WHEN YOU FINISH READING THIS PAPER PASS IT ALONG TO A FRIEND

Among The Clubs

FIVE J's — The club held a meeting in the home of Mrs. Daisy Paxton, 1842 N. Chester St., last week.

The group donated $50 to the Providence HITAI, Development Program. Attending the meeting were Mrs. Paxton, president; Mrs. Elliose Rush, Mrs. Susie Parsons and Mrs. Gloria Johnson.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Rush, 719 Radnor Avenue.

Welcome Bouvier Ladies — The club met with Mrs. Ida Russell, 1903 Ruxton Avenue, recently.

The club is planning to have an anniversary and dedication service on March 8. The affair will be held in the Holmes Avenue club.

New members added to the club were Mrs. Lillian Tate and Mrs. Anne Stokes.

Other members are:

Mrs. Russell, president; Mesdames Marie Neely, vice president; Grace Johnson, publicity manager; Frances Stafford, business manager; Ethel Fields, financial secretary.

Mesdames Ada Smith, assistant financial secretary; Henrietta King, recording secretary; Retha Taylor, and Virginia Coleman.

GALLANT MEN — The club met at the Bridge Inn, Sunday, and elected the following officers:

Milton Crawford, president; Willie R. Robertson, vice president; Solomon Phipps, treasurer; James E. Jackson, secretary; David Ward, business manager.

REDSTONE — The Democratic Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Mattie White, 6 N. Mt. Olivet Lane.

The group held a baby contest, Sunday, in the Valent Women's Headquarters, Holmes Avenue. From the project $100 will be given to the Political Science Department of Morgan State College.

Anthony P. Scott was winner of the baby contest, and received a $25 bond. $6.50 went to the second place winner, Brian V. Molock.

Receiving silver dollars were Enzo Blanks, Leonard Carrington, Kevan D. Tylon, Dawn Valentine and Leslie Rice.

TWAINS — The Social Club members worshipped together Sunday morning at Emmanuel Christian Community Church on their 26th anniversary.

They donated $25 to the church.

The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Young, at which time they will have election of officers.

Milton Branch Sr. is president of the group.

NEW ORLEANS — A group of prominent New Orleans citizens have been granted permission by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board to organize the city's first colored federally chartered savings and loan association.

Construction is scheduled to begin shortly on a modern new building to house the United Federal Savings and Loan Association. It will be a mutual savings and home financing institution. Dr. Anthony J. Hackett Jr. is chairman.

WHEN LAMBDA KAPPA MU SORORS celebrated Founder's Day with a luncheon in Baltimore, recently, at the speaker's table were, left to right: Soror Naomi Johnson, Dr. Ferman Templeton, Sorors Kathleen Newsome, Enid C. Baird of New York, speaker; Frankie Hinchen, luncheon chairman; Susie B. Myles, chapter basileus; Margaret Haywood, attorney, of Washington; Violet H. Whyte and Imogene Douglas.

Gadabouting In Baltimore

P.O.P. Conference planned for March

With Lula Jones Garrett

Finalizing the plans for its P.O.P. Conference is the Maryland League of Women's Clubs.

Members of the Conference Planning Committee will meet Sunday at 3 p.m. with Miss Shirley Kyle, conference chairman, to work out the details of the League's first two-day event to be held on March 20th and March 21st.

The opening meeting of the P.O.P. Conference (the initials standing for Practicality Of Politics) will be held at the War Memorial Building, Friday, March 20, at 8:30 p.m. with a statewide rally featuring local, state and national officials, politicians and political party leaders.

The conference will con-

Workshops will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. for delegates and guests. In charge of these programs are:

• • •

MRS. RUTH BROWN, Urban Renewal and Housing; Mesdames Frankie Hinchen and Lena Lee, Employment; Public Affairs; Mesdames Pivian Watkins, Edith Mosby and Dr. Regina Goff Henry, Health - Education - Recreation; Mrs. Della Myers, Institutions; Mrs. Hazel Fleming, International and Intercultural Relations; and Mrs. Arlene Kilpatrick, Youth.

