September 15, 1989 -- Letter from Richard R. Greenbaum, Ph.D. to The Honorable Judge Wise filed.

January 3, 1990 -- Court Trial - J. Owen Wise, Judge; Anne Bond, Reporter. Ms. Byrd heard. Mr. Layne will not pursue change of custody, or court enforcement of visitation (filed 9-23-88).

Mr. Burt heard and filed Motion In Limine and will proceed on increase of child support and payment of medical bills today.

Court does not feel this is before the Court today. Mr. Burt has only talked about it, pleadings not filed as to this.

Defendant withdraws motion for modification without prejudice to his right to do that on a different set of facts in the future and with prejudice to do that for whatever matters he could have brought up now. Mr. Burt objected to withdrawal.

Mr. Burt's request for attorney's fees for his client is denied.

Miss McKennan's services are no longer needed in this case unless future proceedings involve the children. She does not have total time spent in this case with her today.

Miss McKennan will file Petition for her counsel fees and a hearing may be set up, if needed to determine the division of paying same.

Custody and visitation remain the same as when the final judgment of divorce was signed incorporating provisions regarding the children and granting a modification of these provisions subsequently. No docket entries necessary when nothing is changed.

Motion In Limine can be filed, but is moot.

Assignment Clerk did not put on notice what hearing was for today - so no one knew, in the future, if assignment clerk doesn't know - find out before Court time is allotted and put on notice what hearing is for so all are prepared and know what is to be heard.

List of Exhibits filed.

January 5, 1990 -- Marian McKennan, court appointed attorney, Petition For Attorneys Fees filed.

January 18, 1990 -- Steven G. Layne, Defendant, by his attorney, Elana R. Byrd, Response To Petition For Attorney's Fees filed.
