How long did he so attend to the farm; did he appear attentive to farming operations, and what do you think his services were worth per year. &.

No

George MacHett sworn. Witness says he went to live on the farm rented to him by William Kilgour in 1828, and remained on said farm until 1839 (that he does not know the name of said land) that he paid £40 rent to William Kilgour per year, for 4 or 5 years, the remaining years he paid William Kilgour £30, that James E. Kilgour called, as he told witness his father had directed him for rent; that James E. Kilgour also called on witness in 1838 for the rent of 1837 with an account for rent, which was proved by William Kilgour before James E. Kilgour as Magistrate; that James E. Kilgour never in the life time of William Kilgour called on witness in his own name for any part of the rent; that William Kilgour had called on him former of said Land, and settled with him for said rent — that the testator William Kilgour distrained for rent in 1837 & that he paid the rent to the officer distraining, who was John Harrison for the Executor of William Kilgour.

The Rent of 1838 the Executor of William Kilgour warranted witness for the Rent; which he superseded, it being the sum of £30, 00; that William Kilgour died in October 1838; that he never heard James E. Kilgour in the life time of William Kilgour set up any claim to the land he rented of William Kilgour; That Wm. lived in the possession of said Land as tenant of J. E. Kilgour, that he took possession thereof in Jany. 1839 as tenant aforesaid, That Wl. Kilgour lived ~~on~~ at the time of his death on his farm Patuxent lying on Patuxent River. That Wm. Kilgour was in the habit during his lifetime of attending to his farming business personally; that Wm. Kilgour was in bad health for some time, perhaps 12 months previous to his death, that he saw him at home, a short time before his death attending to his business; that Jas. E. Kilgour did reside with W. Kilgour at the time of his death; that J. E. Kilgour went to reside with W. Kilgour in the spring of 1837; that witness never saw J. E. Kilgour performing what he considered a labouring hand should do, on the farm of Wlilliam Kilgour, that he saw J. E. Kilgour doing some light work; that he frequently passed Wm. Kilgours farm; that J. E. Kilgour kept a saddle horse while living at W. Kilgour, which he judged was kept & fed there that J. E. Kilgour had been by witness riding about for hunting— that he heard W. Kilgour complain to J. E. Kilgour that he did not attend to his business— and that if he did not do better, he had rather J. E. Kilgour would go away than to stay, that he was of no use to him W. Kilgour, that he heard J. E. Kilgour make no reply, but went out of the room, that W. Kilgour was fretfull at the time he made the aforesaid remark to J. E. Kilgour, from the disease under which he was labouring— Witness thinks that the support of J. E. Kilgours horse together with his own board was equivalent to any services by him rendered to W. Kilgour while he lived with him, that he saw J. E. Kilgour striping tobacco & doing other slight work on the farm of W. Kilgour.—

George Hackett Crop Examineed.

Witness says, that, J. E. Kilgour went to live with W. Kilgour in the winter or spring of 1837. after Mr. Stephens broke up house keeping, that he lived with W. Kilgour till he died in October 1838; that W. Kilgour was in bad health about 12 months, he has seen J. E. Kilgour some times with the hands of W. Kilgour directing them and doing light work; it was admitted by Defendants Counsel, that the Land on which Hackett lived was named Ludgate.— The counsel for the Plaintiff offered the Will of W. Kilgour to prove that Ludgate was the property of W. Kilgour; [Here insert the Will] the reading of which Will was objected to by Dfdts Counsel; the Court over ruled the objections to which the Counsel for the Dfdt. excepted.—

Geo. G. Ashcome sworn by Pltff.

