointly owned real property located in Maryland and Delaware. From and after the date of this Judgment, however, the parties shall be and are each charged with the responsibility and obligation of paying 1/2 of the mortgage and insurance payments and real property taxes that hereafter become due on the jointly owned real property, after setting off any income receive by either or both of the parties from the lease of said properties. Said obligation shall continue as long as the parties jointly own the real property in Maryland and Delaware.

DELAWARE CHILD SUPPORT ORDER UNAFFECTED

10. Nothing contained herein shall modify or effect in any manner the Order dated January 7, 1994 entered by the Family Court of the State of Delaware in which the Plaintiff, Mark F. Jackson was Ordered to pay the sum of $50.00 per week for the current support and maintenance of Nicole.

HEALTH INSURANCE FOR MINOR CHILD

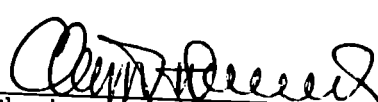

11. The parties shall each carry and maintain health insurance for the benefit of the minor child for so long she remains an eligible dependent and provided such insurance is provided as an incidence of employment. The parties shall equally divide the cost of any reasonable and necessary medical expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child that are not covered by health insurance in place for the minor child.

OPEN COURT COSTS

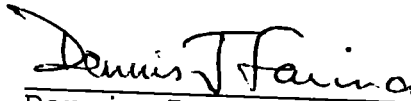

13. The parties shall equally divide open Court cost.

DANIEL T. DEVEREAUX

v.

MICHELLE LYNN DEVEREAUX

Civil # 4288

JUDGMENT OF DIVORCE AND CHILD CUSTODY AND SUPPORT

Following trial of this action and for reasons stated at the conclusion of that trial, it is ORDERED that:

1. Divorce. The parties are divorced absolutely.
2. Legal custody. Daniel T. Devereaux will have sole legal custody of Christina Harley Devereaux (hereafter, the child). However, it is one of the ultimate purposes of the Court to establish joint legal custody of the child; and the following provisions of this judgment shall not be considered final in that regard.
3. Visitation. Michelle Lynn Devereaux shall have visitation with the child at times and on terms and conditions determined by the Queen Anne's County Department of Social Services to be in the best interests of the child and consistent with Michelle Lynn Devereaux's satisfactory compliance with other provisions of this Order.
4. Special duties of Daniel T. Devereaux. In addition to other obligations to be observed or performed by him under other provisions of this Order, Daniel T. Devereaux shall:

a-cooperate with and assist the Department of Social Services in the conduct of any investigations made pursuant to this Order and advise the Department of any change in his residence and participate in programs and follow any other recommendations made by the Department in accordance with this Order, and

b-submit to such investigation and evaluation by the Queen Anne's County Department of Social Services as may be necessary to determine whether, in the opinion of the Department, the best interests of the child would be served by participation in one or more programs designed to increase parenting skills; participate in any such program recommended by the Department; and pay any fees incident to such evaluation and/or program.

5. Special duties of Michelle Lynn Devereaux. In addition to other obligations to be observed or performed by her under other provisions of this Order, Michelle Lynn Devereaux shall:

a-cooperate with and assist the Department of Social Services in the conduct of any investigations made pursuant to this Order and advise the Department of any change in her residence and participate in programs and follow any other recommendations made by the Department in accordance with this Order, and

b-submit to such investigation and evaluation by the Queen Anne's County Department of Social Services as may be necessary to determine whether, in the opinion of the Department, the best interests of the child would be served by participation in one or more programs designed to increase parenting skills; participate in any such program recommended by the Department; and pay any fees incident to such evaluation and/or program. The Department shall file a written report of its findings and recommendations within 30 days of the date of this Order.

Satisfactory compliance with this paragraph is a condition to the continuance of any visitation pursuant to the provisions of this Order.

6. Department of Social Services. The Queen Anne's County Department of Social Services is authorized and directed to make recommendations which it deems to be in the best interests of the child and to assist Michelle Lynn Devereaux in developing skills and a home environment which will enable her to share joint legal custody of the child. By way of illustrating, but not limiting, the generality of those directions, the Department is authorized and directed:

a-to recommend such housekeeping, home management, parenting or other programs as it deems necessary or desirable to assist Michelle Lynn Devereaux in developing skills and practices which will (i) insure a stable and suitable environment for the child during periods of visitation and/or (ii) qualify her for joint legal custody of the child;

b-to conduct any investigation of the home and other living conditions of Michelle Lynn Devereaux as it deems necessary in the context of this Order to make any specific recommendations (particularly regarding overnight visitation) as the Department deems in the best interests of the child;

c-upon notification by either parent of a change of residence, to provide promptly an investigation, report and recommendations concerning the welfare of the child;

d-to make such periodic investigations of the conduct or living conditions of either parent as it deems necessary, desirable or otherwise in the best interests of the child;

e-to make such recommendations from time to time as it deems in the best interests of the child;

f-to determine rights of visitation in accordance with the terms of this Order.