The League's annual luncheon will be held at 2 p.m. Tickets are $5.00; however,

MRS. JOSEPH ERVIN, recently married in Baltimore, is the former Miss Evon M. Handy.

Miss Evon Handy becomes bride of Joseph Ervin

Miss Evon Margaret Hanly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady S. Handy, became the bride of Joseph Ervin, here, recently.

For the ceremony, which took place in St. Pius Roman Catholic Church, the bride wore a dress of ivory brocade designed with a fitted bodice belted and bowed at front.

• • •

THE BODICE featured a Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves, edged with a bias fold and buttoned with two tiny broacade buttons.

Her chapel - length train was attached at the natural-waistline at the back. The veil of imported ivory silk illusion was held by a double half - crown of Alencon lace edged in seed pearls and iridescent beads.

• • •

THE BRIDE was attended by Miss Lillian Hardy and Miss Joyce Williams. Both wore street - length dressed of emerald green velvet styled with fitted bodices, scooped necklines and long sleeves.

They wore short circular vet circles studded with vet circlets studded with seed pearls. They carried bouquets of red carnations.

• • •

BEST MAN was Andrew

Extension sought of scholarship funds

ANNAPOLIS — A move will be made here within the next few days to make available, without budget approval, scholarships for students at Morgan State College who re seeking teaching careers.

Del. Harry J. McGuirk (D. 6th D, Balto.), sponsor of the proposal, said such funds are already available to students entering the five state colleges, formerly teachers' colleges.

Such scholarships for Mor-

PASS IT ALONG TO A FRIEND PASS IT ALONG TO A FRIEND

- - Gadabouting

(Continued from Page 10)

trice G. Pitts, Yvonne Hyson, Evelyn Roller, Carrie Scott.

Mesdames Camilla Sherrard, Bernice Shorter, Hortense Smith, Naomi Smith, Mary J. Taylor, Lillian R. Webb, Mamie B. Williams, Arlene Kilpatrick, Myrna T. Powell, Betina Monroe;

Misses Mary Adams, Mary L. Anderson, Sandra East, Mary Graves, Beatrice A. Mayo, Angie McClain, Gloria Paster, Catherine Brown and Edna Wyche.

• • •

FRESH FROM a January meeting with Henrietta Jones, the twelve members of the organization gathered again with Mae Cornish, this week.

Mae, one of the founders of the Baltimore, as well as the Philadelphia chapter, was the perfect hostess, holding forth with cocktails in the club room of her Braddish Avenue home, and then dinner above. For the able decor, she used a color scheme of green and yellow colors most favored by the members

The group made plans for their annual spring dinner dance.

Those around included Lillian Wilson, Henrietta Jones, Alphua Williams, Marion Amprey, Leona Ferrette, Mary Bacote, Jeanette Johnson, Aurelia Lonesome and Ernestine Lewis.

• • •

FOUR BUSINESS Clinics or Inspiration Shops will be featured when the Baltimore Club of Business and Professional Women hold a business conference, Friday, March 6, at the Sheraton-Belvedere at 6 p.m. reported Susie Strother, chairman at the club meeting Tuesday.

The clinic subjects will be "Investment Practices", Walter T. Dixon, councilman, Emerson Brown, attorney, consultants, Edna D. Johnson, chairman, Alice F. Ford, recorder; "Public Relations in Business," Shirley Kyle, tants, Hild P. Smith, chairman, Sedonia Merritt, recorder; "Small Businesses Explored", Ethel P. Rich, Ann Day, chairman, Alice B. Mathews, recorder; "New Careers in Business", Ida M. Blair, consultants, Ethel J. Victorine Adams, consultants, Lillian S. Watty, chairman, Gladys Turner, recorder.

At the dinner to follow at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Winfred O. Bryson, prominent businessman and Morgan State professor, will be the dinner speaker. Loretta Watty is chairman of souvenir booklets. Business products and services will be on display.