Witness lived near the residence of the late Wm. Kilgour, left them a ½ mile off; that he was frequently at W. Kilgours during his indisposition, which continued 12 months or upwards, but W. Kilgour was frequently out with his hands when able; he also generally attended to his business when able; that J. E. Kilgour resided with W. Kilgour from the time his sister Mrs. Stephens broke up house keeping till the death of William Kilgour; that he has seen J. E. Kilgour droping corn & tobacco plants, and with the hands of W. Kilgour; that he does not know that J. E. Kilgour had the management of W. Kilgour's farm; Witness said that J. E. Kilgour kept a horse when living with W. Kilgour, that he thinks the board of J. E. Kilgour and the support of his horse was a full equivalent for any services he knew him to render to W. Kilgour while living with him. — Witness was then cross examined by the Dfdt. Witness saw J. E. Kilgour with the cart and hands of W. Kilgour in harvest time, but did not see him at work with them: W. Kilgour worked 1 boy & 2 women on his farm, that he made a small crop, 50 Bbls. was the avarage crop of Corn & 5 or 6 hhds. of Tobacco. J. E. Kilgour was with W. Kilgour during the time of his last sickness, and with the working hands of the said W. Kilgour during harvest time, but that he never saw J. E. Kilgour at work in lodding or unlodding carts. — that J. E. Kilgour had the tobacco beds of W. Kilgour made during his last sickness, that W. Kilgour was in the habit of going about his farm a short time previous to his death. — he saw him attending to digging his potatoes on a very cold day, a short time before his death, that the witness remarked to his family that it was very imprudent in him, Mr. Harris offers the Fierefacias, Vendition exponas & Deed from the Sheriff to — Harrison & from Harrison to J. E. Kilgour for the Land called Ludgate, to the admisabi=lity of which the Council for the Pltff. objects; the Court overruled the objections and ordered said papers to be read, to which opinion of the Court the Pltffs. Council excepts. Daniel N. Washington was sworn by Dfdt.

Witness says that J. E. Kilgour worked on the farm of W. Kilgour, that he saw him at one time feeding the wheat fan when cleaning wheat, at another time wattling in pen house to cure tobacco, that he was at W. Kilgour's from time of Mrs. Stephens breaking up house keeping till the death of W. Kilgour which was nearly 2 years; that witness went once or twice a week during W. Kilgour's last sickness, and seldom found J. E. Kilgour at the house, he was generally out with the hands of W. Kilgour, that J. E. Kilgour went to the house of Witness to draw tobacco plants very early on one occation, and was at the bed drawing plants before the hands got there, and that he was generally with the hands superintending the farm, that small crops were made on the farm; that he would not be overseer on W. Kilgour's farm for less than $150, W. Kilgour sometimes hired hands by the day. — Then witness was cross examined by the Dfdt's Council and deposeth as follows; that he was at W. Kilgour's for the last two years at least twice a month, that he has seen W. Kilgour attending to his business; he says, that he saw W. Kilgour at one time at the Tavern at Charlotte Hall during the first year J. E. Kilgour went to live there, while J. E. Kilgour was attending to the affairs of W. Kilgour that he frequently found W. Kilgour in the house, & seldome found him out at the Farm, that W. Kilgour had two women and a man; that J. E. Kilgour kept a horse at W. Kilgour, that the board of J. E. Kilgour is worth $80, and keeping & wintering his horse is worth $15. He does not think the product of W. Kilgours farm would justify W. Kilgour in giving $130, for its superintendance,

vs.
Lewis Shorts &
Rosetta his wife

At the trial of this cause the Pltff. to maintain the issue on his part offered in evidence to the Court the Judgment of the Executer of Chapalier vs. E. Edwards and the execution on same, and the Deed of a tract of Land called Ludgate from E. Edwards to J. E. Kilgour to the admisability of which the Dfdt. made an objection, which objection the court over ruled and received the aforesaid Judgment Execution & Deed as evidence in the cause, to the admission and reception of which, the Dfds by their council prayed leave to except and that Court would sign & seal this bill of exceptions according to the form of statute in such case made and provided; which is accordingly done this thirteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty.

and thereupon the following Depositions in the above case were taken by order of the Court court