In the event that a parent does not reside in Queen Anne's County, the Department may arrange for a proper investigation to be made by an agency or qualified person in the appropriate jurisdiction. At the time when any report is filed with the Court, the Department shall send a copy to each of the parents or their respective counsel.

7. Support. Beginning on February 9, 1995, Michelle Lynn Devereaux shall pay to Daniel T. Devereaux the sum of $126 per month for the support and maintenance of the child, such amount having been determined in accordance with the child support guidelines contained in Title 12, Subtitle 2, of the Family Law Article of the Code.

8. Payment of support. Such support (including any accrued amount) shall be paid through the Bureau of Support Enforcement of the Queen Anne's County Department of Social Services, 120 Broadway, Centreville, Maryland 21617. This Order constitutes an immediate and continuing wage withholding order on all earnings of Michelle Lynn Devereaux, who is hereby directed to notify the Bureau of Support Enforcement within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as this Order is in effect. Notice is hereby given that failure to comply with the provisions of this paragraph regarding notice will subject him to a penalty not to exceed $250 and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

9. Scope of Order. The terms of this Order shall continue in effect, subject to further order of the Court, until final judgment. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect the scope or terms of the final judgment, it being contemplated that additional and/or different provisions will be made at that time with respect to custody.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

The case having come on for hearing on Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff's Second Amended Counter-Complaint for Divorce and Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant's Answer, testimony taken before a Standing Examiner of this Court and the papers read and considered. Accordingly, it is ORDERED, this 11th day of May, 1995, as follows:

1. ABSOLUTE DIVORCE. The Counter-Plaintiff, KEROLYN MARIE ALCAMO, be and is granted an ABSOLUTE DIVORCE from the Counter-Defendant, LOUIS P. ALCAMO, JR.

2. CUSTODY AND CHILD SUPPORT. The parties shall have the joint care and custody of their minor children, Louis Michael Alcamo, born December 28, 1984, Kara Michelle Alcamo, born October 30, 1986 and Nicole Elise Alcamo, born September 5, 1989, in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Consent Order Regarding Joint Custody and Child Support dated December 22, 1994 (the "ORDER"). Counter-Defendant LOUIS P. ALCAMO, JR. shall pay to Counter-Plaintiff KEROLYN MARIE ALCAMO the sum of Six Hundred Fifty One Dollars per month, payable on the first day of each month, as child support in accordance with the ORDER. The terms and provisions of the ORDER be and are hereby incorporated in this Judgment of Absolute Divorce, subject to the continuing jurisdiction of this Court in regard thereto.

3. WAIVER OF ALIMONY. Neither party have requested alimony, and each having specifically waived alimony, both parties are hereby denied alimony, maintenance and support.

4. MARITAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT. The Marital Settlement Agreement between the parties dated December 13, 1994 be and is hereby incorporated, but not merged, in this Judgment of Absolute Divorce.

5. RETIREMENT ACCOUNT TRANSFER. In accordance with the terms and provisions of Section 5.5 of the Marital Settlement Agreement dated December 13, 1994, the Court directs that the sum of Five Thousand Seven Hundred Eighty-Six Dollars and Twenty Cents ($5,786.20) shall be transferred from Counter-Defendant's Bank of Maryland IRA Account Number C/D1002202026, IRA Number 216605029, by the Custodian of said account directly to the Custodian of the IRA account of Counter-Plaintiff KEROLYN MARIE ALCAMO at the Bank of Maryland, IRA Account Number 1002200309. The parties are further ordered to execute such other and further documents as may be necessary to effect the provisions of the foregoing retirement account transfer. In the event a Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") shall be required by any financial institution as a condition of making the foregoing transfer, the Court expressly retains continuing jurisdiction to pass such Orders as may be necessary and/or required.

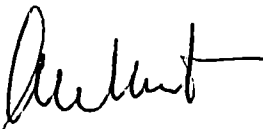

6. RESUMPTION OF FORMER NAME. The Counter-Plaintiff, KEROLYN MARIE ALCAMO, be and is hereby permitted to resume the use of her former name, KEROLYN MARIE DUFFY.

7. DISMISSAL. Upon entry of a Judgment of Absolute Divorce pursuant to Counter-Plaintiff's Second Amended Counter-Complaint for Divorce, Plaintiff's Complaint for Divorce be and is hereby Dismissed.

