Mr Burt heard.
Court agrees with Registrat of Wills interpretation of this and think it was based on Attorney Generals opinion. The real estate is converted to personalty on to the extent that it needs to be used to satisfy the debts. Any balance after satisfaction of the debts should be inpressed in an account for the benefit of Mrs Crockett for the term of her natural life and at her death should go to the residual legatees. All the net proceeds should go into a fund impressed interest income to go to her.