Doctor Alexander H Robertson of lawfull age a witness produced & Sworn on the part of the Defendant after being duly Sworn on the holy Evangels of almighty God, Deposeth & Saith, that he was present at the signing of the will of Rogue Thomas deceased, that he saw Rogue Thomas sign the said will that he asked the Testator if he wished us (meaning Mr Walton Mr Burch and himself) to sign it as his last will and Testament - to which he answered that he did - that at that time, there was no persons in the room except the witnesses to the said will and the Testator unless perhaps Mr Gilmore - He expects the deceased saw him sign the will as a witness - He the deceased was in bed, and that all the witnesses signed the will in the presence of the Testator, he being in bed. That he the testator could have seen all the witnesses sign the will and he believes he did see them all sign it - He had never seen the deceased till the night he was called on to witness his will, and that he could not speak of his previous Capability to make a will, but from what he saw that night & from the conversation then had by Mr Walton and the deceased he appeared to be intelligable and of sound mind - Mr Walton made some remarks to the testator which drew from him the remark that he was where he wished to be and ought to have been long before (meaning at Mr Gilmores

- all the remarks that the deceased made were intelligable & rational - Witness is a Physician - says he saw nothing during the time he was in the room with the deceased to conduce the belief that he the decd was not of sound memory & understanding - He never saw the deceased til the night he was called on & went to witness the deceased will - says there was no undue influence used that he knows of to induce the deceased to make the will as and to which witness witnessed - The will was not read to the testator in the presence of the witness - He the witness went at the request of Mr Gilmore to Mr Gilmores where the deceased was to witness the deceased will - Mr Gilmore met witness at his entrance gate in company with Mr Burch & Mr Walton, when Mr Gilmore observed that he had been looking for a third witness to the will of Mr Thomas and would be glad if he the witness would go down and witness it - The most of the deceased time he believes was in bed, he appeared to be a very old man and much afflicted - Mr Burch had the will of the deceased at the time he went to the house of Mr Gilmore as a witness to the same - that the will was presented to Mr Thomas the deceased for execution by Mr Burch - that he asked the deceased no questions at the time he went to sign & did sign the deceased will except if he wished us (meaning Mr Walton Mr Burch & himself) to attest his will - that up to the last time he saw the deceased which was within a few days of his death and in every interview which he had with the deceased (and the witness had many) the deceased appeared to be of sound & perfect mind. He was of an excitable Temper - He thinks there was no reason to suppose the mind of the deceased more perfect or better at that time of making his will than it had been for 4. or 5: or 6 months previous thereto He does not know how old the deceased was - a mans mind that is weakened by old age, in a natural course becomes weaker as his age advances - the deceased died in august or September 1842. and further this deponent saith not

John H Burch of lawfull age a witness produced sworn on the part of the Defendant, Deposeth & Saith that he saw Roger Thomas the deceased sign the will now presented to him (the witness) and that the said will is in the handwriting of him the witness, and that he wrote it for the said deceased, being requested to do so by the deceased - That he witnessed the execution of the said will at the request and in the presence of Roger Thomas the testator and in the presence of all the other witnesses thereto - That Roger Thomas' position at the time was such as to have enabled him to see the witnesses sign the said will and he believes he did see the witnesses sign the same - The deceased directed this deponent before he wrote his will, how he wanted the same made; and that he wrote it in accordance with his said instructions - This deponent gave the will to the testator who looked at it & he supposes read it - and that he this deponent then read the will to the deceased, who remarked after the said reading "that will do." This deponent thinks the deceased was intelligent and rational - He not much conversation with the deceased - but the deceased

Convrsed generally with those who were in the room, & Sometimes introduced the Conversation himself & Conducted it so far as he was concerned in a rational manner. Mr Hay was in the room & one of those with whom the deceased Conversed - This deponent knows of no undue influence used to induce the deceased to make said will and that it appeared to be his own free act. That there were no persons in the room when the will was executed except the witnesses thereto - Mr Watson Dr Robertson and himself - & the Testator Mr Hay came into the room soon after the will was executed - Witness was Spoken to write the will of the deceased after dinner on the day on which it was executed - he was informed by Mr Gilmore that Mr Thomas wanted to see him - when he went to see Mr Thomas the deceased, he told witness that he wished him this deponent to write his will - That the deceased then directed witness how he wanted his property willed - and he prepared the will accordingly - that he this deponent read the will to the deceased before Mr Watson and Doct. Robertson came in and further this deponent saith not.