8. NOTICE TO COURT REGARDING CHANGES IN ADDRESS AND EMPLOYMENT. If a party who is charged with the payment of child support accumulates support payments arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days, that party shall be subject to earnings withholding; each party is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as a party is obligated to pay child support in accordance with this Order; and failure to do so shall subject a party to a penalty not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00), and may result in a party not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

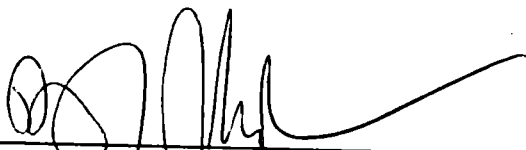

9. COSTS. The parties shall each pay one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the costs in this case.

SUBJECT TO THE CONTINUING JURISDICTION OF THIS COURT IN THE PREMISES.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 94-04591

JUDGMENT FOR ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause standing ready for hearing and being duly submitted, the proceedings were by the Court heard and considered.

It is thereupon, this 13th day of April, 1995, by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's County,

ADJUDGED AND ORDERED, That the said Martin E. Williams, Plaintiff, be, and he is granted an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, Arlene George Williams, and it is further ORDERED, That the Plaintiff, Martin E. Williams, and the Defendant, Arlene George Williams, be awarded joint legal and shared physical custody of the minor children of the parties, Courtney E. Williams and Rachel L. Williams, all as is set forth in the Property Settlement and Marital Separation Agreement dated October 6, 1992, and it is further ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, Martin E. Williams, shall pay the sum of $500.00 per month as child support until August 31, 1995, as is set forth in the Property Settlement and Marital Separation Agreement dated October 6, 1992. With respect to the $500.00 per month child support figure, the Court makes the following finding of facts:

1. That the child support figures required under the guidelines as of the date of the Property Settlement and Marital Separation Agreement was $531.63 per month.

2. That the child support figures required under the guidelines as of April 13, 1995 would be $ 622.92 per month (~~$143.71 per month~~).

3. That the Property Settlement and Marital Separation Agreement referred to above, requires the Plaintiff, among other things, i) to provide one-half of all undergraduate college educational expenses regardless of the age of the minor children of the parties, ii) to pay one-half of all necessary medical, dental and pharmaceutical expenses not covered by the parties' medical insurance and iii) to pay all mortgage payments, insurance payments and real estate taxes from 10/6/92 until 8/31/94 associated with the parties' real property where the Defendant and children are living in Queen Anne's County.

4. That the monetary benefits that the minor children of the parties have and will receive under the terms of the Property Settlement and Marital Separation Agreement far outweigh the difference between the child support figure as set forth in Section 12-204 of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, and the amount of child support paid by the Plaintiff through August 31, 1995, and it is further ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, Martin E. Williams, shall pay the sum of $ 622.92 per month as child support after August 31, 1995 as set forth in Section 12-204 of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland; said child support payments shall continue until the first of any to occur with respect to each child: (a) the death of the child or Plaintiff, (b) marriage of the child, (c) child becoming self-supporting, (d) child having reached the age of eighteen years, and it is further

ORDERED, That the terms and conditions of the Property Settlement and Marital Separation Agreement, dated October 6, 1992 be incorporated, but not merged, into this Judgment for Absolute Divorce and that the parties be directed to be bound thereby; and it is further ORDERED, That this Order shall constitute a continuing wage withholding order on all earnings of the Plaintiff, Martin E. Williams, beginning August 1, 1995. The Plaintiff is required to notify the Court of any changes in address or employment as long as he continues to have a duty of support. The failure to comply with such notification requirement will subject the Plaintiff to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in his not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholdings; and it is further

c. The Parties shall alternate physical custody of the child for all Holidays hereafter with said Holidays to include Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, Easter Sunday, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, and Thanksgiving Day. Plaintiff shall have custody for each Father's Day while Defendant shall have custody for each Mother's Day. Each Party shall be entitled to share time with the minor child on her birthday each year.

Custody for Christmas Eve shall begin at 12:00 noon until 12:00 noon on Christmas Day. Custody for Christmas Day shall begin at 12:00 noon until 12:00 noon on December 26th.

d. Defendant shall be entitled to exercise physical custody of the minor child for five (5) consecutive days during the Christmas Holiday period each year beginning at 12:00 noon on December 26th of each year hereafter.

e. Defendant shall also be entitled to exercise physical custody of the minor child for five (5) consecutive days during the child's Easter break or Spring break from her regularly scheduled school year if such break is available provided Defendant gives notice at least thirty (30) days prior to such break in writing to Plaintiff of her plans to exercise such custody.

f. Defendant shall have physical custody of the minor child during the child's summer recess from school with said period of custody to begin at 12:00 noon on the first (1st) Saturday which is at least seven (7) days after the end of the school year until 12:00 noon on the Saturday which is at least seven (7) days prior to the day on which the child resumes her school year. Plaintiff shall be entitled to exercise visitation with the minor child for the second (2nd) and fourth (4th) weekend of each month during Defendant's period of physical custody or for an alternative weekend or weekends during that period in the event Defendant has planned a vacation with the minor child for those weekends. In addition, Plaintiff shall be entitled to exercise three (3) weeks of physical custody during this period, of which no more than two (2) weeks shall be taken consecutively. Plaintiff shall notify Defendant in writing of his planned weeks of physical custody during the child's summer recess no later than May 1st of each year.

g. Unless the Parties shall agree otherwise, each Party relinquishing physical custody shall be responsible for transporting the minor child to the other Party's residence after such period of custody.

