POLICE WIVES SWEAT IT OUT

By WILBUR PINDER

Often little thought is given to the wives who wait for and worry about the policemen who daily face potential dangers in the war on crime.

Fear sometimes is as much a part of their lives as the glass of water or daily bread.

But though there is always the fear that a husband may leave on his shift and not return alive, most of the wives manage to conceal their feelings behind a surface calm which they have trained themselves to [illegible] what he likes best, well, I have to go along with him."

The working-housewife explained further "I look at it this way; people get hurt just walking down the street. Anything can happen.

"Every day some innocent person gets hit by a car, injured or killed. I have learned to accept continuous danger for what it is, an occupational hazard," she said.

Married for 21 years, Mrs. Paone said she has arranged her meals to the schedule of her husband.

FORD'S THEATRE CLOSES DOORS

By JOHN CASPER

The 93 - year - old Ford's Theatre has closed its doors for the last time. A new theatre will be built in the Charles Center.

Meantime, shows like "Camelot" will be staged in the Civic Center.

Dorothy Lamour of the movies, headed a committee to stage a black - tie final audience which included Governor J. Millard Tawes and Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin.

The play was "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum."

Some of the audience came more Goucher students supported the pickets.

2 MORGANITES ARRESTED

At one time, Morgan had 33 students in line. Two of them, Fleming James and Frank Eaverly, were arrested and later dismissed. Charges were thrusting picket signs in the faces of prospective ticket buyers. Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity's Melvin Cade furnished 5 pickets each day.

Mrs. Owen Lattimore, wife of a State Department official, and Sydney Hollander publicly denounced Ford's jimcrow policy.

We still have you in our hearts.
THE FAMILY.

In Memoriam 3

BATTLE — In loving memory of our mother, FLORENCE E. BATTLE, who departed, one year ago, February 10, 1963:
No one knows how much we miss you.
No one knows the bitter pain.
We have suffered since we lost you.
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
Her Children,
CHARLES W. BATTLE,
FLORENCE E. MADDEN,
MARY J. CAPLETON.

BAILEY — In loving memory of my dear husband, GUY B. SR., who passed away February 7, 1961:
I miss you now, my heart is sore,
As time goes by, I miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can ever take your place.
Your memory is as dear today,
As in the hour you passed away.
Loving Wife, ELIZABETH.

BRADLEY — In loving memory of our dear one, SAMUEL H., who passed away February 8, 1963:
Gone, but not forgotten by many.
Devoted Friend,
MRS. IZZA CANNON
and McKELDIN FAMILY.

BRENT — In loving memory of my husband, HOWARD DULANEY SR., who passed away February 7, 1944:
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Out and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away.
Where I laid you, dearest husband,
Twenty years ago today.
Wife,
LAVINIA CLASH BRENT.

BROWN — In loving memory of my sister, PATRICIA, who passed away February 9, 1963:
Peaceful be thy rest, dear sister,
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I do the same.
Brother, STEVEN BROWN.

BRUCE — In loving memory of my husband, COLLINS, who passed February 6, 1963:
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how I miss you, COLLINS dear,
None but God in Heaven can see.
You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head, you did not bow.
I kept the watch with you, dear husband,
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and wasted long in vain,
God grant some day we'll meet again.
Loving Wife,
ROSA LEE.

BRUCE — In memory of our loved one, JIMMONS, who passed away February 6, 1963:
What would we give his hand to clasp,
His patient face to see.
To hear his voice, to see his smile,
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again,
Beyond the toil and strife.
And clasp each other hand and once

In Memoriam 3

PARKER — In loving memory of our dear sister, MAGGIE, who passed away February 6, 1961:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed her loving eyes,
And whispered peace be thine.
Her weary hours, her days of pain,
Her weary nights are past.
Her ever patient worn out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.
Her Devoted SISTERS.

ROBINSON — In loving memory of my husband, RUSSELL J., who passed away February 8, 1963:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say good bye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
LOVING WIFE