√ Doctor James D Sutton of lawful age, a witness, produced on the part of the plaintiffs Deposeth & Saith (after having Solemnly truly & Sincerely affirmed to the truth of his Statement or Testimony to be given in), That he knew the deceased Slightly in 1835 and never became well acquainted with him til the year of 1841. That he thought him a very infirm man. This Deponent was the Physician to Joseph Thomas' family in 1841, during which time he frequently Saw the deceased - that the deceased was a man of very unstable mind & when excited very violent in his language & would denounce in Strong terms. The deceased was living with his Son Capt Jo Thomas in the Year of 1841. That Mrs Gilmore he had understood was a daughter of a second wife of Mr Thomas, the deceased and not his the deceased daughter. That the deceased had no child except Captain Joseph Thomas that he the Deponent never heard of That the deceased relations with Joseph Thomas' family were generally amicable except when excited to anger. This deponent knew one occasion when Mrs Thomas the wife of Joseph Thomas sent to the deceased who was Seated under a locust Tree near the house in the shade, to invite him into tea - when the deceased became very excited, violent without any visible cause - This deponent thought the deceased was very much afflicted by disease - Witness hardly knew whether to say he considered the deceased capable of making a contract for property or not - That he this deponent believes from excessive torture of deceased action and age, his, impression was his the deceased Judgment had been rendered Somewhat defective - but to what extent he this deponent is not prepared to say - That he this deponent thought he detected on one or two occasions a want of memory in the deceased - and that the deceased had mistaken him this deponent, for Doctor Delany one or twice - and on another occasion after (the deponent) having been attending a Sick Boy for some weeks, on making a visit to said boy, the old man (the deceased) enquired who witness was and what his business was & to whom told, seemed to recollect him - which induced witness to suppose his memory was impaired. As this deponent thought, a mind of such as he considered the character of the deceased to be might be easily prejudiced for or against - This deponent looked upon such a man as being capable of being easily influenced - and he believed that the mild course would with him prove most successful - During the year of 1841 he did not recollect of ~~hearing~~ hearing him speak of the disposition of his property.

This deponent says that in January or February 1842 he called to see deceased at Mr Gilmores when he heard him complain bitterly of his son's treatment and the treatment of his son's family; the deceased charged his son with having defrauded him out of all he was worth & had left him to the mercy of the world - or some such expression. - Jo Thomas the son of the deceased, died in the first part of the ~~year~~ month of January of the year of 1842. ~~Deceased~~ That late in December 1841 he was at Joseph Thomas' the son of the deceased and where he saw Roger Thomas the deceased - The of the deceased during the year of 1841 this deponent thought was such as might be expected of a man of eccentricity. This deponent further saith, that he thought the mind of the deceased had participated in the general waste and decay of his Physical Strength - That some time in the year of 1841 during the worm months, this witness heard the deceased speak of the sale of a negro by him the deceased to Mr Gilmore in very harsh terms - attributing unfairness to Mr Gilmore - the deceased was at his sons Joseph Thomas' up to about Christmas of the year of 1841. This deponent further saith he does not know how old the deceased was, but he thought him an old man - witness saith he was not sufficiently intimate in the family of Joseph Thomas son of the deceased to know of any family quarrel. This deponent further saith that he does not think the mistake of the deceased of not knowing witness from Doctor Delany arose from want of sight - but the deceased, not knowing witness might have arisen from his the deceased position in not having a distinct view of him this deponent - or the deceased might have supposed him Doctor Delany from being more accustomed to seeing Doctor Delany, who was the deceased Physician - or it might have been from other causes that he the deceased did not recognise witness than a want of memory. - but that when the deceased was told who he witness was he the deceased recognized him. - That at that time Doctor Delany was not attending the family of Joseph Thomas the son of the deceased - That the deceased appeared during the Year of 1841. on the most amicable terms with his son & family so far as he this deponent knew.