5. The provisions of Paragraph 4 are intended to reflect only minimum objectives and minimum rights with respect to custody and visitation to be observed in the absence of agreement between the parents. The parents are authorized and encouraged, by mutual agreement, to supplement or vary those provisions in order to permit contacts between the child and each parent as frequently as possible and as may be necessary or desirable to accommodate (among other things) the schedules of all involved and especially the activities of the child, such as school plays, sporting events, 4-H projects, family gatherings and the like, which a weekend or other scheduled period of custody would restrict or prohibit.

6. Each parent will at all times endeavor not to disclose to the child any differences of opinion regarding custody, visitation, support or any other matter involving any parent and will at all times refrain from speaking disparagingly or disrespectfully of a parent and admonish the child not to do so.

7. During any period when a child resides with a parent, that parent shall have authority to make day-to-day decisions regarding the child's welfare, such as controlling and disciplining the child, and to consent to emergency surgery and major medical care when there is insufficient time to contact the other parent. However, a parent having physical custody shall (i) so far as possible consult with the other parent before seeking or authorizing medical advice or treatment other than routine physical examinations and (ii) permit the child to speak with the other parent privately by telephone at times and for periods which are reasonable.

8. a. During any period when a parent has physical custody of the child, that parent shall notify the other parent of all significant matters involving the activities and welfare of the child, including but not limited to:

(i) the complete contents of all grade and disciplinary reports by a school or teacher;

(ii) the purpose and results of all medical, psychiatric, psychological, or dental advice or treatment;

(iii) the time and place of all meetings or events conducted by educational, religious, athletic, social and other organizations with which a child is involved and to which parents or the public are invited (for example, parent-teacher meetings; athletic contests; school or church ceremonies or activities in which a child will participate; and meetings which involve information or planning with respect to the work of such organization and in which either parent may participate).

b. Such information shall be given promptly after it become known to the custodial parent and in sufficient time to afford the other parent reasonable opportunity to participate meaningfully in the activity, event or matter to which the information relates.

9. a. Pursuant to the attached Child Support Guidelines Worksheet "A" (Sole Custody), Defendant shall pay the sum of $294.08 per month on the first (1st) day of each month beginning on September 1, 1995 directly to the Queen Anne's County Bureau of Child Support Enforcement for the support and maintenance of the minor child. Defendant shall pay said amount for the minor child in accordance with the aforesaid Child Support Guidelines and with any additions or Amendments thereto, or pursuant to any further Order of Court which may be entered herein, until the minor child reaches the age of 18, dies or becomes emancipated.

b. Defendant, Stacy J. Dunn shall arrange to have said child support paid directly to the Queen Anne's County Bureau of Child Support Enforcement. If Defendant fails to make such arrangement, or after doing so, discontinues said arrangement, then ten (10) days thereafter the court shall authorize the service of an earnings withholding order pursuant to Md. Ann. Code FL 10-120 through 10-136, and any additions or amendments thereto.

c. If Defendant, Stacy J. Dunn, accumulates support arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, she shall be subject to earnings withholding.

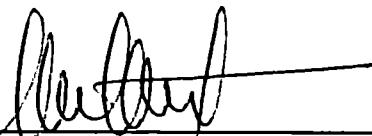

d. Defendant, Stacy J. Dunn, shall notify the Court through the Queen Anne's County Bureau of Support Enforcement within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the support order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in her not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholdings.

e. Plaintiff, Steven Edward Dunn, shall maintain medical insurance coverage as long as such coverage is available, on the minor child and shall inform Defendant regarding any medical insurance cards or verification forms which may be issued by the insurance provider and which Defendant may need on behalf of the minor child.

10. Each parent is hereby ordered to keep the other parent informed at all times of their respective addresses and telephone numbers (both for residence and place of employment) and to immediately provide the other parent with written notice of any change in their respective addresses and telephone numbers (both residence and place of employment). Each parent shall also provide to the other parent the name, address, and telephone number of any day-care provider or relative each parent may utilize to care for the child while in that parent's physical custody.

11. The Defendant is hereby restored the use of her maiden name, STACY J. CORDER.

12. All outstanding Court costs shall be paid for equally by the Parties.