Mary Carter Smith, program chairman, reported on the

HAVE FUN - WILL TRAVEL PLAN NOW FOR YOUR SUMMER VACATION!
HAMPTON HOUSE MOTEL and VILLAS
MIAMI, FLA.
7200 N. W. 27th Avenue
SPECIAL RATES FOR GROUP TRAVEL
Write us about the possibilities of raising money for your Church or Club on this Group Travel Plan!
There are many activities available in Miami for your Enjoyment
Sightseeing — Golfing — Ocean Bathing — Nightclubbing — Dog Racing — Horse Racing — Baseball — Football — Moonlight Boatrides — Fishing
SOCIAL CENTER OF THE SOUTH
$1,000,000
5 Acre Show Place
Send for Color Brochure! AF-1
Please send me more information
Name .....
Address .....
City ..... State .....

2 MONTHS SPECIAL ON HAIR STYLES
Special care taken with the scalp
Hair Styles $2.50 Tints $6.00
Ultra Sheen Perms. $11.00
CARRIES BEAUTY BOX
1634 HARFORD AVE.
752-0177 or DI. 2-2660

See the difference... with this
MODERN CAREFREE

OCTETTE OF the Baltimore Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority supplied music at the 51st Founders' Day celebration. Members, from left to right, are Sorors Dorothy Barrick, Ruth King, Evelyn Bass, Mary Irvine, Chapelle Armstead, Norma Brown, Vivian Washington, and Beryl Williams. Soror Clara Green was director and accompanist for the singers.

MRS. LILLIAN LAWRENCE JACKSON of Baltimore was named "Cosmetolist of the Year" by the Nwe York State Beauty Culture Association, recently. The citation was made at the group's annual breakfast.

Ethel M. Newman Guild sets plans for study workshops

The Ethel M. Newman Guild of Ames Methodist Church, met at the church, Wednesday, when they were hosted by Mesdames Bertha Brown, Charlee Bethea, Ida Briscoe, Elaine Young Esther Moore, Ernestine Palmer and Bessie Pinkney.

They participated in Ash Wednesday Services, and on Friday observed World Day of Prayer with contributions of clothes and bed blankets for the service project.

EVENTS scheduled include study courses and a promotional workshop.

On February 2, 9, and 16, workshops will be held on "The Changing City Challenges the Church". Mrs. Ada Brooks will be instructor.

Mrs. Velya Purvis will be instructor for the workshops on March 1, 8, and 15, when the theme will be "Teachings Toward Christian Perfection."

Mrs. Eleanor Moore will be in charge of the Promotional Workshop, on March 31.

LENTEN Breakfast, with Mrs. Elaine Young and Mrs. Maude Parker, co-chairmen, will be on March 22. The breakfast at 9:30 a.m. will be preceded by worship and communion at 8:30.

The Guild will have a theatre party on April 13, when they will see "Dinner With the Family" presented by the Vagabond Players.

JURISDICTION GUILD Weekend is scheduled February 21-23 and will be held in the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

The Northeastern Jurisdiction Guild Weekend, March 13-15, will be in Buck Hill Falls, Pa.

Rounding out the family is a daughter, six - year - old Robin.

Laverne Hughes, of Westminister, Md., student at Morgan State College, spent the semester vacation with her father, James Hughes.

NORMAL, Ala. — Dr. William P. Foster, head of Florida A and M University's music department, will be the guest consulant at Alabama A and M's 10th annual band clinic Friday, Feb. 21. The clinic is under the direction of Thomas V. Thurston

ATTENTION LADIES!
Learn How To Make Hats the New, Easy Way
Free demonstration and registration TUES. FEB. 18, 1964. Call for admission card.
LO. 6-8836

"FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS"
Reasonably Priced
Expertly Arranged
J. J. CUMMINGS & SONS
PHONE: PLAZA 2-1374, 1375, 1376
1123-25 W. BALTIMORE ST.
MEMBER, FLORIST TELEGRAPH DELIVERY ASSN.
NO BRANCH STORES

"I'm delighted with the way Artra keeps my skin radiantly bright."
says Miss Dee Simmons, model and winner of the "Miss Empire State of 1962" title.
Take a tip from a lovely Artra user—make your skin come alive—look lighter, brighter.