This deponent ~~saith~~ further saith that he talked frequently with the deceased in the year of 1841 and when not excited he the deceased would seem to speak, ~~rationally~~ rationally, and generally used strong language and was very easily understood. - He this deponent knows nothing of the State of mind of the deceased at the time of his making his will - Witness saith he had but very little intercourse with the deceased in the year of 1835 - or about the time he was married - but he was more favourably impressed with his mind & feelings then than upon further acquaintance in the year of 1841.

"Question by Mr Cousin to the witness "In assigning various other possible Causes for the lapses of memory - you have spoken of - do you mean to throw any doubt upon your statement that from the circumstances you then detailed you inferred that these several lapses of memory arose from a derangement of that faculty." -

Answer of witness. "I do not, but that in citing those facts as circumstances of a defective memory in Mr Thomas it was done in view of his general condition of age & health as pertaining to Mr Thomas - as to asserting positively as a fact that the deceased mind was defective, he this deponent does not; but that he only infers a want of memory in the deceased from his general bad health, his age, and from the occasional instances he has detailed in his preceding testimony - these instances connected with his general ill health would have no impression of defective memory of the deceased on the mind of the witness

Question by Mr Cousin. Did or did not Mr Thomas suffer long and painfully from bodily disease -

Answer He did, was for witness first knew him.

Question by Mr Cousin was not the disease under which he labored calculated by its nature, its violence & its protracted duration to effect and impair his intellect -

answer I think so - and further this deponent saith

4 30 Henry G A Hay of lawfull age a witness produced on the part of the defendant, after being duly sworn on the holy Evangels of almighty God deposeth & saith that he frequently saw Roger Thomas the deceased from the time that he the deceased came to Leonard Town til about a week or two days before his death, that he this deponent conversed with him the said frequently on politics and sailing & almost every subject & that he the said generally talked rationally; the deceased appeared to have been a great sufferer and much afflicted. This deponent further saith that he does not know how old the deceased was, and that he never knew the Deceased til he came to Leonard Town, that the recollection of the deceased appeared to be strong and that he this deponent never saw any indication of alienation of mind in the deceased. This deponent further saith that he thought the deceased fully capable of making a valid Contract, and in evidence of his deponents belief he was at one time on the eve of making a contract with Mr Gilmore, and was willing to take from Mr Gilmore a pieces of paper made by Roger Thomas the deceased to Mr Gilmore - witness further saith that he considered the deceased mind so sound that he would have been willing to have made a Contract with him which he this deponent would have thought fair. This deponent further saith that he was at Mr Gilmore's and in the room with Mr Thomas the day when Mr Walter & Mr Burch were present, but that he does not know whether he this deponent had any Conversation with the deceased or not - but that he this deponent does not recollect ever to have been with Rogn Thomas the deceased without having some Conversation with him - and that on every occasion he appeared to be rational. This deponent further saith that Rogn Thomas the deceased talked frequently with this deponent about his dependent and afflicted State and said that Mr & Mrs Gilmore were very kind to him & were making him very Confortable, and that every thing which he the deceased had left, he wanted Becky Meaning Mrs Gilmore to have This deponent further saith that he never remarked in Mr Thomas the deceased any eccentricity of expression or conduct and never heard that the deceased about with him plank for his coffin. These Conversations with Rogn Thomas the deceased & this deponent took place before and after the 26th day of January in the year of 1842. and this deponent further saith that he can not Specify any day on which any of the Conversations Spoken of by him this deponent in his testimony took place but that his Conversation with the deceased, when witness was at home would nearly average once a week from about three days after Rogn Thomas did came to Mr Gilmores to live til within about ten days before his death, This deponent further saith that his first Conversation with the deceased was about his the deceased early life as a Sailor on the Wicomico River, and of an estate which witness has on the Sand River, and about grain which he the deceased had carried from that Estate; and This deponent further saith that about the same time the deceased Commenced talking about his the deceased own affairs, hinting perhaps that he the deceased wanted witness to write his the deceased will - when witness advised him the deceased to go to Mr Harris who he the deceased had already imployed as his lawyer - This deponent further States that he belives the earliest Conversation he had with the deceased about the disposition of his property was anterior to the Making of his the deceased will - because he the deceased Spoke to witness about making a will and the disposition of his property - leaving on witnesses mind the impression that then he the deceased had no will by him - This deponent further saith that the assignments of Choses in action in the hands of Mr Gilmore, Subsequent to his earliest Conversation with the deceased about making his the deceased will

and further this deponent saith not

Benjamin G Harris a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Defendant after being duly Sworn on the holy Evangels of almighty God, Deposeth & Saith that Soon after Mr Thomas the deceased came to Leonard Town which was early in January in the year of 1842 This deponent was called in to See him the deceased, witness went and was there with Mr Shy - This deponent and Mr Shy entered into Conversation with Mr Thomas the dec^d, and especially Mr Shy - who had Conversation with the deceased on various subjects - Mr Thomas the dec^d Conversed very rationally and unto the witness's idea' Seemed to indicate the possession of a Strong mind - the recollection of the deceased appeared to be distinct - This deponent further saith that on the same evening he thinks, Mr Thomas requested witness to advise him the deceased, as consel the best manner of securing to Mr Gilmour the property that he the deceased had - the deceased said that Mr Gilmour was willing to support him during his, the decd life and in consideration thereof he the deceased was willing that Mr Gilmour should have the balance of property (alluding to what had not been used and taken from him the decd by his son Joseph Thomas & family -) that he, the decd had very little left - he the deceased stated that he did not know how long he should live & it was well to secure to himself the decd a comfortable home - This deponent and the deceased consulted together & witness advised him the deceased to take Mr Gilmour's bond for a comfortable support during his life and to make that the consideration of a transfer of all his the deceased's property to Mr Gilmour, the deceased approved of the advice & requested this deponent to draw the bond and transfer of his the deceased's property which this deponent did. Mr Gilmour executed the bond on his part to the deceased and the deceased executed the bill of sale for all the property included and therein specified. The deceased gave in the property and appeared to have a very correct recollection of the property therein recited altho the property was not in his the deceased's view. The deceased spoke of some bonds or notes (but whether at this time or not this deponent does not recollect) which he the decd wished Mr Gilmour to have, when witness advised him to assign them to Mr Gilmour by writing his name on the back. The deceased said to this deponent after the bill of sale was executed, if he the deceased had omitted any property or if any thereafter should accrue to him the deceased he wished Mr Gilmour to have it in accordance with their understanding. This deponent further saith that he suggested to the deceased that any difficulty he the decd might have on that subject could be got over by making his the decd's will in favour of Mr Gilmour. The deceased approved of the plan. ~~And~~ and this deponent further saith that in the several conversations which witness had with the deceased, he appeared to be so far as mind was concerned fully capable of taking care of his interest. This deponent further saith that at the time of the above conversation & of making the contract and during this this deponent advising the deceased to make a will Mr & Mrs Gilmour were present and that Mrs Gilmour said that the old man (meaning the deceased) had been very badly treated by his son & family and that she had seen him the deceased in a room without a fire when a fire ought to have been there to make him comfortable. This deponent further saith that he never heard Mr or Mr Gilmour say that he the deceased ought not to leave his the decd property to Joseph Thomas' children or family - The deceased was excited when ever he spoke of Mrs Thomas the witness heard old Mr Thomas the deceased ~~say~~ — general conversation relative Mrs Thomas & heard him the decd say that Mrs Thomas did not give him proper fare when they were necessary

Question by Mr Blakistone - were you ever engaged in any conversation with the deceased to which Mr Gilmore was present that she did not respect to the unkind treatment of Capt Jos Thomas & family answer witness saith he has not a sufficient recollection of the several conversations to answer this question and further this deponent saith not

Priscilla Dukes dec'd

Caveat to unless the dec'd filed.

Whereas here to fore to wit: the 4th day of June May 1816 John Walton Executor of Priscilla Dukes late of Saint Marys County deceased filed in the Register of wills office a paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of the said Priscilla Dukes, which is in the following words & figures to wit:

In the Name of God Amen I Priscilla Dukes of Saint Marys County in the State of Maryland being sick and weak in body but of sound and disposing mind Memory and understanding considering the certainty of the death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me hence do therefore make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say

First and principally I commit my soul into the hands of almighty God and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executor herein after named and after my Debts and funeral charges are paid I devise and bequeath as follows — In as much as it hath pleased God to call my son John Dukes from this life before he Complied with the wishes of both his Father and myself to pay his Sister Mary Walton the money and other property intended by both his Father and myself to be paid to her by my said son John and his promise to me since the death of his Father — But a few weeks before he (my son John) died, in a conversation with him I asked him if he had paid his Sister Mary any thing yet, he said no but that he soon would and told me not to make myself uneasy about it, that he intended to do every thing for her Sister Mary that he had promised to his Father before his death: and as it hath pleased God to call my son John Dukes from this life before he had Complied with the promise made to his Father and myself I feel it my duty as a mother to do all I can for my said daughter Mary Walton, and from this day I give all I have and all that I may make during the remainder of my life to my daughter Mary Walton her heirs and assigns forever In the words following towit

I give devise and bequeath all my Estate both Real personal and mixed and of every nature kind and quality whatsoever and wheresoever found to my daughter Mary Walton her heirs and assigns forever

And lastly I do hereby Constitute and appoint my son in Law John Walton to be sole Executor of this my last will and Testament revoking and annulling all former wills by me heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this thirteenth day of May in the year of our Lord eighteen and on the 16th day of May in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and forty three the said John Walton caused the following Summons to be issued to the next of kin of the said Priscilla Dukes, that is to say

The State of Maryland to the Sheriff of Saint Marys County Greeting:
We Command you to Summon Mary Ann Dukes and Stephen Dukes Administrators of John Dukes who was next of Kin to Priscilla Dukes late of Saint Marys County deceased: That all excuses and delays put aside they be and appear before the orphans for Saint Marys County to be held at Leonard Towns on the Second Tuesday in June next if they think fit, as on that day John Walton the appointed Executor of Priscilla Dukes deceased will offer the last will of the said deceased for probate.
Herein fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ.
Witness Richard H Dukes Esqr Chief Judge of our said Court this 16th day of May 1843 G Combs Regr Of. S' Marys County

At which said mentioned Second Tuesday in June being the 13 day of the said month and the return day of the said Summons came into the Orphans Court, the said John Walton: and the Sheriff of Said Marys County makes return thereof to the said Court thus endorsed to wit "Summoned J B Gough Sheriff" and thereupon a certain John L Abell and Susan Maria his wife a next of kin of the said Priscilla Dukes deceased voluntarily appear in Court by James T Blakistone & John H S Causin their attorneys and file in Court here the following Caveat to the will of the said Priscilla Dukes deceased which is in the following words to wit:

To the Hon. The Judges of the orphans Court of Saint Marys County
The petition of John Lewis Abell and Susan Maria his wife Caveators of the will of Priscilla Dukes late of Saint Marys County deceased prays your honours to reject the supposed will now offered for probate purporting to be the last will and testament of said Priscilla Dukes and by way of Caveat to said supposed will file the following objections. 1st That at the time of signing said Will by Priscilla Dukes by reason of mental incapacity she was unable to make a testamentary any disposition of her property.

2d That the contents of the said Will never was made known to said Priscilla Dukes prior to her signing the same.

3d That undue influence was used to induce said Priscilla Dukes to make such disposition of her property

4 That at the time of signing said will by the witnesses said Priscilla Dukes did not see the witnesses of said will sign the same nor was she in a position to do them

5 That the said writing by way of last will and Testament is in other respects radically defective and invalid Cousin & Blakistone for Complt and thereupon the following interrogatories on the part of the Defendant were filed.

1st Did you see Mrs Priscilla Dukes sign the paper handed to you now, as her will, and did she sign it in your presence and in the presence of the other witness thereto:

2nd was she when she executed that paper of sound disposing mind memory & understanding and Capable in your Opinion of making a valid Contract

3 State all the Circumstances Connected with the execution of the will as far as you Can recollect

Joseph Spalding a witness produced by and on the behalf of John Wallon Executor as aforesaid, after being Sworn on the holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth & saith to the 1st Interrogatory, yes she did. To the 2nd Interrogatory - To the best of his apprehension she was - To the 3rd Interrogatory The will is in his handwriting - He was requested by Mr Wallon to go to his house to write the will of Mrs Dukes - He did so - after the will was written, it was read to Mrs Dukes, when she declared it to be her will - The other witnesses who signed the will were present at the signing thereof and signed the same in the presence of the testatrix and in the presence of him this deponent . There were no person present when he read the will to the testatrix but the testatrix and witness - Witness does not recollect that Mrs Dukes said any thing to him about writing her will - he went to write her will at the request of Mr Wallon - but he presumes Mrs Dukes directed him how she wanted her will made - for he would not have gone to Mr Wallon to ask how Mrs Dukes wanted her will made - He believes there was a memorandum furnished him by Mr Wallon from the words "in as much, down to the word "towit:" but as to the disposition of her property, he was directed he believes by Mrs Dukes - He believes he saw Mrs Dukes before he wrote her will & after Mr Wallon had spoken to him to write the same - He believes that Mrs Dukes directed him as to the disposition of her property - The whole will, was after it was written, read to the Testatrix and by her assented to Witness says he had seen the late Mrs Dukes once or twice before the making of her will, but was (not) well acquainted with her - She appeared to be of sound mind and seemed to understand what she was talking about - She talked sensably the day of writing and Executing her will - He wrote will in an adjoining room and only saw her occasionally during the time he was engaged in writing said will - He saw the deceased several times after he wrote her will, who always seemed to be rational — He knew of no undue influence being used to induce Mrs Dukes to make will She did and further this deponent Saith not

William H Drury a witness produced on the part of the Defendant after being duly sworn on the holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth and Saith as follows

To the 1st Interrogatory He answereth yes

To the 2d Interrogatory He Saith He thought She was. He heard her talk when he was at Mr Watsons (to witness said dwelling) She seems to talk rational and understand everything that was said to her, that is to questions She answers apparently Correct yes or no — but witness does not recollect any part of any Conversation in which Mrs Dukes participated — He was not previously acquainted with Mrs Dukes — She seemed to be very old and infirm — witness does not recollect whether Mrs Dukes asked him to sign her will as a witness — She talked very low — He can't say positively whether or no Mrs Dukes asked him to witness her will — nor who asked him — Mrs Dukes assented to the will by saying when asked if that was her will Yes.

Joseph Spalding being again interrogated by the Counsel for the Complainants Saith — He believes Mrs Dukes requested him to sign her will as a witness thereto

George I Spalding a witness produced and sworn on the part of the Defendants — on the holy Evangels of almighty God deposeth and Saith He thinks Mr Watson sent for him to his house — and when went, thinks Mr Watson told him he wanted him to witness Mrs Dukes will.

He went into the room to sign her will as a witness, when Mr Jo Spalding asked Mrs Dukes if that was her will — to which She assented, and Mr Jo Spalding then signed the will as a witness and he the witness signed it after Mr Spalding, without being asked by anyone to do so that he recollects of. Mrs Dukes never asked him to witness said will. Mr Jo Spalding asked her if she acknowledged it to be her will and She said She did. He does not recollect during the time he was in the room that Mrs Dukes Conversed or talked except to answer yes or no
